

IN A BLAZE OF FIERY GLORY

Fitling and Magnificent End of the Day's Celebration.

PHYROTECHNICS TELL YOU COULDN'T REST

Thousands View the Display of Fireworks at the High School Grounds--Beautiful Effects and Gorgeous Set Pieces--A Splendid Success.

The grandest Fourth of July celebration ever seen in Nebraska ended in a galaxy of pyrotechnic marvels at the High School grounds last evening. The imposing parade of the morning was equaled by the spectacular effects that delighted thousands of people in the evening.

The fireworks were just like those of previous years. There were rockets in profusion and mines which flew the air with colored fire. Some expanded into a mass of stars of red and white and blue, whose evanescent scintillations made the electric lights of the city seem dim in comparison, and others burst into showers of golden rain which made the wondering small boy gaze in open amazement.

BYRON TALKS TO TAMMANY

The Fourth of July Celebration in the New York City.

New York, July 4.—The anniversary of American independence was elaborately celebrated by the Tammany society in the Tammany wigwam this morning. The great hall was crowded with people and the private boxes were occupied with ladies.

The secretary then read letters of regret from prominent democrats. Grover Cleveland wrote: "No man, nor woman, nor child should forget or outgrow the sentiments relating to the observance of the fourth day of July. Because there are influences and tendencies abroad which tend to neglect this anniversary, the valuable and patriotic effort of Tammany to rescue it from indifference ought to be warmly applauded."

There was a time when better paper and machinery was used, and when the printing was an improvement upon the present stamps, but since we have learned that a damp sponge is fully as good as the tongue in preparing the stamps, the quality of the materials used becomes of less importance.

SEIZURE OF THE COQUIGUAN.

The Vessel Nicely Trapped by the Officers of the Corwin.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 4.—There is much excitement among owners of sailing vessels over the seizure of the Coquiguan. The vessel accounts the Coquiguan has no case against the United States. She did not enter Port Etches harbor until after sending some one to reconnoiter, and when she found an United States warship there she steamed in.

United States Consul Myers of Victoria says: "The case is similar to that of the Luz Mogor four years ago. The seizure of the Coquiguan is simply the result of an infraction of revenue rules, and has no international significance. The law requires that vessels must report at the first port of entry, and hence the Coquiguan should have put in at Sitka and had her papers regularized."

SILVERMEN MAKE A BLUNDER

The Free Coinage Bill Which Passed the Senate a Peculiar Measure.

ITS PROVISIONS HARD ON BULLIONAIRES

Coinage of all White Metal in the Treasury Provided For, Which Would Prohibit the Handling of New Bullion for Two Years.

New York, July 4.—The Times' Washington special says: Some of the free silver men are beginning to wonder whether the free coinage measure which the senate passed Friday would really accomplish what it was being amply to bring about if it should become law.

Representative Harter (dem.) of Ohio says the measure is the most unwise measure which has passed a legislative body. He said it would be a law, "the most absurd free silver measure which has ever been proposed in the history of the world."

The will of Sidney Dillon was offered for probate in New York a few days ago. It provides that all his estate shall be divided into two parts, the first to consist of two-thirds of the value of the estate, and the second one-third the value. The first part is to be divided equally among Mrs. Dillon, Mrs. J. D. Ripley and Mrs. Cora D. Wyckoff, the two daughters, and Sidney Dillon Ripley and Harry Dillon Ripley, the two oldest grandsons of the testator.

The Ladies. The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy.

It is barely fifty years since this coinage was introduced into the United States, says Kate Field's Washington. The stamp is a little older in England.

When first introduced postage stamps were sold in solid sheets. Of course a great many were wasted in the effort to tear them apart when there were no perforations. Indeed, the loss and inconvenience was so great that the government had to issue a patent for a machine which would overcome the difficulty.

There was a time when better paper and machinery was used, and when the printing was an improvement upon the present stamps, but since we have learned that a damp sponge is fully as good as the tongue in preparing the stamps, the quality of the materials used becomes of less importance.

WHEN WE REACH A SILVER BASIS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 4.—If anything more than a common-sense reasoning had been necessary to damn the theory of free silver coinage an incident which occurred a day or two ago in the treasury department would have been sufficient.

"What would be the effect?" I asked. "You astonish me," was the reply. "Gold would go to a premium in an instant; our securities would drop as quick as lead; foreign exchange would have to be paid in gold, and would advance with the listing of that metal on our boards of trade."

There is a little delay in the starting of a letter when it is deposited in a letter box instead of a postoffice, but everything must make way for special delivery letters after they once get into the vicinity of a mail bag.

Can always be depended upon, it is pleasant to take and will cure cramp, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhea in their worst forms. Every family should be provided with it. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

IT CURED THE BOY.

My little boy was very bad off for two months with cholera. We used various medicines, and a doctor called, but nothing did him any good until we used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave prompt relief and cured him permanently. I consider it the best medicine made and can conscientiously recommend it to all who need a reliable remedy for cholera, colic or cholera morbus. J. E. Haro, Trenton, Tex.

SIAM'S LUXURIOUS KING.

Living in a Glass Pavilion at the Bottom of the Bay.

Among the travelers who arrived from the Orient by a recent steamer, says the San Francisco Examiner, was one Clark Russell, a namesake but no relative of the famous novelist of the sea. Mr. Russell, made rich by the prudent care and acquisitiveness of his father, a manufacturer of cutlery at Sheffield, has spent the last four years in wandering about the continent of Asia picking up odds and ends, scientific curios, which he is now endeavoring to embody in a book. He has been through Tibet, the dominions of the great Lama, traversed Manchuria and Mongolia, the extra-mural possessions of China, made excursions into the unexplored wilds of Siberia, and latterly has been touring the southern regions of the continent, Cochinchina, Tonkin and Siam. He paused for a time at Bangkok, the capital of the kingdom of Siam, and picked up much interesting information there. He tells that he has seen the hills that will especially commend itself to the rockers after the strange and the novel.

"I was surprised," he said at the Palace the other day, "at the size and appearance of Bangkok. It is the Venice of the east. The city lies on both sides of the river Menam. About twenty miles from the east and on each side, branching out from the stream, are a great number of canals, upon which the dwellers of the city live. The houses, constructed of wood as in most eastern cities, stand upon piles, and the wash of the waters around these supports at night makes a most unique and pleasurable sensation. It is as though we were born along on a gently moving river, for the city is as silent as a necropolis and there are no sounds, no clanging of street car bells, no hideous shouting of Salvation hymns to break the spell. Further down the river you see the tier of royal houses moored to the bank, in which a large part of the population of 300,000 dwell."

"But that part of Bangkok which interests the tourists most is the section known as the 'Luxurious Palace.' The palace is enclosed in high white walls, which are a mile in circumference. Within them are contained temples, public offices, seraglios, stables for the sacred elephants, accommodations for 1,000 troops, cavalry, artillery, elephants, an arsenal and a theater. The palace of the king is equipped in true oriental magnificence. Hangings of the costliest tapestry and mats made of woven silver catch the eye at every turn. His present majesty, a luxurious fellow--had lately erected a structure, of which the like does not exist in the world. In summer Bangkok is a steaming sweat room, and any contrivance to escape from the heat is eagerly entertained."

A NEW KIND OF INSURANCE.

For 25 cents you can insure yourself and family against any bad results from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer. One or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will cure any ordinary case. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take. No family can afford to be without it. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by druggists.

JEFFERSON DECLINES AN ENGAGEMENT.

Even the best actors are stumped sometimes, says the Utica Observer. Joe Jefferson confesses to being in this plight the other day, when a native was guiding him and Grover Cleveland to a fishing ground. The native had eyed him for some time, and finally said: "Do you act, Mr. Jefferson?" "Yes, a little."

THE FOURTH OF JULY

And Christmas, up to ten or a dozen years ago, were recognized among business men, as sort of dividing lines between the dull and busy seasons. "After the Fourth" seemed to be the time for the merchant of that period to get "two kinds of bait" and go "fishin'." Times have changed. Progressive merchants (that's us) have discovered the fact that men will buy goods in July as well as in any other month, if the inducements held out are strong enough. Our recent great special sales--sales that have crowded our store from basement to roof--sales that have not only been "town talk" in every corner of our city--but which have been heard of in every city and town and hamlet in the whole west--have left our stock of suits in a somewhat demoralized condition. Here we have left half a dozen suits at eighteen dollars--forty at fourteen dollars--twenty at twelve-fifty--may be a dozen lots of from ten to twenty-five each at fifteen dollars--several lots at thirteen-fifty--a few lots at seventeen dollars and so on--making in all an aggregate of several hundred

FINE SUITS.

These suits are in sacks and frocks, they are in all wool--and silk and wool--cassimeres--and worsteds; they are bound--some are not bound; some are dark--some are medium--some are light; there are plain colors, plaids, stripes--checks; in fact, there is a better line of suits to select from than most houses can show you at from twelve-fifty to twenty dollars. We have sorted all these odd suits into a grand and distinct lots, placed them on separate tables and from now until Saturday night, you can choose as you like from the two lots at $9.00 and $12.00.

The inducements are strong--nicht?
