SOUTH OMAHA'S ASPHALT.

That Injunction Squabble Argued in Judge

Dundy's Court. The motion to dissolve the injunction in the case of the city of South Omaha against the California Petroleum and Asphalt company was argued vesterday in the United States district court.

Attorneys Cowan and Mcliugh appeared for the city of South Omaha and Charles

Offut for the sphalt company. Mr. McHugh in opening the argu-ment held that the pavement on Twenth-fourth street in South Omaha laid by the California Petroleum and Asthe intended withdrawal of the British forces in Uganda. On receipt of this news, Captain Lugard declares, continual aggression by the Catholic faction ensued. When phalt company was worthless and not accord Captain Lugard asked King Mwanga, the ing to contract. The city of South Omaha he said had paid $43,000 on this worthless pavenative ruler and the leader of the Catholic party, to punish the murderer of a Protestant ment and had brought a suit at law, which chief, he was told that if he inter-fered in the matter every one of his soldiers would be killed. On the following day overwhelming French was pending, to recover the money already paid upon the ground that the pavement was worthless. The asphalt company, he said, had sued for the balance of about $05,000, which would have been due then providing the pavement had been according to the contract. That suit forces attacked Captain Lugard's command who, armed with Maxim rifles, made a brave platted with beautiful drives, athletic park, tennis courts, etc. The lots averstand and succeeded in repulsing them. They then fied to the islands after seizing King Mwanga, which action was of immense image in size 60 feet frontage by 200 to 300 feet in depth, The company has dewas also pending. Now the asphalt com-pany, seeing that the pavement was utterly cided to make a sweeping auction sale by wanga, which action was of immense im-portance to Uganda, where the people were devoted to the sing. Captain Lugard offered to reinstate King Mwanga and the French party acquiesce d, but owing to the intrigues of the French bishop the captain's overtures of lots on Monday, August 1, 1892, to worthless, had undertaken to tear the worth less pavement up and replace it with some-thing else. If this were permitted the asphalt the highest bidders. From a purely company might continue to experiment on certain to be a remunerative investment that important thoroughfare for ten years to the detriment of the city and the public. He held that the asphalt were rejected. "Finally," Captain Lugard, without any as it must double in value within the next two years. No such opportunity further explanation, continues, "We were forced to the islands where the French forces had intrenched themselves, and after is likely ever to be offered on this company had no right to take possession of a beautiful lake again. The great Iowa public street and experiment upon it indefinitely. The company had not complied with the contract originally entered into a heavy fight drove out the enemy with great loss. They are now centering at Bu auction sale. All steamers will run with the city and had forfeited all right to free and the day will be such a gala day The protestants are in a critical situation. work upon the street in question. The attorney for the asphalt company held the Mohammedans and neathens all being ar rayed against them." to be present at that time. For further that the asphalt company had lived up to the contract. It was admitted that the pavement in places was defective because in was too soft, but the company had set men at work to remedy the defect by taking up the soft pavement and replacing i with a better material. The company had not obstructed traffic, he said, in the least, and the city had taken an unfair advantage of his clients in attempting to prevent the repairing of the pavement which the company was willing and anxious to have done at once so that the pavement would be as good as the contract called for and thereby remove all liability of having the pavement fall into disrepute. Judgo Dundy took the matter under ad-visement and will probably decide at an early date as to whether or not the injunction shall be dissolved or made permanent. Where to Worship.

INJURED BY A HACK DRIVER.

Mrs. Clara Bailey's Story Was Not an In sane Woman's Ravings.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 16,-[Special to Tau BEE.]-It transpires that the statement made by the supposed crazy woman, Mrs. Clara Bailey, who was picked up in Wyuka cometery the other day, contained something . more than an insane woman's ravings. She asserted that H. H. Grimes had been assaulted, and explained the blood stains on her dress by saying that she had held Grimes' head on her lap after he had been injured. At first the police laughed at her story, but finally concluded to investigate the matter.

Calling at his home at 1747 R street, they found Mr. Grimes confined to his room by severe injuries, his head being swathed in bandages. He stated to the police that he had been attacked by some unknown parties and robbed of $3. He seemed extremely anxious to suppress all knowledge of the facts

This afternoon it develops that the man's injuries were inflicted by a backman. Grimes became involved in a quarrel with the festive jehu and in the argument of blows which followed the hackman evidently didn't get the worst of it.

From the Police Court,

Aifred Boot was fined $6.80 this morning for beating a girl of the town named May Marshall. He gave the girl a ring some time ago, and because she refused to return it on domand assaulted her. The case against C. M. English, charged

Omaha Cases in Court.

A bulky case was filed with the clerk of the suprome court. It is something of a composite case, there being three separate and distinct cases merged into one, as follows: Bohn Sesh and Door company agained Houry O. Case et al, M. A. Distroy against Henry O. Case et al. George A. Hoagland against William J. Paul et al. Twenty-six legal firms, including nearly forty attorneys, are represented on the case. The first thing that the Board of County and Commissioners did yesterday afternoor was to take up the grading of South Thirteenth street from Missouri avenue in South Omaha to the Sarpy county line. The members listened to a couple of protests and then opened the bids, which ware as follows: George Canheld, 13 3-10; Knight Bros. & Barnes, 13 9-10; Kaiz & Callahan, 124; C. A. Jen-sen, 13 4-10; John Condon 16, and Lamreaux Bros. 14 8-10 cents per cubic yard. All of the bids went to the committee on roads. Mr. Van Camp offered a resolution that the grading should not cost to exceed $19, 000, two-thirds of which should be paid out

The buls of the assessors were allowed but the knife was put into each bill. Mr Stenberg, chairman of the committee to which the bills had been referred, stated that in his opinion the assessors had charged for every hour of the sixty days allowed by iaw in which to make the assessment. Not only this, but some of the men had charged office rent. They had likewise charged for Sundays. He did not like to encourage Sun-day labor, and recommended that the rent and Sundays be cut out of the pills. This motion prevailed and the assessors were al-lowed for the time which they actually put in while listing property in their respective wards and precincts. A large number of taxpayers petitioned the board to expand a portion of the proceeds of the $150,000 of improvement bonds in macademizing Thirtieth streat from the Elkiorn tracks north.

The first appropriation sheet on the new evy, amounting to $53,000, was presented and referred.

TYPHUS FEFER ON A STEAMER.

Immigrants Suffering with the Disease Dicovered by New York's Health Officer. New Yonk, July 16 .- On the arrival at juarantine of the steamer Nevada fron. Liverpool Health Officer Jenkins found in the steamer's hospital a steerage passenger named Mary Ribbinovitch, aged 20 years suffering from typhus fever. She had been isolated from the other passengers during the six days of her illness, and she and her traveling companien, Sarah Miller, were transferred by the health officer to the reception hospital on the quarantine boat George S. Preston. The steamer was then allowed to proceed to her dock under observation of a quarantine officer, and all the passengers rom Russia were detained on board. Their baggage was opened, hung up in the storage and treated to a therough disinfection of sulphuric acid gas. Yesterday the health officer made a second inspection of the passengers and the steerage. All the Russian passengers, ninety-one in number, and their bag-gage were transferred to Hoffman island for observation and disinfection. Two other cases were found on a subsequent inspection which were immediately transforred to the reception hospital.
