OMAHA, WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 20, 1892.

AGREED TO SUNDAY CLOSING

That Senate Amendment Concurred in by the House.

ALL BUT ONE OTHER KNOCKED OUT

After a Tangle is Straightened Out the Appropriations as Arranged by the Senate Are Sat Down on by a Big Majority.

Wasmington, D. C., July 19 .- The interest in the house today had its storm center in the World's fair amendments to the sundry civil appropriation bill. The amendment appropriating $5,000,000 in aid of the exposition was nonconcurred in, the enemies of the proposition having a majority of 12. There was a great deal of interest, but not much excitement manifested in the vote, which was closer than the conservative friends of the appropriation looked for, and which surprised its antagonists by not being as large as they had expected. The Sunday closing amendment was concurred in by a decisive majority and the bill was sent to conference. The fortification conference report was agreed to end some routine business was transacted. The senate amendment increasing from $316,000 to $500,000 the appropriation for the government exhibit at the World's fair has been non-concurred in by the house-yeas, 129; nays, 65.

Got Into A Tangle.

All the amendments increasing appropriations for the World's Columbian exposition were then non-concurred in in bulk. The committee of the whole got into a parliamen tary tangle as to wnother it was in order to amend the senate amendment unless the motion to amend was coupled with a motion to concur. The point arose on an effort to secure a separate vote on the amendment of Mr. Atkinson of Pennsylvania prohibiting the sale of liquor on the fair grounds. The point was made that the amendment must be offered in connection with a motion to concur in the senate amend-ment for the issue of 5,000,000 half-dollar souvenir pieces. The chair decided against Mr. Atkinson and the decision was sustained by a viva voce vote.

Mr. Atkinson then moved to concur in the $5.000.000 paragraph with the amendment prohibiting the sale of liquor. The motion was defeated—41 to 189.

Mr. O'Neli's amendment making a loan and not an appropriation of $5,000,000 was next defeated.

The chair then put the question as con-curring in the senate amendment embodying the $5,000,000 appropriation and the house refused to concur-yeas, 78; nays, 132.

The vote by tellers was demanded, resulting, for concurrence, 91; against, 116. The republicans generally voted to concur, so the amendment will go into conference.

the amendment will go into conference.

The senate amendment for the repayment to the United States of a proportionate share of the net receipts was likewise non-concurred in. The amendment binding the World Columbian commission to the payment of all the expenses of the department and to the restriction of the gross expenditures for clerks, bureaus, awards, etc., the same not to exceed $500,000, was sought to be amended exceed $500,000, was sought to be amended by the appropriation of $100,000 for an exhibit of the condition of the American Incians was lost, and the original amendment went to conference.

The senate amenament for medals and

Sunday Closing Agreed To

Then came the Sunday closing amendment Mr. Taylor offeren an amendment to this providing that no machinery shall be run, or unnecessary labor performed on Sunday. This was rejected and the Sunday closing amendment was then concurred in—yeas, 18; mays, 74. The greater number of votes t point of no quorum, the vote was taken by cliers which resulted—yeas, 102; nays, 72. That disposed of the World's fair amend ments. The house had concurred in the sen ate Sunday closing amendment and in paragraph making appropriations for medals and diplomas, and had refused to concur in the $5,000,000 appropriation and every other substantial amendment.

The committee of the whole adopted an amendment to the sundry civil bill making it unlawful for any government official to con-tract with a person or firm which employs Pinkerton detectives or any other association of men as armed guards by a vote of 146 to

The committee rose and reported the bil to the house. The recommendation of the committee in regard to the senate amendments was agreed to with the exception of those amendments pertaining to light house to the geological survey and to the World's fair.
Mr. Oates demanded a separate vote or the amendment relating to the Pinkertons All the house amendments were noncon concurred in. The question recurred on Mr O'Neill's Pinkerton amendment, and on this the yeas and mays were ordered.

" fyrannical but Right."

The noise in the hall was so great and th inattention to business was so general that the amendment had to be read four times and the speaker to answer half a dozen parliamentary inquiries before the clerk could begin with the call of the roll. The lack of attention stritated the chair and when, after the clerk had called the first name, Mr. Johnson of Indiana and Mr. Breckbridge of Arkansas rose to parliamentary inquiries, he peremptorily refused to recognize them and ordered the clerk to proceed—an action which called for the sotto voce endorsement of Mr. Reed: "Tyrannical, maybe, but

Mr. O'Neill's amendment was agreed to

The senate amendment was concurred in which decreases (from the amounts appropriated by the house) the amounts appropriated for the geological survey.

The vote them came up on the proposition to nonconcur in the senate amountment appropriating $5,000,000 for the aid of the World's Columbian exposition, and it was agreed to; yeas, 122; nsys, 110.

Anti-Option Bill Considered-A Veto by the President.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19.-The resolution offered by Mr. Morgan last week, instructing the committee on finance to report a bill with all convenient dispatch giving to all paper money issued by the government and to standard silver dollars the full legal tender effect that is given by law to gold coins, was taken up in the senate today and discussed for an hour and a half, the debaters being Messrs, Morgan, Sherman and Allison. When the hour, 2 o clock, arrived there had been no action on the resolution, and it was relegated to the calendar. Then the anti-option bill was taken up and ts consideration proceeded with, only one dilatory motion having been interposed, and Mr. Vest stating that no obstructive course would be resorted to.

Mr. Stewart made a long speech, principally on the subject of bimetallism, and of the depreciation of farm lands and the general product of the country, which resulted, he said, from the sprinkage in the volume of urrency. He said, however, that he would robably vote for the anti-option bill just to

A large number of amendments that had seen offered by Mr. Washburn were agreed. to without question, and a substitute was offered for the whole bill by Mr. George on benalf of himself and Messrs. Coke and Pugb. A reprint of the bill was ordered and went over until tomorrow.

Conference Ordered.

A message announcing the action of the house on the sundry civil appropriation bill was laid before the senate, including the house provision in relation to the Pinkerton

Mr. Allison said, in regard to the latter, that he had no doubt of its meeting the ap-proval of the senate, but that it should be in its appropriate place. On his motion, therefore, that amendment was disagreed to and a conference agreed to on the whole bill. Messrs. Allison, Hale and Gorman were appointed conferees on the part of the senate.

A message was received from the presideat returning, without approval, a bill to amend the act as to the circuit court of ap-peals in the cases of Indian depreda-tion. The first provision of the bill, the president thinks, would defeat the ourpose of congress in constituting inter mediate courts. The chief objection is to the third section, which provides that no apbeal will be allowed in such cases. As ther are 30,000 such claims, aggregating $30,000, 000, the president said be could not approve of a bill which denied the government an op-portunity to appeal, such cases. The message was referred to the judiciary com-

satisfactory Settlement Made of the Af fairs-Washington Notes. Washington, D. C., July 19 .- Secretary of State Foster announced today that an enirely cordial and mutually satisfactory setlement had been reached between the gov ernment of the United States and Chili respecting the indemnity to be paid by the atter on account of the assault upon the crow of the Baltimore at Valparaiso on the 6th of October last year. The last pubished dispatch upon the subject was sent by Mr. Blaice on January 30 last, in which it was stated that the president believed that the subject of reparation of the Baltimore affair was capable of adjustment by the usual diplomatic methods, and that the sense of justice of Chill would doubtless enable the two governments to honoraply make a full end of the whole matter. The ubject rested in this condition until the entrance into the Chilian cabinet of Premier of Foreign Affairs Senor Errazuriz last month, when he communicated to Mr. Egan the disposition of the Chilian government to come to an adjustment of the Baltimore indemnity.

On July 1 Mr. Egan was informed by Sec retary Foster that the president was much gratified at the indication received of the disposition of the Chillan government and that he did not doubt that it would be ready to make a liberal indemnity to the families of the deceased and to the wounded survivors, and Mr. Egan was instructed to as-certain the views of the minister of foreign affairs on the subject.

Under date of the 13th inst. Senor Erraz-uriz addressed Mr. Egan a note, placing at the disposal of the latter the sum of $75,000 in gold, asking him to cause it to be distrib-uted among the families of the two seamen who lost their lives and to the surviving members of the crew wounded in the affair

On the 17th inst. Mr. Egan replied, cor-dially accepting the offer of the Chilian gov-ernment as a frank, friendly and entirely satisfactory settlement of the deplorable occurrence at Valparaiso.

Commissioner Carter Resigns. Chairman Carter of the republican national committee arrived here this morning and has spent the day in consultation with the president, Secretary Noble and prominent repub-licans in and out of congress, Mr. Carter has handed to the president his resignation as commissioner of the general land office, and tomorrow evening he will return to New York to assume active control of the cam paign. While Chairman Carter was non-communicative upon the subject, it is stated por good authority that ex-Representative McComas of Maryland will be selected as secretary of the national committee.

Cordage Trust Inquiry. The house judiciary committee today ordered a favorable report on the resolution in-troduced by Mr. Scott of lilinots, requesting the attorney general to inform the house whether any information has been furnished to his office regarding the Cordage trust and whether any prosecutions have been a menced against the trust; also whether formation of such a character as will author on bination has been received. A preamble the resolution recites, it is alleged, that the National Cordage company is a corpora-tion operated as a trust to destroy competi-tion and monopolize trade in binding twine.

HASTINGS' CAMPAIGN RALLY

Hon. R. G. Horr Entertains Hundreds of Nebraska Republicans.

RECEIVED WITH GREAT ENTHUSIASM

Special Trains from Various Portions of the State Required to Accommodate the Increased Traffic - State Political News Notes.

HASTINGS, Neb., July 19 .- | Special Telegam to Tan Ban. |- The republican rally seld here tonight was more of a success than even its projectors looked for. Hon. R. G. Horr proved a very successful card.

A special train with 200 people and a band came in from Aurora, a delegation of sixty in a special car from Harvard, fifty from Red Cloud and Bine Hill and a large number from Fairfield, Sutton, Minden, Holdrege, Juniata and smaller towns. A Juniata band paraded the streets at the head of the procession, Mr. Horr meanwhile being driven around the city with James D. Ciark, president of the Hastings Republican club; James L. McPae ty of Minden. chairman of the congressional central committee, and C.

the congressional central committee, and C. H. Dietrich of this city,
At 8 o'clock the crowd began to assemble in the Kerr opera house. On the stage were seated thirty or more of the leading republicans of the Fifth district. The "Red, White and Blue" was rendered by a glee club; the sudlence joined in the chorus. The Aurora delegation marched into the hall amidst great cheering. James N. Ciark introduced the speaker, who was greeted with applause. Mr. Horr, after stating the attitude of the two puries on the tariff question, detailed two purities on the tariff question, detailed the benefits of the republican policy of protection in fostering new industries, in keeping money in the country, in giving larger wages and making the cost of all articles chaper in relation to the amount of labor necessary to production. These four points he illustrated at length, mentioning sait. hardware, farm implements, dry good, etc. In showing the position of the party in plac-ing a duty on competing products, tin plate, has and linen were cited as illustrations. His mention of the nomination of the next president at the Minneapolis convention set ne audience wild. Reference to reciprocity was another cause for enthusiasm, as was his arraignment of Olevelanu's policy. Regarding the republican party, it had always been in favor of honest money. It was his opinion that there was no foundation for any calamity howling. In conclusion be urged that the republican ticket receive the support of all the audience. After the address an inf smal reception at the Union Club rooms was had,

Plattsmouth People Pleased.

PLATISMOUTH, Neb., July 19 .- [Special to THE BEE. -Despite the terribly hot weather of last night a large and enthusiastic audience assembled at Waterman's opera house to hear Hon. Roswell G. Horr of Michigan en the campaign for the republicans. The rally was a fine success, especially when the act is considered that the local republicans did not know that their distinguished guest was to be here until Monday morning. In the face of this drawback the crowd that greeted Mr. Horr was a remarkably large Mr. Horr's address was one of the most masterly arguments for protection and the republican principles ever hears here. It also sparkled with wit and numer and even the deinocrats admitted that they thoroughly enjoyed the speech. He showed up the sophistries of free trade in an able manner and made an especially strong denouncement of the democrats for attempting to turn the Homestead affair into a campaign card. He touched on all the questions incident to the campaign and dissected the democratic stand on every one of them with keen and incisive vigor. With the progress of his speech the enthusiasm of the audience increased, and when he closed it was aimid a whirlwind of ipplause. Hon Samuel M. Chapman presided over the meeting and came in for a goodly share of the applause.

There were no musual incidents during the trip from Binzard's Bay to this city, where the party boarded the steamer Pilgrim, where the employes of the boat welcomed Mr. Cleveland as though he was an old friend. Rooms 57, 126, 155 and 128 were assigned the party. The only prominent persons of this city who were present to greet the travelers were Mayor Coughlin and John Cuttle, chairman of the district convention. OPPOSITION TO HARRITY,

His Choice as Leader Not Acceptable to New York Democrats. New York, July 19.-The national democratic committee will meet in this city tomorrow evening for the purpose of organizing and laying out the preliminary work of the campaign. Nearly all of the members are already in the city and the greatest interest is being manifested by prominent democrats from all over the country in the meeting of the committee. Although the first meeting of the committee is called for tomorrow evening, it is expected that owing to the work of the notifications committee, it will not effect a temporary organization and will adjourn until the following day. On Wednesday the committee will effect its permanent organization, and immediately following this will come a conference between the committee and Messrs. Cleveland and Stevenson.

Opposition Developing. The indications are still favorable to the selection of Hon. William F. Harrity of Pennsylvania as chairman of the national committee, but there has suidenly devel-oped slight opposition to the selection of a man from the Keystone state as the leader of the campaign. This opposition, so far as it has become manifest, is confined to southern states, where Mr. Cleveland is strongest, but where the respect for Tammany is most potent. The committeemen who express doubts as to the wisdom of selecting Mr. Harrity are perfectly frank in stating that they fear that Mr. Harrity's selection would be displeasing to the regular New York democracy, and that every attempt should be made to conciliate the militant democracy in the great pivotal state of New York. It is recalled in this connection that Hon. Boarke Cockran, the spokesman of Tammany, took occasion especially to rebuke the Pennsylvania delegation in his famous convention speech, and to allude sareastically to the spectacle presented by Pennsylvania in forcing the nomination of ex-President Cleveland when its electoral vote was practically assured in advance for Benjamin Harrison. The influence of Mr. Harrity was potent in throwing the solid vote of Pennsylvania to Mr. Cleveland, and there are many who think the se-lection of the Pennsylvanian to lead the campaign might be construed into an affront to the New York friends of Senator Hill. Tammany Leaders Silent.

All efforts to secure an expression from the Tammany leaders on this point are said to have been unavaning, and if there is any position to Mr. Harrity in that quarter it has not been made manifest.
Secretary S. H. Special of the national committee arrived in the city today and opened temporary headquarters at the Fifth Avenue hotel.

A careful canvass of the national committeemen in this city tonight shows that whatever doubts may be in some quarters as to the wisdom of Mr. Harrity's selection, there is an unanimous desire to select as chairman the man who will be the most a "Cable to Messrs Cleue. and and Stevenson. Thus the chairmanship may be said to be depending entirely upon the choice of the party candidates and there s a general impression that Mr. Harrity is the choice of these gentlemen, since Mr. Whitney has positively declined to be conidered in this connection.

The re-election of Hon. S. H. Sheerin of Indiana as secretary of the committee is a foregone conclusion, as Mr. Sheerin has no opposition and is the unanimous choice of he committee

ALL DEPENDS ON CRESPO AND PAUL

Return of the Latter from Voluntary Exile

-Greeted with Enthusiastic Demonstrations-Congress Will Be Convened and a President Elected.

[Copyrighted 1837 by James Gorden Recently] Caracas, Venezuela (via Galveston, Tex.), July 19.-(By Mexican Caple to the New York Herald Special to THE Bug, |-Dr. Rojas Paul has arrived in this city, and hostilities between the government and revolutionary armies have been suspended during negotiations for peace. It is hoped by all good citizens and believed by many that the war is over, and that peace will soon be per-manently restored. Dr. Paul, who is expected to bring order to the distracted country, was welcomed warmly on his arrival at La Guayra but when he reached Caracas he received an ovation in which the working people, the leaders in the commer-He was hailed everywhere as the messenger

peace. Many leaders of the revolutionary forces came to the city on passports to pay their personal respects to the president, who had returned from his voluntary exite in Curacoa in the hope that he might aid in settling the bloody war that has brought his country to her present distracted condition.

Congress Will Now Convene.

General Crospo, the leader of the revolution, has sent the "legalist" congressmen, who have been fighting under his banner, to the capital to resume their seats in the sen-ate and house, as it is expected that congress will now resume its functions and proceed to elect a president as required by law. As a preliminary step towards the settlement of the difficulties, General Sarria, to whom Crespo had objected, resigned as minister of war and his place was taken by General Ybarra. General Sarria's retirement from the ministry and his withdrawal from the liberal party was the signal for a union f the old Guzmancista which, brough a deal with the Monagas faction of he liberals, is forming a combination in of he liberals, is forming a combination in congress to prevent the election of Dr. Rojas Paul to the presidency. When congress meets to elect a president Dr. Rojas Paul, Sebastian Cansanas, Garcia Gomez, Doming Monagas, Julio Barria, Raimunda Fonseca and Laurena Valleneuva will all be placed in nomination. The two last named signed the original protest against Palacio's continuance in office and can each draw some votes from the Paul and Crespo party.

May Result in a Deadlock.

They may so weaken the forces of the Paul and Crespo party as to produce a deadlock and prevent an election and thus prolong the trouble. On the other hand the proposed deal which has for its ostensible object the reunion of the old Guzmancista is repulsive to the of the old Gazmandsta is repulsive to the many liberals who fear it is a trick to resurrect the Gola party and some of them are joining the forces of Paul and Crespo meanwhile. Although acting President Villegas has compiled with Crespo's demand by removing General Larria from the head of the War depart-General ment and sending the greater portion of General Monagas' army from the capital. General Crespo has not put aside his sword although hostilities have been suspended.
Dr. Rojas Paul stays at the capital to look after his own and Crespo's interests in conress, which is expected to convene before the end of July. When he landed at La Guayra and when he reached Caracas, Dr. Paul declined the official reception that was offered, though he met with a popular ovation at the capital, in which the crowd cried "Viva Rojas, "Viva Crespo," "Viva con-

At La Guayra the opinion prevails that there is a scheme to trick congress in a way that will cause Crespo to renew hostilities, while the Guzmancista of which General Sarria is the head, will organize another revolution should Paul be chosen president.

It is Indeed the Crisis. The situation is full of complications and many dark clouds hang over this republic. Just before the return of Dr. Paul. General Rouriguez, commanding a body of revolution ary troops, obtained a victory at La Vitoria He took possession of the plaza and is exer-cising the functions of the governor of the state of Guzma Pianco. General Miranda advanced to Las Teques and General Guerra was proclaimed military governor of the state of Caribono. He is now at Valencia with a large body of troops. Mora has received a large amount of ammunition. General Casanas, military governor under Palacio of the state of Bolivia and the Orinoco territory, has joined the revolution and many other prominent liberals, since Sarria's attempt to revive the Goba party at Caracas, have been doing likewise.

The city of Barcelona is now the only city which is loyal to the government. It is strongly fortified but is besieged by revolutionists and can only hold out for a few days.

The Venezuelan consul here denies that the last cargo of arms sent by Dr. Rojus Paul to General Colina was captured by the government.

INDEMNITY AGREED UPON.

What Chill Will Pay for the Killing of American Sailors.

Valpanaiso, Chili (via Galveston, Tex.) July 19,- By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald-Special to THE BEE. |- No gotiations for the payment of an indemnity to the families of Boatswain's Mate Riggin and Sailor Turnbull, who were killed, and the other sanors who were injured in the as sault on members of the crow of the United States cruiser Baltimore, have terminated in the offer of the Chilian government to pay them $75,000 in gold. This offer was made to United States Minister Egan by the Chilian minister of foreign affairs some days ago, and was cabled to the State department at Washington. Word of its acceptance was received today, and as soon as the payment has been made the "incident." in a diplomatic sense, will have a termination.

In the meantime Minister Egan and Consul McCreery have been involved in a controversy with the Chilian branch of the house of W. R. Grace & Co., over the removal of the body of Boatswain's Mate Riggin to America for burial. The manager of the house of Grace & Co. in city received instructions from the New York office to act as the forwarder of the body of the murdered sallor, as agent of the steamer El Progresso. He was to receive the body, forward it to Coronel, and from there it was to be taken to San Francisco in the Progresso. When Consul Mc Creery mentioned the matter to the for the Graces he nounced his readiness to carry out his instructions but declared his firm could not ask the Chillan government for permission to exhume the body or have anything to do with the arrangements to comply with the sanitary regulations of Chiti.

Minister Egan Got Into It. Consul McCreery insisted that this should be done by the Graces, as the fowarders of the body, while their agent has contended | hurt.

department with a petitic rom Grace & Co. for the exhumation an today. Grace & Co. did not about this petition until a granted, and they received a confidence of the decree from the state departs of Uniti-Grace's manager was great surprised surprised the when he received notice that the petition of his firm in regard to Riggin's body had been granted. He lost no time in notifying the Chillan department that the petition had not been sent from his firm, and that no one had been authorized to use the name of the firm in that connection. At the same time he sent a letter to Minister

Egan, demanding an explanation of the use of the name of his firm, out Mr. Egan ignored his letter.

It is said that Mr. Egan cabled the government of the United States that the agent for Grace & Co., had refused to obey his instructions. Consul McCreery afterwards asked Grace's manager if the firm would be willing to pay all the expenses connected with exhumation and forwarding of Sailor Riggins' body. He was imformed that the firm was ready to pay such expenses as would naturally be chargeable to them as agents of the steamer. It is believed the whole controversy grow out of a desire of Consul McCreery to have the body of the dead sailor taken to New York via San Francisco instead of Panama, as the Graces preferred.

FATAL RESULT OF A QUARREL. Because a Street Was Obstructed a South

Dakota Man is Murdered. DESDWOOD, S. D., July 19. - | Special Tele gram to THE BEE, |-At S:30 last night Adelbert Meyers was shot and instantly killed by Harry Trent. The killing occurred at Chase's ranch between Englewood and Dumont stations, fourteen, miles south of Deadwood on the Burlington railroad. Witnesses state that Trent, who was hauling a wagon oad of logs to Englewood, found the road in front of Staplin's cabin obstructed by brush and asked Staplin to remove the obstructions. The latter refused to do so and a quarrel ensued, Mrs. Stapling taking a hand, shooting at Trent with a double barrel shot gun and killing two of his horses.

Trent left the wagen, walked two miles and a half to his caoiu, secured a revolver, and returning to the scene, met Meyers, a brother of Mrs. Staplins, who, however, had taken no part in the previous trouble, and shot him dead.

The murderer was not seen again until at l o'clock this morning, when he entered a restaurant in this city, where he are a hearty supper. Half an hour later he hunted up the sheriff and surrendered. His preliminary examination has been set for tomorrow.

The defendants seem delighted with the opinion. They have made a strong effort to go to Cheyenne, the home of a number of them. For the present the prisoners will remain in the charge of the Johnson county officers, but it is understood that an effort has been made to have a different arrangement until the trial comes off. The prisoners will be tried in a body. The trial will probably not begin before the middle of August.

An Ex-Omahan Killed in Chicago While Assaulting a Woman. CHICAGO, III., July 19 .-- Special Telegram THE BEE |- Early this morning Jacob Ewaid, living at 4852 Page street, heard shricks emanating from his home as he was returning from a wedding at a neighbor's house in company with a neighbor, Adam Sarrnella. He broke into his house and found a strange man bending over the unconscious form of his mother, Mrs. Ewald, who was lying on the floor of her bedcham ber. Without a moment's hesitation Ewald and Sarrnella grappled with the intruder, and after a short struggle pitched him head foremost down the steps. The body bumped and rolled to the bottom, and not a sound announced that life remained. Mrs. Ewald was in a deep swoon, her lothes were torn and bloody and there was evidence on all sides of a desperate struggle A hurriedly summoned physician stepped over the inanimate form at the foot of the stairs to reach the woman in the room above. While she was slowly recovering and relat-ing hysterically the attack of the man, whose original burglarious intents changed at the sight of her to most brutal passion, a crowd sathered below, and in a few moments both Swald and Sarrnella were placed gation-News from Chill.

[Copyrighted 1897 by James Garden Bennett] Valuaristo, Chili (via Galveston, Tex.), July 10. - By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald-Special to THE BEE, |-The Herald's correspondent at Buenes Arres telegraphs that Captain Tanes and the officers of the Argentina torpedo boat Rosales, which was wrecked off the coast of Uruguay July , have reached that city from Cape Poloniona, which they reached in one of the torpego craft's boats. Their condition on reaching Buenos Ayres was most pitiable. The fierce battle with the wind and waves had reduced them to a state of great bodily depression. Friends of the Rosales' officers greeted them with hearty enthusiasm, but the naval authorities are indignant at their abandonment of the torpedo vessel and allow-boats under the command of petty officers, while the captain and leading officers took to the largest available boat. When Captain Tanes and the officers pre-sented themselves to Commander Zueli of the navy they were put under arrest as the preliminary step to a full investigation. Captain Tanes was taken to the main office of the navy, where he was closely questioned in regard to the abandonment of the ship. He told his superiors in the navy department that the abandonment of the torpedo boat was necessary for the safety of the lives of

ing the members of the crew to go in small

his officers and crew. Why the Craft Was Deserted.

They remained on the vessel, he said, as ong as there was any chance for saving her. but her steering apparatus became unserv-ceable, and the waves were tossing her about so fiercely that she seemed on the point of going to pieces at an moment. It was only when it was no longer possible to remain on board, Captain Tanes said, that he assembled the crew and told them to prepare to leave the spip.

"Boys," he said to them, "we have resisted the storm until the time has come when we must lower the boats and seek The boats were lowered and the crew got

Into them in order of rank, shouting, "Vive la Republic Argentian," then cheers for the commander. Captain Taxes said he and the econd officer, named Victoria, left after the reason the other boats were turned over to the command of petty officers was because nost of the officers who went with the captain in the larger boat had been injured in the fight with the storm. Not much credit is given the statement of Captain Tanes. It is believed that the water simply rushed over loose planks, and that it was not necessary to abandon the ship. Captain Tanes and the officers who went in the large boat with him will be tried by a court martial, which will be formed of high navy officers, but it will not be constituted until Rear Admiral Saler, who ommands the squadron with which the rom Bucnes Ayres for Cadiz to take part in the degementes in honor of Columbus, re-The. Almiralte Brown and the Twenty-

Fifth of May, the other vessels of the squadron which became separated from the Rosales in the storm, have reached Bahia, Brazil, and will proceed to Spain.

Pushing the Investigation It is likely that the attorney general will be ent to Spain and begin an investigation of the cause of the wreck and find why the Rosales was not assisted by the other ships in the squadron. Their abandonment of the vessel when it was in distress is severely criticized in military and naval circles. The Argentine gunboat Suariz, which was dispatched to search the coast of Uruguay for the missing members of the Rosales' erew, has returned without having found any trace of them, it is believed that all were drowned. It is reported that the police on the coast of Uruquay prevented the fishermen from going to the assistance of the sailors when they were getting into their boats. A sub-scription for the beneal of the families is growing. growing. The steamer Rio Panama was wrecked etween Santa Catalina and Rio Grande, Brazil, on July 10. All hands were saved. The vessel belongs to Lloyd's Argentine company at Buenos Ayres.
