

COLUMBUS TRAP SHOOTING

Expert Marksmen Gather to Make the Tournament a Great Event.

SEVERAL NOTED SHOTS ARE PRESENT

First Day an Unqualified Success in Spite of the Hot Weather—Names of the Sportsmen in Attendance—Big Prizes and Good Shooting.

COLUMBUS, Neb., July 19.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The first trap shooting tournament held under the auspices of the Columbus Gun club opened up at the fair grounds this morning amidst a flurry of enthusiasm. The wisecracks shook their heads amicably and declared emphatically that a success could not be made out of it, that any attempt of this gun club to get up an engineer a tournament could result in downright failure and disappointment.

The morning dawned bright and clear, with Saharic breezes blowing up from the south in such volumes as might well be calculated to cause the spirits of the most enthusiastic sportsman to ooze out at the toes of his shoes, and the aforementioned wisecracks renewed their declarations of non-tolerance and failure.

However, despite the torrid meteorological condition, the early trains brought in their quota of shooters from abroad, and every incoming train since has borne hither its representative of the trap gun club.

The Columbus Gun club is but a youngling, but already have its members the marks of a veteran organization. One thing is certain, and that is that they undertake they will execute, let the circumstances be what they will.

Shooting Experts in Attendance. The shooting opened this morning at 10 o'clock with the following sportsmen from abroad among the contestants: Frank Parmelee, captain; Brucker, Fred; Nason and J. B. Smith, Omaha; B. N. Bethway, Waco; "Amble" Rogers, Lincoln; Dr. Richardson, C. C. Anderson, J. H. Mason, Ed. Merrill, Clark; S. B. Fick, the veteran trap shot of the west; J. E. Stouffer, secretary of the State Sportsmen's association, St. Louis; George X. Smith, secretary of the Humphrey, and a host of others whose names were not attainable.

The card for the first day's shoot includes twenty-one pairs of live birds and artificial targets, ten events for each day.

The first event this morning was ten single targets, $2 entrance, the winners of the first money, $25.00, were Stouffer, Parmelee, Brucker and Ackerman, with ten straight kills; second, $14, went to Fick and Spiece and Schroeder and the third money to J. B. Smith, Nichol and Hayward.

The second event was fifteen single targets, $3 entrance, the winners of the first money, $34, Parmelee, Smith, Brucker, Nichol and Hayward, fifteen straight; second, $24, Fick, Spiece and Schroeder; third, $14, Stouffer, Brucker, Nichol and Hayward.

The third event was ten live birds, $3 entrance and $50 added money. This was an interesting race, the fastest of the birds, owing to the oppressive heat, were slow and sluggish. The first money, $100, was divided by Parmelee, Ackerman, Stouffer and Smith, with a clean score. The second money, $31, went to Brucker, Spiece, Conley and Arnold, with nine kills in their individual credit. Third money, $30, was captured by Den, Nason, Fox and Campbell, with eight kills.

All ties, it might be well to state, were decided by a toss of a coin.

The fourth event, twenty single targets, $4 entrance, twenty entries; first money, $42, Brucker, Stouffer, Parmelee and Fox, nineteen kills; second, $24, went to Fick and Spiece and Schroeder and the third money to J. B. Smith, Nichol and Hayward.

No. 7, ten live birds, $3 entrance, sixteen entered. Stouffer, Nason, Brucker, Ackerman and Smith, with a clean score; Fox, Parmelee and Den, nine each, second money; Williams, Nichol, Dean and Davis, eight each, third money.

No. 8, fifteen single targets, $3 entrance, twenty-one entered. Stouffer, Souffer, Parmelee and Brucker, fourteen each, first money; Smith and Nichol, thirteen each, second money.

No. 9, twenty-five single targets, $10 entrance, fifteen entered. Parmelee, twenty-five first money; Schroeder, $10, second money; Smith and Nichol, twenty-three each, second money.

No. 10, nine and odd, single targets, entrance $2, was changed to nine singles and three doubles, sixteen entered. Parmelee, fifteen, first money; Fox and Brucker, fourteen each, second money; Nichol, thirteen each, second money.

The match will be resumed at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and will be kept up lively all day, when the tournament will be at an end.

Yo Tamblen Out a New Notch for the Flyers with Great Ease.
