How George Ruby Proposes to Reclaim His Lost Jewelry.

HE GAVE HIS WATCH TO HIS GIRL When She Moved Away the Time Piece

Went With Her-Chief Scanlan Arrested the Young Lady-Local News Notes.

George W. Ruby, a young man who is employed at Wilcox's garden east of the city, reports to the city clerk that he has been onfidenced out of a fine gold watch and confidenced out of a fine gold watch and chain, values at $125, through his too great belief in the reliability of human naufre. Some time ago he gave Etta Miller, who lives at 119 Pierce street, his watch to wear. She were it and kept on wearing it, and a day or two ago he went to see her and found her moved away. The neighbors told him that she did not expect to return. Ruby filed an information in superior court charg-ing the woman with the inreeny of the watch and yesterday afternoon she was arrested on Broadway by Chief Scanlan. She stoutly denied having had any intention of running away with the timeplece, and the case will have an airing before Judge McGee this morning.

The Old Timers are Not in It. While at our store at Bir Island, Va., last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhoea. I had never had it worse in my life. I tried several old-time remodles, such as Blackberry Wine, Paregoric and Laudanum without getting relief. My attention was then called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy by Mr. R. C. Tinsley, who had been handling it there, and in less than five minutes after taking a small tose I was entirely relieved .- O.G. BURFORD, Harris Creek, Amherst Co., Va,

Concert at Manawa every night this week.

Chautaugua druggist, Goo. S. Davis Missed the Pile.

A carpenter who lives near the North western roundhouse, but whose name could not be learned, had an experience with footpads Tuesday night while on his way home. He noticed two men walking ahead of him along the truck, and when he came up to them they separated to let him pass. At the same instant one of them turned around and shoving a gun under his nose ordered him to throw up his hands, which he did. The second man then went through his pockets and succeeded in finding about seventy-five cents, which he appropriated. In another pocket, which the thief failed to discover, were several dollars more.

Repairs on Grand Army Hall, The hall of Abe Lincoln post, Grand Army of the Republic, has been undergoing repairs for several weeks past, until the society now has one of the nicest meeting halls in the city. The partitions have been moved to the east so that the hall is divided into two large rooms, both of which can be used as places of meeting at the same time if necessary. The painters and paperers have been at work, and have entirely transformed what was formerly a rather dingy and uninviting was formerly a rather dingy and uninviting place. The hall has been entirely refur-nished, a number of settees being put in for the use of the members and haudsomely up-holstered chairs for the officers. The cost of all the improvements has been about $500.

"Little Tippet" Born Yesterday. PORT HURON, Mich., July 27.—[Special to THE BEE.]—"Cleopatra," the giant female ostrich in Barnum & Bailey's menagerie, which exhibited here today, hatched a little which exhibited here today, hatched a little feathered stranger this morning, from a huge egg on which Superintendent Conklin says she has devoted the greatest effort of her life, for some days past. Miss Margaret Doris, the famous English equestrienne, who saw the play of "Little Tippet" in London and thought it was the funnest thing she ever witnessed, suggested that the new haby he christened "Little Tippet" as it baby be christened "Little Tippet," as it was the most comical infant she ever saw. Ben Gauga, the only cunuch who ever left the Sultan's harem, and who is performing with the Barnum show, told the interpreter that he would stand godfather, for it made his heart glad to see a creature familiar to his sunny African home, even it it was only a little wonder-eyed ostrich "kid." mother ostrich grew restless over the ado and looked as if to say that as none of her former children, not even a whole brood, had attracted so much attention she failed to understand why this little bunch of ostrick tips should strut around and put on so many airs, whereupon she reprovingly plucked a feather from its pretty wing and kicked the shell at its head. Manager Balley says the new infant is worth its weight in silver and he will have a solid gold garter put around its left leg before September 14, when it is to be in Omaha, for all professional beauties who dress in short garments on the stage are low wearing them.

SOUTH OMAHA. First of the Great Additions to the Ham

The new beef bouse erected by the G. H. Hammond company is completed and the hum of industry will be heard there next week. The building is of brick, six stories high, and 144x175 feet in size. The top story will be used as a killing room and every convenience has been provided for the work. The lower floors will be used for cooling and cold storage rooms. Monday the active slaughtering of cattle will begin, and the company will have facilities for killing 1,200 beeves each day. The work of slaughtering has been almost entirely suspended during the erection of the new building. The killing floor is one large room, well lighted and ventilated. The killing pens are located in the western end of the room, and a chute from the ground below.
