DOUGLAS IS FOR VAN WYCK

Powers Poomers Equelched by the Indepeadent Convention Yesterday.

ALLAN ROOT GIVEN GOOD WARNING

He and Buffalo Jones Had a Hard Time Staying in the Convention-Instructed Van Wyck-Delegates and County Committee,

The county convention of the people's party met at Central hall at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon to select fifty-seven delegates to the state convention at Kearney.

The meeting was marged by considerable contention which at times became surcastic, bitter and noisy. The Van Wyck faction had the convention by a large majority, and improved every opportunity to rub it into the Powers element. Alian Root and "Buffalo" Jones were considered the representatives of the Powers-Burrows faction, and the majority, after exposing their weakness, only refrained out of pity from throwing them out of the convention.

The meeting was called to order by Root, as chairman of the county committee. The Instant he finished reading the call Councilman A. B. Haley of South Omaba sprang forward and nominated Z. P. Heuges for temporary chairman.

Root ordered him to wait until he was rec ognized, and then, deliberately ignoring him, permitted one of another coterie to nominate S. C. Brewster. Haloy insisted on naming his man, but Mr. Hedges decilined in favor of Brewster, who was chosen without further opposition. Mr. Brewster made a short speech, urging harmony and predicting great wads of suc cess in the coming campaign. D. Clem Deavor was chosen secretary and a committee on credentials consisting of H. Cohen, N. P. Sackett, J. N. Kenney, W. E. Somes and G. W. King was appointed.

Mayor Weir Talked to 'Em.

While the committee was out Paul Vandervcort announced that the independent mayor of Lincoln was present and ought to be heard from. Cries of "Woir" brought the Lincoln genticman to the front, and the chair introduced him as the only Independent mayor in Nebraska. Mr. Weir, who is a dark horse in the gubernatorial race, said he just happened to be in tewn and dropped in on the convention out of brotnerly feeling. He said he felt pretty lonesome as the only independent mayor in the state, and he modestly admitted that he had held his own pretty well at Lincoln, although the republican par-ty and the supreme court had knocked him out on several points. He then made a short speech of the stereotyped order and declared himself for free silver and for greenbacks. W. P. O'Neill arose to a question of privilege and corrected the chairman by asserting that Mayor Bemis of Omaha was an inde Paul Vandervoort was called for, but declined to speak, urging that the country delegates have a chance to talk. Allan Root said the grangers had come to the city to be instructed what to do, and he insisted that Paul should spout. Vandervoort thought Ailan was a bit in consistent because he claimed to hail from the Seventh ward of Omaha as well as from Douglas precinct, which put the laugh upon Root.

Some Van Wyck Enthusiasm.

Paul was prevailed on to talk and sprung Van Wyck ou the convention, getting a round of applause.

Judge Hascall was called up and aired a personal grievance, alleging that the Union Pacific had frozen him out of a plece of coal land by denying him facilities for transpor-tation. He proposed that Van Wyck be "set up on a seat of glory." Clark Potter also declared for Van Wyck.

"When he's elected and goes to Lincein," said the speaker, "don't you think there will be an overhauling of the books, that will make some of them fellows skedaddlef 1'll betcher there will !'

Made Root and Jones Declare, A resolution was offered instructing the delegation to vote for Van Wyck first, last and all the time. Each delegate was then made to stand up and be catechised. Allan Root pledged him-self for Van Wyck, but pleaded manfully for an uninstructed delegation, and the convention laughed him down, "Buffalo" Jones had a prolonged single in the sweat-box and tried to evade his inquis-itors, but at length they became tired of the farce and Joseph Miller was substituted for the herder of buffaloes. COUNTY TICKETS NOMINATED Result of the Various Conventions of

Nebraska Republicans. SPIRITED CONTEST AT HASTINGS

Adams Leaders Finally Agree on Candldates Thoroughly Acceptable to the Entire County-Bryan's Challenge Promises an Interesting Discussion.

HASTINGS, Neb., July 30 .- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-The republican county convention of Adams county was called to order in the Kerr opera house at 11 o'clock this morning by Central Committee Chairman Stephens of Juniata, General A. V. Cole of Juntata was chosen temporary chairman by acclamation and John Slakau and C. B. Bigelow secretaries. As there were no contests the list of delezates as given was adopted without recourse to a committee on credentials. A recess was taken at 11:30 until 2 p. m.

The afternoon session was as harmonious as could be desired until the nominations of candidates had been completed, but a good natured contest casued upon the selection of delegates to the state convention at Lincoln. Quite a Spirited Contest.

Then commenced a lively contest. Here-tofore there has usually been a strife over "Hastings" and "country' delegates to the state convention, but this time a farmer delegate made a very equitable proposition, that the city of Hastings be allowed eight that the city of Hastings be allowed eight delegates, Junitat two, Kenesaw one and the remaining five for the country, all sub-ject to ratification. General C. J. Dilworth, from the Second ward of Hastings, made an amendment that each precinct select its own delegates without reference to approval by the convention. James N. Clarke protested against such methods. He asserted that Dilworth's son, Rohrer, had prepared a tieset headed by Gameral Dilworth to the county convention and that this ticket had been adopted in a packed caucus. General Dilworth entered a denial everything, but that he wished to work in the interest of harmony. General Dilworth's amendment was lost and the original motion arried.

The names of Dr. Kimbali, H. C. Minnix, Peter Warner, L. Dean, W. Davis, L. Le Blanc, J. H. Rickell, A. V. Colo, A. C. Moore and H. B. Borley were reported as state delegates and confirmed, but when the Second ward roturned Jacob Thomas and C. J. Dilworth as delegates the light was re-nowed. A call of the precincts refused to The Second ward refused to put in other candidates. On motion Kemple and Thomas were chosen. A. L. Clarke, Jacob Fisher, J. A. Casto and Mark Levy were also added to the list. General A. V. Cole was recom-mended for state central commit ceman, and W II Communication and the seman and W. H. Stephens was re-elected chairman of the county central committee. All Adams county republicans are a unit upon the ticket nominated today, and the prospects for a victory were never better. Enthusiasm in Antelope.

Only Contests in Omaha Result in Victories for the Crounse Men-Names of the Delegates Elected-Other Local Politics.

More than usual interest was taken in the republican primarles yesterday afternoon. Knowledge that the choice of the Douglas county delegation would, in all probability, be nominated for governor at the state convention on Thursday, led many republicans who usually take little or no interest in primary contests to turn out and use their in fluence in securing the election of responsible representative republicans to the county convention.

There were contested delegations in the First, Eighth and Ninth wards. In the First and Ninth wards the caucus tickets were successful. In the Eighth the contest was a spirited one. The cancus ticket was pledged to support certain men for delegates to the state convention who were opposed to Judge Crounse for the gubernatorial nomination and this led to the placing of five Croupse men on the list of primary candidates, and the result was the election of a solid Crounse the result was the election of a sofic Crouds of delegation by a majority of nearly 2 to 1. C. P. Kelsey read a circular letter from the state committee urging every county to pay up its assessment. He said that Douglas county had paid only $25 of its $80 assess ment, and announced his willingness to re-ceive contributions. He then held up a copy of the Liberty paper and denounced it roundly for publishing an attack on Van WYCK

Under the inspiration of this speech Councliman Haloy authorized the secretary to draw on him at South Omaha for $5, and Allen Root moved that the convention re-deem the party's reputation by proceeding at once to raise the $35. Judge Hascall was moved to declare that he was a poor man, but would contribute $1. The spirit became contagious, and the amount, was soon raised contributions ranging from a collar to a

Frank Hibbard, when called to his feet proposed that any man equinting towards Jay Burrows should be left at home. And Allan Root said nothing but chewed hay. Joe Edgerton made a spread eagle speech predicting that the independents would carry every state west of the Mississippi and south of Mason and Dixon's line.

After Jones and Root.

Frank Hibbard, who smelled a Powers scheme in Jones' donation of his tent for the primary, insisted that the West Omaha delagation be kicked out of the convention. "Buffalo" Jones retorted that if the mem bers of the convention were afraid of a little delegation of five they were cowards. When Judge Hascall assured the conven tion that a Van Wyck delegation would be sent to Kearney and that "Buffalo" Jones would be stumping the state for him, white-winged harmony settled down over the meet-ing and the West Omaha delegates were given seats in the convention. Then Ailan Root pleaded for the admission of the Douglas delegation. Allan lives in the Seventh ward of Omaha and owns a farm in Douglas precinct. It was said that when he election in the city he goes out into the country. The committee explained that no primary wis heid in Douglas and that Root had cir-culated a paper appointing himself and four others as delegates. W. E. Somes denounced this proceeding and urged that for once the convention should make an example of Root and teach bim a lesson.

Allan Gained Their Sympathy.

Root thought the independents were spin-ning things aimighty fine, and he assured the convention that if there was a move to drive him out of the party it would fail. His love for the cause would never weaken.

This play on the sympathy of the conven-tion mollified the Van Wyck faction, and after some further wrangling the Douglas delegation was allowed to sit in the conven-

All now appeared to be peaceful and harmonious, when J. O. Yeiser, a prohibitionist, took the floor and started to speak. He had only said "Mr. Chairman" when he was interrupted with a chorus of objec-tions: "He's not a delegate," "Put him out! The young man held his place unfilnebingly, and the convention became confusion worse confounded. The delerates made a grand rush for the interloper, paying not the slightest attention to the pounding or the orders of the chair, and Yeiser was hustled out of the room.

And once more sweet harmony settled down on the convention. The temporary organization was then made permanent. The motion to proceed with the selection of delegates sprung another shower of con-flicting suggestions, but finally each ward and precinct was permitted to choose its quota. The convention took a recess and the precinct delegations withdrew in corners to caucus. On reassembling the following delegates to Kearney were reported :

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Harrison & Bell company finished its sories of rohearsals last evening with a full dress performance of "Little Tippett," employing all the scenery, properties, lights and orchestra and completing every detail for the presentation of the funny comedy this after-noon at the Farnam street theater.

It is interesting to note the personality of this excellent organization. It is headed by Mr. Edward M. Bell, late leading man of A. M. Paimer's Madison Square theater. Mr. Bell resigned his position with Mr. Palmer to accept a partnership with Mr. Harrison. Mr. Charles Bowser, the eccentric comedian of the company, will be remembered for his original creation of Snaggs in the "Bunch of original creation of Snaggs in the "Bunch of Keys" and his starring tour in "Cheek." Mr. Harry J. Morgan has just returned from England, where he starred in "The Private Secretary" for 100 nights in London. Mr. Harry Allen is one of the best old school comedians and created the part of Catermole in "The Private Secretary" in this country. Mr. Henry J. Bradley is another fine comedian Henry J. Bradley is another line comedian and Mr. Charles Harris is a capable artist.

and Mr. Charlos Harris is a capable artist. Miss Mabel Bert, the leading lady of the company, has done some of the best work ever known in the past five years as the original Rachei in "Held by the Enemy" and the leading roles in "The Runaway Wife," "The Canuck" and "Niobe." Miss Marie Lewes, an American cirl, has for the past five years played prominent roles with Henry Irving and Ellen Terry in all their London productions. Mrs. Harry Bloodgood, one of our best known soubrettes, is specially enour best known soubrettes, is specially en-gaged for this eccentric comedy. gram to The BEE. ]-The Handley will case was finally decided today by G. B. Beveridge, special county judge, and the will admitted to probate. Mrs. Handley bequeathed her entire estate to the Home of the Friendless at Lincoln, and the relatives objected to the probate of the will on the grounds of mental incapacity of testatrix and in defence of the legatee. The county judge was a subscribing witness, and therefore disqualified to hear the case, and Judge Beveridge was appointed by the commissioners. The contestants will hardly appeal, as they made a very weak contest.

Active Drum Corps.

At a meeting held last night the John M Taurston Zouave Dram corps decided to attend the republican state convention at Lincoln. An invitation from Fremont friends to visit that city was accepted. The corps will go into camp at Fremont August 9, re-maining several days, and will attend a big republican rally August 10.

The corps has new uniforms on the way and has engaged a room in Mercer's hall for an armory. The organization, though re-cently formed, has twenty-five bright, active young members who will be a credit to themselves and to republican ciubs with whom they become associated.
