NEW MARK FOR THE TROTTING HORSES

One and a Half Seconds Cut Off the Time for a Mile-Wonderful Exhibition Given at Washington Park Yesterday Afternoon.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 17 .- Maud S is no longer queen of the trotting turf. The proud position which the daughter of Harold has held so long has been wrested from her, and Nancy Hanks roigns in her stead.

This afternoon at Washington Park, in the presence of 10,000 spectators, Bund Doble drove his beautiful mare to beat her record of 2:09. She not only beat her own record, but lowered the world's trotting record from 2:08%, the time of Maud S, to 2:0714.

The day was an ideal one for trotting, the sun shining warmty, hardly a cloud in the sky and a cool, gentle breeze blowing off Lake Michigan directly down the home stretch. The track was a trifle dusty in places, but as fast as it could well be. The mare was in excellent condition, fit to trot for a man's life, and before she made the trial it was the general opinion that if Nancy Hanks was ever to equal her record of 2:09, Washington park track and today were the place and time to do it. Everything was auspi cious, there was nothing to prevent the mare from doing her best, and it rested alone with her and Doble how far the record was to be lowered. Nancy Put on no Frills.

She appeared for the trial with Budd Dobte behind her at 5 o'clock. She was without boots or trappings of any sort, and was hitched to one of the new sulkies with ball bearings and pneumatic tires. Doble walked her slowly to the head of the lower turn and then came back to the wire at a gentie pace. Doble drove her back to the sixteenth pole and then came down at a smashing gait. Frank Starc, behind the pacemaker, Abe Lincoin, was waiting for him. Starter Walker leaned far over the railing of the judges' stand, his eyes on Doble's face, watching to see if he wanted the word. Just as the mare shot beneath the wire Doble shook his head. Mr. Walker drew back and Abe pulled up to await a Back to the distance flag this time and at a genule trot which increased rapidly as she drew near the wire, a nod from Doble, and "Go" flashed from Walker's lips as the mare shot like an arrow toward the turn.

There was work for Abe Lincoln now, and for the first sixteenth of a mile he lost ground steadily. Then Starr urged him on and he was on Nancy's wheel at the quarter, There was not a sound in the densely packed grand stand as the more flew past the quarter pole in 31%, a 2:00 gait. As she started along the back stretch trotting as true as a die, head well up, her feet striking the ground with the regularity of a fulum, the crowd began "She'll never do it; never in the world;" but the outliners outlined Dobie's gray jacket against the picket fence beyond him, and as be passed them so rapidly that they seemed to be going backward, they held their broatns and said nothing. They knew that the record was going.

Fastest Trotting Ever Watched. As the mare, still keeping up her beautiful galt went by the half-mile pole in 1:03%, a man in front of the grand stand called, "1:04 at the half," a nighty yell went up from the crowd. "Keep quiet as she finishes," shouted Starter Walker, but his warning was not needed. The crowd had subsided of its own accord. Its own breathless interest in the event kept it quiet. Not a sound was heard as she moved past the three-quarter pole and turned into the home stretch. Abe Lincoln under the whip moved up to Nanoy's throat latch. Doble spoke gently to her and her feet flow faster than the eye could distinguish them.

She'll do it; she'll do it, by God." an irrepressible and there was a faint yell as the fastest quartet of pattering hoofs ever heard on a trotting track swept under the wire. There was a moment's pause, a hasty consultation of watches, and then an umbrella went sailing into the air from near the grand stand. It was accompanied by loudunged howls and then bediam broke loose. Hats, canes and coats were tossed wildly into the air. Men slapped each other on the back and shook hands with other in sheer delight. Incidentally, they kept on yelling Cheered Horse and Driver.

The loud cheers which went up told Doble, even before he had slowed up, that the rec-ord was broken, and as he came back to the judges' stand his face was covered with a smile as wide as the visor of his cap. had said that Nancy Hanks would beat the record and she had done it. As he dismounted from his suiky he was surrounded by men who wrung his hand again and again. When he had a chance to use a hand he lifted his cap in acknowledgement of the cheers of the crowd. Loud calls for "Dobie, Doble," went up and the veteran reinsman. climbing into the grand stand, again re-moved his cap from the head which holds so much knowledge concerning trotters and bowed repeatedly to the wild applause that

Three cheers for Nancy Hanks !" shouted Starter Walker, and they came from 10,000 throats with wild enthusiasm. 'Now three cheers for the man who drove her!" and again the air was shivered and hats, coats, handkerchiefs and about everything else that could be thrown upward were nt in that direction. It was fully ten minutes before the tumult subsided.

The official time for the mile, which was as honest a mile as was ever trotted, is 3134. 1:03%, 1:3614, 2:0714.
The last quarter was trotted in thirty and three-quarters seconds. The exhibition was given for a certain sum to be paid by the Northwestern Brooders association, under whose direction the trotting meeting is being held. An additional sum was to be paid if the record was beaten, but Doble declined to any what it was He waved enthusiastic in the record was beaten, but Doble declined to say what it was. He waxed enthusiastic in peaking of his mare after the heat was over.

"She is, in my opinion," he said, "without a peer on the trotting turf. She was distressed in the slightest degree at the end of the mile and finished fresh and strong. Within twenty minutes after trotting that mile in 2:0714 she could have gone out and trotted very close to it. I don't say she could have equaled it, but she could have put in a very fast mile without very much trouble. She trotted true from wire to wire, never lost her head and did not show stightest inclination to leave her feet. I did not touch her once with the whip, and only swished it through the air a little and spoke to her quietly as she entered the home-stretch. I will not start her again here, but I have every reason to believe that she will make her present record a back number by the time show flies. She did the trick so comforthbly today that I am sure she can beat it in the future."

Nancy and Her Bunning Mate.

In trotting the heat the mare, who weighed today 870 pounds, pulled Doble, who weighed 150 pounds, and a sulky of 62% pounds weight.

Nancy Hanks, the queen of the trotting turf, is a bay mare, 6 years old, fifteen and three-fourths hands high. She was sired by Happy Medium, out of a Dictator mare. Abe Lincoln, the running horse who helped Nancy along to giory, is a bay horse with samething of a history. He was formerly the property of Adam Forepaugh, jr., who used him for many years about the circus, his good points being his perfect gentleness and a fondness for the society of elephants, of which horses in general stand in mortal terror. Because of his level head, obodience and thorough reliability he was taken by Doble as a pace-maker for Nancy Hanks in her trials against time.

Some Other Great Races

Muta Wilnes and Azol were played as sure winners in the 2:30 trot, but were defeated by the game and steady going of Geneva. Hulda took the champion stakes in split heats, only losing neats by bad breaks. Lusella, after a game battle with Mam-brino Swift, took in the juvenile stakes after dropping a heat to Swift. Axie by Axtell, who also started, was too short of work to win. Ponce de Leon won in straight heats at long odds on First Choice after the first heat. Fiving Jib, seiling at $100 to $15 had a picule in the pacing stake. In the last heat, Robert J moved up and made him go in 2.091, the last quarter in 30 seconds, but the Jib had plenty in reserve and may prove able to hold his own against even the champions, Direct and Hal Pointer. Discussing the Race.

The officials at Washington park claim that the time 2:08% made by Maud S at Cleve-land in 1885 is second to that of Nancy Hanks' record of today. Sunol, now owned by Rob-ort Bonner of New York, trotted in 2:0814 on a kite-shaped track at Stockton, Cal., in 1891. This performance they declare to be inferior to that Maud S on the regulation track, which, they say, is considered to be from one to three seconds slower than the kite-shaped track.

Nancy Hanks is owned by J. Matcolm Forbes of Boston, Mass., who purchased her last year for $45,000.

Five Heats and No Finish in a Pacing Race Yesterday.

STRACUSE, Neb., Aug. 17. - Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-The second day of the Interstate breeders' meeting held on the Review track was highly interesting, and notwithstanding a high wind the track was fast and the winners were compelled to drop their records ten seconds. In the 3:00 2year-old trotting, purse $500, out of thirteen entries only four started. West Wood won easily in two straight heats. Charles W second and Floratus and Minute Wilkes divided the third and fourth moneys. Time: 2:4214 and 2:47.

The 2:35 pace was the race of the day. Bonnie B and Great Western were favorites at the pools, but the race was unfinished at sundown and it is still anybody's race. The purse is $500 and Bonnie B. Great Western and Smith are all after the money. Bonnie B had the pole in the start and won two straight heats, the first outte easily and the econd after a hot chase. She then took econd place and Great Western came to the front. Smith then aroused from his slum-bers and gobbled the two next heats, and Great Western came back for the sixth heat. Bonnie B had a loose shoe at the close of the sixth heat and as it was after sundown the judges postponed the finish of the race till o'clock tomorrow. The race was very exciting and money changed hands rapidly.

Tuesday the Haydens changed their battery, sent for some new men and tried it again. The score was to 3 in favor of Denison, the home club making but one error during the entire game. Today the Omaha team was strengthened by Geist and Hull, the battery of Springfield Neb. The score was 6 to 0 in tavor of Deni The game was exciting and well played on both sides. Bets were freely made and the Omaha team returned tonight rather short on cash and long on experience.

Tommy Ryan's Benefit Tonight The benefit for Tommy Ryan, the chain pion welterweight, to come off at the Grand opera house tonight, will afford the local admirers of the art an opportunity to see a half dozen interesting contests. There are a number of pugilists of more or less celeb rity in the city who are suxious to demon-state their fistic ability to an Omaha audisuce, and this event promises to be far more inspiriting than the usual exhibitions of the Kind. The four-round sette between Mike Boden and Arthur Rothery will be worth seeing, and Wiley Evans and Joe Powers will also meet in a four-round bout. Jimmy Lindsey will don the mits with Sam Stevenson, and after a go between Danny Daly and an unknown, Ryan and Paddy Brennan will wind up the occasion with a six-round contest.

The program will be varied with banjo specialties by J. H. Perkins, formerly of Haverly's minstrels, and Ed Hoover.

WILL MEET (N) CONVENTION TODAY

DAVENPORT, Ia., Aug. 17 .- The democratic state convention which meets here tomorrow will be composed of 1.113 delegates, most of whom are on the ground now. The city is beautifully decorated. The reception given the delegates is entirely hoppartisan. This afternoon the delegates were given a steamboat excursion down the river.

The convention will place in nomination candidates for secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, attorney general, railroad commissioner and two presidential electors-at-large. Each eleven congressional districts will also nominate a presidential elector. The following temporary officers were agreed upon record again. He will be kept at Independtoday by the state central committee: Chair man, W. L. Eaton of Mitchell county; secretary, Alexander Charles. Linn; sergeantat-arms, Charles Kindt of Scott, The committee recommended Hon. T. F. Ward of O'Brien county for permanent chairman. Hon. John C. Bills, mayor of Davenport. will deliver the address of welcome.

To Arrange the Machinery. District caucuses are called to meet at 9 o'clock in the morning, when the machinery of the convention will be arranged. Candidates are having an Industrious day and night of it, but good nature is the rule. The leaders in the race for railroad commissioner are Senator William G. Kent, Lee county; ex-Mayor Rohrer, Pottawattamie; F. M. Estes, Fremont, and L. J. Anderson of Pocahontas. The following do not authorize the use of their names for the commissionership: S nator Dodge, Des Monnes county; N. B. Holbrook, Iowa, and ex-Senator Whites.

tor Whiting, Monona.

The friends of S. P. VanDyke of Benton county claim that he has a clear lead for state auditor, although W. F. Conklin of Johnson, and Ira Hendricks of Pottawattamie are making a fight. Three candidates for attorney general having their claims pressed are: Judge Willard of Cass. A. R. pressed are; Judge Willard of Cass, A. R. Ladd of Wright, and R. J. W. Bloom of Hancock. For secretary of state the friends of Colonel U. H. McCoulogne of Cerro Gordo are working hard. Other candidates for office are: L. S. Konnington of Jasper and Dr. E. L. Browsell of Alexinses. Dr. E. L. Brownell of Dickinson.

Would Like to Bandle the Funds. For the state treasureratio W. L. White of Wayne probably leads. He was a candidate two years ago and made a strong cauvass. K. S. Cole of Frankfin and Charles Ruegnitz of Clayton are considered formid-able. For electors at large the names most prominently heard are those of W. W. Wit-mer, Polic L. B. Bolter, Harrison; General S. L. Giasgow, Das Moines; J. S. Tam. Guthrie, and Colonel Charles A. Clark of Line.

A strong movement set in tonight to induce Hon. John C. Bills of Scott county to consent to the use of his name. If he yields there is little doubt that he will be one of the electors. Diligent inquiry falls to discover any fusion sentiment. On the other hand several party lengers pronounced against giving any combart to the people's party or any one of the candidates it named.

Postpion of the Party. That the platform will reaffirm the po sition of the party on state issues no one denies, but it is not mought any new issues will be introduced The chairmen of county delegations and members of the state central committee are holding a close conference this evening relative to a better understanding of the management of the campaign.

A ratification meeting was held this evening. Short speeches were made by Colonel Esterbrook, M. V. Gannon, Senator Dodge, Congressmen Hayes and White among The democratic judicial convention for the Judges P. B. Wolfe and A. J. House were renominated.

SPOONER FOR GOVERNOR.

Wisconsin Republicans Will Nominate the Senator for Chief Executive. MILWAUKEE, WIS., Aug. 17 .- Ex-Senator John C. Spooner will be nominated for governor by the republicans this afternoon without a dissenting voice. Senator Spooner yesterday announced his willingness to accept the nomination. He reiterated his statement that he was not a candidate for the place, that he did not design it, but he felt that when a party had honored a man as it had honored him, its wish, when clearly expressed by a nominating convention. should come to him as a command. Statements made to him by delegates compelled him, he said, to say that much in justice to himself, so that his position might not be misunderstood. The announcement that Mr. Spooner would take the nomination was received with great satisfaction by the majority of the delegates on hand. Most of the candidates for the place immediately announced that they would withdraw from the contest. Some of Colonel Upham's friends, however, were opposed to his withdrawal at this late hour and for a while Mr. Upham stuck out. "I want the people to vote their sentiment in the convention and I will abide by the re-sult," he said yesterday morning. Later a conference between the leading candidates was arranged and when it was over Mr. Upham had changed his mind. The conference was attended by Spooner, Colonel Upham, General Griffit and Senator Sawyer, who is one of Mr Upham's confidential advisors. The need of barmony in the party was pointed out and the situation in all its phases was discussed. It lasted several hours, and shortly after the gentlemen appeared in the Tobby of the Plankinton house it was announced that Mr Upham and General Griffia had decided not to allow their names to go before the con-vention. Colonel Upham had made a very thorough canvass for the place and he would strong one into the convention with a very strong backing. He not only had the support of the northern section of the state, but of the southern part as well, so that in a contest he would have been a formidable candidate. His withdrawal, therefore, was at a considerable personal sacrifice.

As stated in this morning's dispatches ex-United States Sepator Spooner and John Koch of Milwankee were nominated by acciamation, the former for governor, and the latter for seutenant governor, amidst the greatest enthusham.

R. W. Jackson of Shawnee was nomin-ated for secretary of state, and Atley Peterson of Crawford for treasurer. The other nominations are: W. H. Chandler of Dane for superintendent of public instruction, J. D. Builock of Jefferson Railroad company, and J. E. Hogg of Lake Geneva for insurance commissioner, in El Paso, Tox., Aug. 17.-The executive committee of the southwest silver convention yesterday issued a call for the second annual convention to meet in this city Monday, December 5. As one reason for the call the committee says: "The silver industry is at this moment in a most critical condition. Mines are closing down and the further exploration and development of the mineral resources of the southwest have received a serious check. During the past tweive months the enemies of bimetallism have been so active that on August 12 silver reached the lowest figure in its history, 8214. The restoration of silver to its natural and traditional ratio value with gold, 16 to 1, is demanded."

MICHIGAN DEMOCRATS

They Meet and Nominate a Fall State Ticket. GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug 17.-The democratic state convention was called to order at noon by Chairman Campau of the state committee. I. M. Weaton of Grand Rapids, was chosen temporary chairman, Governor Widans' letter was read in which the governor declined to be a candidate for re-election.

The withdrawai of Governor Winans left smooth salling in respect to gubernatorial honors, and there was scarcely enough rivalry in regard to the minor places on the ticket to make proceedings interesting. The only ripple which at all disturbed the con-vention's smooth course was the candidact of Adolphus A. Ellis for the attorney gen eralship. Mr. Edis was endorsed two weeks ago for the same office by the people's party, and this fact aroused some opposition from the true blue democrats. The great majority of the delegates, however, declared Mr. Ellis' democracy quite good enough for them The minority submitted gracefully, and the people's party man was nominated by ac-clamation, as were all other candidates.

The following is the ticket nominated:
For governor, Alien B. Morse of Ionia; iteu-tenant governor, James P. Edwards of Houghton; treasurer, Frederick Marvin of Wayne; secretary of state, Charles F. Durand of Genesee; elector-at-large, Western district, Peter White of Marquette.

Major Balcombe Rossts the Sidewalk Inspector, Who is Not Allowed to Reply.

MR. WILSON MAKES A STATEMENT

His Remarks Do Not Reflect Much Credit Upon the Manner in Which the Board's Business is Conducted-Paving Bids Opened.

There was no fire in the city hall yesterday. but there was a most complete job of roasting performed and J. M. Wilson, the in spector of permanent sidewalks, appointed by Mayor Bemis, was the man who was put ipon the spit.

It was at a meeting of the Board of Public Works, and after the body had been called to order Major Balcombe occasion say that he had invited Mr. Wilson to be present as he wanted to make a few remarks which would interest him. Then the major cut loose, He said that the new inspector evidently had nothing to do outside, that he was not ing as a spy, snooping around city offices instead of performing the duties which de-volved upon him. He had taken it upon himself to not only investigate the Board of Public Works, but the engineer and other city officials as well, Instead of being out on the work, Mr. Wilson has sat around the city offices telling officials what were their respective duties. One thing, the major said was certain, and that was, if Mr. Wilson could not find anything to do in the way of looking after sidewalks that were supposed to be under that were supposed to be under his jurisdiction, his services might better be dispensed with. Mr. Wilson wanted to talk and define his position as he understood it, but was told that there was nothing for him to say; that it was a quiet little talk among the members in which outsiders had no interest. Chairman Birkhauser said that he under-tood that Wilson's duty was to report every thing that he found wrong in the way of the laying of private walks, but he did not understand that his authority extended to the investigation of officials or their duties. Mr. Wilson's Story.

Mr. Wilson wanted to reply, but could not get the consent of the board and was com-pelled to take his roast in silence. He was decidedly warm under the collar after the meeting, and made a statement to a reporter of THE BEE which is not at all flattering to the officers of the board, and which, if true, in-dicates that the business of the board is in a bad way.

"I want to answer the charges made by Major Balcombe," said Mr. Wilson. "And I want to make it very plain, so that the tax-payers may see just what the difference is over which so much fuss has been made and let them judge who is right. In the first place Major Balcombe said I was putting in my time snooping around city offices and telling the officials how they should run their busi-ness. All the time I have put in offices out-side of the Board of Public Works office has been for the purpose of finding information that I needed in my official capacity, and which I could not find in the office of the Board of Public Works, where it should be. I have put in some time in the comp troller's office, but have done so at the request of the mayor for the purpose of correcting some of the frauds that are being worked upon the city in the lumber con-tracts. The city now has a contract for lumber which specifies but about a dozen kinds of lumber, and the contractor is getting $20 a thousand for other kinds of lumber that I can buy in any quantities for $16 a thousand. I looked this matter up at the request of Mayor Bemis and the poard will show the entire sidewalk business of the city and the information I have asked has been very cheerfully given by the engineer and his assistants.

"I asked the city clerk to furnish me a list of the ordinances passed relating to side-walks. He at first refused to do so but was and council will hear from it later on.

"I have been in the city engineer's office for the purpose of getting a map made that given an order from the mayor to give me the desired information and has since done get the board to order walks where they were badly needed, and Major Balcombo's the work, Mr. Wilson continued: Some of the Charges Made, "This morning I was notified by Major refusal to act with the chairman in ordering

Balcombe, Mr. Birkbauser and the clerk of the board that I was wanted at the board office at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. also told by other parties that the board was laying for me and would cause me trouble. I went to the board meeting, where Major Balcombe made the strack Major Balcombe made the strack on me. He said that I was apparently in collusion with contractors in ordering work and oppressing the people by ordering unnecessary walks; that I was car rying reports to the papers; that I was not attending to my duties and was exceeding my authority. Every single charge made is ab-solutely false from beginning to end, and the duplicate of my reports will show it. Numerous contractors have been continually goin to the board and asking for work, and Major Balcombe has persistently refused to give them any of the work that should be do-

"In regard to walks, I do not think that the board wants to order any walks laid where the present walks will last a year or so, and I have not reported a single walk that is not now in a dangerous condition The mayor has viewed walk after walk with me and will support me in my statements. "Every day I have tried to find out from the secretary of the board and the members as I met them where the inspectors were working and where I could flug them. I asked that they be required to report to the board each morning where they were work ing, or to telephone from the work so that could know where the work was being done In one case I was even refused the name of the inspector who had charge of a piece of work, and have been quable to find them at any time. I can not get the information from the board, as it does not know. What business firm would have fifteen inspectors at work and not know where they were or what they were doing!

"In one case in figuring up a report of an inspector I found a mistage of 10 cents in the total. I called the attention of the accretary to it. He said the 10 cents was added to make the account an even $100 so that the comptroller's books would be easier to handle. I asked him if it would not be betor to have the account correct and not have to make such an explanation in case an examination of his accounts was made. He replied that he thought I was in small busines to kick about a little matter of 10 cents. replied that it was not a matter of 10 cents or 1 cent, but simply a principle of accuracy in public accounts; that no bank or business iouse would allow such discrepancies solely for the purpose of making the bookkeepers work easier.

Found Errors in the Accounts.

"In at least two cases I have found errors in the accounts of parties doing business with the board. It this is true why not expect errors in much of their work! I spent half day recently at Mr. Birkhauser's request, looking up the status of work he had ordered. I did not find anything and returned to his office and there found in his own writing, in his letter press, a copy of s letter rescinding the order for the work he had sent me to inspect. I am willing to devote my whole time to this work in the city's interest, but I don't enjoy chasing around on auch tomfool errands. All information I have asked from city officials and employes I have sought in a gentlemanty manner and I the order of the Sacred Heart am willing to stand by their reports as to and an exceptionally fine school.

whether I am right in this statement or not. "This morning the chairman of the board ordered me to get from THE BEE a copy of the ordinances passed by the council ordering sidewalks. This was the only method I had of getting the information that should be on file in the office of the board. This will give an idea of the work to which I have been an idea of the work to which I have been piaced by the incomplete reports in the board office on the sidewalk business."

Referring to the personal attack made upon him by Major Balcombe, Mr. Wilson said that he had carried a musket in the union army for four years and that he had never fired at a rebul who did not have the privilege of shooting back, and that it remained for Major Balcombe to make a personal assault upon him and then refuse him the courtesy of a reply. Such an act he considered cowardly in the extreme.
