

SMALL POX PATIENTS ESCAPE

Lincoln's Pest House Deserted by Its Whilom Guests.

GUARDS SLUGGED WITH BALL AND CHAIN

Recaptured After They Had Tramped Across the County Eighteen Miles—Lincoln Merchants Enjoy an Outing—State Capital Notes.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 17.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Frank Kennedy and Charles Reed, two smallpox patients who have caused so much worry and trouble to the authorities, made their escape last night after midnight. They have been carried for in an improvised hospital on the prairie southwest of the city, and have been in charge of two guards, Adams and Haltzman. Last night Haltzman left the place for a short time. The patients and prisoners at once assaulted Adams with the ball and chain with which they were manacled. He was knocked senseless, and picking up the iron sawed it attached to their ankles the men lobbed away. As soon as he returned Haltzman started in pursuit, but the fugitives had gained too much of a start. It was afterwards discovered that Reed had slipped free from his shackles, but Kennedy still wears the iron jewelry.

The escape of the men before they had been cured has created not a little uneasiness in this city. Many people still believe to the belief that the men had caused the eruptions which appeared on their bodies in the hopes of being set at liberty. In the quarantine at the county jail is being rigorously maintained, much to the disgust of a number of prisoners whose terms of imprisonment have expired, but who are still detained at the jail by the strict quarantine regulations.

Both men were bathed and barbed-net and neither had the least trace of smallpox. A reward of $25 was offered for the detention of either or both of the fugitives. A telegram was received from Lincoln this afternoon, stating that the fugitives had been apprehended by the local authorities.

Merchants' Outing Day.

Retail business in nearly every line has been suspended in Lincoln today. The occasion of the day was marked by the parade of the Lincoln merchants' annual outing at the park. The feature of the forenoon was the parade at 10 o'clock. The parade was formed at Tenth and Broadway, and extended from the intersection of those streets east to Fourteenth, north to O, and then west to Tenth, where cars were boarded for Lincoln park. A large number of people lined the street to witness the parade.

Arriving at the park everybody amused themselves as best they might until after dinner. Then an extended program of exercises and athletic sports was given. The program of the day was presided over by Hon. L. M. Raymond, republican nominee for presidential elector at large. The athletic sports consisted of a game of base ball between clubs made up of grocery clerks and of goods clerks, foot ball, 100-yard foot race, sack races, three-legged races, swimming and diving contests, standing high, kick, etc. Liberal cash prizes were offered to the winners of the respective contests. It is estimated that fully 3,000 people were on the grounds during the afternoon evening.

Injuries May Prove Fatal.

Word was received from North Lincoln this afternoon that Mrs. Henry Atkins, an estimable lady of that suburb, is likely to die from the effects of injuries received in this city last Thursday evening. Mrs. Atkins was at Nissley's dry goods store on P street on that evening, when one of the clerks opened a trap door in the sidewalk in order to descend to the store of a pair of shoes. She fell, and the distance of about eight feet. Several ribs were broken, her back wrenched and other portions of her body injured. She is now in a very serious condition when taken from the subway and was removed to her home, where nothing more was heard from her until this afternoon. Her condition is now said to be serious.

More Paving Districts.

The fact is that the proposition to issue $50,000 of paving bonds will greatly stimulate public improvements in Lincoln this season. A large amount of brick paving has already been completed on North Twenty-eighth street and a big force of men is now at work on South Seventeenth from L to South streets, a distance of eight blocks. The Board of Public Works today advertised for bids for paving three new districts, as follows: No. 18, N street, from Sixteenth to Eighteenth; No. 21, Seventeenth, from A street to L; No. 22, F street, from sixteenth to Eighteenth. Several new alley districts have also been completed and will be paved this season.

Other public improvements that will result from the favorable vote on the bond proposition last Friday, will be a large extension to the water system of the city, $47,000 to be expended before snow flies.

Visitors from Fairmount.

An excursion from Fairmount is doing the city of Lincoln today. They arrived this afternoon at 2 o'clock and were transferred to a special train in which they visited Burlington beach. Returning to the city the party has been visiting the various points of interest. The party included Messrs. Jones, Barsby and wife, George Maxwell and wife, C. E. Marshall and wife, Henry McNeill and wife, L. H. Smiley and wife, F. C. Page and wife, W. R. Gavard and wife, Charles Muselman and wife, Charles Muselman and wife, Misses Ida Mosher, Marie Mosher, Bertie Savage, Minnie Mosher, Mrs. Nellie Wheeler, Mrs. Henry Muselman, Mrs. Benjamin Reuffer, Bert Kimmernan and Dr. J. N. Plumb.

From the Police Court.

John Curry, the labor agitator, was arraigned before Judge Watkins this morning on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. He raised a disturbance at the Hotel Windsor last evening, but was released this morning.

Charles Webster was again arrested last night, this time for drunkenness. He was committed with the court for $1.25 this morning.

Thomas Holman entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of throwing slops in the street. He was acquitted.

Charles Allen and Charles Murray were accused of vagrancy. Allen was fined $10.25 while Murray was released under condition that he would be in court today. He failed to keep his promise, however, and was rearrested this afternoon.

John Propp, who appeared in the police court this morning, but was released upon his promise to be in court today. He was rearrested this afternoon.

Judge Cobb Declines.

Judge Amasa Cobb, ex-justice of the Nebraska supreme court, has been frequently mentioned as the republican nominee for judge of the Third district, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Allen W. Field, who has been nominated for congress. Judge Cobb today declining the use of his name in the following card:

With thanks to the republicans of Lincoln county for their kind consideration of my name in connection with the vacant judgeship, I respectfully withdraw from the canvass.

AMASA COBB.

Heard in the Court Rooms.

Relle C. Betts today commenced suit for divorce from her husband, Norman F. Betts, to whom she was married in Lincoln, Nebraska, on November 27, 1889. In her petition she alleges that her husband has been guilty of the gravest cruelty without cause or provocation on her part, that he has failed to support her; and that he deserted her in this city last May.

Lacy F. Starr is the name of another petitioner for a divorce. She was married to James D. Starr at Newton, Ia., October 19, 1887, and her husband compelled her to support the family, in spite of the fact that she drew a pension from the government. She also claims that in last January he sold all their household goods which had been purchased with their earnings, leaving her without a home. She asks for a complete divorce and the restoration of her maiden name.

Jean A. Hellings has commenced a suit for damages in the district court for $3,000 against Frank Rawlings. The plaintiff was the victim of the runaway accident on June 21, in which T. C. Stevens was killed. She was one of the party and was severely injured. Rawlings is the proprietor of the livery stable which furnished the team, and she claims that he knew the horses were wild and vicious.

James Allison, another member of the same party, has also commenced suit for $3,000 damages from Rawlings.

Will Do Its Work Again.

Owing to the irregularities in the proceedings of the city council at the time it was a board of equalization, that body will be compelled to do its work all over again. The city charter provides that a quorum of the city council shall remain in session as a board of equalization for at least five days. When the council sat as such a board last July a quorum was present but only out of the five and that meeting the work of equalization was delegated to a committee of three. Property owners in the Sixth ward, whose assessment was raised, naturally took the matter into the district court, and Judge Tibbatts decided that the work of equalization had not been legally done. In order to obviate further trouble and avoid future litigation the council today issues a notice that it will sit as a board of equalization on Wednesday, August 24, and remain in session until all complaints have been properly adjusted.

CASHED IT TOO OFTEN.

Mr. Moore Toted Two Long with a Worthless Check.

W. J. Moore, a former employee of W. R. Bennett & Co., is in a peck of trouble over a check for $9.75. It was drawn in favor of H. C. Johnson & Co. and signed by Cope & Co.

Moore says he won the check from a stranger in a game of cards. He took it to Thomas Birmingham and secured $2 on it. Birmingham endorsed the paper and sent it to the bank. The bank sent it back and Birmingham called Moore to account. The latter paid back the money and the check.
