An Omaha Woman Ground to Death at the Union Pacific Transfer.

NEWSBOYS PLAYED WITH A REVOLVER

As a Result Albert Weidener Has a Bullet in His Abdomen and May Die - Fan Travers Nearly Loses His Life.

It was a frightful death that overtook Mrs. Carrie Larson, a venerable woman and a resident of this city, at the transfer in Council Bluffs yesterday morning.

TWO DANGEROUS ACCIDENTS

One Boy Shot and a Man Seriously Cut in a Scuffle.

Albert Weidener was accidentally shot on train No. 6 of the Elkhorn road at 10:30 yesterday morning.

Weidener is a railroad newsboy about 17 years old and lives at 912 South Thirtieth street. He and a companion named Bert Small, about the same age, who lives at Twenty-fourth and Cuming and is also a newsboy, were handling a 22 caliber target rifle on the platform of the smoking car.

As the train was moving the rifle went off and while the gun was in the hands of Small it was accidentally discharged, the bullet striking Weidener in the abdomen.

Leo and Somers were called and the wounded boy was taken to St. Joseph's hospital.

Cut While Scuffling.

Sam at the same time Fan Travers and Sam Goldsmith were sparring with each other with knives in the hands in Goldsmith's saloon at Ninth and Capitol avenues.

Travers slipped in some way and fell on his wrist against the knife in Goldsmith's hand cutting it to the bone.

Prompt action on the part of Goldsmith prevented his bleeding to death. Drs. King and Rosewater sewed up the wound.

What Stronger Proof Is needed of the merit of Hood's sarsaparilla than the hundreds of letters continually coming in telling of marvellous cures it has effected after all other remedies had failed.

Truly, Hood's sarsaparilla possesses peculiar curative power unknown to other medicines.

Hood's pills cure constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

Connecting lines from the west and northwest enable passengers to take the through express train daily at Chicago. Side trip to historic Gettysburg if desired. For details address George Jenkens, traveling passenger agent, Dubuque, Ia.

3 Harvest Excursions south via the Wabash Line. On August 30, September 27 and October 25 the Wabash will sell round trip tickets at half fare to points in Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee, Arkansas, Texas and Indian Territory.

Excursion train will leave Omaha 4:00 and Council Bluffs 4:40 p. m. on above dates. For rates, tickets and descriptive pamphlets call at Wabash office, 1522 Farnam street, or write G. N. CLAYTON, N. W. P. agent, Omaha, Neb.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. The clever German dialect comedian and vocalist, George C. Staley, enacts the hero in his popular comedy drama, "A Royal Pass," which comes to the Farnam street theater for four nights, commencing Sunday matinee.

The play is something more than a mere vehicle for the acting and vocalism of the hero. It is a piece of sustained interest with a novel plot that is ingeniously worked out. Mr. Staley's fine singing is brought in as a part of the scenes in which it is heard. At every performance he will sing "Bye-Bye to Baby" (Watching the Children Play) and "Little Rogue's Asleep." These gems he warbles with frolicsome wit and two children. A novel and exciting episode in "A Royal Pass" is a locomotive race. Two real working engines, not painted pasted-on imitations, go dashing along at a high rate of speed over real tracks. Steam hisses, sparks fly, whistles shriek, bells clang and engineers and firemen are at their respective posts. The mad dash of the iron horses is one of the most realistic and thrilling effects known to the stage. Mr. Staley is assisted by a carefully selected company, containing several accomplished vocalists.

Duke Murray the agent of Milton Nobles, is expected to sail Sunday in Omaha. His star comes to the Boyd on the 24, 33 and 4th of September, and will present two new plays.

Nugent! Nugent! Nugent! Buy Big Nugent baking powder. 32c, 25c, 20c.

Will Meet on Monday. The council committee, appointed to investigate the alleged overcharges by John A. Wakefield, the dealer who was awarded the contract for furnishing the city with sidewalk lumber, will meet in the comptroller's office next Monday afternoon.

Why is it that some houses always need re-painting?

The owner has them painted in the Spring; by the Fall they have a dingy, rusty, faded look.

A neighbor's always looks fresh, clean, and newly painted, and yet is not re-painted oftener than every four or five years.

The first "economises" by using "CHEAP" paint; the second using nothing but Strictly Pure "Dutch Process" White Lead.

The first spends three times as much for paint in five years, and his buildings never look as well.

Almost everybody knows that good paint can only be had by using strictly pure White Lead. The difficulty is lack of care in selecting it. The following brands are strictly pure White Lead, "Old Dutch" process; they are standard and well known—established by the test of years:
