Organ Recital.

The organ recital Tuesday evening at the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church promises to be of unusual interest. Organ recitals are usually very dry affairs t and the music generally suits professional hearers only. The however, to be played by Hall is more after the style of that given by Theodore Thomas at his concerts, and is intended more to please and gratify the hearer than to exhibit a lot of manual and pedal profleiency which wearies after a very short display. The object aimed at in the Tuesday night program is to give as much pleasure as possible to those who may be present.

The Bluffs Gets It. Secretary Rose of the Young Men's Christian association has received word from the state secretary, W. A. McGee of Des Moines, notifying him that the state convention of the association will be held in Council Bluffs next February, commencing the 23d and lasting four days. It will bring about 300 delogates to the city from all parts of lows, and the members of the association are jubilant over the fact that the honor is awarded them, although the work of enter-ining the guests will be nothing small. NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Opening of the Term of District Court-Cases Heard Yesterday.

TWO COLORED GUN FIGHTERS ON TRIAL

Judge McGee Will Not Meet Senator Hager in a Joint Debate on Political Issues-New Corporations-Where to Worship Today.

In the district court yesterday there was etition placed on file in a suit in which Charles A. Roberts is plaintiff and George W. Turner, Dora Turner, Hilbert F. Cornelson and A. A. Ciark are made defendants. The plaintiff adeges that he was awarded a judgement in the superior court against Turner for about $225, but that just before the levy was made Turner assigned his property, a part of it to his wife and a part to Cornelson, for the express purpose of defrauding his creditors, and with the understanding that the property is held in trust for Turnor. Among the property so disposed of was acreage property in Pottawattamie county valued at $4,200, and a lot in Webster's addition to the city of Council Bluffs. The plaintiffs ask that the deeds of this property be decreed null and void, and that he have a lien on the land, together with a lien on a lot of stock owned by Turner and a thirty-acre crop of corn in Council Bluffs. Judge Macy heard the trial of the case of Shank against the town of Red Oak, in which the plaintiff, together with a number of his neighbors, is seeking to enjoin the town from ordering a sidewalk to be placed n front of his premises.

Judge Smith handed down a decision yes terday in two of the cases which were insti-tuted by the members of the Woman's Chris-tian Temperance union of Neola against a number of saloon keepers of that place. In the case of Mrs. L. J. Ellithorpe against Frank Tabor and Thomas Popeloy an in-Frank Tabor and Thomas Popeloy an in-junction was granted restraining the defend-ants from selling intoxicating liquors. In the case of Melviva Harding against William Sheirbrook and Thomas Phillips, a decree was granted against Sheirbrook, but the suit against Phillips was dismissed.

Rev. J. H. Davis of Milledgeville, Ill., who occupied the pulpit of the First Baptist church two weeks ago today, has accepted a call tendered him by the church and wrote the chairman of the pulpit committee of the church last evening informing him of his church last evening into the street of Denison university at the effect October 15, and will be her the following week. Mr. Davis comes exceedingly well recommended. He is a graduate of Denison university at Granville, O., and the of the Morgan Park (III.) Theological of the Morgan Park (III.) Theological of the Morgan Park (III.) Theological of the Morgan Park (III.) and also of the Morgan Park (III.) Theologi-cal seminary. Will Not Debate. Judge McGee, candidate for congress on the democratic ticket, has received a letter from Senator A. L. Hagar, the republican candidate, congratulating bim on his nomination and stating that it is his desire to meet Judge McGee in joint discussion upon the issues involved in the present campaign, at such times and places as may be arranged by the chairmen of the democratic and republican congressional committees of the Ninth district.

"No. I don't mean to map out any cam pain just now," said Judge McGee yesterday in reply to a question as to whether he would comply with Mr. Hagar's desire. "I have too much work to do in connection with the superior court."

"Then you don't mean to resign?"
"No; a bird In the hand is worth two in the bush."

This settles the speculations that have been made in certain quarters as to the probability of another special election being held in the near future to fill a vacancy on the superior court bench; and it also settles, for the time being at least, the hopes of those who had fondly hoped to hear the issues of the campaign discussed by the statesmen of the district.

They Blame Oscar. W. A. Brown had a preliminary hearing vesterday morning before Judge McGee on the charge of committing a murderous assault upon Oscar Dixon. A number of witnesses had been summoned to tell what they knew about the case, and the sum total of what they knew did not amount to very much more than what has already appeared in the papers. The smoke from the shooting inad so obscured their vision and they had been so anxious to retreat when the bullets began to fix that they were unable to give a 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m.
