NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Prohibition Attorney Sims Wants a Settlement of His Little Bill.

SUPERVISORS SEEM SOMEWHAT SLOW

Over Twelve Hundred Dollars Asked For, But County Officers Will Wait Till the Courts Command Payment—Trans-Fluvial Happenings.

The county supervisors had old times brought back to their minds with a jerk yesterday by the contents of a large white envelope that was sent in by Attorney Jacob Sims. They consisted of a couple of bills for professional services and a letter explaining where the bills came in. It will be remembered that several years ago Mr. Sims was in the saloon closing business up to his neck as the representative of the Law and Order league, an organization that has since gone out of existence. Injunction suits were commenced by the score against the saloonkeepers who were violating the state law, and although history fails to reveal very many cases where the litigation did much good, it lived them into a considerably and a recent bill and petition was acted on, and the council adjourned till the 19th.

The letter that was presented to the board stated that the bills were for his professional services in the cases prosecuted in the district court in which A. Overton was the plaintiff, part of them being attorney's fees in cases in which he had secured judgments against the saloonkeepers, and the rest in cases where he had prosecuted the violators of injunctions and convicted them. The bills are accompanied by affidavits in which he alleges that he has made diligent search for any property of the defendants on which to levy, and has failed to find any. The following is a list of the defendants and the fees he wants in each case: David Botts, $24.40; Thomas C. Broughan, $44.50; Valentine Stevie, $33.50; John Norman, $33.50; E. Metcalf, $19; Chris Sisto, $106.00; G. W. Boynton, $79; Ed Miller, $80; L. B. Evans, $54.50; George Brassard, $54; B. Brummett, $33.50; John B. W. James, $54; E. Carroll, $29.50; James Galvin, $54; M. F. Riels, $28.50; Henry Wagner, $80; Thomas C. Broughan, $50; H. Holt, $50; John Troutman, $70; Peter J. Feter, $60; Total, $1,250.83. The bills have not been allowed yet, and it is stated on good authority that they will not be paid until the county is forced to pay them at the end of a lawsuit.

At the morning session of the board an attorney was present in the interest of the Fuller & Johnson Manufacturing company of Madison, Wis., with a petition for remission of taxes. He claimed that the company did nothing more than a transfer business here for the Piano Manufacturing company. The only business transacted yesterday was with reference to bridges and roads in various parts of the county.

Veterans at Fairmount Park. The camping ground of the veterans in Fairmount park commenced to live up yesterday morning with the arrival of the old soldiers, quite a number of whom are already on the ground. It will be a great time for the boys in blue, and the fact that they appreciate it is shown by the distances that some of them have traveled to reach Council Bluffs. One of the members of the old Twenty-ninth infantry left his home in New Orleans, in spite of the attractions that are now to be found there, and is now in the city waiting for the arrival of his old comrades. Most of the visitors will arrive this morning, and will be accommodated in the tent which is situated on the top of the hill, overlooking the Missouri valley, where they will be registered and assigned to their tents. The dinner call will be at noon and at 2 o'clock the exercises of the reunion will commence with an address of welcome by Mayor Lawrence. Colonel J. C. Williams of Leavenworth will make a response on the part of the soldiers. There will follow a couple of hours of band playing, street talks, and other amusements that strike the average old soldier in the right spot. After a 6 o'clock supper will come the evening exercises, consisting of camping, at which addresses will be made by a number of excellent speakers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the best of all remedies for children teething. 25 cents a bottle.

Taking Time by the Forelock. The Boston Store is doing a somewhat novel thing this week. The weather just now is not such as you would expect, but the Boston Store has decided to take time by the forelock and sell blankets at enough of a reduction to make it enough of an object to people who are likely to need blankets this fall. Now, Fotheringham, Whitlow & Co. have an agreeable way of anticipating the wants of the people, and in this case, judging by the prices, those who can avail themselves of this opportunity will be congratulated. Visitors to the store say there are just lots of bargains in other lines too. Considerable attention has been attracted by the enormous arrivals of new goods at the Boston Store. The sidewalk on both sides of the store has been stacked with capacious boxes, all containing new goods, most of which will be on the shelves by the middle of the week.

I am in charge of a stock of very fine good men's, boys' and children's cloth ing, which I will sell regardless of cost or value. Come and get my prices. LOUIS BREDELMAN, Mgr., 602 Broadway.

Flourished a Hatchet. Charles White, while acting as a special constable for Justice Hammon, had an exciting experience with A. Blomberg, a farmer living on Ed Martin's farm, about four miles east of the city. He went to Blomberg's place Monday night to levy on a team to satisfy a claim of $22.50 that John Clausen had against him. The sidewalk on the farm was attached and he prepared to seize the team, when Blomberg commenced a vigorous resistance. Grabbing a hatchet the owner of the team, White, was thrown wildly above his head and swore that if White didn't drop the hatchet he would lead him to the light of the harvest moon. White preferred to have things go on about as they were inside his head, and he lost no time in complying with Blomberg's suggestion. He returned to Justice Hammon's office, where he swore out an information charging Blomberg with assault. He then got Elmer Jensen to go with him. When Blomberg saw there were two men after him he wilted and consented to be led to the city jail, where he was landed at a little before 4 o'clock yesterday morning. He will probably have a hearing this morning.

For a disordered liver try Becham's Pills I will sell you men's suits, part cotton, from $2.50 on up. Overcoats from $1 up. Boys' and children's clothing in proportion. LOUIS BREDELMAN, Mgr., 602 Broadway.

Freight train of fourteen cars is run across the stage with an illuminated caboose and a practical locomotive. A mail train comes speeding by and catches the mail pouch just as every one has seen it do many a time. In the last act Niagara Falls are shown in all their natural beauty. A cataract of real water is put on Getting Ready for Camp. The Dodge Light guards held a meeting Monday night to make arrangements for going to the regimental encampment at Sioux City next Friday. Noncommissioned officers were appointed as follows: Third sergeant, Will Pryor; fourth sergeant, D. E. Stewart; fifth sergeant, C. H. Ogden; corporals, G. D. Shepard, Frank Vincent, C. Coffey.

The members of the company have been working and drilling almost constantly up to the present time, and will be ready to appear at camp. For some reason or other, however, the state has disappointed them in furnishing uniforms, and they will be at something of a disadvantage so far as looks are concerned. The uniforms were promised for the first part of August, but a recent telegram states that they cannot be turned out for several weeks. The old uniforms will have to be called into requisition until the new state uniforms can be procured as far as possible. The silver lining to the cloud is the fact that all the other companies in the regiment are in the same boat so far as uniforms are concerned, and they haven't the Apollonian forms of the Council Bluffs soldiers, who do not need nice clothes to set off their looks.

DeWitt's Sarsaparilla is reliable.

For Rent—Modern 7-room cottage on North Scott street. J. C. DeHaven.

Police Kickings. W. A. Brown was ordered to the grand jury yesterday morning by Judge McGee to answer to the charge of committing a murderous assault on Oscar Dixon. His bond was fixed at $1,000, and he was released to $500 by the prosecuting attorney. Oscar Dixon, who was thought to have left the country to avoid prosecution, turned up at the right time and will have a hearing this morning. His bond was also fixed at $500, and both of the men will put up the necessary amount to insure their release.

James Tracer, who stabbed Minnie Dixon, was also to have had a hearing, but he was unable to get to court. He gave bonds for his appearance about ten days ago, but since that time has not been seen. Whether he is in the city or not is a matter of some uncertainty. The Dixon woman was not on hand when court convened either, although the officers claim that she is here and can be readily brought into court when wanted.

Frank Jones, charged with burglary, and J. Bremer, with assault with intent to commit murder, were granted another continuance until this morning.

Fully 300 guests were present from Council Bluffs, St. Joseph, South Omaha, Jewtown and other neighboring towns. Dancing was indulged in during the evening and a fine supper was served. The dancing and feasting were not over until several hours after midnight.

A petition was filed in the district court yesterday by Michael Maloney against the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company to recover damages for injuries he claimed to have received while walking along the company's platform at Arcadia, Carroll county, Ia., September 21, 1892. He alleges that the company allowed his omnibus to get out of repair so that a plank became loose and tripped him up, injuring his spine and neck permanently.
