Regular meeting of the Council Bluffs Republican club this evening at the headquarters in the Sapp building. A full attendance is desired. W. F. Sapp, Jr., president; W. M. Shepard, secretary.

Jacob Smith appeared before the supervisors and made a proposition with reference to the bill he presented a few days ago for storage fees in the whisky cases. He offered to settle for 50 cents on the dollar if paid in cash; otherwise he would continue a suit to recover the whole amount.

J. J. Stewart came before the board as attorney for the school board and stated that arrangements were being made whereby the difficulty that seemed to threaten the public schools of the city would be overcome, and he asks that action be postponed until Saturday morning. His request was granted.

A rumor was also stated that the city council had been pulled off the same kind of a trick in certifying the city tax levy, but proved to be a canard. The council should have met last Monday, but as it was a legal holiday an adjournment was taken to this day, when the certificate was made out in due form, so that another mistake was narrowly escaped.

The report of City Physician Jennings for the month of August shows the total number of deaths to have been eighteen, nine males and nine females, a decrease of two over the corresponding month of 1921. One of the striking things about the report is the absence of contagious diseases, not a case having been reported since July 20. There were six cases of diphtheria reported during August a year ago.

Henry Jeffries has been arrested on the charge of receiving stolen property. The case is an outgrowth of some trouble that took place at Elk Lake about a year ago, when W. A. Stahl was robbed of a watch and some jewelry. Mr. J. Jeffries was also robbed of some jewelry. They have just discovered where it was to be found, and had a search warrant issued from Justice Zimmerman, resulting in the finding of part of the goods.

Wanted to Buy. Improved property. Will pay cash if price is low. H. C. McKee, 10 Main street.

Gentlemen, the finest line of fall goods in the city just received. Reiler, the tailor, 310 Broadway.

Poor Old Sports. All day long yesterday the prevailing theme of conversation on the street corners and in the various resorts was the Sullivan-Corbett mill. It was a subject of much surprise to most of the "dead game sports," although most of them, after the first shock had worn off, recovered their presence of mind and told how they had looked for that very result all along.

Yesterday all eyes were turned to the Sullivan men, but takers were overwhelmingly against Sullivan. Yesterday even the few who had been unfortunate enough to find takers among the Corbett contingent had disappeared, and scarcely anyone could be found who would venture to admit that he bet and lost. It is known now that the few who had faith in Corbett's stock made a good deal of money, but they have enough sympathy for the loser not to mention any names. J. B. Sampson of the Postal-Telegraph company was probably the heaviest winner. His bet was in Corbett from the start, and is now reaping the reward.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Old Soldiers Bring Their Encampment to a Sudden End.

RAIN INTERFERED WITH THE PROGRAM

Meeting of the Southwestern Iowa Veterans Association—Plans Selected and Dates Fixed for Other Reunions—An Old Soldier Robbed.

Yesterday was the closing day of the soldiers' encampment, but it closed a little more suddenly than had been expected, owing to the disagreeable weather.

During the war the veterans thought nothing of having to sleep in the open air during a rain storm, but when they awoke at 1 o'clock yesterday morning to hear the rain drops patter on the roof above their heads and find that the blankets and camp cots were being soaked at them from heaven, each one swore a solemn oath that he would light out for some place as soon as morning came.

There was to have been a parade at 11 o'clock, but the rain made the roads a mass of slimy, sticky mud, so the parade was abandoned.

In the afternoon there was to have been a speech at the grounds, but a good number of the veterans had already left for home and more were going by every train, so that it was decided to save the remainder of the program by promptly dismissing the veterans and adjourning the afternoon and the exercises of the reunion were at an end.

The committee that had the care of entertaining the soldiers in charge, did as well as could be expected under the circumstances, and no effort was spared that would make the stay of the visitors any more pleasant.

At a meeting of the Southwestern Iowa Veterans' association it was decided to hold the next reunion at Woodbine, Mo., date to be announced later on. The following officers were chosen: Colonel, Dr. L. H. Genderson, Woodbine, Mo.; lieutenant, H. C. Harshberger of Woodbine; chaplain, Rev. A. Stott of Logan.

A meeting of the Twenty-ninth Iowa was held at Logan, Mo., and was a success. The place for holding the reunion, August 17 and 18, 1923. The following were elected: Colonel—G. W. Stocker of Logan. Lieutenant Colonel—Frank Roberts of Dunlap. Major—L. M. Warren of Glenwood. Adjutant—W. Lyman of Oakland. Quartermaster—James Moore of Glenwood. Chaplain—F. M. Britt of Plattsmouth. Surgeon—J. H. Rice of Harrison county. Drum Major—Wallace McAdams of Council Bluffs. Major—W. Wilkens of Bedford. Captain of the various companies were then chosen as follows: Company A—J. J. Brockbuser of Missouri. Company B—M. H. Myers of Glenwood. Company C—John Davis of Pender, Neb. Company D—F. M. Davis of Corning. Company E—H. Dickinson of Ottumwa. Company F—W. E. Evans of Bedford. Company G—A. Johnson of Sidney. Company H—W. C. Johnson of Ottumwa. Company I—W. McCook of Salem, Neb. Company K—H. H. Woodrow of Malvern.

Knocked Out. A romantic tale of plighted affection and matrimonial hopes that were knocked into a cocked hat by the well meaning but rather hard-hearted managers of the Woman's Christian association, took place last night yesterday. For sometime past a woman who had been kept at the hospital for treatment, whose charms have enamored a well known member of Council Bluffs. This gentleman found but one thing lacking to make his adored one an ideal of beauty, and that one thing was the fact that she had no teeth. After finding out a number of months he persuaded her to go up town and get some teeth, but in the meantime he had in some way become disinterested in the woman and association and they forbade him coming to the hospital any more. Yesterday the disappointed lover went before the board of directors and with a request in his hand to induce them to rescind the contract they have with the association for the care of patients, and a request for such a step. He told a number of stories which were detrimental to the ladies of the association and the way in which they cared for patients, and the board of directors reported before the board and replied to his accusations in a way that seemed to satisfy the board that everything was all right. At the same time the board announced their steps toward rescinding the contract, but held that the ladies had a right to deny patients an association that would do such a thing. The lady in question consequently goes without teeth and the gentleman goes without a sweetheart.

They Want to Be Encouraged. Justice Swearingin, who held police court yesterday in the absence of Judge McGee for a day or two of this week, has discharged Frank Jones, the young man who was caught stealing a minked hat, and a pair of shoes, and a great deal of other things, that had been stolen from Toller's grocery. The reason given for the discharge was the fact that Jones' mother was poor and didn't want her son sent to the penitentiary for burglary, and Mr. Toller was too tender hearted to prosecute the case against the boy. The gentleman's mother said she would support her son, but she would not prosecute. The court thereupon discharged the case and taxed the costs to the father.

The fact that it is so easy for certain petty criminals to avoid punishment after being arrested is causing a great deal of dissatisfaction among the city officers who are paid for trying to keep the peace. "What encouragement is there for us in our duty," said one of them, "when we see the man that we arrest turned loose without the slightest attempt at a trial. Jones has been in jail a number of times, and he never has a day in a row of some kind. We had almost a dead end on him this time, but simply because he had a mother that has never yet furnished a dollar to support her son to be turned loose."

Not So Bad as It Seemed. Some one has unearthed a mare's nest by making the discovery that the school board has failed to comply with the law which provides that the tax levy shall be certified to the Board of Supervisors not later than the first day of September. At first sight it would appear that the natural result of this would be that the schools would have to go without money during the coming year, and a prophecy to that effect is being made by certain parties who are disposed to look on the dark side of things, but although there is still some uncertainty as to what will be the final outcome, present indications are that the difficulty will be straightened up in the course of a day or two.

The matter was brought to the attention of the supervisors yesterday morning by W. H. Ware, who appeared as attorney for certain property owners whose names he refused to disclose. He stated that the supervisors had made an attempt to levy a tax to carry on the schools his clients would begin injunction proceedings to prevent them from doing this, and he stated that the friends of his clients caused some remark and it was hinted by some that politics had a great deal to do with his zeal to prevent the levy from being made, and his particular desire to see that the law was obeyed to the letter.

George Davis, drugs and paints.

Reception to Rev. G. W. Crofts. Rev. G. W. Crofts and family were tendered a pleasant reception last evening at the Congregational church by a number of his friends. The weather was bad, but in spite of it a good number of the friends of the reverend gentleman, both in the church and out, gathered in the auditorium to bid him farewell. A number of valuable presents were given him, but the one thing probably that will be the most highly prized of all, was a collection of photographs of persons and places about Council Bluffs that will remind him of his residence here long after he has returned to his home in a familiar object upon the streets of the city. The church was handsomely decorated with flowers, and a number of books, which had attained so wide-spread popularity, a number of bunches of "golden rods" were scattered about the room. A short but interesting musical program was rendered, in which Mrs. H. B. Jones, Miss Loring, Miss Ogden and Miss Colby took part, and at the close the audience was given a chance to bid good-bye to the departing ones. Mr. Crofts and family leave next Wednesday for Detroit, Mich., which will be their future home.

DeWitt's Sarsaparilla is reliable.

It might be of interest to the people of Council Bluffs, more especially to the ladies, to know about the crazy idea of making wrappers out of blankets.

The crazy idea was struck the masses, judging from the quantity sold by the Boston Store during the blanket sale, which commenced last Monday and continues until Monday, September 12.

We show three special values in wrapper blankets, made single and bound all the way round, at $1.50, $3.00, $4.50. Every blanket in our store at special sale price. See white blankets from $1.75 to $13.00, red blankets from $2.00 to $5.00.

Gray and sanitary mixed blankets from 67c to $5.00. Don't miss show window display.

Our sale of blankets only lasts a few more days. If in need of any thing in this line, which most people will find weather gets cool, would advise them to invest now and save money, as our entire stock of blankets is at special sale prices for this sale.

Robbed a Soldier. Even the camping grounds of the veterans on the top of Fairmount park hill are not exempt from the depredations of sneak-thieves, pickpockets and the like. Yesterday an old soldier named Skelper, from Marsville, Mo., fell a victim to a man who neither tells his name nor his name, but who has been saving up to pay his expenses while he was away from Hancock and the home. He did not discover his loss until the thief had had time to make his departure.

Mrs. L. R. Patton, Hoxford, Ill., writes: "From personal experience I can recommend DeWitt's Sarsaparilla, a cure for impure blood and general debility."

SOUTH OMAHA

Republican Enthusiasm 'Way Above Par in the Magic City.

Republican enthusiasm was away above par in South Omaha, and it was fully attested at the meeting of the republican club last evening at Knights of Pythias hall. The republicans were out in large numbers and the interest manifested was earnest and great.

President Stanley called the meeting to order, and the first business transacted was the reading of the report of the committee that had reported the Knights of Pythias hall in conjunction with the Young Men's Republican club.

E. C. Lane was called upon and spoke at length. He urged a more active interest in the campaign among the members of the club, and he predicted a republican victory now until after election. He predicted success to November, and in his opinion the American people would never countenance the attempt of the democratic and pro-socialist parties to prevent an election of a president and vice-president and throw it into the hands of a foreigner.

Mr. Lane's remarks were frequently applauded.

Rev. J. C. H. of the pastor of the Alhambra African church, was in the crowd and was called out. He said the republicans were applied principally to what the republican party had accomplished in the past. He said the republican party was always promising, but never doing. He referred to the members of the party who were always promising, but never doing. He referred to the members of the party who were always promising, but never doing.

The reversed gentleman stirred up a large amount of enthusiasm and his remarks were frequently applauded.

Council Savage made a short speech, in which he gave a history of Van Wyck's place in the history of our city. He said that he was a member of the council and he was a member of the council.

C. A. Evans, E. G. Mayfield and E. C. Lane were called upon and they all spoke in support of the republican party.

The club adjourned to meet Thursday evening.

Identified by His Wife. The strange man who was arrested at Swift's packing house Wednesday evening was identified yesterday by Mrs. Joseph Krozog, as her husband. She lives at Fourteenth and Center streets, Omaha, and has a small child. Her husband had been regularly employed by Swift's packing house and left there Tuesday morning and was not seen by any of his friends until Mrs. Krozog said she was sorry he had not come home. She said she had been looking for him and she had been looking for him.

Two Runaway Girls. Two young girls, each about 16 years of age, have caused a great deal of anxiety, and their parents are very anxious to have them returned to their homes. The girls' names are Laura Daniels and Missie Brown, and H. C. Daniels, the father of the former girl, was in the city last evening looking for the runaway girls. He was looking for the runaway girls.

ARE TRYING TO BE FRIENDS

Tammany and Cleveland Democrats Get Together at New York.

HILL IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN PLACATED

Colorado Republicans Meet in State Convention—Arkansas, at Des Moines, Geo. Democratic—Springer Replies to Senator Cullom—A Few Political Pointers.

New York, Sept. 8.—Grover Cleveland, accompanied by Don M. Dickinson, arrived from Buzzard's Bay this morning on the steamer Pilgrim. Cleveland drove to the Victoria hotel, where he will remain until the evening, when he will return to Buzzard's Bay. Mr. Cleveland's purpose in coming to New York is supposed to be to confer with democratic leaders over the political situation. It is a long conference with Senator Brown, who is on friendly terms with Tammany leaders, this morning.

William C. Whitney was charged with Edward Murphy, Jr., and Chairman Sheehan of the democratic state committee this morning. It is openly stated that on
