DEPUTY FIST'S DISCLOSURES

He Pretends to Explain Where Adams County's Funds Went

ACCUSED PAUL OF TAKING THE MONEY

While Knowing That the Affairs of the Office Were Not Being Properly Conducted He Declares That He Could Do Nothing.

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 9 .- [Special Telegrain to THE BEE. |-- At last ex-Deputy County Treasurer Emanual Fist has given to the public his statement of the county treasury muddle, and to say that it is sensational is to put it in mild language. If he can prove one-half of what he alleges as true, the Adams county treasurer's . office was the scene of corruption almost beyond descrip-

The morning session was partly spent in an effort to secure a jury and after ninetynine men had been examined as to their fitness to sit as jurors, twelve were selected to try Fist for the crime of being an accessory to the embezziement of county funds. County Attorney Hosppuor made the statement of the case to the jury on the part of the prosecution. He expected to prove that a shortage in the treasury during the administration of Charles H. Paul had been connived at by Fist acting as his deputy.

Attorney M. A. Hartigan for the defense followed. The defense expected to prove that Mr. Fist was not Paul's deputy during the last term, but that Paul handled the money himself, Fist acting merely as his servant. The whole scandal began white the new court house was being built. Paul was interested in a brick yard and Mr. Hartigan said that before the bond+ voted by the su-pervisors had been negotiated Paul had pervisors had been negotiated rawn out $28,000 for use in the vard, and this sum had never been entered on the books or returned into the treasury. When he took the office he had but little property.

Where the Money Went. To show where the money went he said it would be proven that $22,000 was sunk in the brick yard, $11,000 had gone to H. Bostthe brick yard, $11,000 had gone to H. Bost-wick, president of the defunct City Na-tional bank, $15,000 had been lost in real es-tate peculation during the boom, $3,000 had been lost in Paul's Mexican mine which had been left him by ex-Congressman Laird and that from $5,000 to $5,000 had been loaned to political friends. In order to cover up his tracks Paul, he alleged, burned in the furnace all the checks for a considerable period representing all the above sums. Fist was all the time kept in the dark as to these transactions, but twice he protected the county by telling Paul frankly that unless certain matters were made right he would divulge the discrep-nacies to the proper authorities, once at the failure of the City National bank and the other time at the final settlement with the supervisors.

In the afternoon it was agreed by stipula tion that Paul was treasurer from 1888 to 1892, and that Fist was his deputy from 1888 to 1899, the state claiming that he continued so during the two other years. Mr. Paul was brought up from the court house jail where he is confined while awaiting action of the supreme court on his motion for a new trini, and was called on as a witness for the trial, and was called on as a without of the state, He simply deposed to the fact that he had known Mr. Fist for ten years, and that during the years from 1888 to 1892 he had served him as deputy. The defense wished to question him on his connection with a Mexican mine and the Hastings Pressed Brick company, but the court rerefused to allow the question to be answered.

How Fist Acted.

On redirect examination the semi-annual statements made to the Board of Supervis ors were shown to be in Mr. Fist's handwriting. Mr. Fist had absolute control of the books, as Paul was physically unable to do any of the ciercal work. On redirect cross-examination the defense endeavored to show that Fist was but a hired clerk and did not have any authority to act as deputy. The checks he issued and which were returned by the banks on which they were issued, were destroyed, as they were very voluminous, and incumbered the office. Mr. Fist knew that the checks were to be de Stroved and interposed no objection. Mr. Paul said that at the time the checks were sucd he believed that he had the stubs, but afterward he could not find them.

Jay Cherry was tax collector for Hastings in 1880 and indentified the checks and re-ceipts in what are known as the "Cherry the receipts being in Mr. Fist's handwriting. The checks were produced and shown by the defense to be encorsed by Mr. Paul. The Little Blue township item were then explained to the jury. Expert J. R. Ratcliffe, who made the examination of the books, was called on behalf of the state A discussion arose over an objection made to a question asked the witness, "What actual nount of shortage did you fied?" the fense claiming that the verdict of the jury which tried Mr. Paul was the best evidence.

After authorities had been introduced reaching back to England the court ordered the question answered and the defense failed in their effort to fix the shortage at $750, the amount Mr. Paul was found guilty of em-

West Point News Notes,

WEST POINT, Neb., Sept. 9.- | Special to THE BEE. |-A delightfully party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Giffert, Wednesday evening, in honor of Miss Neff, a niece of Mr. Giffert's, from Chicago. A dance pavilion was erected on the lawn, and a string of electric lights were suspended from the residence to the platform, thus illuminating the surroundings. The music was furnished by the Juvenile band. Later in the evening the party, numbering fifty, repaired to the residence, where a bounteous supper awaited them. The balance of the evening was taken up in games, etc. Miss Neff returned the next morning to her home in Chicago.

The firemen's picnic, which was held in this city Tuesday, proved to be a great suc-cess. Delegations of firemen came from Fremont, Scribner, Wisner and other points, and were met at the depot by the reception committee and escorted to the firemen's headquarters in the city hall. The business houses on Main street were handsomely decorated. At 2:30 p. m. the hose races began on Main street. The West Point running team and the Scribner boys entered. The home team did the act in twenty-nine seconds, while the Scribner boys turned on water in thirty-five seconds. Immediately after the racing the parade began and marched from Lincoln to Main street and thence to Riverside park, where F. M. Franse delivered an eloquent eulogy on firemen in general, after which the Jelinek's string band commenced the ball by playing the firemen's dance. The picnic passed off pleasantly and the visiting firemen were loud in their praises of West Point's hospitality.

Haul Made by Train Robbers in the Cherokee Strip. GUTHRIE, Okl., Seps. 9 .- The southbound passenger train on the Santa Fe was late in arriving owing to the fact that it was held up by train robbers at Wharton, in the Cherokee strip, a station twenty miles north of this city. The robbers had their horses hitched near the depot, and after attempting to rob the train remained there for some time. Wharton is a little unprotected station in the Cherokee strip, where a tele-graph operator was killed two years ago. This is the third time trains have been held up there.

When the train arrived at this city nine bullet holes were counted on the west side of the express car. The conductor, Ed Kitching states that when his train stopped to take water he walked down the track and was met by his engineer and fireman with three other men. Revolvers were leveled at him and the robbers went on until they reached the express car, when they denanded admittance. They were refused by Messenger George Wagner. The robbers then opened fire and a fusilade of shots were Wagner and his assistant stood their

PREFERS DEATH TO A LONG TERM

Bergman Says He Will Kill Himself Rather Than Serve Over Ten Years. Pirrsnung, Pa., Sept. 9. - Anarchist Bergman, who attempted the life of H. C. Frick, stated in an interview today that if his sentence was more than ten years he would kill There was not enough in life, he said, to spend twenty or thirty years in prison, with the prospects of a few years of liberty aften the sentence had expired. Said he: "I fully realize the consemy attempt on t attempted to kill him, and was prepared to suffer the consequences had he died. More than ten years in prison would be worse than hanging, and if I had my choice I would prefer to hang rather than spend lifetime in prison.' Bergman coolly talks of his crime and expresses only one regret—that his mission failed. He does not give Mr. Frick credit for the coolness and nerve entimed for him when the assault took place, and says: "There is no use talking to me about Mr. Frick not being frightened. He was the worst scared man I ever saw and I don't blame him much for it. He believed I meant to kill him, as I certainly did, and he had a right o be scared, as he certainly was." In all his talk Bergman steadily refuses to speak of anyone else in connection with the assault and shoulders the whole responsibility himself.

INOCULATION AND THE PESTILENCE

It is Being Used with Gratifying Results in Inglish Hospitals-Mr. Morley and the Eviction Law-Financial Troubles -Notes and Gossip.

Copyrighted 1892 by New York Associated Press.] LONDON, Sept. 9.-Official reports show that the cholera has been absolutely stamped out of the United Kingdom. The local government board, the authorities at the chief ports and the greatest populous centers concur in the statement that no cases of real cholera, but only a few choleraic cases, have occurred. Experts say that though the disease was prought to England at a dozen different ports it has been limited to persons arriving from infected places.

The medical press assumes a triumphant tone at the success of the sanitary arrangements. The Lancet admits, however, that the defensive measures are in two respects defective. The system of keeping people arriving from infected places under inspection for only a few days does not sufficiently provide for immigration, aliens not knowing where they would lay their heads next. The fact that Hamburg ships replenished their water from the cholera polluted Eibe was over looked. Still the result proves what the Lancet says, that the English system of inspection is in support of the ordinary quarantine regulations. It is not certainly infaltiple. Disease may filter through the merhes of sanitary administration, but given general cleanliness and attention to sanitation, no quarantine is necessary to repel an it road of cholera.

The tone of the Lancet accurately represents the feeling of the country. The local government board keeps vigilant. It has sent to the provinces a staff of traveling inspectors to arrange everywhere for the treatment of patients. In the event of death oc-curring cremation is officially approved as the soundest method for the disposal of the Inoculation Against Cholera.

Inoculation against cholera is being practiced at the bospitais upon voluntary patients, it is reported to be effective, involving only slight feverish symptoms. After undergoing the protective process for a few days perfect immunity from the disease is at-

Mr. John C. Where in-stances occurred like the Marathon, the steamer dispatched by the Cunard company to carry immigrants, he was duly apprised and warned the agents of the companies to take the necessary precautions against infected passengers or bag-gage. He knew of no instance since the circular came into operation where a ship carried both saloon passenger and emigrants. The saloon passengers now embarked sailed with the assurance that the vessels did not carry emigrants. Referring to the question discussed in London daily, that, if the assurauce is broken and the cabin passengers are detained in quarantine, or otherwise suffer, have they a ciaim for damages against the steamer companies, Mr. New said Le was decidedly of the opinion that they could so

Mr. Morley's First Official Act. Among the first fruits of Chief Secretary 's presence in Ireland is the release of who had been imprisoned for contempt of court by defying the decision of a judge on a question of eviction. Mr. Moriey has gone the whole length the law allows him in releasing this prisoner. Being asked if he would refuse to aid the police in effect-ing evictions, Mr. Moriey said he had been warned that he was bound by law to assent to officers assisting the sheriff in carrying out every eviction. If he refused to give such assent then the Irish unionists would indict him for a breach of the law.

The convention of the trades congress in session at Giasgow is the biggest meeting the body has ever held. There are in attendance 493 delegates, representing 4.943. 334 members. The convention is attracting little attention, and many of its proceedings verge on the farcical. A noted delegate, William Abraham, a working collier and copper smelter of Cwmavon, Wales, who represents Rhoudda in the House of Commons, volunteered to relieve the duliness of the debate at one of the sessions by singing a song. The offer was grasped at by the wearied delegates, and amid loud acclaims Mr. Apraham who is a Welsh "bard" and is commonly known in his constituency by his bardic name, "Mabon," rendered with good effect in the Welsh tongue "The Men o' Harlen." This innovation in the proceedings was a great success, the members of the congress enthusiastically applauding the vocalistic efforts of Mr. Abraham and vociferously demanding an encore. The political influ-ence accorded the congress seems to be essening.

Investment Companies Fail. The failure of the House and Land Investment trust (limited) announced today is part of a series of the Gigantic Bank and Build-ing society suspensions, with liabilities ap-proximating £6,000,000. The first failure announced in this series was that of the London and General bank (limited.) The next that of the Liberal, Permanent Build-ing and Investment society, and now comes this suspension. The nominal capital of each of these concerns does not represent anything approaching the Habilities. anything approaching the flabilities.
The money which they owe is chiefly due to depositors and investors who have been induced to participate in the affairs of the concerns by the alluring high rate of interest which they offered. bank are roughly estimated at £1,000,000, those of the Liberal at £2,500,000, and those of the House and Land Trust at £2,000,000. Another great building and bank society is involved in serious bank society is involved in serious financial difficulties, but its suspension has not yet been announced. The collapse of this concern will shake the whole building society system in Great Britain. A run oc curred today on the most prominent bank in ondon, the Associated Workmen's Building and. Although the suspensions must affect the general financial position, it is a singular fact that the crisis causes no pacte or a scare The Limited Building bank investors are small capitalists whose life savings are swept away or are imperited by the failure of the concern to which they have entrusted their money. The losses which led to the suspensions are chiefly fraceable to injudiclous speculations in London blocks. So far no suspicion of malversation attaches to the officers of any of the ruined concerns, although the holders charge them with concealing the true position of the in-stitutions. Thus a shareholder in the House and Land Investment trust, after repeated applications to be allowed to withdraw his oney today, got a circular dated September 3 announcing the trust's suspension. Al-though finance is in the meantime anaffected, the ruin brought on some investors must soon cause a strain on the big banks. tieneral Anderson Critically III.

Scourge Afflicted on Our Chures.

PRESIDENT HARRISON TAKES ACTION

He Orders Part of Sandy Hook Set Aside for the Reception of Passengers on Cholera Ships-Plague Notes.

QUARANTINE, Sept. 10.-At 1 o'clock this morning Dr. Jenkins had been sleeping for over an hour and a half when the telegraph operator called him to deliver a message from the long awaited Scandia, which was expected in momentarily. Reporters had been standing around waiting for him, hoping against hope to get news of the safe arrival of the Scandia, which had left the plague stricken port of Hamourg on August -27, loaded with 1,086 souls. She had the enormous number of 981 steerage, twenty-seven caoin and seventyseven members of her cr. w. Before she had been many days out the cholera had proken out, and before she arrived the pest was fairly raging on board of her, thirty-nine cases occurring in half a week. Of these thirty-two succambed before before she arrived at the lower quarantine anchorage.

Consigned to the Deep. One by one, by couples and by threes the bodies of the unfortunate victims were dropped overboard.

Dr. Byron boarded all the vessels at midnight. He found all well on board the Normannia, the Rugia, Moravia and Wyoming, but when he reached the Scandia he found this terrible tale of disaster and trouble. Thirty-two deaths had taken place, of which twenty-nine were in the steerage, two in the crew and one in the cabin. There were still seven virulent cases. on board and these Dr. Byron removed to Swinburn island. The Scandia is the first vessel to arrive thoroughly infected with cholera. The Moravia, Rugia and Normannia had brought it in their secrages, and in the case of the latter it had worked among the crow. Filled with the Postilence.

The Scandia has it from her bow to her tern, from her main deck to her kelson. Cabin passengers, crew and emigrants all have it in their midst, and she will propably be the hardest cholera importer to fight of the lot.

As though the Scandia was not enough for one night, another horror was added to the situation. Yesterday the Wyoming was the only one on the suspect list, Now, at 2 in the morning, she can be classed as a cholera ship. Mrs. Person, the mother of the two little children. Elias and Acelside, who died yesterday of a suspicious disease, has berself succumbed to the dread disease. She with three more were removed from the Wyoming during the late forenoon yesterday. They were placed in the hospital and Mrs. Person died during the night.

The removal of the seven cases to Swinburn island was successfully accomplished at 2:15 a. m.

WILL AID THE AUTHORITIES. Meeting of the New York Chamber of Commerce to Discuss the Cholera Situation. NEW YORK, Sept. 9. - A special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held this afternoon to co-operate with the authorities in the choiera precautions. A communication was received from Dr. Jenkins, in which he appealed for some arrangements by which it would be possible to remove to the shore passengers no detained on vessels. 'Each hour imperils them,' he said. Secretary of the Treasury Foster made a brief speech, in which he said he was con vinced that both the federal and state au-thorities had up to this time done everything possible to prevent the entrance cholera. Resolutions were adopted commending the efforts of authorities of the state and federal government and deploring the necessity which compelled the passengers to be de tained on the ships, and stating that hu-manity demanded that arrangements be made for their removal to so ne isolated spot on the land.

After the meeting the committee prepared and sent a letter to Dr. Jenkins, informing him of the appointment of the committee and notifying him that they hold themselves expression of his views. They urge the doctor to avail himself of the use of Sandy Hook immediately, and suggest that he enlist the co-operation of the New York academy of medicine. These suzgestions are made, say the committee, not to emparrass, but to aid the health officer.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9-The Hamburg-Amercan steamship Wieland reached the lower bay this morning and anchored and hoisted the yellow flag, indicating that she had sickness, probably cholera, aboard. The Wieland, like the Rugia, carries both cabin and steerage passengers, and has her full complement of the lutter.

There have been two deaths aboard the steamer Wyoming. Dr. Jenkins thinks the deaths are suspicious and has sent the mother of the two children to Swinburn island for investigation. Dr. Jenkins has also found two children and the mother of another family sick with cholera symptoms and sent them to the island. The immigrants came from Russia. The Wyoming will go back to lower quarantine and the steerage passengers will be landed on Hoffman island for observation.

The vellow flag is also flying from the pole on Hoffman island. Though the news that two more cholers ships were in port increases the gravity of the situation at quarantiae, there and alarm felt in official circles and the thauthorities are still confident of able to keep the dread in the from landing. Dr. Jenkins said t from landing. Dr. Jenkins said in the Moravia for several days and he confluent the disease had been stamped aboard that vessel.

The British steamer Joseph John, whi left Hamburg August 20, passed San Hook for New York at 8:20. The vess registers but 1,357 tons and is of the train species of steamer. She reports all weh and no sickness among her crew of twenty-

The White Star steamer Brittannia arrived this morning. She had 215 cabin and 714 st erage passengers. All are well. She will probably go up tomorrow morning. The Spree is expected to go up late this afternoon. The Prince William, Saginaw and Alsati went up today.

An appeal is today addressed to Governor Flower signed by a committee of passengers first and second class, of the steamer Nor Europe's Disease Spot Trying to Dump Its mannia protesting against being kept pris-oners aboard that choicra infected ship. The petition is signed by a committee con-sisting entirely of physicians, and among other charges against Dr. Jonkins is the allegations that the health officers only visit the vessel every two or three days, make no systematic and regular inspection, and that dead bodies remain on the vessel a danger ously long time before removal by the health

> PRESIDENT HARRISON TAKES ACTION. He Issues Orders Concerning Passengers on Plague Ships.

LOON LAKE, N. Y., Sept. 9.-The president had a full day today. He drove with Mr. W. D. Phillips to Sarange, delivered a speech there and returned in time for dinner. At Saranac the president was the guest of L. W. Fisher. At noon he delivered an address to the people of the town, very briefly, n the public square. He thanked the people for the cordiality of his reception. He would not, he said, attempt to discuss public questions or to say more to his hearers than that they could not escans the responsibility as American citizens, and it was well worth the while of each to think what contribution he can make to the peace and happiness of his neighborhood and to the glory of this great

Before leaving this morning the president was advised that it was desirable to use t portion of the Sandy Hook reservation as camp for detained passengers of vessels quarantined in New York harbor. Later, on the receipt of telegrams from the secretaries of the navy and treasury, he sent this:

TO THE ACTING SECRETARY OF WAR: In view of representations in ade by Secretaries Foster and Tracy I desire that a sufficient portion of the reservation at Sandy Hook be set apart for use as a camp for quarantined steamsh passengers. BENJAMIN HARRISON. The president advised the secretary of the treasury of this order, at the same time cau tioning him as to the difficulty of maintaining a proper quarantine of such a camp i established, and also of a possible embar-rassment that might arise from the removal of the passengers out of the jurisdiction of New York officers. Both these questions must be left to the judgment of the officers on the ground and those who know the situation. He also directed that notice be given all steamship companies that if they persisted in bringing immigrants from infected ports that it might result in their being de nied entrance to our harbors

Will Be Taken Off Today. QUARANTIME, Sept. 9. - The late afternoon report today from the lower quarantine was much more reassuring than previous reports, With the exception of the deaths and cases on board the steamer Wvoming, which, at the worst, are only suspicious ones at present he new case of Edward Welss and the death of Cari Blessin, g which were reported in the early foreneou, are the only new develop-ments of the day.

Dr. Jenkins was seen tonight with regard to various subjects connected with the cholera and the quarantine matter. He was asked the all important question as to the release of the cabin passengers on board the Normannia and Rugia. He said that they receiving the former and the New Hampshire the latter's passengers. If there was any sickness on board the Scandia her pasany sickness on board the sengers would be landed and kept on the Escaped from Quarantine.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 9.—George S Weaver, the European agent of the San Francisco Tea company is here and says he was one of the passengers aboard the Normannia. He says he escaped from the vessel and quarantine regulations by swimming surreptitiously to another vessel lying near in New York harbor and from there getting to shore, New York, Sept. 9.—The Hamburg

American agents here looked over the lists of all passengers but found no one named Weaver among the Normannia's passengers nor is there such a name in the list of the crew. They piece no faith in the story of anyone's escape from the steamer.

More Complaints of Passengers. New Haven, Coon, Sept. 9.-Samuel A. York, jr., son of ex-Mayor York of this city writing to his father from the cholera-in fected ship, Norm nama, complains bitterly of the manner in which the passengers are treated by the ship's officers. The sick and dead, Mr. York says, are left abourd from twelve to thirty-six hours. The boat itself he asserts, is in a filthy condition, and the officers are either unwilling or unable to make the men clean it. George A. president of the Tradesmen's bank city, writing to a friend, makes similar state He says the situation is becoming desperate.

Infected Clothing Washed Ashore. Washington, D. C., Sept. 9 .- The Treasury department has been informed that the bedding which was cast away by the Moravia on its voyage to New York, and which was thrown upon the New Jersey coast recently, has been burned by the state health authorities and that a patrol has been estab-lished along the coast for the destruction by tire of any article found on the seashore that might possibly contain contagion. In view of the precautious the Treasury department will take no action in the matter.

Threatened Violence.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9 .- An exciting scene was created in the office of the Hamburg-American company today by L. Goldstacker, a merchant of the city, who rushed in excit edly, hat in hand, and while tears trickled down his cheeks figreely demanded and then besought the release of his mother and two brothers, who are detained on the plague ship Normannia. He talked about shooting Dr. Jenkins. Finally he left, to carry his appeal to the quarantine commissioner.

Minnesota's Governor Proclaims. Sr. Paul, Minn., Sept. 9.-In view of the danger to the state from the spread of cholera, the governor has determined that everything possible shall be done to prevent its getting a hold here, and to that end he has issued a proclamation calling on all cities, villages and towns in the state to place their respective localities in a state of sanitary de-fense against the threatened invasion of liners. Rele sed from Quaranting, QUARANTINE, Sept. 9. -The Spree, from Bremen, has been released.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 9 .- Acting Sec retary Grant this morning telegraphed Secretary Charles Foster at New York rejuctantly giving permission to use the govern-ment lands at Sandy Hook for the quaran-

HELP ORDERED TO HAMBURG

Eurgeons and Medical Corps of the Eleventh Army Corps Will Go There.

PLAGUE'S VICTIMS IN THE FATED CITY

Number of Cases Now in the Hospitals-The Death Roll for a Day-Incompetent Officials Asked to Resign -Words of Advice.

CASSEL, Sept. 9.- | New York Herald Cable-Special to THE BEE. |-Choicea in Hamburg is increasing in virutence. On demand of the local authorities the surgeons and medical corps of the Eleventh corps have been ordered there to give assistance. damburg's Awful Plight.

HAMBURG, Sept. 9.- By New York Herald Cable-Special to THE BEE. |-Revised statistics of the Statistical Bureau for the epidemic, are promised for Sunday next. As far as the revision goes there is no doubt but that the disease has steadily decreased since the end of August. The police conveyed yesterday 147 sick to the hospitals and ninety- two deaths are reported to the Statistical Bureau. There were 393 new cases and 215 deaths, of which

173 sick and seventy-four deaths took place provious to vesterday. The number of patients in the hospitals at mionight, September 5, were 2,088, at midnight, September 6, 2,055. The state physician, Dr. Erman, in this corning's correspondence, convincingly proves that the disease was not introduced by Russian Jews confined in the Hamburg-American Packet company's barracks. On the other side of the river I know positively that good health has prevailed right along. Few cholera patients have been taken from these parracks, and they only between August 25 and September 5, and they caught the disease here. There are now over 500 people in the parracks. They are all well.

Private contributions have run up to over 600,000 marks. The island of Heligoland is the orly outside place that has sent money contribution so far.

Words of Advice. [Copyrighted 1822 by James Gordon Bennett.] BERLIN, Sept. 9. -[New York Herald Cable Special to THE BEE, |-It is proposed to dismiss all the superior officials of the Hamburg police who have failed so signally to rise to the height of the emergency, An attempt will be made at Hamburg to organize a charitable relief society, modeled on the plan of the Neapolitan society of the Green Cross. Prof. Pand Penin, to whom cholora is a commonplace affair, said to me today; "Cholera germs are not dangerous until they enter the intestines. As they usually reach intestines through the mouth the greatest care should be taken. Have all water used boiled, not only the water that one drinks, but water used for washing, bathing, cleaning glasses, knives and crockery. If this simple precaution is observed there would be no need to fear the cholera." HAMBURG'S HEARTRENDING SCHNES.

Victims of the Plague Dumped Into Graves Without Identification. VIENNA, Sept. 9.-In an interview Dr. Wortmann, who has just returned from a visit to Hamburg, said: "Only the doctors have been able to bear the heartrending and sickening scenes in the hospitals of Hamburg. The epidemic has reached such a pitch there is no time for proventive measures, as every moment is occupied in attending to the sick and dead. Identification even is out of the question. Very few names are given and hundreds are piled in nameless graves. Relatives can only guess the fate of stricken friends. The common misery ap-pears to have bardened the people. Nobody who accompanies the dead is ever seen cry-ing. There is little doubt that many healthy persons, especially children, have been taken to the hospitals on suspicion, and there have been infected. There is no law providing for the forcible removal of sick persons from louses, therefore I believe that the epidemic will continue spreading throughout the winter, to reappear with vigor in the spring." The Record in Russia. St. Petersburg, Sept. 9.-The returns for the whole empire show that 4,694 new cases of cholora were reported on Monday. The deaths numbered 2,540. On Sunday the new cases reported numbered 4,779, an excess) | 85 cases over those reported Monday. The deaths on Sunday were 2,073. Monday's figures show an increase of 467 over Sunday's returns, and 119 new cases of the disease were reported vesterday in the city Petersburg. This is a decrease of 19 cases, compared with the returns of Tuesday. The death list was larger, however, than it was the day before, vesterday's total reaching 39, against a total of 34 on Tuesday.

Harrowing Scenes at Hamburg, LONDON, Sept. 10.-The Morning's Hamburg correspondent describes the Ohlsdorf cemetery and the route thither. The approsch, he says, is now shunned except by an unending procession of hearses. He adds: "Already 60,000 bodies have been baried in the cemetery. Two hundred grave diggers are working at increased wages, day and night. The bodies are buried on masse in trenches. A great number of corpses are lodged in huts in the cometery. The march from the hearse to grave proceeds with regularity. Generally there is a line of hearses half a mile long waiting.

Cholera and Riots, TEHERAN, Sept. 9. - This city has been the scene of a serious riot, during which a mob tiercely attacked the total prison. So determined was their assault that they gained possession of the building. They then liberated the prisoners. A number of jailers were killed by rioters. The mortality from cholera here has averaged twenty-one daily since a week ago.

Seamen Won't Ship for Hamburg. Loxnox, Sept. 9 .- The presence of cholera in Hamburg has frightened many seamen to such an extent that many of them refuse to ship on vessels bound for that port or intending to call there. Not only do idle seamen refuse to ship, but even some of those who have already signed articles decline to stand by their vessels, when they learn they are loading for Hamburg.

More Alarm in Berlin Benlin, Sept. 9 .- A fresh cholera case at the Moabit hospital yesterday, that of a woman who arrived at the city only the day before, has revived alarm here. The inhabitants are in a state of semi-panic in Brunswick and Wermgerede. A Hamburg court official became instite yesterday owing to his fear of cholera.

One Case on the Rotterdam.

DUBLIN, Sept. 9. -The steamer Rotterdam from Hamburg arrived last evening flying a yellow flag. She was boarded by the health officer, who was informed that one of the scames on board had been attacked with cholers. The man was removed to a hoscholera. anal and the steamer was thoroughly tumigraterit.

No Cholera to Great Britain Loxnon, Sept. & - The local government pourd states that there is not a single case of enclora throughout the United Kingdom
