

THE DAILY BEE

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday) One Year, $5.00. Daily Bee (with Sunday) One Year, $6.00.

Advertising Rates. Single Column, 10 Lines, 10 Cents per Line per Week. Double Column, 10 Lines, 15 Cents per Line per Week.

Business Letters. All business letters and remittances should be addressed to The Bee Publishing Company, Omaha.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. For the week ending September 2, 1892. Total number of copies printed, 24,323.

Garfield Park in Chicago ought to be closed or have its name changed to Guitau park.

B. Fay Miller is coming to Omaha and the sinners may as well move down to Kansas City where they may be safe.

Corbett has now reached the giddy heights of fame where babies and cigars by the score will be named in his honor.

The Iowa joint debates have begun and promise to extend down to the candidates for road supervisors and township trustees.

The little incident at New Orleans settled the fact that even a man so out of style as to wear his hair pompadour may amount to something after all.

If the Pennsylvania railroad stays out of the coal barons' combine the people of the west will remember that road in a substantial manner whenever they have the opportunity.

The effect of Peck's figures on the campaign seems to have been judged strong enough to summon Mr. Cleveland from his burzard's roost to New York in a very hasty manner.

The agent of those cholera ships who assured cabin passengers that no steerage passengers would be carried deserves lynching if ever any man did.

It is good tactics for anti-republican organs and politicians to boom Scott and Mercer for congress because they would be easily distanced.

It must be gratifying to the free silver people to observe that the list of subscribers to the silver campaign fund that is being raised in Colorado is holding its own.

The American Bankers' association, which has been in session at San Francisco, adopted just before adjournment a resolution declaring it to be the sense of the convention that the state bank note is not a safe or desirable money issue.

The controversy over the control of the Omaha Water Works, which has been pending for months in the federal courts, is of more than passing interest to our citizens.

The Omaha plant has been a safe and productive investment. Its machinery and systems of reservoirs are on a basis for supplying a city of 250,000 people.

There is no disposition or desire on the part of THE BEE to rule anybody out of the congressional race track whose ability to fill the position creditably is recognized and whose career and record afford a reasonable assurance of popular approval.

Weaver and his followers are making great claims of carrying many western states and feel sure of accomplishing Harrison's defeat.

Anarchist Bergman, who attempted to kill H. C. Frick at Pittsburg, says that he would rather die than suffer long imprisonment.

There are some curious political complications in Colorado. A large number of the democrats of that state went over to the people's party because the Chicago convention declared against free coinage.

It is to be hoped that the courts will keep in view the rights and interests of this community, which should not be jeopardized by the contest between the stockholders and creditors of the company.

It is doubtless very pleasant and convenient to belong to two political parties, but this attitude of the democratic element of the people's party in Colorado will be likely to give rise to perplexing complications.

WHERE THE FARMER WAS BENEFITED

One of the most valuable achievements of the present administration was that of inducing European governments to remove the long-maintained restrictions on American meats. In order to understand how important this work was it is necessary to refer to the extent of the restrictions.

The effect of this quite general European policy upon our exports was very decided. In 1881 we sent pork products to all other countries to the value of $104,000,000, and in two years the exports of these products had declined about $34,000,000.

This was the situation when a republican congress and a republican administration came into power, and the very important question of inducing European governments to remove the restrictions upon our meats was among the first that received consideration.

The annual report of Labor Commissioner Powers of Minnesota, which naturally deals rather with the interests of agriculture than with those of the manufacturer or the wage earner, presents facts which prove that the farmers of that state are prospering and that their condition is far better than in previous years.

It is the habit of some of the calamity people in Nebraska, when shown the falsity of their statements as to the condition of the farmers, to point to neighboring states by way of proving that their claims are in a general sense true, though they do not happen to fit the case of the Nebraska farmer this year.

The real truth is that the prosperity of the agricultural class in all that portion of the west to which the people's party is giving its special attention is an established fact that cannot be denied.

A number of republican meetings will be held in various parts of Nebraska tonight, notably one at Fremont, where General Crouse will speak, and another at Beatrice.

There are some curious political complications in Colorado. A large number of the democrats of that state went over to the people's party because the Chicago convention declared against free coinage.

There are some curious political complications in Colorado. A large number of the democrats of that state went over to the people's party because the Chicago convention declared against free coinage.

perplexing complications. It at least clearly and forcibly demonstrates the folly of the expectation that an organization made up of such heterogeneous elements as those which enter into the composition of the people's party can possibly survive long enough to accomplish anything.

Here is something for the republican populists to reflect upon if they should happen to have a lucid interval between now and election day.

A PATRIOT FOR OFFICE

The redoubtable stay-at-home patriot who, like Artemus Ward, was willing to sacrifice all his wife's relations in the war, but took care not to place himself within a thousand miles of a rebel bullet, has for months been cavorting in political meetings and shouting lustily for the flag which he wouldn't defend when it was assailed by traitors.

WHEN Mr. Dave Mercer has acquired fair standing in any profession, or when he has gained some experience in any legislative body outside of the lobby, he may become available as a candidate for congress.

GIVE THE PLAIN FACTS A CHANCE

The annual report of Labor Commissioner Powers of Minnesota, which naturally deals rather with the interests of agriculture than with those of the manufacturer or the wage earner, presents facts which prove that the farmers of that state are prospering and that their condition is far better than in previous years.

JUDGE SCOTT may as well retire gracefully from the field and endeavor at least to fill the balance of his term on the bench with some degree of respectability.

CAMPAIGN CLATTER

Julius Sterling Morton isn't running for office for the first time this fall. For more than thirty years he has been in politics in Nebraska, and for a quarter of a century he has been a standing candidate for office.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS

A number of republican meetings will be held in various parts of Nebraska tonight, notably one at Fremont, where General Crouse will speak, and another at Beatrice.

There are some curious political complications in Colorado. A large number of the democrats of that state went over to the people's party because the Chicago convention declared against free coinage.

cheering, for, when the republicans are united and harmonious, there is a great deal of disaffection among the democrats. It is possible that this may disappear, and it is understood that the presence of Mr. Cleveland in New York City has for its principal object an effort to placate Senator Hill and at the same time satisfy the "anti-snappers," who are very much disgruntled at being ignored in the management of the campaign, but just at this time the democrats of New York are not a happy family.

EVERYBODY will sympathize with the unfortunate people who are imprisoned on the cholera-infected ships, exposed to the constant danger of being stricken down by the disease, and certainly if a practicable and safe way can be found to relieve them from the peril they are in it ought to be adopted.

OTHER LANDS THAN OURS

It appears that Mr. Gladstone has determined to withdraw the British troops from Egypt. The new prime minister has publicly declared that England could not evad compliance with an international agreement to withdraw her troops the moment that order should be restored in Egypt.

WHEN Mr. Dave Mercer has acquired fair standing in any profession, or when he has gained some experience in any legislative body outside of the lobby, he may become available as a candidate for congress.

THE organization of the Nebraska League of Loan and Building Associations at Lincoln was of considerable importance to many persons in this city and state.

JUDGE SCOTT may as well retire gracefully from the field and endeavor at least to fill the balance of his term on the bench with some degree of respectability.

CAMPAIGN CLATTER

Julius Sterling Morton isn't running for office for the first time this fall. For more than thirty years he has been in politics in Nebraska, and for a quarter of a century he has been a standing candidate for office.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS

A number of republican meetings will be held in various parts of Nebraska tonight, notably one at Fremont, where General Crouse will speak, and another at Beatrice.

There are some curious political complications in Colorado. A large number of the democrats of that state went over to the people's party because the Chicago convention declared against free coinage.

moment they had turned round to support it. The abruptness of the reverses was also likened to a somersault. Several speakers were of the opinion that the success of the movement would be the ruin of the trade. At a Preston weavers' meeting a workman energetically declared that, while he was not against eight hours, he was against supporting it just now to oblige the spinners.

Governor Crouse is again in Nebraska and he will stay in the state for now until he is able to get on his feet in November. And it will not be on some other November, either, but November next.

THE York County Press has asserted loudly that it had proof that Candidate Haines was not a citizen. But as Mr. Haines came to this country when 3 years of age and his father took out his second papers in 1850 he is feeling as easy about his citizenship as he is about his election in November.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Sept. 9.—(Special to The Bee.)—An idea of the dove-like peace and harmony in the democratic camp of this county may be obtained from a communication in the Syracuse Herald (a democratic paper) of the 5th. "A Western Delegate" signs the article, and his views are believed to be general in the western part of the county.

OTHER LANDS THAN OURS

It appears that Mr. Gladstone has determined to withdraw the British troops from Egypt. The new prime minister has publicly declared that England could not evad compliance with an international agreement to withdraw her troops the moment that order should be restored in Egypt.

THE CORBETT END OF ARGUMENT

The president's letter is written in good, terse, trenchant English, but every line of it is American in thought and feeling.

DEMOCRATIC TREASON

The politicians who are urging the force bill as an issue in state affairs should take a lesson from the modern politician. The bill did two years ago. The reform of the tariff in national politics is the national issue. Stick to that.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE

Senator Palmer's name has unaccountably slipped out of the list of democratic speakers in the current campaign. The old style of smooth-bore has nearly gone out of use and is particularly dangerous when you are not certain what it is loaded with.

WHERE THE OBJECTION COMES IN

There is practically no dispute as to the value and force of President Harrison's letter of acceptance as a campaign document. Republicans readily accept it as the statement of their faith and policy, and democrats object, not to its form, but to its matter.

A FRUITLESS CALAMITY WAIT

In spite of the ill concealed desire of the democracy that the government should make a deficit the surplus continues to increase and is a couple of millions greater than last month. The democrats are prophets of evil, but fortunately their predictions are never verified.

UTILITY OF A MIRAGE

Perhaps Iowa is really becoming more democratic than she was, but the returns of presidential elections do not show it. But why deprive the unfortunate democracy of hope? It hurts nobody and contrives to keep the contest alive. Courage the something to fortify democratic conviction.

CHECKING TWO PLAGUES

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

One of the most remarkable phenomena exhibited by the United Kingdom during the present century is the growth of Scotland. This is the more striking because it has been contemporaneous with the decadence of Ireland, whose population is now only about one-half of what it was before the great famine of 1845.

It seems that a very considerable minority of the mill hands in the English midlands are by no means enthusiastic over the resolution in favor of an eight hours bill, which was adopted recently by their delegates.

It seems that a very considerable minority of the mill hands in the English midlands are by no means enthusiastic over the resolution in favor of an eight hours bill, which was adopted recently by their delegates.

VICTOR AND VANQUISHED

Kansas City Star: The better fighter and the better man won, and that is a highly satisfactory thing to know, even when one considers prize fighting wholly deplorable.

St. Paul Pioneer Press: If Sullivan had been less the brute, less the more slave of passion and appetite, he would probably be the victor in a championship fight.

Kansas City Star: How quickly the winds of popularity, based on success, shift in the hour of defeat! Sullivan went to New Orleans as a conquering hero, and his trip there was one long ovation.

St. Paul Pioneer Press: The victory of last night may, therefore, be called a popular one, and that the general public took such a decided interest in it is not, after all, surprising.

REACHING FOR THE HINS

A heartless Corbett insinuates that this is Sullivan's sleep year.

St. Paul Pioneer Press: John—Four of us sat in a game of poker for two hours at Bill's place last night.

SUCH IS LIFE

He bought her chocolates and sweets of every modern kind. He bought himself her constant love. And to her faults was blind.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK

Prevailing rumors are to the effect that Cleveland's managers have given up New York and instead of attempting to placate Hill and make a trade with Tammany, will concentrate their efforts on Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

St. Paul Pioneer Press: The victory of last night may, therefore, be called a popular one, and that the general public took such a decided interest in it is not, after all, surprising.

Chicago Inter Ocean: "From what you say I think your son must have a vaulting ambition. Mother—O, my, yes; he took the first prize for the standing jump when he was at college."

Washington Star: "I think," said the man who saw the distortions of his readymade clothes reflected in a mirror, "that this would unquestionably be a suit for liberty."

Kate Field's Washington: Ho—Your figure is slender. She—Cherubs have no figures. He—No. They're out of sight.

Philadelphia Times: It has not yet occurred to the editors of the "Philadelphia Inquirer" to publish a "graph" as a feature, nor simply because it talks back.

Harper's Bazar: "Oh, mamma," said little Mary. "I can beat the negroes." "It is not negroes," returned mamma. "It is not negroes," returned mamma. "It is not negroes," returned mamma.

Brownie, King & Co's Monthly: At the Club—It was found at the club until about 2 o'clock last night playing poker.

Washington Star: "I think," said the man who saw the distortions of his readymade clothes reflected in a mirror, "that this would unquestionably be a suit for liberty."

Kate Field's Washington: Ho—Your figure is slender. She—Cherubs have no figures. He—No. They're out of sight.

Philadelphia Times: It has not yet occurred to the editors of the "Philadelphia Inquirer" to publish a "graph" as a feature, nor simply because it talks back.

Harper's Bazar: "Oh, mamma," said little Mary. "I can beat the negroes." "It is not negroes," returned mamma. "It is not negroes," returned mamma.

Brownie, King & Co's Monthly: At the Club—It was found at the club until about 2 o'clock last night playing poker.

Washington Star: "I think," said the man who saw the distortions of his readymade clothes reflected in a mirror, "that this would unquestionably be a suit for liberty."

Kate Field's Washington: Ho—Your figure is slender. She—Cherubs have no figures. He—No. They're out of sight.

Philadelphia Times: It has not yet occurred to the editors of the "Philadelphia Inquirer" to publish a "graph" as a feature, nor simply because it talks back.

Harper's Bazar: "Oh, mamma," said little Mary. "I can beat the negroes." "It is not negroes," returned mamma. "It is not negroes," returned mamma.

Brownie, King & Co's Monthly: At the Club—It was found at the club until about 2 o'clock last night playing poker.

Washington Star: "I think," said the man who saw the distortions of his readymade clothes reflected in a mirror, "that this would unquestionably be a suit for liberty."

Kate Field's Washington: Ho—Your figure is slender. She—Cherubs have no figures. He—No. They're out of sight.

Philadelphia Times: It has not yet occurred to the editors of the "Philadelphia Inquirer" to publish a "graph" as a feature, nor simply because it talks back.

Harper's Bazar: "Oh, mamma," said little Mary. "I can beat the negroes." "It is not negroes," returned mamma. "It is not negroes," returned mamma.

Brownie, King & Co's Monthly: At the Club—It was found at the club until about 2 o'clock last night playing poker.

Washington Star: "I think," said the man who saw the distortions of his readymade clothes reflected in a mirror, "that this would unquestionably be a suit for liberty."

Kate Field's Washington: Ho—Your figure is slender. She—Cherubs have no figures. He—No. They're out of sight.

Philadelphia Times: It has not yet occurred to the editors of the "Philadelphia Inquirer" to publish a "graph" as a feature, nor simply because it talks back.

Harper's Bazar: "Oh, mamma," said little Mary. "I can beat the negroes." "It is not negroes," returned mamma. "It is not negroes," returned mamma.

Brownie, King & Co's Monthly: At the Club—It was found at the club until about 2 o'clock last night playing poker.

Washington Star: "I think," said the man who saw the distortions of his readymade clothes reflected in a mirror, "that this would unquestionably be a suit for liberty."

Kate Field's Washington: Ho—Your figure is slender. She—Cherubs have no figures. He—No. They're out of sight.

Philadelphia Times: It has not yet occurred to the editors of the "Philadelphia Inquirer" to publish a "graph" as a feature, nor simply because it talks back.

Harper's Bazar: "Oh, mamma," said little Mary. "I can beat the negroes." "It is not negroes," returned mamma. "It is not negroes," returned mamma.

Brownie, King & Co's Monthly: At the Club—It was found at the club until about 2 o'clock last night playing poker.

Washington Star: "I think," said the man who saw the distortions of his readymade clothes reflected in a mirror, "that this would unquestionably be a suit for liberty."

Kate Field's Washington: Ho—Your figure is slender. She—Cherubs have no figures. He—No. They're out of sight.

Philadelphia Times: It has not yet occurred to the editors of the "Philadelphia Inquirer" to publish a "graph" as a feature, nor simply because it talks back.

Harper's Bazar: "Oh, mamma," said little Mary. "I can beat the negroes." "It is not negroes," returned mamma. "It is not negroes," returned mamma.

Brownie, King & Co's Monthly: At the Club—It was found at the club until about 2 o'clock last night playing poker.

BROWNING, KING & CO. Largest Manufacturers and Dealers of Clothing in the World. Bet and Lost. Like many another, this gentleman put up his stuff on Sully. He drowned his losses in drinks and his summer suit with a light fall overcoat.