IT WAS A FAIR FIGHT. Unjust Attack on Sullivan Resented by a New Orleans Paper. NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 10.—An evening paper says: "A rumor is being circulated in regard to John L. Sullivan having 'sold out' in his late fight with James J. Corbett. The rumor is an unjust and unreasonable one and should not prevail, for Sullivan's conduct before and after the battle was such as to prove that he was honest in his endeavor to maintain his position as king of the ring. His conduct after the fight showed that he felt his downfall, although satisfied that an American had taken his place. He was not a man who had 'sold out.' Such talk should cease, as there is not a particle of truth in the assertion."

SPARKS OF SPORT. Work of the Marksmen at the Fifth Annual Omaha Relays. The fifth annual tournament of the Omaha Schutzen Verein opened at Ruser's park yesterday with a fair attendance of the riflemen of the city. The firing is over a 300-yard range at six dozen varieties of targets. There are six Kohr targets operated by the usual way, on which the prize is $1.10, sixty points. There is no particular contest connected with the shooting, except that the prize money is $100.00. One may shoot long enough to win if he has dollars enough.

CHILL IS MORE FRIENDLY. Requests of the State Department at Washington. VALPARAISO, Chile (via Galveston, Tex.), Sept. 10.—[By Mexican Cable to the New York Herald.—Special to The Bee.]—At the request of the State department at Washington the Chilean government will afford every facility to the astronomers who are coming to study the Lock observatory to view the eclipse of the sun of Valparaiso near the port of Huasco.

OVER A CHURCH DEBT. J. M. Hopwood Dies from the Effects of a Pleurisy. KEARNEY, Neb., Sept. 10.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The citizens of this city were shocked by the death of J. M. Hopwood, one of the pioneers of the place. His death was caused by a difficulty which happened last week. The unfortunate affair is the result of a street altercation between the deceased and Dr. G. W. Kern, a highly respected and influential citizen who has been a resident of this city and immediate vicinity for the past twenty years. Kern approached Hopwood with a church subscription of long standing and insisted upon a settlement. A dispute arose, and words were used, and Kern was seen to draw a bow and throw up his umbrella to ward off a blow and the ferule pierced the deceased's left eye, destroying the organ and breaking the bones of the socket.

WORK OF A DARING THIEF. Hallett's Jewelry Store Raided and Much Precious Goods Stolen. LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 10.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A robbery occurred in this city tonight at a quarter past 9 o'clock which for cool daring has never been surpassed. The thief walked up to the window of E. Hallett's jewelry store at 13 North Eleventh street, snatched a handful of such articles as lay in reach and made his escape, though pursued and fired at by the clerks who were in the store at the time. The loss is estimated at $1,000. The place is in the same block and is in the center of the business part of the city.

Old Time Enthusiasm Absent. HOLDSBORN, Neb., Sept. 10.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The independents held their county convention here today for the purpose of electing delegates to the senate convention to be held at Wilcox, next Thursday, and to place in nomination a candidate for county attorney and representative. A. J. Shafer and Eric Soderman, both present incumbents, were re-elected by acclamation. Nearly all of the townships were represented by small delegations, but they were met by the delegates from the independent party who were present.

Deserting the Alliance Ranks. YONIS, Neb., Sept. 10.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The York county independents held their county convention this afternoon and nominated W. G. Eastman and John J. Price for representatives. The convention took place at York, and the delegates to the convention for J. D. P. Small for state senator. The enthusiasm which characterized the independent party has been shown to be falling away from the old republican ranks.

Booster City Will Have Water Works. BRAVER CITY, Neb., Sept. 10.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—At the water works election today the bonds carried by forty-seven majority.

A Great Sale. Of fine shoes and slippers is going on at the bankrupt shoe store, 521 Broadway. Shoes are not to be given away, and you can save money by getting some of the greatest bargains ever heard of.

HELP ORDERED TO HAMBURG

Surgeons and Medical Corps of the Eleventh Army Corps Will Go There. PLAGUE'S VICTIMS IN THE FATED CITY. Number of Cases Now in the Hospitals—The Death Roll for a Day—Incompetent Officials Asked to Resign—Words of Advice.

Hamburg's Awful Plight. HAMBURG, Sept. 10.—[New York Herald Cable.—Special to The Bee.]—Cholera in Hamburg is increasing in virulence. On command of the local authorities the surgeons and medical corps of the Eleventh corps have been ordered there to give assistance.

Words of Advice. BERLIN, Sept. 9.—[New York Herald Cable.—Special to The Bee.]—It is proposed to dismiss all the surgeons of the Hamburg police who have failed so generally to rise to the height of the emergency.

Minister Porter's Resignation. WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 9.—The announcement contained in the message from Rome, that Mr. Porter, the American minister to Italy, had resigned, will not surprise persons in official circles here if the report should be verified. It has been expected for some time that Mr. Porter would resign.

Notes of the Plague. CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 9.—The Home Board of Health has decided to establish a very strict quarantine against the United States should cholera appear. News stations only will be specified where passengers and goods can enter Mexico and no trains will be allowed to cross the frontier.

Notes of the Plague. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9.—The Board of Health at today's meeting requested the surgeon general of the Marine hospital service to issue a quarantine against the Delaware Breakwater; that at least two watermen and a hospital steward be placed on arriving vessels during the whole period of the outbreak.

Notes of the Plague. LISBON, Sept. 9.—The Portuguese government has quarantined against the ports of Swansea and Plymouth.

Notes of the Plague. LONDON, Sept. 10.—The Standard's Hamburg correspondent says: "A further abatement in the cholera epidemic is visible. Six new cases Friday numbered 78; deaths, 246. In the hospitals and barracks 2,041 patients are under treatment. There are now only nine cases in the shipping quarter. Prince Bismarck has donated 10,000 marks to the relief fund. Confidence is returning."

Notes of the Plague. WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 9.—The secretary of state today received a telegram from the United States consul at Hamburg, in which he stated that the agents of the Hamburg-American line are not forwarding steamer passengers, but are forwarding some of the passengers by the Columbia and other steamers via Southampton.

Notes of the Plague. WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 10.—Forecasts for Sunday: For Nebraska, fair, rising temperature in northwest portion; northwest winds. For Iowa—Fair, slightly cooler; west winds. For the Dakotas—Fair, warmer in west portions; northwest winds, becoming variable.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Politicians and Wire Pullers Anxious and Working Hard. THERE IS NOT A DEARTH OF CANDIDATES. They Are Numerous and Aggressive—Harmony in the Republican Camp—How the Democrats and Independents Are Getting Along—News Items.

The coming week will be one of politics, and that will completely overshadow everything else. Candidates in all parties are as numerous as Missouri sawflies at this time of the year, and each has a following more or less respectable in numbers. The candidates are lined with candidates and wire-pullers, and whenever you see a whispered consultation in progress between two or more male citizens put it down that a wire is being worked for all that it is worth, and a clever political scheme is being hatched, either to be ruthlessly shoved aside by a more husky one or to be successfully worked out.

In the republican camp the utmost good feeling prevails, and the rivalry between the candidates is of a friendly nature, and the defeated ones will readily acquiesce in the decision of the majority. Two candidates for commissioner from the Second district reside here, and are carrying on an active campaign. C. G. Stanley is one of the gentlemen, and he has been in the race for many a month. Stanley was a candidate for postmaster at the time the present incumbent was elected, but he was defeated by a margin of two votes.

Notes and Personalities. H. B. Jams of Cheyenne spent yesterday at the yards, where he was secretary of the board of live stock commissioners of Wyoming.

Democracy's Factional Fights. The democratic party is in the midst of several bitter factional fights, and the breach is so broad it will never be closed, or at least it will be a good while before it is closed. There are four distinct factions in active existence today, and a bitter contest will take place at the primary election. For candidates for the nomination for commissioner from this district are carrying on an active and aggressive canvass, and each one considers himself a member of the Jeffersonian club in Omaha, and he will have a good following in both cities.

Capture of Jeff Davis. As Told by the Widow of the Leader of the Lost Cause. Many falsehoods have been uttered in regard to the capture of Mr. Davis, which have been exposed in publications by persons there present—by Secretary Regan, by the members of my personal staff, and by the colored coachman, Jim Jones, which must have been convincing to all who desired to know the truth. We were, when prisoners, subjected to petty pillage and to annoyances such as military gentlemen never commit or permit.

Notes and Personalities. Shields Opens the Campaign. Campaign in this district was opened by Hon. James Shields of this city, candidate for congress, by two speeches in Hardin county, one at Eldora, and one at Ackley. He was greeted by an immense crowd at each place.

Notes and Personalities. Capt. J. E. Hart of the government is in the city yesterday, enroute home from the west.

Notes and Personalities. Mrs. F. A. Broadwell returned home yesterday from a two months' visit at Plattsmouth. Her husband, Mr. Broadwell, is in the city yesterday, enroute home from the west.
