A marriage license was issued yesterday to Harrison A. Mecham of Omana and Sadio McGinnis of Missouri Valley.

Two wagon loads of Indians passed through the city yesterday on their way from the World's fair to the Pacific ocean. The Sons of Veterans will have a campfire tomorrow evening in the Grand Army hall. A small admission fee will be charged.

Elizabeth James was granted a divorce esterday by Judge Macy from her husband, Lewis C. James, who is now serving a term in the penitentiary.

The Women's Christian hospital is preparing to give an entertainment during the first week in November, the details of which will be announced in the morning.

Judge Hammer united two couples in matrimony yesterday, They were William S. Sprague of North Platte, Neb and Kate Alice Brown of Cleveland, O., and Charles M. Welch and Mary E. Morie, both of Umaha.

There will be a gospel tempearace meeting at the Union Christian Mission, 238 Broad-way, upstairs, tomorrow evening. The industrial school meets every Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All friends of the work nre requested to be present.

Frank Cooper, who is charged with committing adultery with Mrs. Ira Jones of Neola, was brought into Justice Hammer's court yesterday for preliminary examination, but by aggreement the case was continued until the 24th. Cooper is a well-to-do citizen of Neola, and it is believed by those who are familiar with the case that a settlement will be arrived at before the trial comes off.

Judge G. A. Robinson of this city has invented a novel hay press which promises to proven taker. Its uniqueness consists mainly in a simple arrangement by which, with one horse power, two bales are packed at once, the machine being a double one. A number of citizens have examined the new machine closely and it is provable that a factory will be established in Council Binffs within the near future.

Those interested in property in and about Walnut park are making an enthusiastic and determined move to get St. Francis academy located there. The sisters need a new build-ing in order to meet the demands of thot growing institution, and the Walnut park people, realizing how much it would increase the value and desirability of their property, and preparing to make a very liberal propo-sition to the sisters, provided they will locate there and put up a building to cost

Mrs. Kennedy was given a hearing in po-lice court yesterday morning on a charge of disturbing the peace. Mrs. Lizzie Ruby, the secuting witness, claimed that a quarrel had arisen between her and Mrs. Kennedy in the course of which Mrs. Kennedy knocked her over the head with a large pole which had been used in supporting the clothes line, and that Mr. Ruby had avenged his wife's insult by doing the same thing for Mrs. Kennedy. The latter was fixed $5 and costs, but the fine was suspended on promise of good ochavior.

TOO STRONG TO WORK.

Frank Watson's Penchant for Writing Other Men's Names Makes Him Trouble

Yesterday afternoon the police arrested Frank Watson for being a suspicious character. A little investigation on the part of the detectives proved that Watson was a much wanted man. It is claimed by the officials that the prisoner is the man who has been passing bogus checks on business men about town for the past two or three weeks. Not long ago Watson let up on his game and went to work a 1 livery stable, where be stayed for a week, thus throwing the detectives off the track for the time being. As work didn't agree with his constitution Watson returned to his old tricks, and the resalt was his arrest.

SOUTH OMAHA.

Rev." H. A. Crane, for three years past the popular pastor of the Seward Street Methodist church, departed on Wednesday, with his family, for New York city, where they will take ship for India. Rev. Crane will take charge of The Omaha Park commissioners will have the tables turned upon some of the statements which have been made by the memthe Methodist mission in the city of bers. A few months ago, when the com-Bombay. After testing the catarrh treatment of Drs. Copeland and Shepmission was purchasing tracts for park mission was purchasing traces for park purposes, the South Omana Land company offered Syndicate park. The offer was rejected and other tracts for park purposes purchased. One of the argu-ments urged against purchasing the Syndiard he was so so highly pleased with it that he took with him a supply of med-cate tract was that it was already generally used as a public park, and it would be a use less expenditure of money to purchase it. The park was a natural one, and workmen and money had converted it into really a pleasant and pretty resort. For this reason the park was not purchased, and since that time has been open to the use of all who desired it.

The land company, however, found it rather an expensive luxury to maintain a park, and the failure to dispose of it to the commission caused the company to resolve upon some course to pursue. The conclusion was reached that the commissioners should be shown that Syndicate park was private property and maintained at private expense. The land company has resolved to fence in the park and workmen are now at work erecting a light board fence around fifty-six acres of the park land. This fence is seven feet high, and will serve to keep away all persons from this resort, which, in the past, has proven such a pleasant retreat for the people of both Omaha and South Omaha. It is not probable that the company will refuse permission to hold plenics or social gatherings, but as a public park it will be a thing of the past in a few days. Just how long this will continue no one seems able to say.

Addressed the Republicans.

As soon as the business of the republican caucus was completed last evening Colonel Savage introduced Colonel A. A. Jones of Lincoln, the colored orator, who has lately dilighted so many Nebraska audiences with his eloquence and logic. Mr. Jones delivered an able address and awakened a great deal of genuine enthusiasm. He spoke for nearly an hour. He was followed by Rev. I. C. Williams, the colored preacher, who made a brief address. David Anderson, Colonel Mayfield and others responded as their names were called. and it was nearly midnight before the gathering adjourned. The attendance at the caucus was very large, Germania hal being filled to over-flowing, and nearly three hours were required in which to count the ballots.

Chance for a Spanker.

Mrs. M. C. Gaines made a discovery yesterday afternoon that ied her to believe that the prohibitory law is not enforced so well in Council Bluffs as it might be. She was driving along the street near the corner of Third street and Ninth avenue, when she saw three boys lying on the parking by the side of the walk, apparently unconscious. She went to see what was the matter and found that they were in fact uncorscious, while a half empty whisky bottle that lav near by told the cause of their being so. She succeeded in arousing two of them from their sleep sufficiently so that they could stagger off home. The third was so deeply under the influence of l'quor that he could not be aroused at all, but she picked him up, placed him in her carriage and took him to his home. None of the boys were over 11 years of age. One of them is the son of one of the most prominence supporters of temperance and prohibition in the city, and the other two are also children of well known and respectable parents. An investigation will undoubtedly show where the liquor was obtained, and a prosecution will follow.

an Evening. The press gang were "at home" last night in their new rooms in the Patterson block ard a number of their friends were present to enjoy the exceptionally fine musical en tertainment provided by the artists of the city for their entertainment. The rooms are nicely furnished, provided with all the late magazines and newspapers, and there are just enough card tables to interest those who are inclined to a rubber of whist or high five. For several years the Press club of Omaha has been in a state of desuetude of which the fat prophet of William street spoke so eloquently, but new mer came into the organization and gave it new life. As a club once more became an active factor in the social doings of the metropolis, and last night celebrated its phoenix-like rise by giv-The Sutorius Mandolin club, a well bal-
