

BORROWED A FEW THOUSAND

Cashier Stevens of Crest's Defunct Bank Provided for an Emergency.

DEVELOPMENTS OF THE RECEIVER

Petitions Filed in the Supreme Court Explaining the Condition of the Organization—Many Others Indebted to the Bank.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 15.—(Special to The Bee.)—The inside facts concerning the failure of the State Bank of Nebraska at Crest are beginning to come out a little at a time.

It has been supposed by the public that Cashier Stevens discovered so mysteriously that he left behind him nothing that would embarrass the bank. It has been stated that he took none of the bank's funds with him, and, in fact, was provided with money for his personal expenses. A petition filed in the supreme court this morning places a somewhat different aspect upon the affair.

Receiver Miller files a petition in which he alleges that George D. Stevens is indebted to the bank by virtue of a certain promissory note for $5,000 executed on May 27, 1921, and payable on demand, no part of the note being paid; that George D. Stevens and Eugene M. Harrington, either or both of them, are indebted to the bank by virtue of a promissory note for $3,000, executed on May 31, 1921, payable one month from the date; that various other parties, whose names are at present unknown to the receiver, are justly indebted to the bank in large sums of money; that the above named parties have in their own names property subject to attachment and execution which may be reached by action at law or suits in equity, and that their indolence to the bank may be recovered.

The receiver further represents that other creditors of the above named parties have commenced or are about to commence action to subject such property to attachment or execution to the exclusion of the claims of the bank and to the prejudice and jeopardy of the interests of the receiver, and that unless the receiver is immediately authorized to institute proceedings the security afforded by the property of the above named parties may be wholly lost.

School Law Decisions.

The state superintendent has made the following decisions in relation to school officers all over the state: A woman who is a legal voter in a district may hold a school district office. Where the right to vote in a school district depends upon the possession of property it is necessary that the person holding such property be assessed in the school district at the last annual assessment. A school district officer appointed by the county superintendent to fill a vacancy holds his office until the end of the current school year. A school district officer elected at a special meeting to fill a vacancy holds his office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

These Are Flag Days.

The state superintendent of public instruction has recommended that the stars and stripes be displayed on the school buildings of the state upon the following named days: Opening day of each term; date of adoption of the national constitution, September 17; date of the emancipation proclamation, September 22; surrender of Cornwallis, October 19; Columbus day, October 21; Thanksgiving day, November 23; Lincoln's birthday, February 12; Washington's birthday, February 22; Nebraska day, March 1; surrender of Appomattox, April 9; battle of Lexington, April 19; Arbor day, April 22; Decoration day, May 30.

Brought to the Supreme Court.

A case of considerable interest to all who contemplate bringing suits for damages against the railroad companies, and which was filed with the clerk of the supreme court this morning, is entitled Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company against the estate of Minnie M. Wiegus. The defendant is the father of Minnie Wiegus, a girl who was killed by the plaintiff's line of railway in Hall county. She was walking between the tracks on her way to the train. A freight train stood on the side track while another was approaching the town. For some reason or other the switchman failed to throw the switch and the incoming train ran through the open switch and dashed into the train standing on the side track with terrific force. The accident happened as Minnie was passing, and she was killed by the flying debris of the wreck. Her father sued the company for $50,000 damages, and was awarded $800 in the district court. The railroad company brings the case to the supreme court on the grounds that the girl was a trespasser on the company's right-of-way, and that hence the company cannot be held liable for her death.

Gossip at the State House.

The Union Pacific railroad, after delaying the matter for over a quarter of a century, is now taking out deeds for its right-of-way through the school lands of the state. The company pays the regular appraisal value for the lands owned by the state, and deeds are being taken out for lands in fifty counties. Last February the commissioner of public lands and buildings sent out 33,000 foreclosure notices to delinquent owners of school lands. Since that time nine out of every ten delinquents have settled up. It is the policy of the commissioner to work no unnecessary hardship to actual farmers, but delinquents who are suspected of holding their lands for mere speculative purposes are made to feel the full weight of the law. Assistant Attorney General Summers sent to Hastings today a bill which will be presented at the big republican rally at Omaha this evening.

The annual reports of the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley, Sioux City & Pacific, and Kansas City, Wyandotte & Northwestern, for the year ending June 30, 1932, have been received at the office of the secretary of the state Board of Transportation. The reports are all expected to be in by October 15.

Hoo, W. F. Gurley of Omaha appeared before Governor Boyd this forenoon with petitions for the pardon of A. C. Griffin, who was convicted in Douglas county of forgery and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. The governor has taken the papers under advisement.

The clerk of the supreme court states that the dockets for the First and Second districts will be ready for distribution tomorrow.

Hurt to a Runaway. Charles Walker, a driver of a bakery wagon, was severely injured this forenoon by a collision of an electric motor with his wagon. He was driving on Eighteenth street and attempted to cross O street just behind a motor going west. He failed to notice that another motor coming east on O street was almost upon him, and as a result the motor struck the broad wagon while going at a high rate of speed. The wagon was demolished and Walker was badly injured. No bones appeared to have been broken, but he will be laid up for several days. The horse attached to the wagon escaped unhurt.

An unusual case is in progress in Judge Lansing's court this afternoon, wherein a mother is making a determination of whether her daughter is the girl referred to at Geneva, and the girl has hired an attorney for the purpose of keeping out of that institution. The mother referred to is Mrs. Harris and the daughter is Miss Lillian Marie Harris and the father is Mr. Harris. An incontestable girl who has grown entirely beyond parental control. She refuses to stay at home and is growing up in complete ignorance. When the girl discovered her mother's scheme she immediately sought a place of refuge and found it in a house at Seventh and F streets, where she was discovered by Deputy Sheriff Hoagland. Hattie claims that she is 18 years old and the mistress of her own conduct. She has secured the services of an attorney and proposes to stay out of the reform school if there is any chance for her.

Fire Bugs at North Lincoln.

The residents of North Lincoln, a pleasant little suburb of the capital city, are considerably excited over the discovery that a gang of incendiaries have been working in their vicinity for several nights past. Several fires of mysterious origin have been discovered this week. Yesterday morning two men sleeping in the barn of Rev. Mr. Hewitt, rector of Worthington academy, were awakened by a fire which had been started in front of the big sliding door of the building. They extinguished it after a few moments, but a large pile of shavings had been piled against the door and ignited. An hour or so later several hay stacks a short distance away were ignited. A strict watch is being kept and if the incendiaries do not abandon the locality they will be apprehended.

Wanted Badly at Grand Island.

Twenty-eight men of the Lincoln police force arrested a crook named John Rossett. While he was taking him to the station Rossett's companion opened fire and for a few moments the bullets whizzed around the captain's head in uncomfortable proximity. Both men were finally taken in and Rossett was sentenced to the county jail for thirty days on the charge of vagrancy. When he was searched a quantity of jewelry, including a gold pencil case, a gold collar button of a peculiar pattern and a pair of gold spectacles, was found in his pockets. A letter was received from the sheriff at Grand Island last night giving a full description of the jewelry. The description tallies with the articles found upon Rossett. The police are now questioning the crook in Grand Island for burglary. He is another member of the gang that worked Grand Island during the recent soldiers' rebellion. The Lincoln police have captured three of the gang and are likely to capture the rest of them.

Lincoln in Brief. J. M. Thompson, the well known reporter on the state journal staff, was married last evening to Miss Alma Luko. The young couple will go to honeymooning at once at Twenty-seventh and Vine streets. The county commissioners are busy today in appraising the Rock Island's right-of-way damages across the state lands in the southern part of the county.

An undefined rumor is in circulation on the streets this afternoon to the effect that the Northwestern has made arrangements to use the Lincoln depot at the corner of Twenty-third and O streets in common with the Rock Island.

The new electric line to the suburban village of Hawthorn is completed and cars began making regular trips today. The state university opens tomorrow for the regular fall term. The superintendent of the week has been unusually heavy.

Julius Cooley, an Omaha lawyer, appeared in Judge Lansing's court today as the attorney for the defense in the case of G. S. Cooley against M. G. Keefe. The case was continued.

The regular September term of the district court commences next Monday with sixteen criminal cases upon the docket. The trial of W. H. Irvine for the murder of C. E. Montgomery is set for October 3.

Burlington, Ia. April 4, 1931. Dr. J. B. Moore—Dear Sir: Have been troubled with catarrh in my head and face for three years. I have used all the usual remedies but have not had any relief. I tried one bottle of Moore's Free of Life Catarrh Cure. It gave me immediate relief and effected a permanent cure. I heartily recommend it to all sufferers of this disease and will cheerfully give any further information on being addressed at my home, No. 225 South Broadway, Burlington, Ia. OMAHA MADE FIREPROOFING. It is Tested to the Satisfaction of All Who Saw It. Fireproof material has met with difficulty in the selection of the ingredients necessary to meet all the requirements; first as non-conductors of heat and secondly in a compound of sufficient strength. Mr. E. J. Reitzel, a contractor of this city, has worked upon a compound for the last five years and according invited several gentlemen interested in this subject to see the results of his labor. Among them were architects, insurance agents, builders and contractors, the chief of the fire department and the city building inspector, to witness test made on the articles which he manufactures. A fire was built inside of a room 8x10x12 feet, the ceiling was 2 inches thick, supported by 2x2 wooden joists. A heat of about 1,200° Fahrenheit was obtained. The joists showed no effects from the great heat applied, and when water was thrown over the ceiling it showed no perceptible effect of breaking or otherwise.

He then invited them to examine an arch that had been subjected to a strain of 1,000 pounds per square foot for three weeks without showing the least perceptible defect.

The gentlemen present were very much pleased at the result.

You Needn't Look immediately for the damage that dangerous washing compounds do. It's there, and it's going on all the time, but you won't see its effects, probably, for several months. It wouldn't do, you know, to have them too dangerous.

The best way is to take no risk. You needn't worry about damage to your clothes, if you keep to the original washing compound—Pearline; first made and fully proved. What can you gain by using the imitations of it? Prize packages, cheaper prices, or whatever may be urged for them, wouldn't pay you for one ruined garment.

Beware! Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as" Pearline. IT'S FALSE! Pearline is never equalled, it your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—look it back. 206 JAMES PYLE, New York.

Today--tomorrow--till Saturday night we have arranged to hold one of our old time suit sales--when we will place on sale three styles of suits, two hundred of each style--six hundred suits in all--at the popular price of a ten dollar note--that are made of better goods--are better made--better trimmed and have finer linings in them--than were ever sold before for less than fifteen dollars.

These Suits are All Wool.

They are made of one of the best heavy cassimeres manufactured in the whole United States. They were cut by tailors instead of by steam. The coats are lined with an extra quality of Farmer satin and the vest back is of the same material--while the sleeve linings and the vest linings are of fancy Gilbert silesia. The two front rows of our large Douglas street window, show you how these suits look and its an easy matter to step inside the store and see how they feel. We will guarantee that you can get more good hard wear out of one of these suits than you ever got for a ten dollar bill before in all your life.

We will also offer on second floor, 200 FALL OVERCOATS made of stylish tan Melton, lined with good twilled lining, sizes 34 to 42.

At $4.50 They're the seven dollar sort.

Strictly Pure White Lead is the Best Paint. Care is necessary though, to obtain strictly pure, as the market is flooded with so-called Pure White Leads that in reality contain but very little white lead.

The following analyses of two of these misleading brands show the exact proportion of genuine white lead they contain. The analyses describe the labels and brands on the packages and give the contents as follows:

"C. F. Lavoisier & Co. Strictly Pure White Lead." Red label, with brush, on which is printed, "Guaranteed to be strictly pure. Forty per cent adulterated." Materials Proportions Analyzed by Barytes 58.00 per cent. J. Fiebig, Oxide of Zinc 24.00 per cent. Milwaukee, White Lead 12.00 per cent. Calcium Carbonate 4.00 per cent.

"Manley's Railroad White Lead." White label, marked "Railroad White Lead, 25; pure John W. Manley & Son, New York and Chicago, warranted superior." Materials Proportions Analyzed by Oxide of Zinc 55.70 per cent. Lehigh & Co., Barytes 43.30 per cent. New York.

We have a book which gives the analyses of a large number of misleading brands. If you are going to paint it will pay you to send for it.

In Painting use strictly pure White Lead (see that you get either "Southern," "Collier" or "Red Seal"), tint it with the National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tinting Colors, and you will have the best paint that it is possible to put on a building.
