

Published every morning. Official paper of the city. Terms of subscription: Daily, one year, $3.00; six months, $1.80; three months, $1.00; single copy, 5 cents.

PARALYZING PARTY SUCCESS.

The Republicans of Douglas county must not underestimate the enemy in the present campaign. The Democrats seem determined to nominate their strongest men.

It is now almost certain that the Democrats will head the congressional ticket with Judge Dorne. If the Republicans nominate either Scott or Mercer, this district will be represented by a Democrat in Congress.

The great mass of voters in Omaha will not want to be represented in Congress by a charlatan and fraud nor will they vote for a man who has prostituted himself to the low station of a hired railroad lobbyist.

The Republican party has such men in its ranks. Such men do not pack caucuses and consort with ward heelers and saloon bums.

The railroad bosses, upon whom he depends chiefly, never can coerce their men to vote for a person who would be a mere tool in the hands of their taskmasters.

The Democratic state in which the Republican party finds itself in this county is chiefly due to the pernicious efforts of Scott and Mercer to use the party to further their own ambition.

The lack of unanimity in the Democratic party concerning the tariff question is illustrated by the platform adopted by the Democrats in Connecticut.

The fact that Mexico packing houses have representatives here to buy some of the stock at our stock yards is an indication of the growth of Mexican industries as well as of our own.

The Democrats of this county have put up a ticket with some elements of strength, and it is incumbent upon Republicans to put up a stronger one or run the imminent danger of defeat.

Edwin Arnold is quarreling with the Christian missionaries in Japan about the results of their labors there. After hearing Arnold's side we hasten to agree with the missionaries.

Having had her week off to go to the races and fairs, Omaha resumed business at the old stand last week, and Bradstreet records her as having an increase of 25.4 per cent in bank clearings over the corresponding week of last year.

There is plenty of pluck about the people of this county as is evidenced by their nomination of county officers. The candidates, however, have run for many times before and that is one reason they now belong to the popular party.

Major Paddock has been endorsed by the Democrats for his invaluable services as watch dog of the county treasury. In view of the major's proficiency in drawing double pay as a Union Pacific tourist this compliment is highly deserved.

Iowa Republicans are more united and enthusiastic this year than they have been for ten years. In all parts of the state the national policy of the party in the state is reclaiming thousands to Harrison and Republicanism.

Judge Field seems to be a competent and logical speaker, and with his facts well in hand and clearly stated there need be no surprise over learning that he has knocked the wind out of the flimsy balloon of mixed oratory and flapdoodle which is Bryan's sole resource on the stump.

and in every section there has been a notable progress, and a higher average standard of prosperity than for a number of years. Every enterprising business man knows that this is the case.

A member of the New York Tariff Reform club writes to the World enclosing a dollar for the corruption fund and saying that "the west is the place where it will go the farthest."

This is a remarkably frank and outspoken expression of an eastern Democrat's opinion of western integrity and honor, and the small size of his contribution proves that he really believes what he says.

There is a very general and urgent demand for the suspension of immigration, and there can be no doubt that if the president should respond favorably to it the action would be approved by the entire country.

Horace Boies has broken his long silence by delivering a speech, in which he makes no direct or indirect reference to Cleveland and Stevenson.

Mr. Charles A. Dana does not take any stock in the efforts of the Democratic managers to discredit the statistics of Labor Commissioner Peck showing that production and wages in the manufacturing industries of the state of New York have increased since the present tariff law went into effect.

While the cleaning up process is going on let it not be forgotten that many families in the suburbs of the city are using water from wells.

Senator Allison, who is recognized as one of the leading authorities on financial matters in the nation, says that if every dollar appropriated by Congress should be expended within a year there would be still a surplus in the treasury.

Democracy who make over prospective victories in view of the elections in Vermont and Maine would fix their eyes on gold at the lower end of the market.

It would seem that extortion should cease at the grave, but the National Bazaar Association adopted a formal protest against that idea at Chicago.

Manufacturers in this country have never been in better condition on the whole than that which reports now indicate.

All booming Under Protection. Dan's Commercial Agency Report. Manufacturers in this country have never been in better condition on the whole than that which reports now indicate.

Democracy who make over prospective victories in view of the elections in Vermont and Maine would fix their eyes on gold at the lower end of the market.

It would seem that extortion should cease at the grave, but the National Bazaar Association adopted a formal protest against that idea at Chicago.

Manufacturers in this country have never been in better condition on the whole than that which reports now indicate.

and in every section there has been a notable progress, and a higher average standard of prosperity than for a number of years. Every enterprising business man knows that this is the case.

A member of the New York Tariff Reform club writes to the World enclosing a dollar for the corruption fund and saying that "the west is the place where it will go the farthest."

This is a remarkably frank and outspoken expression of an eastern Democrat's opinion of western integrity and honor, and the small size of his contribution proves that he really believes what he says.

There is a very general and urgent demand for the suspension of immigration, and there can be no doubt that if the president should respond favorably to it the action would be approved by the entire country.

Horace Boies has broken his long silence by delivering a speech, in which he makes no direct or indirect reference to Cleveland and Stevenson.

Mr. Charles A. Dana does not take any stock in the efforts of the Democratic managers to discredit the statistics of Labor Commissioner Peck showing that production and wages in the manufacturing industries of the state of New York have increased since the present tariff law went into effect.

While the cleaning up process is going on let it not be forgotten that many families in the suburbs of the city are using water from wells.

Senator Allison, who is recognized as one of the leading authorities on financial matters in the nation, says that if every dollar appropriated by Congress should be expended within a year there would be still a surplus in the treasury.

Democracy who make over prospective victories in view of the elections in Vermont and Maine would fix their eyes on gold at the lower end of the market.

It would seem that extortion should cease at the grave, but the National Bazaar Association adopted a formal protest against that idea at Chicago.

Manufacturers in this country have never been in better condition on the whole than that which reports now indicate.

All booming Under Protection. Dan's Commercial Agency Report. Manufacturers in this country have never been in better condition on the whole than that which reports now indicate.

Democracy who make over prospective victories in view of the elections in Vermont and Maine would fix their eyes on gold at the lower end of the market.

It would seem that extortion should cease at the grave, but the National Bazaar Association adopted a formal protest against that idea at Chicago.

Manufacturers in this country have never been in better condition on the whole than that which reports now indicate.

All booming Under Protection. Dan's Commercial Agency Report. Manufacturers in this country have never been in better condition on the whole than that which reports now indicate.

the woolen manufacturers that sales at the three cent markets since the middle of May will have been about 50 per cent of the total against $3,000,000 last year, an increase of 25.5 per cent.

A National Flower. Philadelphia Ledger. Governor Flower has distinguished himself in his efforts to keep the cholera out of New York.

So far as regards Mr. Gladstone's ideas on the British occupation of Egypt, he has always declared that England is bound by the letter and the spirit of international agreements to evacuate that country.

This is a remarkably frank and outspoken expression of an eastern Democrat's opinion of western integrity and honor, and the small size of his contribution proves that he really believes what he says.

There is a very general and urgent demand for the suspension of immigration, and there can be no doubt that if the president should respond favorably to it the action would be approved by the entire country.

Horace Boies has broken his long silence by delivering a speech, in which he makes no direct or indirect reference to Cleveland and Stevenson.

Mr. Charles A. Dana does not take any stock in the efforts of the Democratic managers to discredit the statistics of Labor Commissioner Peck showing that production and wages in the manufacturing industries of the state of New York have increased since the present tariff law went into effect.

While the cleaning up process is going on let it not be forgotten that many families in the suburbs of the city are using water from wells.

Senator Allison, who is recognized as one of the leading authorities on financial matters in the nation, says that if every dollar appropriated by Congress should be expended within a year there would be still a surplus in the treasury.

Democracy who make over prospective victories in view of the elections in Vermont and Maine would fix their eyes on gold at the lower end of the market.

It would seem that extortion should cease at the grave, but the National Bazaar Association adopted a formal protest against that idea at Chicago.

Manufacturers in this country have never been in better condition on the whole than that which reports now indicate.

All booming Under Protection. Dan's Commercial Agency Report. Manufacturers in this country have never been in better condition on the whole than that which reports now indicate.

Democracy who make over prospective victories in view of the elections in Vermont and Maine would fix their eyes on gold at the lower end of the market.

It would seem that extortion should cease at the grave, but the National Bazaar Association adopted a formal protest against that idea at Chicago.

Manufacturers in this country have never been in better condition on the whole than that which reports now indicate.

THINK THE END IS NEAR

All Washington in Mourning Over Mrs. Harrison's Illness. HER FRIENDS HAVE LITTLE HOPE.

No Business Requiring the Attention of the President Will Be Considered Until Something Definite is Known of the Situation.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE BEE, 313 FOURTEENTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 16.

This has been another day of painful anxiety for Mrs. Harrison's friends in Washington. A Leon Lako dispatch received by Secretary Foster of the Treasury department early in the day announced that her condition had changed for the worse and that the end seemed very near.

It was so important and sad to remain long a secret, and was soon known throughout the city. Many friends called at the white house and press offices to make inquiries about the condition of the beloved and patient sufferer in New York's pine mountains.

Her Friends Fear the Worst. The feeling has prevailed throughout all Washington this afternoon and evening that Mrs. Harrison's condition is such that she is in a dying position.

Tonight's day inquiries are made for news from Leon Lako. Almost as much interest centers in her condition as has ever been expressed for a dying president.

South Dakota Indians in Politics. Senator Pettigrew's recent visit to Washington appears to have stirred up a hornet's nest in South Dakota among the Democratic managers.

During a long residence among the Indians of the west, and especially South Dakota, Senator Pettigrew has not only become accustomed to the habits of the Indians, but has mastered to a degree their language.

It is stated that when he goes upon the stump next month he will be able to converse with the Indians in their own language.

During a long residence among the Indians of the west, and especially South Dakota, Senator Pettigrew has not only become accustomed to the habits of the Indians, but has mastered to a degree their language.

It is stated that when he goes upon the stump next month he will be able to converse with the Indians in their own language.

During a long residence among the Indians of the west, and especially South Dakota, Senator Pettigrew has not only become accustomed to the habits of the Indians, but has mastered to a degree their language.

It is stated that when he goes upon the stump next month he will be able to converse with the Indians in their own language.

During a long residence among the Indians of the west, and especially South Dakota, Senator Pettigrew has not only become accustomed to the habits of the Indians, but has mastered to a degree their language.

It is stated that when he goes upon the stump next month he will be able to converse with the Indians in their own language.

he will tell the new voters how they become citizens and what political party helped them. This has made the Democratic managers in that state very nervous.

A concerted effort is on foot among Scottish Rite Masons of the southern jurisdiction, in which Nebraska and the west are included, to compel a revision of the constitution of the order and of its subordinate bodies hereafter a vote in its government.

The circular makes several quotations for official bulletins of the late General Pike in which he is quoted as predicting that such a change was inevitable, and that the attendance of delegates authorized to vote the demands of their Masonic brethren of the Scottish Rite in Washington was a necessary preliminary to a new hoped for union of all Scottish Rite bodies.

Thinks Nebraska is Safe. Senator Manderson, who has been taking a rest at the seashore for several days, arrived this evening from New York. He also went to New York very shortly to take the stump.

The veterans already assembled for the Grand Army encampment are making anxious inquiries for the Iowa boys, who were among the most distinguished in the late war.

Chicago Times: The news that goeth too often to the hill shall be broken at last. St. Paul Globe: The funniest campaign joke of all is the serious assertion that certain parties in New York are after Hill's scalp.

Detroit Journal: The doctors say that during the cholera season all fruit must be cooked, but most people will draw the line at boiled watermelon.

Boston Transcript: When Bass gave his order for Lee's and the head waterer brought him chops instead of the late war, the high-maliced alter.

Philadelphia Times: It stands to reason that among greyhounds are not ordinary barkers.

Athens Globe: Every old bachelor or spinster who is inquisitive and every married man grumbles because there isn't a place in the house where he can go and peek.

QUE ANOTHER THING. Masteline S. Br. 's in Pack. "If I were married, and the one I chose for my loved one, I'd try to keep my way of life as much as I could."

"I'd like to see my husband to make way, as husband should—there's no other way to it."

"I'd like to see my husband to make way, as husband should—there's no other way to it."

"I'd like to see my husband to make way, as husband should—there's no other way to it."

"I'd like to see my husband to make way, as husband should—there's no other way to it."

"I'd like to see my husband to make way, as husband should—there's no other way to it."

Browning, King & Co. Largest Manufacturers and Dealers of Clothing in the World. $5 Boys. Boys who are no older than 14 nor younger than 4 years will get a great bargain of us this Saturday.