The Independent Order of Odd Fellows is a secret society of American origin. The first lodge was founded in Baltimore April 26, 1819, and it was known as Washington lodge No. . The growth of the order since its start has been remarkable. From 1830 to 1892 2,000,000 members were initiated. It has spread from the United States and Canada. until now there is a flourisaing membership in Australia, India and Germany. In this country there are at present 750,000 mcm-

bers, divided in 12,000 lodges and eacamp-The objects of Old Fellowship have been described as the relief and welfare of members. The aim is made to promote friendship, love and truth. These are its three essential principles. The idea of relief and help is carried out through all the forms and even some of the symbols of the order. Every Odd Fellow is furnished with a visiting card, which assures him of instant re lief, if he needs it, wherever a lodge exists In certain of the states associations of Oad Fellows have been formed to carry to a yet further point the cardinal features of then of physicians whose duty it is to at ter. The order maintains a sick benefit and a peculiar rule requires every man, regardless of his means, to receive the weekly dole when he is ill. He may turn it back to some special purpose, but not to the general fund. The sick benefit ranges from §3 to §6. It is paid out of the sumual dues, which average §5 a out of the annual dues, which average $5 a year. In the history of the order 1,500,000 members and 200,000 widows and families members and 200,000 widows and families have received relief. Foneral expenses of members up to a certain sum are valid by their lodges. In the last fifty years $5,000,000 has been collected in dues. Of this $2,500,000 has been disbursed. The remainder is invested in lodge hails, regalia and other prop-erty. The sick benefits turned back by members able to dispense with them have in some of the states reached a handsome sum. and the money, it is said, will probably be used for the foundation of hospitals or or-phans for the children of Odd Fellows. Supordinate lodges of the Odd Fellows order have each four degrees. In some respects they resemble the Blue Lodge of spects they resemble the Blue Ladge of Masonry. From the subordinate lodge the Cdd Feliows rise to the Patriarchs Militant. This is the military branch of the order and it is in some respects a perfectly organized army. The men do not live in barracks like real soldiers, but they are rigidly drilled and disciplined and they hold themselves ready to respond to the call of the government at any time. The Patriarchs Militant are divided into companies, battallons, regiments any time. The Patriarchs Militant are divided into companies, battalions, regiments and brigades. They are officered precisely as Uncle Sam's troops are, and except in a few instances their commanders are titled the same. A company of patriarchs is called a canton, and the members, instead of being privates, are chevaliers. The commander is a captain and his superior is a major, who is under the order of a fleutenant colonel and a molonel. There are brigadier generals in they are drilled in infantry tactics. The headquarters are permanently fixed in ment of the force, and they occupy five or six large offices in a downtown building. Once in three years the Patriarchs Militant meet in a grand cantonment. The last was in Chicago in 1890, and the cautonment next year will also be held in that city, at which time it is expected that the attendance of Patriarchs will be the largest since the foundation of the order.

One of the best gatherings of secret societies was had here Thursday atternoon and evening by the Blair lodge No. 14, Independent Order of Oddfellows, the occasion being the dedication of their new hall. Last De cember their old hall was destroyed by fire, but with perseverance and lots of "push" the boys have built a new brick building on the same lot, which is the best corner in the city, at a cost of about $5,000. Grand Mas-ter George L. Loomis, Grand Secretary J. P. Gage, Past Grand Master John Evans were present, as well as several m from other lodges. Captain George F. Waiz of Fremont came over with twenty members of the Cantons with uniforms, and made a very nice disp, av in the parade. About 200 were in the hall during the dedicatory ercises. Rev. John Power made a few teresting remarks to the members of the order which were very appropriate and were received with cheers. After this an old-fashioned "love feast" was held until 5:30 p. m., at which time speeches were made by John Eyans, Theodore Haller, J. P. Gare, W. C. Walter, Mrs. Grace Haller, Miss Melita Taylor, George L. Loomis, J. M. Van Deusen and others. All of the visiting VanDeusen and others. All of the visiting brothers remained until a late train and vis-ited the Blair lodge, at which time the second and third degrees were given to three candidates. Before the boys last for home a lew members of the Repeckan longe made a "sneak" up into the kitches and had a lunch prepared, which seemed to be relished as well as giving the degrees to a new "sub

The rank of page was conferred upon two most worthy and honored citizens and in such a manner as cannot be excelled in the state of Nebraska. There were several visitors, all of whom had words of cheer for the "good of the order," but most especially entertaining were the remarks of Worthy Brother Supreme Representative McFarthe action of the supreme lodge, together with that of the Uniform Rana a Cliv, and also of the adoption and exemplification of the new ritual which will be placed in the hands of all subordinate lodges on the with that of the Uniform Rank at Kansas all superdinate lodges on the 1st of December next and go into effect on Pythians all over America are anxious to see the new ritual of which so much has been said and written during the last year, or really ever since the ritual committee was appointed. The action of the supreme lodge in placing itself directly in touch with the people will be the means of stimulating the membership of this order to greater activity, thereby increasing their numbers and cementing each and every one more firmly in the bonds of friendsulp, charity and

Mars lodge No. 130 beld their regular meet ing at their ball, Thirtieth near Brown, on the evening of the 14th with Vice Chancellor Wood presiding There was a large attendance of members present, considering the excitement in town occasioned by the presence of Barnum's great circus. But in Mars lodge No. 130 there are true-hearted knights who would not shrink from their knightly duties if the largest wonder on earth was who would not shrink from their knightly duties if the largest wonder on earth was in Omaha on their meeting night. There were several visiting prothers present from the various lodges in town, who assisted in conferring the first degree upon Mr. Samuel Rateliff, and he will be prepared to take his stimulant on the next meeting night, September 21.

Mars lodge meetings are increasing since the decrease of the thermometer and prospects are bright for a large attendance of solonel. There are brigadier generals in Mr. Samuel Ratciff, and he will be command of brigades and major generals on the staff of the commander-in-chief, who is General John C. Underwood. His chief of staff is known as captain general. This army neivil life numbers 30,000 troops. Except a pects are bright for a large attendance of

Only a month more and our Grand Lodge will convene, says The Knight's Jewel. This will undoubtedly be a very interesting session, and every supordinate lodge should see that they are fully represented. Some por-tions of our constitution must needs be revised to comply with the requirements of Supreme Law, and many matters of local importance will be presented for consideration. It is predicted that the promulgation of the new ritual will bring back into the fold thousands that grew tired of the old work and withdraw or were suspended solely by reason of lack of interest. And to such we can truthfully state you will not be disappointed in your expectation of seeing and hearing something of beauty and merit. The new ritual is as far in advance of the old, as God's sunlight is more beautiful than he darkened pall of night.

To briefly summarize the important changes in the laws made at the last session of the supreme lodge: Red collars are prohibited. The "amplified" is a thing of the past.

Mystic Shriners. Medinan temple of Chicago is going to taild a home for itself that when completed will be one of the finest secret society buildings in the world. The property has a frontage of 110 feet on Fifth avenue, by 115 on Jackson street and the directors hope to secure a frontage of 65 feet on Quincy street, thereby making a total street frontage of 290 feet. The building is to be a twelve-story, fireproof structure, and will cost about $559,000, and while the plans are still incomplete sufficient progress has been made to warrant the assertion that this building will be devoted to store pirposes and the next eight at ries will be especially designed to accommodate foreign and eastern representatives and manufacturers' agents. The eleventh and twelfth floors are to be entirely utilized as a permanent home for Medinah temple and will be arranged particularly for the successful rendition of the impressive initiatory ceremonies of The preceptory will be arranged like a theater with a parquet and gallery, seat-ing about 1,000 persons, and the stage and scenery, etc., will be as large and extensive as those of a regular theater. A large ban-quet hall and a number of parlors, dressingrooms and smoking-room will also be devoted to the comfort of the members of the order. The total membership of the Chicago shrine is now over 1,500, and is increasing at the rate of about 400 members per year, and the necessity of large and com-modious quarters is apparent to any who have attended its recent sessions. Some other branches of the Masonic order have spoken of the probability of becoming tenants of the structure, but it is primarily es tablished for the use of the Medinah temple and it is doubtful whether any other Masonie organization will occupy any portion of the Workman Notes, The great event in Ancient Order of United Workmen circles for the coming week is the public lecture to be given by Grand Master Workman J. G. Tate at Washington had, Wednesday evening, September 21, at 8 o'clock p. m. Mr. Tate is known as a iccturer of unusual ability, and he is especially at home when speaking in the interest of the Ancient Orger of United Workmen. Grand Master Workman Tate has visited several of the Omaha lodges of late. On Thursday evening he was present at the regular meeting of Omaha lodge, No. 18.

There was a good attendance, and after ex-emplifying the lodge work Brother Tate gave an earnest address, which cannot fail of being productive of good results to that lodge if they carry with them outside of the hall the enthusiasm that was manifested there. The grand recorder, L. A. Payne was also present at this meeting and made few remarks, and, what was of great inter est, he gave some statistics of the order in this state. During the first seven months of this year there werd over 3,000 application for membership received at the grand re-corder's office. There have been only four assessments in nine, months for the pene-ficiary fund, and the order in Nebraska is in a very flourishing condition generally. Thos who were not present at this meeting missed

The record of the fraternal beneficial so cicties for the year 1891, as given by O. M. Shedd, secretary of the Fraternal Congress, shows that forty eight fraternal societies paid to the beneficiaries of deceased members the enormous sum/of $25,894,793.95 during last year alone, and more than that amount will be paid out this year. The Ancient Order of United Worgmen paid more than any other society, having paid the sum of $3.398,588.54, or about one fifth of the whole amount. Fraternal protection certainly has a strong hold in this country and is on the increase every year. The net gain in mem bership in the Ancient Order of United Workmen for the twelve months ending August 1, 1892, was 32 83) in the United States and Canada.

Regular Army and Navy Union. The fourth annual convention of the Regular Army and Navy union will be held at Detroit, Mieb., commencing Wednesday September 21, and is expected to last until Saturday afternoon, the 24th last, at which time the new efficers for the coming year vill be installed. It is expected that the far western states will not be fully represented this year on account of the great expense in sending del-ogates so great a distance, as the garrisons seeding delegates have to pay all expenses.

Nebraska with its five garrisons will only be represented by four delegates, tustead of

of their ladies, will leave Omaha on Sunday afternoon, reaching Detroit on Monday night. The Benedict hotel has been selected as the headquarters for the west and siding in the east. A strong effort will be made by Mr. Davis to have the fifth annual convention heid at Omaha in 1893.

Resolutions, Resolutions adopted by Abraham Lincoln garrison No. 13, Regular Army and Navy Union, on the death of Comrade James Sullivan:

Whereas. It having pleased the Great Commander to call from our midst our beloved comrade. James Sullivan, who held the honorable position of officer of the day in Abraham Lincoln garrison No. 13, and it being the desire of his comrades in garrison assembled to place on record his many excellent qualities of mind and heart, both as a contrade and a solder and to show a proper respect to his memory, we deem it a duty at this time to give voice and expression to the deep regret we feel at the loss of so worthy a brother and comrade; and therefore be it. Resolved. That Comrade Sullivanthad the love and esteem of all who knew him best, and was a man of honor and strict integrity. His word was his bond, and he always held the full confidence and respect of his superiors in rank, and the loyalty and love of his inferiors. Whereas, It having pleased the Great Com-

Resolved. That in crossinz the dark and silent river from whose shores no traveler returns, he leaves a vacant place in our ranks which it will be difficult to fill, and that we feel deeply the loss of our comrade, and have consolation only in the knowledze that he has gone to that haven of hope where the wicked cease from troubling and the webry are at rest. And be it further.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the retatives of our late comrade, a copy sent to the Rank and File, the Kansas City Times, the Army and Navy Register, the Army and Navy Journal, and The Omaha Bee for publication, and that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our next regular meeting.

So to escape castigation is to "save one's bacon." Another explanation is that backwoodsmen used to hang their bacon from the rafters, away from prowling wild animals.

Baker's Dozen-Thirteen. When a heavy penalty was inflicted for short weight, bakers used to give an extra loaf to make sure of giving good weight. To Pick a Bone-An unpleasant matter to settle. At the marriage feast of the Sicilian poor, the bride's father, after the meal, used to hand the bridegroom a bone, saying: "Pick this bone, for you have taken in hand a harder

Brother Jonathan-When Washington was in want of ammunition he called a council of officers, but no practical suggestion could be offered, "We must con-sul Brother Jonathan," he said, meaning Jonathan Trumbull, governor of Connec ticut. This was done and the difficulty was remedied. To consult Brothe Jonathan then became a set phrase. Cabbage-To filch. The word is es pecially applied to the pieces of cloth kept back by tailors who "make up gen-tlemen's own materials." Cabbage is also a schoolboy term for a petty theft Cap of Liberty-When a slave was manumitted by the Romans a small, red, cloth cap was placed on his head. soon as this was done he was termed libertinus (a freeman). When Saturniaus, in 263, captured the capital he hoisted a cap on the top of a spear, to indicate that all slaves who joined his standard should be free.

On the Carpet-The French term is sur le tapis. This expression means that the subject is up for debate or consideration. In former days councils sat about a cloth-covered table to deliberate on matters of state.
