Amos Conrad, the colored man stabbed in a quarren with Henry Harrison, is still alive and likely to remain so for some time. His condition was somewhat better this morning in spite of the statement of the doctor that he had but one chance in a hundred in re-covering. He was removed to his home on North Seventeenth street this afternoon, where is being well taken care of. There are but few new developments in regard to the case today. It is learned that both men had been at a "party" during the afternoon at which beer was furnished in large quanit which beer was furnished in large quan-tities. During the afternoon Conrad and another colored man induiged in a free fight in which Courad got the worst of it. Dur-ing the melee Harrison, who with the rest of the party was an interested spectator, should to Courad's opponent, "Give him bould to Courad's opponent, "Give him h-!' Conrad heard the remark and threatened at the time to get even with Harrison. Harrison left soon after and was found at the corner of Sixteenth and Was streets by Conrad, who at once assaulted him. Harrison had a pocket knife in his hand at the time and when Conrad struck him he grappled and in the struggle used his knife. He expresses no regret at Conrad's condition and insists that he stabbed to kill. District Court in Session.

The September term of the district court in and for Lancaster county opened this morning with Judges Hall and Tibbetts on the bench. Judge Field's place was vacant, as his successor has not yet been appointed by the governor. His resignation takes place on October 1, and it is believed that S. J. Tuttle will be appointed to fill the vacancy. Bat little business of public interest was transacted, the morning being consumed in oiling up the wheels of justice which are supposed to have become a little rusty during the summer vacation. The case of the state against Green Gravely, who is accused of the murder of

Charles Thomas on May 29, was set for next Monday. Dan Cashia, the colored man who furnished Gravely with a hiding place, will County Attorney Snell this forenoon en-tered a noile prosequi in the case of the state against Herbert Vermaas. The case was one that had been appealed to the district from the justice court at Nickman. Georgo W. Bradeen, who was convicted of gambling in the police court, appealed his case to the district court today. T. O'Con-nor, who was fined by the police judge for assaulting William Barr, also appealed.

d. C. Frick's Assailant Given a Sentence of Twenty.Two Years. PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 19 .- Alexander Borgman, the anarchist who tried to kill H. C. Frick, was placed on trial in the criminal court this morning. Bergman conducted his own case and pleaded not guilty. Frick took the stand and testified to the fact of the attempted assassination as already told in these dispatches. This evidence was corroberated by Vice Chairman Leishman, the only witness of the assault, and Dr. Litchfield described the nature of Frick's wound. Bergman was perfectly cool during the progress of the trial, which was very brief, and the jury quickly found him guilty. He was then sentenced to twenty-one years in the ponitentary and one year in the workhouse.

DeWitt's Sarsaparilia is reliable.
