Faise.

GENEVA, Neb., Sept. 21 .- (Special to THE BRE. |- The calamity howlers have been publishing broadcast the statement that the mort, age indebtedness of Fillmore county has increased $160,000 during the past year. This is misleading and does injustice to the county, which, when the facts are known, Will be seen to have made an enviable record, having actually decreased its mortgage indebtedness for borrowed money by more than $103,000.

The official records for the year ending July 31 show that the mortgages filed aggregated $1,236,978.33 and those released $1,155.-828.39, making an apparent increase of $81, 650.04, which is but one-half of the amount alleged by the independent shrickers.

Even these figures do not make a fair showing, because there are several classes of head of the new move, which meets with popular approval. obligations which do not represent an increase of poverty among the people of this county. For example, mortgages aggregat-Ing $129.697.58 were given to secure part of the purchase price of property. N. H. War-ren & Co. of Chicago gave a mortgage for 644,000 on their elevarors in this county. which hardly counts as a debt chargeable to the people here. It is found that 4,350.55 were chattel mortgages to secure loans also represented by real estate mortgages for the same amount. In other words there was an apparent indebtedness of $8,701.16 and a real indebtedness of only half that amount, About $6,200 of mortgages were for imported horses. These storis make a total of $154,245.16. If this sum be subtracted from the grand totals of filings it will leave $1,052,733.17 as the amount of money actually borrowed by Fillmore's residents. A com-parison of the figures will show that that is $102,505.12 less than the sum of the mortgages released, which surely makes a fine showing for the prosperity of this county. These figures are direct from statements real estate rooms. It also did much damage to other portions of the building, burning through the floor to the bank below. Much damage was done to the books and papers in the bank and office. compiled in the office of the county cierk. That official did not berin until last November keeping an account of the mortgages given to secure the purchase price of estate, or the showing would be better by many thousand dollars. It is also known that many mortgages are not released on the records when paid, and when all these facts Bre considered it will be seen that Fillmore county is making a steady gain in financial stability.

Plattsmouth's Paving.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Sept. 21.-[Special to THE BEE, !- At a special meeting of the city council Saturday night the matter of paying Bixth street with brick came up. Three different firms had put in bids for the work, McMaken & Son of this city being the highest bidders, John Cagney of this city being next and Fanning & Co. of Omaha being the lowest. The council had an exciting seance, which was warmly and earnestly participated in by citizens present, and after a heated wrangle the Board of Pub-lic Works was directed to con-tract with McMakon & Son. The board rebelled and intimated that a mandamus would be the only way to get them to soact. They had previously recommended that Fanning & Co. be awarded the contract and they meant to have it so settled. At the regular meeting on Monday night the city dads got together and reconsidered their previous action and gave Fanning & Co. the contract. This seems to have ended the row for the time being. At the same meeting the council rescinded its orders to the Water company to extend the water mains and will rest content with what they have for a while. ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Hoyt has written many successful plays, but none that has brought him the amount of money and reputation that "A Texas Steer" has. It is his masterpiece and combines elements that enlist the attention of all classes of theater-goers. No man or woman who takes any interest at all in the political life of the country can fail to appreciate the keen satire and brillant sarcasm of "A Texas Steer." Everywhere the piece has been played this season it has done enormous business, and during its Omaha engagement, which occurs at Boyd's theater on the last three evenings of this week, it will still keep up the record.

The essential elements that went to make the comedy of "Niobe" the conspicuous dramatic success of last season were: First, play of the greatest possibilities; secondly, stage director in the person of Ben Teal. juics to discover and assiduous in developing these possibilities, and third, the intrust-ing of the parts, even the least consequential, only to artists of superior ability. Their profits this season will probably exceed con-siderably those of the last, as the drawing quality of the piece has not been impaired. "Niobe" under these circumstances can count not only upon new friends and ad-mirers, but retaining all of its old ones. The engagement of "Nioed" opens at Boyd's on Monday night for three nights.

At the Farnam Street theater commencing Sunday matinee and continuing four nights, one of the most successful theatrical enter-prises on the road will hold the boards, viz; A. W. Fremont in his sensational scenic pro-nuction entitled "7-7-7." This company left a favorable impression here last season and doubtless Mr. Fremont's many admirers will give him a royal welcome on his return at the Sunday matinee.

MERRIMAN IS SPORTING.

How a Hardworking Woman Was Swindled

by a Graceless Scamp. "George W. Merriman is here sporting. Have your chief of police authorize his arrest. May save some of his wife's money. Ans wer.'

This was the wording of a telegram eccived by the manager of the Jennings hotel the other day and behind it is a wretched story of confiding womanhood and man's villainy.

Mrs. Gebhart was a hardworking widow of Galesburg, Ill., who by saving and scrimping and making the most of her opportunities had paid for a comfortable home, wel furnished and put away for a rainy day about $1,200 in cash. She had three young children to support, but was able to support them and the world went well with her until she met and married George W. Merriman, a young sport who from all accounts was no good to himself or any one else. They were married about six wooks ago, and about three weeks ago her new husband persuaded her to close the house and accompany him to Omana, where he was persuaded there was an opening for his talents, and that they might purchase a new home and be from the bank and crame, and the whole family put up at the Jennings hotel, regis-tering as George W. Merriman from Chicago.

The next day the young man told his wife that he had located a situation, and that he would deposit her money and go back to Galesburg, pack up her furniture and clothes, for she had only brought one small trunk with her, and return in a few days. The wife handed over her $1,200 and he de-parted and has not since been heard from. She was left at the hotel with her three

The telegram above was signed by the chief of police of Galesburg, and from it, it is inferred that Merriman has sold the house and furniture and is living an enjoyable life, leaving his wife to shift for herself.
