YOUNG LYNCH WAS BADLY OUTCLASSED

He Made a came Fight for Five Rounds, but Was Clearly No Match for His Conqueror-The Mill by Rounds.

CONET ISLAND, N. Y., Sept. 25 .- A "large and enthusiastic" crowd of from 6,000 to 7,000 people assembled at the Coney Island Ataletic club tonight to witness the two crack contests which were advertised to take place. The opening event was a fifteenround "go" between Sam Kelly of the West Side Athletic club of New York and Bob Cunningham of the Brooklyn Athletic club. It was awarded to Cunningham by the referce at the end of the fifteenth round. It was a veritable slugging match, and Kelly wes bathed in blood throughout. Kelly had the advantage of height and reach, but Cunningham displayed shiftiness and was tronger at the end.

The contest of the evening was the second event, and it was a finish fight between Jimmy Lynch of this city and Johnny Grffin of Braintree, Mass. A large amount of money was bet on this fight, as the 122pound championship of the world and a purse of $2,500 depended on the result.

It was after 10 o'clock when Lynch and his seconds jumped on the stage. They were followed immediately by Griffin. Al Smith was announced as referee, Griffin's seconds were Jimmy Carroll of San Francisco, Prof. Robertson of Bay St. Louis and Jack Shee-han of New York. Lynch was looked after by Joe Choynski of California, Watter Campbell of Philadelphia and Jack Quinn, the Scotch lightweight. Bob Stall held the time for the club.

Lynch Opened Proceedings.

No time was wasted in preliminaries. The men went to the center of the ring for the first round and immediately Lynch proved the aggressor. He forced the lighting on the start and landed blows in rapid succes slon, worrying Griffin not a little, securing first blood and first knockdown. Griffin acted on the defensive until the latter part of the round, when he braced up and fought like a tiger, showing that he was a good,

Second Round-Griffin led and landed on Lynch's head, Lynch countered and smashed Griffin hard, Griffin then langed six or eight hard ones, punching Lynch all over the ring. Lynch made a game fight, but was unable to stand Griffin's hard punishment. He was knocked down three or four times, but got up each time only to be hit harder than ever. Several times it looked sorry for Lynch. The goag was all that aved him from a complete knock-out. Third Round-Griffin stood firm punened Lyach all over the ring, landing his right and left at will. Lynch was knocked down, but stuck to his work most admirably and caught the house by his plucky fight. It was a battle well worth seeing, as the crowd was kept in the highest state of excitement. Griffin did not knock Lynch out. although every time he went down the crowd thought it was down for good. He would once more stagger out, showing he was game as a pebble.

Fourth Round-Lynch came up gamely and made a brave fight, but Griffin landed on him again, which made the second fall of the round. Lynch was game, and though receiving bad punishment managed to get in a few blows, but Griffin knocked Lynch about as he pleased. Lynch was getting very tired and the knock out blow was ex pected every second. Fifth Round-Lynch was still on his feet and the aggressor. Both men fought like tigers with right and left as fast as they could swing their hands. Lynch was snocked down three times before he was finally put out.

It was one of the gamest fights that has ever been fought on Coney Island. It was evident that Lynch was overmatched, as Griffin continued to hit him as he pleased. A bard blow on Lynch's neck followed by Enother on the temple laid him on the floor to remain, unable to get up at the counting of ten seconds. The fight was then awarded to Parvenue Scares Off a Field of Gallopers at Gravesend.

GRAVESEND, N. Y., Sept. 26.-Slightly cooler weather, with blustery winds, and a good track attendance of 5,000 spectators were the features of today's races. Parvenue outclassed his opponents in the first race, and all but Roller and Laughing Water were withdrawn. Parvenue won in a gallop with the prohibitive odds of 1 to 25 against him. Marcelius, second choice at 2 to 1, took the second race without a struggle. Rainbow, the 8 to 5 favorite, finished last. Reckon found her 122 pounds too heavy for a mile and a quarter and was beaten by both her opponents, Banquet, 7 to 10, winning in a gallon. Mordette, 8 to 1, cleverly ridden, landed the fourth race from the 8 to 1 chance, Lyceum, after a strong chase from start to last half dozen jumps. Fred Taral, the fa-vorite, did not have a chance, as he was all but left at the post, and Key West, second choice, was badly pocketed and knocked about all through the race. Kildeer (1 to 4) gailoped away with the fifth race and Dog-gett stole the sixth from Stonenell (4 to 5) with Chesapeake (9 to 5). Stonenell was winning, but Flynn, in trying to make it head finish, was outridden by Doggett Sammaries:

MR.CLEVELAND'SACCEPTANCE [CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE.] and with humble reliance upon the Divine Being, infinite in power, to aid in constant, watenful care over our favored nation.

Gray Gables, Sept. 26, 1892. WHAT THEY THINK OF IT.

Press Comments on Mr. Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance. DENVER, Colo., Sept. 26.-The Rocky Mountain News, speaking of Cleveland's letter of acceptance, will tomorrow say: "The letter strikes the tariff plank of the Chicago convention with a very long and wide dagger, He hardly makes any attempt to cover his animosity to the free compage of silver, although he artfully strives to conceal the fact that he is in favor of a single gold standard. The letter ought not to make him any votes west of the Mississippi river." The Republican will say: "Clevel and The Republican will say: "Clevel and foresces his defeat and is letting himself down easy. On the tariff question the people will judge the policy of the democratic party by the free trade platform of the Chicago convention rather than by any interpreta-tion or misinterpretation that Mr. Cleveland or any one else may put upon it. On the coinage question he carefully avoids all men-tion of bimetallism or silver coinage. His utterances will not prove at all satisfactory to Colorado and other silver states, when compared with those of President Harrison, compared with those of President Harrison, which are clearly in favor of bimetallism."

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 26,—The Tribune (republican): "Mr. Cleveland makes a gallant struggle to keep within hailing distance of the platform prepared for him at Chicago by Colonel Watterson without stultifying himself, and the result is a rather stullifying himself, and the result is a rather more ingenuious bit of work than Senator Hill has yet done in the same line."

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 26.—The Chicago Times (democratic) says: "Recognizing the issue framed by his party and accepted by the opposition, Mr. Cleveland proceeds with pleasing directness to make clear his position on the question of tariff taxation. takes issue squarely with his opponents by accepting the platform of his party and denying the right of the government to leve taxes for the purpose of enriching private individuals and cordorations." New York, Sept. 26.—Following are the comments on Mr. Cleveland's letter:

Herald: "The letter has the merit of comparative brevity, being hardly half the length of Mr. Harrison's. It is not an argument, but a statement. It is not a ringing document, but a calm summary of views in plain language that will appeal to and, doubtless, influence the thinking masses." St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 26.-The Globs (democratic): "Like all his previous public writings and utterances, Grover Cleveland's letter-of acceptance is vigorous, virile and sound every way. It is the utterance of a man unused to temporizing, and whose habit is to walk in the straight path of his MEMPHIS, Tenn. Sept. 26.—The Appeal Avalanche: 'The letter is marked by his usual lucidity and forcefulness of style. It is the paper of a tried statesman and a loyal partisan. It lits into the platform adopted at Chicago and, as a sound interpretation of the democratic position, will be accepted by democrats everywhere."

Boston, Mass., Sept. 26.—Journal (republican): "The Americans like sincerity and courage. They find neither in the letter in which the democratic candidate for president discusses the great issues of the na-tional campaign. The equivocation of Grover Cleveland on the tariff and currency is in sharp contrast with the straightforward maniness of Benjamin Harrison."

The Globe (democratic): "It is in itself a democratic platform. It is a declaration of high principles which will gain wide attention and arouse enthusiasm everywhere. Mr. Cleveland's letter will be read by thousands who had no patience to peruse the long drawn out platitudes of Mr. Harrison's wearisome offering."

The Post (democratic): "The letter is a model of frank, honest and straightforward sense, and it is the best and highest states-manship. It appears directly to the under-standing of an intelligent people. It is the letter of an earnest, plain man, writing what he believes with all his heart, to be read by men as honest and sincere as he is.'

The Staats Zeitung: "Mr. Cleveland stands frank and free on the democratic platform; he goes back on it not one step. His true sticking to the letter and spirit of civil service reform will satify the most laorious defender of this reform."
Tribune: "It is not for what it says, omits to say, on minor topics, that Cleveland judged. He rightly treats the tariff question as more directly involved in the election than any other, and devotes more than half of his space to a painfully la-bored and weak effort to smooth over the rugged declaration of his party, the uncom-promising measures to which it has committed itself and his own aggressive vigorous utterances prior to the R Island election. It appears that Mr. Cleveland which followed his speech in Providence Apparently, to tell the truth, Mr. Cleveland correctly represented at the last national convention by those wanted to evade and dodge very issues upon which his nomination had been demanded. This, at least s certain, his latest utterance will not gratify those who have rejuced in his fearless zoal for reform. It is much to be doubted whether it will moderate the antagonism of believer in the defense and maintenance of The Times (democratic): "Mr. Cleveland's fellow countrymen expected that he would stamp his letter of acceptance with his characteristic of unalterable purpose, unaffected optimism and undiluted conviction They did not expect the quipoling and sparring for wind they were not surprised to find the document that Mr. Harrison issued as an acceptance. The country is not disappointed. The letter is Mr. Cleveland's from the World: "The letter of Grover Cleveland is like the man-strong, straightforward, sensible, honest. It takes up the issues of the canvass in their order and defines his own and the democratic politics on them clearly and in a manner to leave no doubt in the candid mind as to his convictions or his party's purpose. Mr. Cleveland's statements of the objects, powers and limitations of our republican government is Jeffersonian in its philosophy and Jacksonian in its ex-

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 26.—The Journal ep.): "Cleveland's letter of acceptance is principally noticeable for the masterly man which he deals in meaningle tences, for no other apparent purpose than to obscure the fact as much as possible that believes himself to be greater and wiser than his party.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 26.-The Pioneer Press (rep.) will say editorially of Mr. Cleveland's letter: "The mountain labored and brought forth a mouse. It was hardly worth while for Mr. Cieveland to have undergone the threes of parturation for three long months for so insignificant an offspring as his letter of acceptance. It is a strong, commosplace idea, couched in his usual style of pompous and ponderous sententiousness."
Sr. Louis, Mo., Sept. 26.—The Globe-Democrat will say editorially of Cloveland's let-"The majority of Mr. Cleveland's porters will be apt to consider his letter of acceptance a rather unsatisfactory docu-ment. There is a lack of vigor and hopeful-ness in its tone which will be a little depressing to his party. * * The letter will not add to his reputation as a statesman or a man of decided or sincere convictions. Chicago, Ill., Sept. 25.—The Inter Ocean (republican): "If any body expected that the etter would seriously attempt to monify or the free trade plank of the demo ignore the free trade plank of the demo-cratic platform, he will be greatly mis-taken when he carefully follows the painstaking and plodding composer of Gray Gables through his entire composition. The letter indicates that he is opposed to most things. Like a true democratic return it is rich in negatives, poor o offirmations! New Orleans, La., Sept. 26.—The Times emocrat: "It is a terse and weighty door ment. It is permeated with a spirit of broad statesmanship and its excursions into the field of the living issues of the day are marked everywhere with wise thought and philosophic sentimer."

Another Letter of Acceptance. New Haven. Conn., Sept. 26.—Judge L.
B. Morris of this city has been officially notified of his nomination for governor.
The correspondence between the inuse and the committee appointed for this purpose is made public today.
Judge Morris' letter of acceptance is devoted wholly to the discussion of state issues. The events of the past two years, he says, have demonstrated the necessity for a revision of the state constitution, since it has been clearly shown that in the election of state officers the people have very little voice or control under the present constitution. No good reason can be shown, he declares, why state officers should not be elected by a plurality vote. In no other way can the votes of the people have their full effect.

Still Answering Correspondents. CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 26. -Under date of September 20, a Hebrew resident of this city wrote to ex-President Cleveland a letter of congratulation on the attitude assumed by the democratic party in its platform toward the persecuted Jews of Russia. To from Buzzard's Bay :

from Buzzard's Bay:

My Dear Sir: Your letter of the 20th inst.
is at hand. It is exceedingly gratifying to know that you appreciate so fully the attitude of the democratic party toward your brethren in the Hebrew faith. I beg to assure you that I am fully in sympathy with the declarations on that subject, though I am not sure that either the party or myself deserves the least praise for sentiments which are only in accordance with humanity and the kindly feeling which ought to exist in the brotherhood of mankind. Very truly yours.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL REPORT.

Earnings of the Company Largely Increased

-Eastbound Freight Shipments. CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 26. -The Illinois Central Railroad company today issued its fortysecond annual report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1892. The net income ending June 30, 1892. The net income from all sources amounted to $6,407,438, out of which was paid interest and rentals to the amount of $3,932,105. leaving $2,475,333. Dividends payable March I and September I aggregated $2,250,000, leaving a surplus of $225,333. The report says that while the gross earnings of the system were much larger than in any previous year, the cost of operation was also largely increased because of the greater volume of business, a larger relative expenditure for maintenance and relative expenditure for maintenance and taxes and also by reason of the floods which prevailed for so long a time in Iowa and Illi nois and on the southern lines of the road. Eastbound shipments of freight from Chi cago by the various railroads last week amounted to 63,001 tons, against 63,751, pre-ceding week, a decrease of 750 tons, and against 57,894 for the corresponding week last year, an increase of 5,107 tons. Ship ments by lake amounted to 118,310 tons against 130,422 for the preceding week, a decrease of 12,112 tons.

Controlled by the Southern Pacific New Orleans, La., Sept. 26.—The Times-Democrat's San Antonio special says: The announcement that the San Antonio & Arausas Pass railway is soon to pass into the control of the Southern Pacific company has created a considerable stir here. The minor officials of the San Antonio & Aransas Pass railroad are uneasy in the security of their respective positions and do not regard he proposed transfer with much favor.

Current Topic Club Talk. "Is it Right for the City to Levy a Tax Jpon Gampling Houses and Kindred Establishments!" was the subject debated last evening by the Current Topic club. There being seventy-five members present, a large proportion of whom were business and proessional men, the subject was well handled. As was supposed, the ordinance recently passed by the city council was mentioned and the author of the ordinance being pres ent, Mr. Sol Prince, he was asked if he would speak. He explained the nature and power of the act and showed that it was not intended to interfere with the state law, but to provide an additional means of limiting the evils of gambling.

After the question had been opened in the affirmative by Prof. A. Matthews, followed by Mr. E. E. Thomas in the negative, Judge McCullough, Warren Switzler and Rev. Mr. A. J. Turkie wers called upon. They gave their views, as did a number of others present. Rev. Mr. Turkie confined his remarks chiefly to the moral aspects of the

The chairman of the club, Rev. Dr. Duryea, then opened up the question from cer-tain points of view for further discussion at the meeting of the club next Monday evening, the question being continued by arunanimous vote. In order that it could be more plainly stated, it was changed to read as follows: "In view of the difficulties of as follows: "In view of the difficulties of enforcing the state laws against gambling, s it right and expedient for the city to treat the same as a misdemeanor and fine the per sons violating !"

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 26,-Chief P. M. Arthur was the drawing card at the union meeting of J. C. Buriey division, No. 237, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which was held in the Altoons opera house vesterday. Hundreds of strangers were present, including delegations from Harrisburg, Pittsburg, Allegheny City and Jersey City. Grand Chief Arthur opened his remarks by announcing his firm belief in organized labor, saying he felt sure that if the laboring men of this country or any other country are ever rescued from the thraidom of slavery it will be through and by organ-ized efforts. The misfortunes of organized labor of the present day have in most cases been in the selection of leaders. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers have done much for the good of men, their families, the raitroad companies and the commu-nities in which the men dwell. It has given the railroad companies trustworthy, reliable men. It insists on all being sober, honest and faithful to duty. During its twentyeight years of existence it has had only three strikes, and these could have been prevented had the roads been as fair minded as the Bloody Fight at an A. P. A. Lecture in Wyoming's Capital.

PATRICK MOORE FATALLY WOUNDED

Officer Nolan Twice Stabbed During an Attempt to Disarm Editor Lyons of the St. Joe American-Conflicting Stories of the Fight.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Sept. 26 .- [Special Tele gram to Tas Ber.]-T. J. Lyons, editor of the St. Joseph American of St. Joe, Mo., attempted to lecture last night on "Romanist Influence in the Public Schools," He had received an intimation that trouble would ensue if he carried out his intention, and when he appeared on the platform he exhibited two six-shooters, which he said he would use if necessary to protect himself. He waved the American flag over his head, and then advancing with some nervousness to a little table on the stage placed there a roll of documents. He said that he understood threats had been made against his life in Cheyenne. He had heard of such things before. He had been in tougher places than Chevenne. In fact, he had been here when it was a great deal tougher than it was now. He told of some experiences of his in Missouri and Kausas towns. In one place his room was broken into and he had simply scared off the intruders by showing his revolver without firing it. His usual plan was to first draw his revolver without firing it at once, but in Cheyenne he had decided to open fire at once. He then began his lecture open fire at once. He then began his lecture, gaining confidence as he proceeded. There were about 500 people present, a great many of them being Catholics, and he was frequently interrupted during his lecture.

At last he called upon the policemen and useers present to clear the hall. Amid a scene of wild, confusion this was partially accomplished. When nearly all of the people had gone out Lyons took a revelver in each hard and started to leave the hall. As he reacted the door Patrick Nolan, a policeman attempted to disarm him. The crowd closes in upon the two. The stories of what followed are very conflicting. It is asserted that a boilermaker employed at the Union Pacific shops named Patrick Moore grappled with and threw the lecturer to the ground While in that attitude he was shot twice, The firing became general and fully thirty shots were fired within a few seconds. One of the bullets passed through Moore's body, inflicting a probably fatal wound. He was also shot through the arm. Policeman Nolan was stabbed in the face and neck, receiving two serious wounds.

The shooting scattered the crowd, and Lyons, with a bodyguard of friends, reached his hotel. An excited crowd of men threatened to lynch him and followed and surrounded the hotel. Sheriff Kelley arrested Lyons in his room and took his revolvers from him, after which he was taken to Fort Russell for safe keeping.

The excitement over the affair is very great and crowds of men gathered on the street corners discussing the matter. If Moore should die an attempt to lynch Lyons may be made. Lyons is supposed to have come here under the auspices of the local branch of the American Protective association. In any event it is feared that more trouble may follow, particularly should an attempt be made to carry out the original plan of three more lectures by the same party during the week. There has been no further trouble over last night's disturbance. Lyons was taken before Judge Carroll this afternoon and bailed in the sum of $2,000. Shortly after be was rearrested on another charge and held in $1,000. There were but two men injured last night and only one seriously; both will recover. Lyons has been invited by his brethren to remain in town until he can get a hearing. The people, regardless of religion or politics, will guarantee him protection Switchmen employed in the Union Pacific yard here waited on the yardmaster this morning and demanded that an objectionable man be dismissed or a strike would ensue. The yardmaster refused and the men resumed work pending the arrival of the trainmaster from Laramie. The man is accused belonging to the A. P. A. He subsequently esigned and peace prevails. Horses Killed in a Wreck.
