REWICK'S SENSATION FALLS

Much Talk About the Sweeping Charges He Made in Speech.

LITTLE GOOD IN A POLITICAL CAMPAIGN

Independents Do Not Find Anything in the Allegations to Make Capital Of—What Attorney General Hastings Says of the Matter.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 28.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The exposures in the management of the Lincoln insane asylum made last evening by E. C. Rewick of this city have been the subject of general comment in Lincoln today. No other speech delivered here this year has attracted so much attention and so much comment. No one has yet questioned the accuracy of Mr. Rewick's figures, but any purpose to turn them to the advantage of the political party to which the speaker has but recently attached himself has fallen flat. The independent leaders are not likely to use Mr. Rewick's statements, sensational though they may be, as arguments in favor of the calamity ticket. The exposures simply tend to prove what everybody in the state, without regard to party affiliation, has suspected for years—that there has been gross mismanagement in the conduct of some of the state institutions. The members of the State Board of Public Lands and Buildings have for years endeavored to find any evidence that would lead to the uncovering of frauds that they felt certain were being practiced. The nature of Mr. Rewick's charges, as shown by THE BEE yesterday, concerns the falsification of vouchers by the steward in regard to the purchase of supplies for the asylum.

Mr. Rewick said that last spring he received a request to call at the office of the auditor at the state house. He went there and was met by George Bowerman, deputy auditor, who took him upstairs to the office of the attorney general. Commissioner Humphrey was sent for and the four gentlemen retired to the private room where the attorney general requested him to furnish the evidence of the corruption which he had discovered. He stated that he had shown his affidavits to the attorney general and that that official had treated them lightly and declined to take up the matter and pursue the investigation. He then left and walked down stairs arm in arm with Mr. Bowerman, and while on the way down expressed his opinion of the attorney general in very emphatic language. He added that the deputy auditor frequently interrupted him with requests not to talk so loud for fear that some one might hear him, but in spite of the request he kept right on expressing his opinion of the attorney general.

Another Version of the Story.

Attorney General Hastings gives an entirely different version of the interview which took place in his office. He states that when he heard last spring that Mr. Rewick was in possession of evidence that was likely to incriminate employes in the state institutions, he sent for him and requested that he divulge his information. The attorney agreed to commence criminal and civil proceedings against any and all persons who might be implicated. He said that he would except no one and that he would commence proceedings against even the highest officer in the state house if necessary. Mr. Rewick declined to give up his information for the reason that it might get him into trouble. The attorney general then proposed that Mr. Rewick put the evidence in his hands and that the proceedings would be commenced and no one would know that the evidence had been furnished by Mr. Rewick. To this proposition Mr. Rewick also dissented. He then stated that he would like to receive the nomination for police judge on the republican ticket and that if the members of the State Board of Public Lands and Buildings would assist him in securing that nomination he would destroy the evidence in his possession. The attorney general, in language that was at least emphatic, denounced him as a blackmailer and ordered him out of the office.

The attorney general's statement is corroborated by the other gentlemen present at the interview.

Rewick Makes More Threats.

In corroborating the statement made by the attorney general Mr. George Bowerman also makes the following statement:

"When the republican city convention was in session last spring Mr. Rewick came to me and requested me to use my influence to help him secure the nomination. I declined to do so. The balloting commenced and Mr. Rewick saw that his opponent, Judge Waters, was likely to secure the nomination. I was seated on a back seat and Rewick came to me and told me that unless I got up at that time and used my influence to turn the tide in his favor he would make his attack upon the Board of Public Lands and Buildings the next day. I again declined and Mr. Rewick was defeated."

A number of other parties were approached by Mr. Rewick, it is asserted, and by him requested to use their influence to aid him in securing the nomination for police judge in consideration of his agreeing to suppress the charges which he claimed to be able to make; but THE BEE representative gives the statements of only those gentlemen whom he was able to see personally in regard to the matter.

Mr. Hathaway, manager of the Nebraska Daily State Journal, stated to THE BEE representative that he had been approached by Mr. Rewick last spring in reference to the charges. At that time Mr. Rewick agreed to suppress the charges providing Mr. Hathaway would secure him a lucrative position during the campaign.

General Leese's Statement.

Ex-Attorney General Leese said to THE BEE representative today that any attempt to make political charges of the statements made by Mr. Rewick should be frowned down. General Leese is a prominent member of the independent party and occupied a seat on the platform with the speaker last evening. He was also the attorney general of the state for three terms and an ex-officio member of the Board of Public Lands and Buildings. He said it was absolutely impossible for the Board of Public Lands and Buildings to detect the frauds referred to by the speaker last evening. The board might suspect that they were there, but it had no means of detecting them under the present laws of the state. The superintendent of the institution is the responsible officer. The board takes the vouchers that are presented each month and compares them with the copy of the original bid on file with the secretary of state. If the amount compares with the bid and the superintendent has properly certified to the claim the board has no alternative but to order it paid. If it did not order it paid the supreme court would compel it by means of a mandamus. Mr. Leese stated that he did not doubt the evidence furnished by the speaker, but that any attempt to attach the responsibility should not be laid at the doors of the board. He believed that the present attorney general would have been as good as his word when he said he would commence proceedings on being furnished with the evidence.

Chancellor Creighton's Reception.

UNIVERSITY PLACE, Neb., Sept. 28.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The ovation tendered Chancellor Creighton here last night was a grand success. He was met at the train in Lincoln by a delegation headed by the Cadet band. Arriving here a carriage awaited him and enthusiastic students composed the teams that drew him to his residence. The arrival was heralded abroad by firing anvils, blowing steam whistles and college yells. After a hasty lunch students, citizens, friends from Lincoln and abroad poured into the large residence until it was uncomfortably thronged. For nearly three hours the reception lasted. Music was furnished by the band and a college quartet. Dr. Maxfield of Omaha made a witty congratulatory speech followed by the chancellor in a speech that breathed good fellowship to all, and malace toward none. He stated that he had withdrawn his $30,000 civil damage suit against the prosecution, the case having been dismissed by the attorneys "without prejudice."

Striking features of the evening were the illuminations of the Haish and University buildings.

Auburn's Jail Delivery.

AUBURN, Neb., Sept. 28.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The three Sumner boys held in the county jail for breaking into a store in Brownville some time ago and stealing about $400 worth of goods, broke jail this afternoon about 2 o'clock and have not yet been recaptured. The basement of the jail is used for the jail proper, while the upper part is used as a residence for the jailer, and the two stories are connected by an elevator used to convey food to prisoners. During a few moments absence of every one from the house the boys climbed through this elevator. Taking a revolver belonging to the sheriff, which was lying on a shelf, they made good their escape. The three men were seen to board a Missouri Pacific freight train at a railroad crossing about four miles out of the city, and there is hopes of their being captured.

This is the second jail breaking in the last month. Charles Johnson, held for murder in the first degree, refused to go with the others in both cases.

NO CHANGE IN THE OPERATORS' STRIKE

Several Disastrous Wrecks Said to Have Been Narrowly Avoided as a Result of the Ignorance of the New Men.

DAVENPORT, Ia., Sept. 28.—One of the most daring robberies ever known in this city occurred last night. Nicholas Strite, an old, one-legged veteran, who had recently drawn $4,400 pension money, was relieved of his wealth at the Rock Island depot by George Masury.

Masury was caught this morning and all the money was recovered. The prisoner recently obtained possession of valuable mining stocks and was caught in the act of disposing of them.

Lenox District Fair.

LENOX, Ia., Sept. 28.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Lenox district fair opened today with very bright prospects. Tomorrow is republican day and Friday democratic day, and large crowds are promised. Tomorrow's races will be interesting.

In the finish of the second heat of the three-minute class today, after the horses had passed under the wire the sulky of Ilion collided with that of Guy and then with that of Joker, smashing both the latter sulkies. Long, driver of Joker, was thrown violently to the ground, but held his horse and saved a runaway. The driver of Ilion was also thrown out of his sulky, but was uninjured. Dandy A became unmanageable and ran away, throwing William Aighray, driver, to the ground, where he was picked up insensible. He ran through the quarter stretch out onto the track and tore down through the crowd, knocking down T. C. Elliott, an aged and wealthy resident, breaking his leg at and above the knee and breaking several ribs. He will probably die.

Ministers in Session.

DUNBAR, Neb., Sept. 28.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Quite a number of ministers of Otoe county met in the United Presbyterian church last evening for the purpose of organizing a county ministerial association.

The opening sermon was by Rev. J. C. Jacoby of Nebraska City. After the sermon greetings from the field were given by most of the ministers present. This was both instructive and interesting to the audience.

This morning trains brought a number of ministers from different parts of the county. The meeting being called to order and devotional exercises dispensed with, the constitution of the Nebraska City Ministerial association was revised and adopted as the constitution of the county association. The conference in the afternoon on the attitude of the church toward the labor problem in its various phases, was opened in an excellent address by Rev. C. Monroe of Nebraska City.

The address of the evening on "The Man for the Times" was ably delivered by Rev. M. Brown of Douglass, Neb.

The following are the officers elected for the ensuing year: President, Dr. J. B. Grove, Nebraska City; vice president, Rev. L. Proudfit, Dunbar; secretary and treasurer, Rev. Moulton of Nebraska City.

Governor Kirkwood's Friends.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Sept. 28.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A large representation of the public men of Iowa of the past twenty-five years gathered here today and paid a high honor to Iowa's old war governor, Samuel J. Kirkwood. It was arranged for some fifty of Kirkwood's associates in office since the war to meet here and pay their respects to him. It was a notable collection of prominent Iowans. Among them were ex-Governor Sherman, Federal Judge Reed, ex-Congressman Pussey, Hon. R. S. Finkbine, General Ed Wright, Judge Rothrock, Judge George C. Wright, Hon. B. F. Gue, Hon. George F. Wright and many others. There was a most happy address by Judge Wright, in which he paid a glowing tribute to Kirkwood. The old governor, now nearing his 76th year, made a happy response, saying in conclusion: "I leave to the future the verdict as to my actions. I shall feel that whatever responsibility, labor and toil I gave was given to the best of my ability."

Will Contest the Will.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Sept. 28.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mrs. Jane Spangler and Mrs. Ellen C. Blake have brought suit in the district court to break the will of the late Sampson C. Bever. Mr. Bever was one of the wealthiest men in Iowa, being worth more than $1,000,000. He left the bulk of his property to his three sons—James L., George W. and John. The contestants in their petition claim that Mr. Bever was not of sound and disposing mind at the time of the execution of the will and charge that the will and codicil were each procured and executed by the fraud, duress and undue influence of James L. Bever and George W. Bever. The case promises to be one of the most exciting and sensational ever tried here.

In Favor of the Elkhorn.

O'NEILL, Neb., Sept. 28.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The jury in the case of Charles O'Connor against the Elkhorn for damages caused by overflowing the land of the plaintiff, after a deliberation of three hours, brought in a verdict for the defendant. This is the first jury case of any importance won by a railroad company in Holt county.

Two Fatal Gasoline Explosions.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Sept. 28.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Fire resulted from a gasoline stove explosion on Fifth street this morning. Mrs. B. Stohl was probably fatally burned. At the same time another fire occurred in the City hotel, on Virginia street, from the same cause. NEW RULES.

Illinois State Board of Railway Commissioners Issues Instructions.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 28.—The State Board of Railway and Warehouse commissioners on the recommendation of the Chicago Board of Trade has promulgated the following rules, to become effective unless cause is shown why they should not at the next meeting of the board:

"The word 'new' shall be inserted in each certificate of inspection of a newly harvested crop of oats until August 15, of rye until September 1, of wheat until November 1 and of barley until May 1, of each year."

This change shall be construed as establishing new grades for the time specified to conform to the existing grades of grain in all particulars, excepting the distinctions between the new and the old crops, and apply to grain inspected for store for two months after the time respectively above specified.

Northern wheat must be northern grown spring wheat, sound and well cleaned, and must contain not less than 50 per cent of the hard varieties of spring wheat.

SEEKING A DIVORCE.

Miss Effie Shannon, the Actress, Wants a Separation from Her Husband.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 28.—The fact became public this evening that Miss Effie Shannon of Daniel Frohman's theatrical company, is undergoing an experience in the divorce courts within two years of her marriage. It has not been generally known that she was in marital harness, her wedding with Henry Guy Carleton, the dramatist and newspaper man, having been kept secret under the belief that open announcement of it might interfere with Miss Shannon's work on the stage. She said today: "He may say that he wanted me to leave the stage, but I told him before my marriage that I had obligations which I had to fulfill, and that my mother would never consent to receive support from my husband.

"Then," added Miss Shannon, with new color in her cheeks, "if he had ways to take care of me at that time I never saw any of them."

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONING.

South Bend, Ind., and Boston, Mass., Hold Conversation Over the Wires.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 28.—The American Long Distance Telephone company, which for some time has been constructing a line from New York to Chicago, working from both terminals, today virtually completed the line to this city, and will tomorrow finish it. This city was the connecting link. South Bend was connected with Pittsburg at 10:10 a. m., and with New York at 10:15. The line worked perfectly, an ordinary tone of voice being distinctly heard at New York. Later in the day Boston was reached, making the longest distance that the human voice was ever transmitted—over 1,000 miles. This test was also perfect. The entire lines will be in working order in a short time.

Moving Against the Reading Combine.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Mr. Daniel G. Griffin, counsel for the special senate committee which has been investigating the Reading railroad combination, held an extended preliminary consultation with Attorney General Rosendale this afternoon, on the recommendation of the committee that action be taken to annul the charters and leases of such railroad corporations in this state as belong to the Reading coal combination.

The conference was adjourned to give the attorney general opportunity to go over the testimony in the case. Mr. Griffin says the attorney general will doubtless see that the position taken by the committee is a right one.

Denies a Cruel Story.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 28.—The officials of the Yale-Sheffield scientific school deny the statement published that John H. Verhoef, the missing member of Lieutenant Peary's expedition to the Arctic regions, was expelled from Yale. Prof. Brush, director of the school, said Verhoef was not expelled, neither did he leave college in disgrace. The gambling story was greatly magnified, and was in no way the cause of his leaving Yale. He entered in the class of '80, and some time during his senior year withdrew, fearing that he would not be able to graduate owing to low grades.

Killed in a Coal Mine.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 28.—A Republican special from Walsenburg, Colo., says: Superintendent D. E. Muir and William M. Holt, a miner, were instantly killed this afternoon in the Walsenburg coal mine.
