

CAMPAIGN LIES REFUTED

Chadron Republicans Engage in an Enthusiastic Demonstration.

HON. J. L. CALDWELL WELL RECEIVED

Escorted to the Opera House by Two Hundred Members of the Local Republican Club—Hon. Jeff Smith at Arlington.

Chadron, Neb., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Hon. J. L. Caldwell of Lincoln addressed an audience of about 500 in this city tonight. He paid most of his attention to the McKinley bill, which he discussed in a very able and effective speech.

ARLINGTON REPUBLICANS.

Hon. Jeff Smith of Chicago Delivers a Rousing Address.

ARLINGTON, Neb., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The republican club of this city held a very large tonight, the speaker of the evening, Hon. A. Jeff Smith of Chicago, addressing the meeting on the southern democrats and their methods of work, the force bill and its effects on the northern voters and the tariff and its bearing on the farmers of America. The effect of Mr. Smith's remarks on these questions and the further eloquent address on the banking system of good old democratic days and the present time with the honest, old-fashioned republican government were especially noticeable on the large number of intelligent farmers who were present. His remarks for the national republican candidates called forth rounds of applause. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Smith for his eloquent, forcible and convincing remarks. Mr. L. A. Simpson, secretary of the club, presided. The meeting was attended by a very large crowd.

DECH WAS NOT PRESENT.

Champion of the Independents Did Not Meet Halmer at Fairbury.

Fairbury, Neb., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—W. H. Dech failed to materialize today and the Halmer-Dech joint discussion was a failure. Halmer was present and a large audience waited in the city for the speaker. Dech's absence was a disappointment to the committee of the two parties arrived and arranged to have the time occupied by Hon. E. M. Correll of Hebron, republican candidate for state senator, and Captain W. H. Ashby of Beatrice. Mr. Halmer was introduced to the audience and expressed his regret at not having been present. He stated that he had been in the city and had intended to have the time occupied by Hon. E. M. Correll of Hebron, republican candidate for state senator, and Captain W. H. Ashby of Beatrice. Mr. Halmer was introduced to the audience and expressed his regret at not having been present. He stated that he had been in the city and had intended to have the time occupied by Hon. E. M. Correll of Hebron, republican candidate for state senator, and Captain W. H. Ashby of Beatrice.

BOTH SIDES WERE FAIR.

Messrs. Whitehead and Ken Entertain Howard County Citizens.

ST. PAUL, Neb., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Today Messrs. Whitehead and Ken met at St. Paul and Howard county were treated to one of the richest and fairest debates of the campaign. The independents had advertised it as a gala day, and did their best to get out a crowd. The debate was divided so as to give both parties an even and fair show. The tactics used on both sides were known here and properly handled. The thirty-six foot flag of the republican club floated proudly all day. Congressman Ken's speech received rounds of applause.

RESOLVED TO INVESTIGATE.

Alleged Crookedness at the Insane Asylum Must Be Explained.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Board of Public Lands and Buildings at its regular meeting this afternoon decided to take up the investigation of the management of the hospital for the insane at this city. This action was taken on account of the charges of alleged mismanagement recently made in this city and at Omaha by E. C. Rowick. The following resolution was adopted unanimously: Resolved, That the Board of Public Lands and Buildings investigate the charges and complaints against the management of the hospital for the insane at Lincoln, Neb., and report thereon to the board on or before the 15th day of November next.

SEWARD'S HOUSING RIFT.

SEWARD, Neb., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Hon. W. H. Summers and Hon. C. A. Atkinson addressed the largest meeting tonight ever held in the local opera house. Both gentlemen made rousing speeches, eliciting frequent applause. The republican flambeau club was out in full force, with many in the ranks who voted with the independents two years ago. The meeting was a great success and republicans felt jubilant.

THURSTON AT BROKEN BOW.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Last Saturday was a red letter day for Broken Bow. Hon. J. M. Thurston spoke here in the forenoon. The largest crowd that ever assembled in Broken Bow was present. Mr. Thurston was fully at

TO KNOCK OUT RECIPROCITY

Great Britain, Germany and Italy Combine and Threaten San Domingo.

DEMAND THE TREATY BE ABROGATED

They Claim That They Are Entitled to the Most Favored Nation Treatment—Bribe Offered the President—A Curious Complication.

New York, Oct. 3.—A curious story is circulated to the effect that Great Britain, Germany and Italy, jealous of the advantages that American enjoys from reciprocity with San Domingo, had conspired to overthrow it. The action of Great Britain and Italy is not defined in the story, but it was said Germany offered Cyprian Henoux, president of San Domingo, an annual bribe for life of $50,000 if he would declare the treaty abrogated.

HORRIBLE DEATH BY FIRE

Charles Winchester Fatally Burned at Yankton, S. D.

YANKTON, S. D., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Charles Winchester, proprietor of a small hotel in this city was burned to death by an explosion of gasoline yesterday afternoon. He was sprinkling gasoline on the floor of a small bedroom to exterminate bedbugs. The bedroom is just off the hotel kitchen and the explosive vapor generated in the bedroom entered the kitchen, where a gasolene stove was burning. The atmosphere in the kitchen first took fire and the flames rushed to the bedroom. The explosion followed and a few moments later Winchester was hurled into the open air with every particle of his clothing burned away, his hair gone and his flesh actually smouldering. Every part of his body was covered with a blister and he endeavored to find relief by jumping into a tub of swill and then rolling in the dust. He had inhaled burning gasoline and early in the evening died.

TROUBLE WITH UNION PRINTERS.

Des Moines, S. D., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The first contest between the printers union and a Black Hills newspaper is now on. The Lead Tribune today refused to pay the scale of wages demanded by the union and locked out the men. The paper comes out tonight without any original matter and with its columns filled with plates.

HUNDREDS LEFT NEBRASKA.

How the State Advertising Train is Being Greeted in Illinois.

Kewanee, Ill., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The advertising train from the Union Iron works, leaving early this morning northward bound, the route was the same as that of the exhibit train last year. The towns visited were Oquoda, Galva and Kewanee. The interest manifested in the train was greater than a year ago, many farmers declaring, after seeing the exhibit, that they would leave Nebraska for Illinois. At Oquoda, a village of 1,000 inhabitants, the stop was but for two hours. The largest war was held at Kewanee, Ill. Local agents report that over 400 people have emigrated to Nebraska from this community in the past year and probably would do so this year, as great were they impressed by the products exhibited. At Galva between 3,000 and 4,000 visited the exhibit. At Kewanee, Ill., the train was open for visitors from 3 until 9 p. m., passing through at the rate of 1,500 per hour. Hundreds were turned away, unable to get in. This is the crowning day of the trip.

CRUISER NO. 6.

She Will Be Launched on November 5 at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 3.—Cruiser No. 6, which is being constructed by the Union Iron works, has reached so farward a state of progress that the date of her launching has been fixed for November 5, and it is intended by the officials of the Union Iron works to make the event a notable one. Governor Markham and staff will be invited as well as also the prominent military and naval officials of the coast. The cruiser will be the largest vessel ever built by the Union Iron works, exceeding in size the Charleston or San Francisco.

RESULT OF AN IOWA FEUD.

Clark Brothers Waylaid and Shot in Mahaska County.

OKMOLA, Ia., Oct. 3.—One Helm, near Fremont, Mahaska county, waylaid the Clark brothers Saturday night and killed one and fatally wounded the second. The tragedy was the result of a feud.

AN EPIDEMIC OF DIPHTHERIA.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—An epidemic of diphtheria prevails in this city and there is great alarm felt at its rapid spread. The little daughter of Mayor John Henderson died of the disease last night, and others are dangerously ill. A strict quarantine is being enforced.

NOTES OF THE CHOLERA.

HAMBURG, Oct. 3.—Nine thousand clerks have been thrown out of employment owing to the depressed condition growing out of the cholera epidemic.

CHOLERA EPIDEMIC.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 3.—From noon yesterday to midnight twenty-one new cases of cholera and six deaths occurred, the victims mostly being of the poorer classes.

RECOVERED HEAVY DAMAGES.

MONROE, Mich., Oct. 3.—The suit of John Conway against the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern and the Flint & Peoria Marquette for damages as a result of the collision between the trains of the two companies in a tunnel near Toledo last November, has resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $1,387. Suits to the amount of $300,000 are pending against the companies. Each road claims that the other is liable and that the point will have to be settled in court before the matter is settled.

BRICK WORKER DIED DYING.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Edward S. Dann, the wrecker of the National Savings bank, is lying at the point of death. He has been unconscious for forty hours. He was to have gone into court this morning to plead guilty, but on account of his condition his attorney secured a postponement for a week. There are various rumors as to the cause of his illness. It is believed that he is suffering from Opium poisoning. He cannot recover.

ANOTHER PECK HONOR EXPECTED.

New York, Oct. 3.—As Albany special says, Commissioner Peck will soon exclude another of his bombs in addition to the report recently issued. It is a continuation by which he shows the increase of wages of various branches of workmen. This table will be about twice as large as the one at ready given out.

NEW YORK EXCHANGE QUOTATIONS.

New York, Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Exchange was quoted as follows: Chicago, 60 cents discount; Boston, 25 cents discount; St. Louis, 50 cents discount.

CRACK SHOTS IN COMPETITION

Scores Made in the Army Shoot at Fort Sheridan Yesterday.

SOME SPLENDID INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

Long Range Work with Rifle and Carbine That Surpasses the Experience of Past Years—Features of a Perfect Day on the Range.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 3.—A large crowd of spectators was present today at the first regular practice in the army rifle and carbine shoot at Fort Sheridan. Wind and weather were both propitious. At the 300 yard range, Sergeant Hugh Griffith of troop D, Eighth cavalry, made a score of 44 points out of a possible 50, while Private Wilton of Company F, Twenty-third infantry, made the same record. At this range the cavalry and infantry tied at 44 points.

DEMOCRATS WILL NOT FUSE.

Yankton, S. D., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Secretary O'Brien of the state democratic central committee sent to the state auditor today the certificates of nomination of the democratic ticket named at Chamberlain. Mr. O'Brien refuses to state whether this means fusion or no fusion and he is not to be asked to give his views on the proposition to fuse has been declared off and the democrats will go it alone.

STARTED ON THE THIRD.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 3.—The inter-national cricket match between the Irish team and All Philadelphians was won today by the home team by a score of 216 to 113. As the Irishmen won the first match, a third and deciding match was started this afternoon with the visitors at bat. When stumps were drawn the Philadelphians had captured two wickets and were 40 runs ahead.

WITHOUT HILL REPUBLICANS.

The Walnut Hill Ninth Ward Republican club will meet tomorrow (Tuesday) evening. The candidates have been nominated and it is the purpose of the club to outline a plan of campaign. Every member of the club is urged to attend the meeting as business of importance to the club and the republicans of the ward will be considered.

MEETING IS AT NIGHT.

C. F. Bayna of Nebrask, one of the pioneers of Nebraska, is in the city on business. Mr. Bayna is enthusiastic over the political situation in the Third district and is planning to visit the city on business. Business is also booming and the calamities have not been left a foot to stand on.

CLEVELAND ATTENDS TO HIS MAT.

New York, Oct. 3.—Grover Cleveland spent the morning in opening mail and answering letters. He had no visitors of importance.

FIGHTING OVER POLITICS.

Regulars Required to Preserve the Peace in Indian Territory.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 3.—The Times' Tuskahoma, I. T. special says: The assembling of the Cheateau council occasioned great excitement here today. Action upon the gubernatorial election, during which eight political murders were committed, was the first subject for consideration. Indian Agent Bennett is on the ground with a company of United States cavalry. Orders from the department at Washington are to preserve the peace in all parts of the territory.

LAST NIGHT A BODY OF ARMED MEN ASSEMBLED.

The body of armed men assembled last night at the depot in Cheateau, I. T. They were members of the Cheateau council and were engaged in a fight over the gubernatorial election. The body of armed men assembled last night at the depot in Cheateau, I. T. They were members of the Cheateau council and were engaged in a fight over the gubernatorial election.

BRUTAL TREATMENT OF AN ENGLISH SEA CAPTAIN AT BENICIA, CAL.

BENICIA, Cal., Oct. 3.—John Adams, of the British ship Arthur Stone, was seriously injured this morning by a number of the crew who came on board the vessel after caulking on shore all night, and then began fighting among themselves. Captain Adams was the first to be attacked and was severely injured. The crew then turned on the captain and he was severely injured. The crew then turned on the captain and he was severely injured.

DEATH OF A DEAN.

LYONS, Ia., Oct. 3.—Louis P. Dean, aged 45, died of paralysis today. He served as city clerk and was editor of the weekly Mirror a number of years. He was a busy thorough throughout the war in the First Iowa cavalry.

SANTA FE, N. M., OCT. 3.—DR. B. M. THOMAS, territorial secretary under appointment by President Harrison, died last night after a short illness of neuritis of the stomach. He was a native of Williamsport, Ind., 49 years of age and had resided here for twenty years. At the time of his death he was acting governor in the absence of Governor Potts.

CLAIMS AGAINST ARIZONA PASS.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 3.—Today was the day for the hearing against the claims of the Santa Antonio & Aransas Pass railroad incurred prior to the reorganization. The claims paid thus far by Master in Chancery Fleming aggregate $280,000, and there being $400,000 yet outstanding, the master in chancery will ask for extension of the period during which these claims can be presented. The final report of the receiver will, therefore, be delayed until the 15th of next month.

CHICAGO NOT "GOOSEY THE FOX."

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 3.—George Geoghan, alias "The Fox," was captured in connection with the Oregon penitentiary at Salem is not "Goosey the fox," but a brother of the notorious Pete Geoghan, now serving a term in the penitentiary at Joliet. This is the statement of Detectives Collins and Kaban, both of whom know "the fox."

THE TROUB FOR THEFTOR.

THEFTOR, Neb., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Edward Thompson, a notorious thief who broke jail here today while being held to answer to a charge of assault and who was recently captured at Albion, Idaho, and returned here, broke jail again last night and is again at large.

Mrs. Harrison's Condition Grows Worse.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Harrison has not had a very comfortable day and is not quite as well tonight as she has been for a week past. Her condition, however, is not such as to excite alarm.

FOREST FIRES BURN THEMSELVES OUT.

WOODRIDGE, N. J., Oct. 3.—The forest fires between here and Belle Plains have burned themselves out.

FROM HEADQUARTERS.

Some Recent Orders Issued by the War Department.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Lieutenant Colonel Marshall E. Ludington, deputy quartermaster general, will proceed to Helena and Fort Assiniboine, Mont., and to such points as he may be directed by the quartermaster general on official business.

Captain William Hoffman, Eleventh infantry, having been promoted to major, will proceed to Helena and Fort Assiniboine, Mont., and to such points as he may be directed by the quartermaster general on official business.

CITIZENS OF HITECHOCK COUNTY MUCH EXCITED OVER THE SITUATION.

He Insists That He is Prepared to Suppress Any Lawlessness Without Difficulty—Where the Sheriff is Said to Stand.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Private Secretary Morrissey received the following dispatch from Culbertson tonight:

"I have taken sides with Treaton. The citizens of Hitchcock county are protecting the town. Send us some men at once."

The message was signed by C. O. Fothergill, coroner; W. W. Brown, E. Banks, W. D. Wildman, S. E. Solomon, A. D. King, A. L. King, B. Conway, T. P. Follows, R. Knowles, George G. Eisenbar, G. W. Daniels, E. G. Garrett, H. Boam, W. Z. Taylor, McKeon and D. Stevens.

The following report was sent: LINCOLN, Oct. 3.—C. O. Fothergill, coroner, Culbertson: Have telegraphed sheriff to summon posse and preserve order. If fails to discharge his duty as an officer, I will report to the attorney general. There has been any riot or bloodshed. Troops cannot be ordered until civil authorities fail to protect life or property. I have troops and Gatling gun in readiness if emergency demands. Answer this promptly.

By FRANK R. MORRISSEY, Private Secretary.

No reply has been received to the last. Adjutant General Vifquain has been out in Fillmore county but kept himself informed of affairs. When he returns he will be accompanied by a posse of 100 men. He telegraphed that he would go at once to Culbertson and would be there in readiness to receive orders. All preparations have been completed by General Vifquain for the immediate transportation of troops when the orders come and he can have 120 men beside a Gatling gun and the men to serve it on the scene within six hours after the order to march is issued.

HEAD OF THE FEES.

Telegrams Conveying the News to the Acting Governor.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The following telegrams were received at the executive office last evening and this morning:

Culbertson, Neb., Oct. 3.—Governor Boyd: We are having a county seat war. Shots were exchanged this evening. Expect trouble to-night or tomorrow. Sheriff is powerless. The judges of the supreme court are divided. Send militia. B. A. DANNIS, W. D. KING, R. CONWAY, A. D. KING, W. D. WILLIAMS.

WALSH, Neb., Oct. 3.—In the county seat war shots were exchanged today. More trouble is anticipated. The sheriff is powerless. Send militia. C. A. FOTHERGILL, coroner.

Governor Boyd is absent from the state. His private secretary at once sent a message to Lieutenant Governor Majors, requesting him to come at once. Adjutant General Vifquain has notified Company G at Geneva, Company D at Lincoln and Company A at Kearney to be ready to march at once. Acting Governor Majors issued the necessary orders the three companies will reach the scene of the disturbance within six hours. Nothing can be done until Acting Governor Majors arrives at the capital.

At 2:30 this afternoon Private Secretary Morrissey received a telegram from Acting Governor Majors as follows:

"Every civil method should be exhausted before resorting to militia. Consult attorney general and issue such orders in my name as will meet the emergency. Will be in Lincoln at the earliest possible moment. In accordance with the above instructions, Private Secretary Morrissey telegraphed Sheriff Dennis at Culbertson as follows:

"Have you called for posse? If not, do so at once. Summon 300 if necessary and exhaust every possible means to preserve public order in this county. If necessary, use force. Means have failed. Telegraph officially exact situation."

MAY GET THE GATLING.

Lieutenant Colonel Mulford received orders from Adjutant General Vifquain yesterday afternoon to hold the Gatling section of the Omaha Guards in readiness to proceed at a moment's notice to Culbertson.

After receipt of the telegram word was sent to Captain Bamford, commander of the guards, and he hurried once to the armory, where several of the guardsmen were already at work cleaning and oiling the beautiful piece of mechanism, which fires 1,200 shots a minute. The boys turned to with a will and equipped hard for a couple of hours to put their weapons in the best possible condition.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach. General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.

General Vifquain was on a train enroute from one of the far western counties to Omaha, and was traveling towards Culbertson in a fast mail coach.