

LAST OF THE DALTONS

They Attempted to Hold Up a Kansas Town and Found It Loaded.

TWO BANKS CAPTURED BY THE GANG

Nerve and Coolness of the Desperado in Their Operations.

ATTACKED BY A BODY OF ARMED CITIZENS

Desperate Fighting Occurs—The Outlaws Shot Down While Trying to Escape.

NINE PEOPLE KILLED IN THE BATTLE

Coffeyville's Inhabitants Rally to the Support of the Officers—Only One of the Bandits Gets Away—The Killed and Wounded.

Coffeyville, Kan., Oct. 5.—

The Dalton gang has been exterminated—wiped out from the earth. They fought hard and were not downed until three or four citizens of this place yielded up their lives in the work of extermination. Six of the gang rode into town this morning and robbed the two banks of the place. Their raid had become known to the officers of the law and when the band attempted to escape they were attacked by the marshal's posse. In the battle which ensued four of the desperadoes were killed outright and one so fatally wounded that he has since died. The other escaped but is being hotly pursued.

Dead and Wounded.

Of the attacking party four were killed, one was fatally and two more seriously wounded. The dead are:

- BOB DALTON, desperado, shot through the head.
- EMMETT DALTON, desperado, shot through the head.
- JOHN DALTON, desperado, shot through the head.
- JOHN MOORE, "Texas Jack," desperado, shot through the head.
- T. C. CONNELLY, city marshal, shot through the head.
- L. M. BALZWIN, bank clerk, shot through the head.
- G. W. CLARKE, merchant, shot through the head.
- J. BROWN, shoemaker, shot through the body.
- THOMAS G. AYERS, cashier of the First National bank, was shot through the groin and cannot live.
- C. A. REYNOLDS of the attacking party has a wound in the right breast, but it is not considered necessarily dangerous.
- Louis Dantz, another of the attacking party, was shot in the right side. His wound is serious one, but is not fatal.

Anticipated the Attack.

It had been rumored a month ago that the Dalton gang was contemplating an immediate raid upon the banks of the city. Arrangements were made to give them a warm reception and for over a week patrol was maintained night and day to give warning of the gang's approach. The raid did not take place and then came the report from Delaney, N. M., that United States officers had had a battle with the band in that territory and that three of the bandits had been killed. This report was believed here to have been circulated by the desperadoes, the intention being to divert attention from their real intentions and to tell the people of the town to a sense of security. The people, however, were not so easily deceived, and when the report of the disaster to the bank in New Mexico was denied violence was received. Still in Kansas, a patrol was not made. Finally the patrol was withdrawn last Saturday, although every stranger was carefully scrutinized as soon as he entered the town.

It Was 9 o'clock this morning when the Dalton gang rode into town.

They came in the two squares of three men each, and were escorted through the streets and deserted alleys, rendezvoused in the alley in the rear of the First National bank. They quickly tied their horses, and without delay their movement, proceeded to the attack upon the banks.

Took Possession of the Banks.

Robert Dalton, the notorious leader of the gang, and his associates, Cashier Ayers, Cashier Adams, Teller W. H. Shepherd, and the leadership of "Texas Jack" or John Moore, going to the private bank of C. M. Conzation Co.

In the meantime the alarm had already been given. The Dalton boys were born and bred in this vicinity, and were well known to nearly every citizen. Their chief child in town, in their progress through the town they had been recognized. City Marshal Connelly was the most notable of their arrival, and almost before the bandits had entered the bank he was collecting a posse to capture them if possible, to kill them if necessary. He ran first to the residence of Jim Spers, a dead shot with a Winchester, and a valuable man in any fight. Finding this man unavailable, Cashier Ayers and other citizens were conveniently reached. Stationing them near the bank, he hastened to augment his posse by summoning other citizens for impromptu service.

Coolness of the Desperadoes.

While the marshal was collecting his posse, the bandits, all ignorant of the trap that was being laid for them, were proceeding deliberately with their work of robbing the banks. They first entered the cashier's office and with their Winchester leveled at Cashier Ayers and Teller Carpenter, had ordered them to throw up their hands. Then "Texas Jack" searched them for weapons while the other three desperadoes kept them covered with their rifles. Finding them unarmed, Cashier Ayers was ordered to open the safe. The cashier explained that the safe and door was controlled by a time lock and that it could not be opened by any means save that which it had before its time was up, which would be 10 o'clock or in about twenty minutes.

"Well wait," said the leader, and he sat down at the cashier's desk.

"How about the money in the drawers?" he asked, suddenly, and jumping up he walked around to the cases of the paying and receiving tellers, and taking the money, amounting in all to less than $800, dumped it into a flour sack which he had slipped, and again sat down. While the time lock slowly ticked off the seconds and the hands of the clock lazily moved toward the hour of 10.

In the First National.

Bob and Emmett Dalton in the mean while were having better luck at the First National bank. When they entered the bank they found within Cashier Ayres, his son Albert Ayres and Teller W. H. Shepherd. None of them were armed, and with leveled revolvers, the brother bandits easily intimidated them. Albert Ayres and Teller Shepherd were kept under the muzzle of Emmett Dalton's revolver, while Bob Dalton forced Cashier Ayres to strip the safe vault and cash drawers of all the money contained in them and place it in a sack which had been brought along for that purpose.

Feeling to leave them behind, lest they should give the alarm before the bandits should be able to mount their horses and escape, the desperadoes marched the officers of

AFTER THE DITCH DIGGERS

Warrants for the Men Who Are Changing the River Channel.

THEY HAVEN'T BEEN WORKING IN SECRET

Sheriff McCarthy and Six Armed Deputies Start After the Men Who Are Endangering the Lives and Property of Nebraska Citizens.

The bold-faced attempt of Ivo Wright and E. Jenkins, Iowa farmers residing near Maeva, to practically steal a 2000-acre slice of the state of Nebraska, will probably be brought to a sudden climax very soon, if the details of the nefarious scheme finding themselves playing checkers with their noses.

C. P. Jenkins, who has been indefatigable in his endeavors to frustrate the designs of these righteous prohibitionists, swore out warrants for the arrest of every man found working on the big ditch in Sarpy county, below Bellevue, which had been in course of surreptitious construction under the supervision of Wright and Jenkins for three months or more.

These warrants were placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff McCarthy of Sarpy county yesterday morning and with a posse of six able-bodied deputies left for the scene of trouble at 11 o'clock yesterday evening. They took with them a big lumber wagon. The intention was to place under arrest every man found working on the ditch and cart them off to jail at Papillion. That a better understanding of the case may be arrived at a brief review of the matter published in this connection in THE BEE last Sunday is herewith given.

As above intimated, the whole affair is nothing short of a grand piece of chicanery. The plot was hatched by the part of Wright and Jenkins, aided and abetted by other interested parties, probably, to dig an immense ditch across the neck of the big bend just this side of Bellevue, turn the Missouri river through it, cut off 2,000 acres of Nebraska land and throw it over into Iowa.

At the bend at the point at which the land tapers have been at work was somewhat changed by a freak of the erratic Missouri river over thirty years ago, when a portion of the original bend was cut off and thrown over into Iowa. The change in the river's course, however, threw it against the Iowa shore at a point further down stream, and it has ever since been cutting a new and better course at that place, and during the quarter of a century that has intervened since then has gradually added to the Iowa side of the river a large tract of land to the Nebraska shore, as if to make up for the generous slice that it had arbitrarily cut off from Iowa in a bunch time before.

Although the river is constantly cutting ever since last June in carrying their nefarious plans into effect, so severely had they conducted their preliminary operations that no intimation of what they were up to had reached the notice of the public, and it was only when, emboldened by the success that they were meeting with, they had gone some way toward a termination of the project, that they came more brazen in rushing the work through to a termination that the property owners who were about to be despoiled of their possessions discovered what was going on, and at once took summary proceedings to bring operations to a standstill. At 3:30 p. m. yesterday afternoon Sheriff McCarthy of Sarpy county served the restraining order issued by Judge Scott that cut a stop to the work, and now two great teams, one 40 and the other 60 feet long, seven feet deep and five feet wide, with great mounds of freshly turned earth on either side, are the silent witnesses of the stupendous task that two Iowa farmers attempted to perpetrate, but which will never be carried out.

Owners of the Land.

Mr. Benjamin has been largely instrumental in building the ditch, and in carrying it, and has been constantly on the go since Sunday night with scarcely an hour's sleep, and thinks that this afternoon he has his last night of rest. He is the whole outfit in jail. Despite the injunction issued by Judge Scott regarding the digging and leveling of the work on the ditch, slighter ten men were put to work on it night before last. The Nebraska landowners were merely an empty shell, Lincoln and Metcalf, the Presbyterian Mission of Boston, George Lillie, William E. George, the Rev. S. A. C. Atkinson, Virginia Slaughter and Mr. Benjamin.

Ascher Wright, the contractor who has the job, is a grandson of Ivo Wright, and has shown a marked degree of off-puttiness in his high-handed operations and defiance of the law that is particularly annoying. He has had his men assemble singly, and they have done nothing but work, and when their work was done to disperse the same way. The most of his operations have been carried out at night, and would have shortly communicated his dangerous job had it not been for the vigilance and tireless energy of Mr. Benjamin, who is a man of a different stamp whose lands are jeopardized by this contemplated change in the channel of the river. He has been in a state of great indignation, and is highly provoked at what would have been spilled over his had it not been for the restraining influence of the sheriff and his men.

He Captured the Gang.

Deputy Sheriff McCarthy and his posse arrested the ditch diggers, Ivo Wright and E. Jenkins, in Sarpy county on Sunday afternoon, and as advised, secured a posse of men at work. Without delay they were taken to jail, where they were arrested and marched to a vacant building in the vicinity and a strong guard put over them.

They refused to divulge their names, saying they had been hired by the day and were innocent of any intent to wrong any one. This, however, was merely an attempt to delay the prosecution, and the party responsible for all damage, actual and prospective. That these laborers are perfectly cognizant of the character of the work they are engaged in is indisputable, as the gang are men who were at work upon the ditch when interrupted a few days ago by Mr. Benjamin. At that time he fully informed them of the risk they were taking and charged them to stop. They persisted they would land in the penitentiary. This information was also liberally tendered Ascher Wright, the contractor, who laughed at the idea, saying he had hired a number of boys secured a choice claim for their mother near Independence, who still lives, supported by one of her sons. At the time of the robbery of the First National bank, a deputy marshal, being selected on account of his peculiar fitness to deal with desperadoes, the ditch diggers were charged to his life of outlawry, and his two brothers were joined by their brother Emmett, the youngest of the brother. They were at that time also joined by "Texas Jack" and soon gathered about them several desperadoes. It was then that the most successful person of the Dalton's career commenced. The robbery of the First National bank was first directed to the robbery of express trains, and the gang perpetrated many successful "hold-ups" at the most noted spots are the robberies of the Santa Fe at Wharton, at Red Rock, the Missouri Pacific at Adair and the Frisco near Vicia.

The Wharton robbery was perhaps the most dramatic of all. The robbers went to Wharton on horseback, and entering the station there asked the operator if the train

THEY DID IT.

Deputy Sheriff McCarthy and Six Armed Deputies Start After the Men Who Are Endangering the Lives and Property of Nebraska Citizens.

THEY HAVEN'T BEEN WORKING IN SECRET

Sheriff McCarthy and Six Armed Deputies Start After the Men Who Are Endangering the Lives and Property of Nebraska Citizens.

The bold-faced attempt of Ivo Wright and E. Jenkins, Iowa farmers residing near Maeva, to practically steal a 2000-acre slice of the state of Nebraska, will probably be brought to a sudden climax very soon, if the details of the nefarious scheme finding themselves playing checkers with their noses.

C. P. Jenkins, who has been indefatigable in his endeavors to frustrate the designs of these righteous prohibitionists, swore out warrants for the arrest of every man found working on the big ditch in Sarpy county, below Bellevue, which had been in course of surreptitious construction under the supervision of Wright and Jenkins for three months or more.

These warrants were placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff McCarthy of Sarpy county yesterday morning and with a posse of six able-bodied deputies left for the scene of trouble at 11 o'clock yesterday evening. They took with them a big lumber wagon. The intention was to place under arrest every man found working on the ditch and cart them off to jail at Papillion. That a better understanding of the case may be arrived at a brief review of the matter published in this connection in THE BEE last Sunday is herewith given.

As above intimated, the whole affair is nothing short of a grand piece of chicanery. The plot was hatched by the part of Wright and Jenkins, aided and abetted by other interested parties, probably, to dig an immense ditch across the neck of the big bend just this side of Bellevue, turn the Missouri river through it, cut off 2,000 acres of Nebraska land and throw it over into Iowa.

At the bend at the point at which the land tapers have been at work was somewhat changed by a freak of the erratic Missouri river over thirty years ago, when a portion of the original bend was cut off and thrown over into Iowa. The change in the river's course, however, threw it against the Iowa shore at a point further down stream, and it has ever since been cutting a new and better course at that place, and during the quarter of a century that has intervened since then has gradually added to the Iowa side of the river a large tract of land to the Nebraska shore, as if to make up for the generous slice that it had arbitrarily cut off from Iowa in a bunch time before.

Although the river is constantly cutting ever since last June in carrying their nefarious plans into effect, so severely had they conducted their preliminary operations that no intimation of what they were up to had reached the notice of the public, and it was only when, emboldened by the success that they were meeting with, they had gone some way toward a termination of the project, that they came more brazen in rushing the work through to a termination that the property owners who were about to be despoiled of their possessions discovered what was going on, and at once took summary proceedings to bring operations to a standstill. At 3:30 p. m. yesterday afternoon Sheriff McCarthy of Sarpy county served the restraining order issued by Judge Scott that cut a stop to the work, and now two great teams, one 40 and the other 60 feet long, seven feet deep and five feet wide, with great mounds of freshly turned earth on either side, are the silent witnesses of the stupendous task that two Iowa farmers attempted to perpetrate, but which will never be carried out.

Owners of the Land.

Mr. Benjamin has been largely instrumental in building the ditch, and in carrying it, and has been constantly on the go since Sunday night with scarcely an hour's sleep, and thinks that this afternoon he has his last night of rest. He is the whole outfit in jail. Despite the injunction issued by Judge Scott regarding the digging and leveling of the work on the ditch, slighter ten men were put to work on it night before last. The Nebraska landowners were merely an empty shell, Lincoln and Metcalf, the Presbyterian Mission of Boston, George Lillie, William E. George, the Rev. S. A. C. Atkinson, Virginia Slaughter and Mr. Benjamin.

Ascher Wright, the contractor who has the job, is a grandson of Ivo Wright, and has shown a marked degree of off-puttiness in his high-handed operations and defiance of the law that is particularly annoying. He has had his men assemble singly, and they have done nothing but work, and when their work was done to disperse the same way. The most of his operations have been carried out at night, and would have shortly communicated his dangerous job had it not been for the vigilance and tireless energy of Mr. Benjamin, who is a man of a different stamp whose lands are jeopardized by this contemplated change in the channel of the river. He has been in a state of great indignation, and is highly provoked at what would have been spilled over his had it not been for the restraining influence of the sheriff and his men.

He Captured the Gang.

Deputy Sheriff McCarthy and his posse arrested the ditch diggers, Ivo Wright and E. Jenkins, in Sarpy county on Sunday afternoon, and as advised, secured a posse of men at work. Without delay they were taken to jail, where they were arrested and marched to a vacant building in the vicinity and a strong guard put over them.

They refused to divulge their names, saying they had been hired by the day and were innocent of any intent to wrong any one. This, however, was merely an attempt to delay the prosecution, and the party responsible for all damage, actual and prospective. That these laborers are perfectly cognizant of the character of the work they are engaged in is indisputable, as the gang are men who were at work upon the ditch when interrupted a few days ago by Mr. Benjamin. At that time he fully informed them of the risk they were taking and charged them to stop. They persisted they would land in the penitentiary. This information was also liberally tendered Ascher Wright, the contractor, who laughed at the idea, saying he had hired a number of boys secured a choice claim for their mother near Independence, who still lives, supported by one of her sons. At the time of the robbery of the First National bank, a deputy marshal, being selected on account of his peculiar fitness to deal with desperadoes, the ditch diggers were charged to his life of outlawry, and his two brothers were joined by their brother Emmett, the youngest of the brother. They were at that time also joined by "Texas Jack" and soon gathered about them several desperadoes. It was then that the most successful person of the Dalton's career commenced. The robbery of the First National bank was first directed to the robbery of express trains, and the gang perpetrated many successful "hold-ups" at the most noted spots are the robberies of the Santa Fe at Wharton, at Red Rock, the Missouri Pacific at Adair and the Frisco near Vicia.

The Wharton robbery was perhaps the most dramatic of all. The robbers went to Wharton on horseback, and entering the station there asked the operator if the train

THOUSANDS OUT TO TAKE PART IN THE BANNER RALLY OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Telling Speech Made by the Judge

HE POURED HOT SHOTS INTO THE ENEMY, AND PLASTERED THE POPULISTS WITH GOLD FACTS ABOUT THEIR CANDIDATE AND HIS RECORD.

General Council of the Episcopal Church

Free Baptists.

FOR THEIR BEST INTERESTS.

Nebraska County Republicans

FREE TRADE.

WELCOMED RESS AND MCKINLEY.

INDIANA'S APPOINTMENT.

REBUT OF THE STATE SUPREME COURT TO ADVANCE THE TEST CASE IN ITS DOCKET.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 5.—

For an early hearing of the suit recently appealed from the circuit court of Henry county to test the constitutionality of the appointment acts of 1885 and 1891. The suit was brought at the instance of the republican state central committee. It was given a hearing in the Henry county circuit court and Judge Bundy declared both acts unconstitutional, holding that the act of 1891 was unconstitutional in relation to its refusal to advance the case for hearing. They claim that if the matter were not disposed of, the appointment law of the state will not know under what appointment act to make their nomination for the offices mentioned.

Best Friend of the Farmer.

Sheridan, Neb., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Hon. A. S. Scoville of Aurora spoke to a crowded house here this evening on the republican issue of the campaign. His address was composed of solid facts all through and showed that the republican party was the farmer's best friend after all.

Gothenburg Democrats Meet.

Gothenburg, Neb., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mr. J. C. Gerber, candidate for congress, was the first to speak to a fair audience today, made up of democrats, republicans and independents. From a democratic standpoint the speech was good. Only a few democrats were here.

Will Not Fuse in South Dakota.

Yankton, S. D., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The democratic state central committee has forwarded to the secretary of state, as required by law, certificates of the nomination made by the democratic state convention. This settles the question of fusing in South Dakota. The state is surely republican.

Still in the Race.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Hon. J. H. McMillan, republican candidate for congress in the First district, today said there was no truth in the statement that his declaration had been placed in the hands of the central committee.

Florida Returns.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Completed county returns come in very slowly and there is nothing in them to warrant a change in last evening's figures. Mitchell has beaten Baskin by a majority that will hardly fall short of 30,000 and may reach 35,000.

Forecast Speaks at Sterling.

Sterling, Ill., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Governor Foraker of Ohio was the distinguished guest of Sterling tonight. The city was decorated with bunting and flags everywhere. A big torchlight procession was held at the conclusion of Governor Foraker's speech.

General Weaver's Program.

Waukegan, Ill., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—General James B. Weaver, republican candidate for congress in the First district, today said that he was not a fusion man. He has a platform for the farmer and the laborer, and will not fuse with any party. He said that he would not fuse with any party. He said that he would not fuse with any party.

Stevenson at Elgin.

Elgin, Ill., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—This evening the speaking party was crowded at Stevenson's house. He outlined his remarks almost exclusively to the tariff, denouncing the McKinley bill.

McKerlain Was No Attraction.

Bethesda, Neb., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Hon. S. A. Searle and Hon. W. S. Summers spoke to a large audience at Bethesda, Neb., this evening.

On the Stephanus Rifle Range.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The shooting today at Fort Sheridan was confined to rifle and pistol firing. Corporal T. O'Rourke of the Fifteenth infantry now leads with a score of 510 to his credit. Captain Davidson of the Sixteenth infantry is second, with 486 points.

In the Distinguished Marksmen Rifle Competition.

Sergeant Ray of the Sixteenth infantry is first, with a score of 482; Sergeant Smith of the Eighteenth infantry second, with 465.

GEORGINA'S LAST ELECTION

They Evidently Voted in That State as They Threw Eggs.

POPULIST CANDIDATES SNOWED UNDER

Even Tom Watson Does Not Know Where He is At—A Surprise to the Third Party Men—Latest Returns.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—This was a day of remembrance to the people of Georgia. The election of Georgia was rarely shattered by today's election. The democrats have won by such a political landslide as never happened in this state before. Their majority is not less than 75,000 and it may reach up to 100,000. The people's party leaders are dazed and do not know what to say. The result staggers them. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Georgia Democrats Jolting.

Columbus, Ga., Oct. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The election in this district passed off quietly. In this county the democratic majority will be between 1,000 and 1,500. Though some negroes were influenced by Ross Buck's circular instructing them to vote for the third party, a vast majority of the intelligent negroes voted as they had voted in their previous elections and cast a democratic ballot. Arden county, another district where the third party was considered strong, has given a handsome democratic majority.

Reports from various counties of the fourth district show a grand democratic majority. Cherokee county has given a democratic majority. Cherokee county has given a democratic majority. Cherokee county has given a democratic majority. Cherokee county has given a democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are raising their voices in protest. The result is a grand victory in November. Tom Watson's district gives 3,000 democratic majority.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—Returns from 121 of the 132 counties of Georgia indicate that the majority will be between 75,000 and 100,000. The people's party will probably carry six or eight counties of the legislature and it is estimated that their vote will reach 50,000. The third party conceded not less than 30,000 majority for the democratic ticket at this hour and are