MUCH ORATORY SPENT OVER THE MATTER

Members of the Cannell Put in Some Time Explaining the Matter to Each Other-Protest from Florence Properly Referred.

The city council has voted to square up accounts with the Katcham Furniture company on the sity hall furniture, by taking the goods and paving the prices charged. It took sometime and brought all of the eighteen members of the body out to attend the adjourned meeting, which was held last

Mr. Back started the fight by moving that the vote by which the appropriation ordinance was defeated Tuesday night be recon-

This was seconded and Mr. Jacobson said that he would go further. The ordinance contained the Ketcham Furniture company's will. He would have a separate appropriation sheet for the Ketcham bill and let the fight come on that.

Mr. Munro thought that experts should go over and check up the furniture. The city should not pay out $24,470.50 without a thorough examination

Mr. Tuttle urged that the contract did not provide for an expert.

Mr. Chaffee remarked that the prices on the furniture proved that there was no competition. He did not think boodle had been used in securing the contract, but he did think that the city was paying a very large price for its whistle.

Mr. Prince was of the opinion that the question of high price should have been been brought up menths ago, as every councilman knew the price before a single article had been delivered. There were rumors in the air, but that was all. After the furniture had been received, set up and accepted, there was no reason why the city should not pay the bill. City Bound to Pay the Bill.

Mr. Edwards knew that the agent of the company had used his best judgment in giv ing the city good furniture. The city was in duty bound to pay the bill just the same as it was to pay the hydrant rental,

Mr. McLearie thought that by going into the courts the city would injure its credit; it was no use to light the bill, for the reason that the city had made the contract, even if the price was too high. Mr. Specht had gone over the furniture with experts and thought that everything was in good shape. Mr. Steel had an idea that if any defects showed in the furniture the city had a remedy, as there was $6.00 worth of furniture that was on its way to the city to be placed in the mayor's and other officials offices.

Mr. Bruner thought it was an insult to the building committee to ask for experts at this Mr. Elsasser, a member of the old council explained the trips that the councilmen made to the rooms where the furniture was on exhibition when the several agents were urging the sale of their goods. He said that there was any amount of competition.

The motion to strike the amount of the Ketcham till from the ordinance was defeated, only Messrs, Bechel, Chaffee, Jacob-son, Munro and President Davis voting to The appropriation ordinance which contained the item over which the war of words had waged was called up and passed, the vote being as follows:

Yeas—Bock, Bruner, Burdish, Conway, Elsasser, Howell, Lowry, McLearie, Prince, Specht, Steel and Tuttle—13.

Nays—Bechel, Chaffee, Jacobson, Munro and President Davis—5.

The chairman of the Board of Public Works was authorized to employ an assistant to the secretary for the period of two months at a salary of $75 per month.

The council decided that the Board of Education could move into the rooms in the city hail or do the next best thing. The committee which had charge of the resolution in which the board demanded the return of the $21,000 which it had contributed toward to building of the hail reported that the city had lived up to its part of the contract; that it had prepared its part of the contract; that it had prepared the rooms, finished them and that they are ready for occupancy.

The city electrician ordinance was reported back with some amendments. The ordinance was referred to the committee of the whole, to be considered at some subsequent

PECK'S FATHER'S MOUTH.

J. F. Burgess Relates an Incident of the Old Gentleman's War Record. J. F. Burgess of the Seventh ward, one of the republican nominees for member of the Board of Education, was a near neighbor of the Peck family in Livingston county, New York, during his boyhood days, and was for years a schoolmate of Charles F. Peck, the democratic commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics, whose cup of woe is now full to the brim and running over. The notoriety which his old friend has so suddenly acquired caused Mr. Burgess to grow reminiscent yesterday, and he related several little incidents of his early life, among them one in which the elder Peck figured most prominently, "Charley's father," said Mr. Burgess was one of the most bitter copperheads I ever saw and shot off his mouth, as they say now, with a pertinacity and recklessness worthy of a better cause. He took advantage of every occasion to arraign the abolitionists and was most scathing in his denuncia-tions. He was repeatedly advised to go a little slow, but it only seemed to make him all the more savage in his attacks on the people of the north and outspoken in defense of the action of the south.

I remember one instance in particular, although his statements at that time were no more disloyal than usual. It is impressed on my mind because of the attending circumstances. It was when the news of Lincoin's election was received in 1860, news that led the democrats of our section with cited men at the foot of the steps, he raised with great carnestness:

"There was born in this country today a king and his name is Niggor. My sympathies are with the south in this cause, and I tell you further that when buman blood flows, as it surely will flow, because of this unlawful interference on the part of some of the people of the north, I will be there. Mark my words.'

Mark my words."

"Blood flowed, sure enough," continued Mr. Burgess, "but Peck didn't go down there to see what it looked like, despite his threats to the contrary. I think his ardor for the southern cause was cooled a little by the action of some of us bays, for we took him out one day and disciplined him and made him hang out the American flag. He was given to understand that it would not be conducive to good health for him to continue on the course that he had been pursuing and that he would have to experience a change of heart, outwardly at least, if he wanted to stay in Livings on county. It did him a world of good and he managed to con-ceal his secesh sympathies fairly well after

NEW YORK'S MAYORALTY.

Tammany Possibilities Canvassed-Reputable Republican Citizens Named.

New York, Oct. 7.-Tammany hall seems to have found a difficult task in the work of New York. Mr. Croker, it is said, does not desire the nomination of a candidate who might cost the democratic national ticket a single vote. Mayor Grant could have the nomination if he wanted it, but he seems to have made up his mind not to accept the nomination.

Congressman Fitch is looked upon favorably by several raffuential Tammany leaders as a candidate for the office. Another name mentioned is that of F. Henry Dugo of the superior court, but friends of the judge say he would decline the nomination if it were John Eullivan Gets a Stats Warrant Belonging to John O'Sullivan.

WAS HAVING A GOOD TIME WITH THE CASH

Arrested in Sioux City by the Federal Authorities-He Was in a Whisky Cure Institute but Broke Over-Penitentiory Ahead.

John W. Sullivan is in trouble. He is also in the Douglas county jail.

Mr. Sullivan attempted to palm himself off on the world at large as John O'Sullivan of Omaha, and the act has brought him to grief. On the 24th of September a letter was received at the Omana postoffice addressed to Mr. John H. Sullivan, Omaha. The only man known to the postoffice authorities by that name appeared to be a patient at a figuor cure institute and the letter was delivered to him. It was afterwards learned that his name was John W. Sullivan, but by some mistake the postoffice had been informed that his name was John H. Sullivan.

The particular letter which necessarily becomes a very important part of this narrative was from the office of the auditor of state and on the envelope there was a cut of the state house. Soon after Mr. John W. Sullivan received the letter and opened it he went to Mr. Miles, the manager of the institute, and showed him the letter and exhibited a state warrant for $29, which the letter contained. Mr. Miles at once suspected that there must have been a mistake in the address of the letter, but said nothing until the next day, when Mr. Sallivan appeared in a new suit of clothes and a state of intoxication. This was not a very sure way to obtain a cure for drunkenness and the superintendent remonstrated with Sullivan about his conduct and then went to the postoffice and informed Postmaster Clarkson of the affair.

In the meantime Sullivan visited the city jail and told some of the officers that he had received a state warrant belonging to John O'Sullivan and did not know what to do with The officers advised him to take it to the postoffice at once, which he promised to do, but as a matter of fact he had already cashed it somewhere and had spent most of the money. He disappeared from Omaha and did not return until he came in this morning accompanied by Inspector Brown.
As soon as Mr. Miles had made known the facts Postmaster Clarkson wrote at once to the state auditor informing him that a mistage had evidently been made in address ing the letter containing the warrant. The written on the warrant was explained. The auditor replied that the letter in question had been properly addressed and that it had prob ably reached the person for whom it was in-tended. This, however, aid not prove to be the case, for a few days later Mr. John O'Sullivan, to whom the warrant belonged, called at the postofiles to make inquiry about the delay in receiving his remuner ation for having brought a prisoner from St Paul to Lincoln and for which the state owed him $29. The state of effairs then became as plain as a book, but where was Mr. John W. Sullivan! The police finally succeeded in tracing him to Sioux City and he was arrested at the instance of the United States marshal and heid until Inspector Brown could reach Sioux City and claim him as a could reach Sioux City and claim him as a prisoner wanted by the government.

Sullivan has confessed easing the warrant and spending the money, and he is now in jail awaiting trial.

The warrant has been found and as the state has not cashed it the loss will fall upon Norris & Wilcox, who cashed it first. After leaving Nortis & Wilcox the warrant went to the Omaha National bank and thence to the First National bank of Lincoln. It was presented for payment, but was simply registered as there were no funds in the treasury at that time from which it could be Paid.

County Attorney Manoney informed the First National bank of Lincoln that the signature on the warrant was a forgery and the warrant was promptly returned to the Omaha National bank, where it is at present ilivan will be held for the double offense of forgery and extracting a letter from the mails, both of which are penitentiary of-

The deceased borrowed a boat from Murphy, superintendent of the bridge work out there, and started to paddle around with one oar. When near the Hammond ice house the boat upset and Condren went under. He came to the surface in a moment, however, and climbed up on the bottom of the boat and commenced taking off his clothes. Shoes, coat and vest were removed, an I then an attempt to swim to the shore was made. Two or three times the people on the shore saw the mau's head above water, but he soon disappeared and did not rise again.

The coroner was sent for and took n tion of the clothing and directed that a look-out for the body be kept. Deputy Coroner Weish also telegraphed the young man's relatives at Adair.

action of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, when taken for diseases originating in impure blood; but, while this assertion is true of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, as thousands can attest, it cannot be truthfully applied to other preparations, which un rincipled dealers will recommend, and try to impose upon you, as "just as good as Ayer's." Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's only, if you need a blood-purifier and would be benefited permanently. This medicine, for nearly fifty years, has enjoyed a reputation, and made a record for cures, that has never been equaled by other preparations. AYER'S Sarsaparilla eradicates the taint of hereditary scrofula and other blood diseases from the system, and it has, deservedly, the confidence of the people.

Sarsaparilla

"I cannot forbear to express my joy at the relief I have obtained from the use of AYER'S Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with kidney troubles for about six months, suffering greatly with pains in the small of my back. In addition to this, my body was covered with nimply eruptions. The remedies prescribed failed to help me. I then began to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla, and, in a short time, the pains ccased and the pimples disappeared. I advise every young man or woman, in case of sickness resulting from impure blood, no matter how long standing the case may be, to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla."-H. L.
