Report of the Special Council Committee on the Union Depot.

BASIS OF A PROPOSED AGREEMENT

Concessions to Be Made by the Railroad Companies and the City-The Committee's Report Adopted-Another Veto Overruled.

The city council got together last night and when it adjourned it had the union depot question in tangible form.

This was brought about by the report of the special committee, of which the following named gentlemen were members: Chairman, Sol Prince, Messrs, Munro, Edwards, Davis, Lowry, City Attorney Connell and Engineer Rosewater. The report was this: Committee Report.

Mn. Parsident: Your special committee appointed to confer with the managers of the railway completion of the union depot, respectfully report that they have had several interviews and meetings with the representatives of the Union Pacific Railway company, the Burlington & Missouri River Railroad company and the Union Depot company, and together with the city attorney and city engineer have made, received and considered propositions, and that as the result of said action a final plan of settlement has been agreed upon, subject to the approval of the council and mayor, which is as follows:

Points of settlement between the city of Omaha and the Union Pacific Railway company and the Union Pacific Railway company and the Union Depot company.

First—The Union Pacific Railway company and the Union Depot company release and railinguish to the city the $5,500 of viaduet bonds voted under ordinance No. 2289.

Second—The Union Pacific Railway company shall remise, release and quite aim to the city of Omaha the land now known as "the Winspear triangle," with the accretions thereto, except its 100 feet right-of-way to East Omaha.

Third—The Union Pacific Railway company shall remise, release and quite aim to the city of Omaha the land now known as "the Winspear triangle," with the accretions thereto, except its 100 feet right-of-way to East Omaha.

Third—The Union Pacific Railway company shall remise, release and quite alam to the East Omaha.

Third—The Union Pacific Ratiway company shall remise, release and quit claim to the city of Omaha blocks L. M. N. O and P in the city of Omaha, together with all the accretions to said blocks.

Fourth—The Union Pacific Railway company shall remise, release and quit claim to the city of Omaha any and all right, title or interest that it may have acquired in and to that portion of Fourteenthstreet in the city of Omaha lying south of the south line of Burt street, except the right to maintain its tracks across Fourteenth street at or near Marcy and Mason streets.

street, except the right to maintain its tracks across Fourteenth street at or near Marcy and Mason streets.

Fifth—The Union Pacific Railway company is to take up and remove from blocks L. M. N. O and Pali the tracks by it heretofore constructed on said blocks. The said company will also take up from Eighth street the track built by it, extending from near the northeast corner of block. B to near the southwest corner of block M, so as to leave suid Eighth street free from tracks at said point.

Sixth—The Union Depot company shall at once, upon the completion of the proposed arrangements, and without delay, recommence the construction of the union depot at Omaha and in good faith presecute the union depot to completion with all practicable speed, adhering generally and substantially to the pians for the construction thereof as shown by the plans made by Messrs. Van Brunt & Howe, and under which a portion of the work on said union depot has already been done, with the exception of the tower, which is to be remodeled by said architects.

Seventh—The Union Picific Raliway company also agrees to surrender to the city for cancellat on the subpaid warrants issued to it for money advanced for payment of damages on account of the construction of the Tenth Areet viaduct, such unpaid warrants amounting to about $50,000; and also agrees to re case the city from all claim or demand for money by it advanced and paid by the city as damages to property owners on account of the construction of said viaduct, amounting to by it advanced and paid by the city as dam-ages to property owners on account of the construction of said viaduet, amounting to about $10,000: the city to return for the pur-pose of cancellation the unpaid checks of said company, the payment of which was enjoined by the court, and which amount to about $19,000.

On the City's Part.

On the part of the city, in addition to surrendering said checks for cancellation, a deed is to be executed by the city to the Union Pacific Railway company, conveying its right, title and interest to the ground described in the deed of Alvin Saunders, trustee, including lot 3, block 255 and that por ion of Tenth street under the viaductsouth of the premises owned by McGavock, formerly known as Bell'sdrug store, such deed to be conditioned that the said ground shall be used only for depot and railway purposes. The city is that the said ground shall be used only for depot and railway purposes. The city is also to convey by deed of quit claim the lots hereiofore conveyed by its deeds, together with the streets and alleys within the Union Par-life railway shop grounds and extending constward to Eighth street, leaving Eighth street open as agreed upon by said railway company. The city in addition is to release the Union Pacific Railway company and the Union Depot company from the two bonds required to be given by the provisions of said ordinance No. 2289.

The foregoing substantially covers what is proposed between the city of Omaha and the Union Pacific Railway company.

For the more full protection of the city, and to enable any railway company desiring to Union Pacific Railway company.

For the more full protection of the city, and to enable any railway company desiring to construct a bridge at or near Cass street to do so, your committee suggest that an additional condition, so far as said Cass street is concerned, be inserted whereby the city would have the right to allow any railway company constructing a bridge at or near such point to go over the tracks, buildings or improvements of the Union Pacific Railway company and to have the right to construct at suitable points on said Cass street the piers or supports necessify to make such crossing. This, your committee is advised, the Union Pacific is willing to do.

Your committee believes that the proposed settlement is one greatly in the interest of the city, as well as beneficial to the Union Pacific Railway company, and in view of the fact that such settlement is much to be desired on the part of the city, your committee recommend the same and submits the proposed proposition for such consideration and action as the council and mayor may deem proper, subject to the disposal of bending injunction suits.

Your committee further recommend that

Your committee further recommend that the city attorney and city engineer prepare the deeds and papers necessary to carry out the proposed settlement, and that the deed conveying streets, alleys and lots for shop grounds be conditioned, that the same shall be used and occupied as shop grounds, the city reserving the right to construct sewers when necessary through any streets when necessary through any streets not oc-cupled by bulldings.

multtee further recommends that rour committee further recommends that the city attorney and city engineer prepare all such papers and deeds at the carliest time practicable, and upon the same being ap-proved by the Union Pacific Railway com-pany, report the same to the city council for such further action as may to necessary.

No. 3i except the item in favor of the Ketcham Farniture combany for $14,70.3i, which I vetced for the reason that takin tho consideration the prices allowed for this furniture as provided by the contract, I am unable to satisfy myself that the securing of said contract was not the result of fraud. I am therefore forced to conclude that the only proper way for determining the amount due the ketcham Furniture company is to allow the courts to pass upon the validity of the contract.

Notwithstanding that this bill amounts to over £4,0% only a part of the offices in the city hall are provided with furniture. The offices of the fire and police commission, Board of Health, board of park commission, ers. assistant city attorney and a number of

Board of Health, board of park commissioners, assistant city attorney and a number of other offices are still without faraiture. It would seem to me that if the contract had been honestly secured and the city had been properly represented that for this sum of money a sufficient amount of furniture could have been secured to have supplied all the offices in the building.

So far as the examination of the furniture delivered is concerned, it has not been made by experts or persons having special knewledge with reference to furniture. I believe that such an examination should have been made before final payment of the bill.

The committee on sidewalks found that Ernest Stuht had wilfully and maliciously torn away the stone steps in front of the property of C. P. Birket on Mason near Tenth street. An ordinance fixing a license of $75 to be paid by any party bringing produce to the city in car load lots and retailing it from said cars was introduced and read twice. The ordinance ordering the grading of Arbor street from Eleventh to Sixteenth streets was passed. The grading of this street is for the purpose of putting the street in such a condition that the Thirteenth street car line may run around the loop and connect with the South Omana line at Sixteenth Democratic Rally.

The democrats of South Omaha had a rally and torchitzht procession last evening. The torchlight procession was an imposing spectacle. Just thirty-three men and boys bore torches and carried banners aloft. At Blum's hall, where the speaking was to be held, a few of the faithful congregated, but the number was smell and the enthusias m was less noticeable. Judge Ocane and Hon. Warren Switzler were the principal speakers.

Major Valentine Warmly Greeted-Judge Crounse and General Van Wyck Meet in Joint Debate at Broken Bow.

WAYNE, Neb., Oct. 11 .- | Special Telegram to Tun Ban !- Wayne is a blaze of republican enthusiasm tonight, in spite of the fact that the clubs from Hartington and Pender fatled to put in an appearance. Scuator Manuerson, accompanied by Major Valentine, arrived on the evening train, and was met by the Wayne cornet band and a delegation of republicans in carriages, and driven about the city. At 8 o'clock a torchlight parade, headed by the Wayne band, formed at the depot, and 150 men bearing torches proceeded up Main street to the opera house. A brilliant dis play of fireworks took place during the parade, and cheer after cheer rent the air. It was impossible to get such a crowd into the opera house, which was crowded, and many were unable to gain admittance. Over 1,200 people listened to an able address by Senator Manderson, who paid a handsome tribute to the growth of the city, which at the present rate, he thought, would soon succeed Fremont. The speaker also paid a glowing tricute to the great common wealth of Nebraska. His argument was one of facts, and at times the speaker appeared elo-quent, but the presentation of an indisputable array of statistics were his strong points. The policy of protection was discussed in a manner that was highly satisfactory to the audience as was manifested by the frequent applause. After an exhaustive review of the financial question and a statement of Nebraska's resources and liabilities the sen-The Glee club rendered a selection, after

Joint Debate at Broken Bow. BROKEN Bow, Neb., Oct. 11.- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. |- The discussion between Judge Croupse and General Van Wyck this afternoon draw a large and enthusiastic crowd of supporters of both candidates. The six or seven hundred present were very nearly equally divided, the republicans being a few in the majority. The opening and closing of the debate fell to Judge Crounse. His appearance in the hall was as upon the stage, greeted with hearty applause. His able defense of the principles of the republican party as well as his demeanor and personal bearing made a favorable impression on his audience. His expose of Van Wyck's congressional record and land grabbing propensities was greeted with appliause by the republicans. General Van Wyck labored hard to remove the impression left by Jugge Croupse on the audience, but with-He referred to Boyd's veto of the Newberry bill and asked and defied Crounse to say whether he would sign a similar bill if passed, should he be elected governor and stated that he (Van Wyck) would sign any bill that the legislature would pass.

Judge Crounse, in his reply, stated that he had never read the Newberry bill, but that he would not pledge himself to sign any bill until ne had examined it and found it to be in the interest of the people; that, if elected, he would exercise the duties of his office without fear and in the interest of the whole people, and in the interest of the people against corporations. In his fifteen unnutes close he worsted his opponent with round after round of applause. Van Wyck created the most fun for the audience, but Crounse made the most votes.

SCHEMING DEMOCRATS.

They Withdraw Nominees for Electors in Minnesota and Endorse Populists.

Sr. Paul, Minn., Oct. 11.-The democratic state central committee has withdrawn D. R. Hibbs, A. L. Sackett and James Brown from the electoral ticket and in their respective places put William Meighan, James Diflon and A. S. Stromberg. They also endorsed A. H. Halloway of the people's party in place of John C. Oswald, who resigned some time

The managers of the populist campaign deny that they had a band in any deal. They say it is purely a voluntary action on the part of the democrats. Chairman Baker of the democratic state central committee was asked if the substitution of the people's party electors was the result of a conference between his committee and that of the people's party. He re

'No, we have had no conference of our electoral candidates whatever. Three of our electoral candidates Messrs. Our committee then unani nously decided to fill the vacancies by substituting the people's party nominees." Refused to Act as Judge of Election.

WESTCHESTER, Pa., Oct. 11.-There was a tir in the Chester county courts yesterday, the cause of which was the Baker ballot law On Friday last Judgo Thomas Waddell ap pointed ex-Judge Thomas S. Butler as judge of elections of one of the new precincts in Westchester. In court ex-Judge Butler re-

It is, in my judgment, the most damnable piece of legislation ever put on our statute books and I do not propose to submit myself to the danger of arrest and fine for the failure to determine who is entitled to vote

This, coming from a man who was but recently on the bench of Chester, has apparently startled the other election judges, and it is said to be probable that many others will decline to serve. FIELD-BRYAN BEBATE CLOSED.

Both Speakers Were at Their Best and Pleased Their Friends. Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 11.—[Special Tele-gram to The Ber.]—Fully 5,000 people turned out tonight to hear the closing discussion of the issues of the campaign between Judge Field and Congressman Bryan. It was a noticeable fact, too, that a large majority of the crowd were voters. Both gentlemen were warmly received when they made their appearance. Mr. Bryan opened the debate by explaining his failure to secure the passage of the bill reimburs-ing the people of Lincoln for one half of the expense incurred in paving around Government square in this city. He made Government square in this city. He made every effort that any man could make, he said, and only failed after making three at-

Mr. Connell had failed to pass the bill two years ago and he wanted Judge Field to tell how he expected to have suffi-cient influence to pass the bill, even if cleeted. Mr. Bryan then produced thirty-five written questions, which he challenged his opponent to answer, and he laid down $2.50 in gold, which he agreed to pay if the questions were answered. running comment on the questions as be read them and the hour allotted him in the opening was taken up by the questions. Judge Field started in upon his reply by alluding to Bryan's record in congress and quoted the titles of fifty-three bills introduced by Bryan and showed that of that mumber but two or three were acted upon.

Mr. Field then took up Bryan's thirty-five questions and answered them satisfactorily to his friends in the andience.
Mr. Bryan spoke very rapidly in the fifteen minutes given him. At the close he claimed that Judge Field had dodged like an eel in answering the questions put to him. He then explained his votes against the World's fair and Russian relief bills, claiming that the former proposed to put the people's money into the pockets of a rich corporation at Chi cago and defending his vote on the latter by saying that he opposed it because a republican congress two years ago refused to vote aid to Nebraska sufferers.

It is generally conceded that the debate

here tonight was the most carnest and fair-est of the series. Both speakers were thoroughly in earnest. Mr. Bryan made no attempt to win the applicate of the audience by the cheap platitudes of the professional platform orator that he occasionally adopts. He was soberly and sincerely in carnest and by his manner of speaking conveyed the impression that he felt that the necessities of his situation demanded his ablest and most ieroic efforts.

Judge Field's address was vastly an imrevement over the one he made in this city at the opening of the series. He was influitely more advoit in presenting his ideas, more direct in marshaling his facts and more skillful in parrying the thrusts of his oppo-nent. He made a much better impression upon his audience, and his friends, who admired him before, were proud of him tonight.

WEAVER AND MRS. LEASE

They Speak to a Crowded House in Kansas City. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 11.-James B.

Weaver, people's party candidate for the presidency, arrived at Independence this morning and this afternoon addressed a good sized crowd there. Tonight he spoke at the Auditorium in this city. The Auditorium was crowded full. The speaker devoted his remarks principally to a discussion of the financial questions which enter into the campaign, advocating the free coinage of silver and the subtreasury plan. He explained the well Rnown third party principles and in con-clusion gave a brief history of his campaigning tour. His tour, he said, had been a remarkable one and had extended from Puget Sound to Chesapeake bay, through twenty-three states. His meetings had been unparalleled in enthusiasm, both in the north and the south. He had spoken in all the southern states except West Virginia and South Carolina. It was apparent, he said, that a majority of the white people in the south were in sympathy with the new movement and the speedy success of the populists was absolutely assured A student of American civilization tinued, had read and thought to little pur pose, if he could not see that the old parties were doomed. They represented the crue and bloody issues of the past, and were blind to the wants of the present age. They were moribund and decrepit and must perisn. He attributed the attacks upon him in Georgia to the work of hoodlums organized by the leaders of the old parties, who kept themselves well in the background while their paid men did their dirty work Mr. Weaver's remarks were well received. lthough there was not much enthusiasm Mrs. Lease of Kansas, who is campaigning with Mr. Weaver, was not with him today She took a flying visit to her home at Wich-ita and will rejoin Mr. Weaver tomorrow. F. W. Collins of Lincoln first addressed he people on the political issues of the day rom a republican standpoint, particularly finances of the country, and pre sented his case in a clear, concise and forcible manner. He was followed by Hon. Thomas Majors, who turned his attention to he third party fallacies, and showed up the acts of the last legislature in no enviable light, dwelling particularly upon the expenditures of the "economic" party, and denounced in most forcible and eloquent terms the subtreasury scheme of the popuista. He closed with a scathing denunciation of the party, and an inspiring exhorta-tion to stand up for the good name and honor of Nebraska. Both speakers were listened to very attentively, and much en-thusiasm was manifested at every point

ANDREWS AND M'KEIGHAN. Nelson Citizens Treated to Both Sides of the Campaign Issues. NELSON, Neb., Oct. 11 .- | Special Telegram to The Bee. |-People began to pour into the city about 9:30 today and every train brought a load, the attraction being the Andrews-McKeighan debate, Alliance people were present from all the adicining counties and many republicans came to swell the throng. In the great parade which preceded the meeting fully 5,000 people took part. At 1 o'clock the pro-cession moved to Nelson's grove, where Mr. McKeighan was introduced by the chairman. The speaker's stand had been hand-somely decorated, pictures of Harrison Blaine, McKipley, Garfield and Grant, with appropriate legends and mottoes and pictures of Weaver and Field, with the American flag twined around all, made as pretty a pack-ground as a public speaker could want to offset his rhetoric. The rivat candidates were greeted by wild applause from their Congressman McKeighan opened the debate with a presentation of the views of his party on finance, and told of the enormous train of evils that followed on the continuous control of the government by the re-publican party. Wall street runs the house and setate, he said, and men elected by the people serve the monopolies. He steed for a currency in which every dollar should be a legal tender, and he wanted to know if Prof. Andrews favored such a currency. He arraigned the republican party for its efforts in behalf of young industries, and claimed that protection only taxed the masses in favor of the classes.

Prof. Andrews followed in a clear exposition of the issues of the campaign as indi-cated by the republican platform, which he said he stood squarely upon. He replied in a dignified way to the questions McKeighan had showered upon him, and told in a few terse phrases the story of the growth of the country since the republican party took hold of the reins of government. The present credit of the government was contrasted to that under the democratic rule of thirty years are, and the folly of returning to that state of things was set forth. The cry for more money was answered by a showing of the extent of the circulating medium. Not a question asked by McKeighan was left unanswered. Prof. Andrews made many friends by his bearing Assaited the Republicans. HOLDREGE, Nep., Oct. 11 .- | Special Tele gram to THE BEE. -W. L. Green, an independent of Kearney, spoke here this afternoon in the court house to about 200 people, democrats, independents and republicans. He assailed both the old parties but more severely the republicans, Judge Crounse and Mr. Morton were roughly handled and accused of being railroad men, but the name of Van Wyck was not mentioned during his entire speech Missouri Valley's Convention.

MISSOURI VALLEY, In., Oct. 11 .- [Special Telegram to The Bee. |-The republican convention for Harrison county today nominated candidates as follows: Clerk of court, W.C. Dewell; auditor, Phil Bonney; recorder, Thomas Berry; county attorney, H. H. Rod ifer. The ticket is a good one and gives general satisfaction among republicans.

AMUSEMENTS.

Every available seat and a large proportion of the standing room was occupied at the Boyd last night. "Beautiful Valley" is not a strong dramatic creation. The plot is not absorbing, and it has none of the crucial situations and exciting dramatic effects of the modern meto-drama. It depends upon a simple picture of bomely human life for its hold on popular favor, and by the manner in which it was received last night, the judgment of the writer was not misplaced. As a matter of course Mr. Russell in his character of Hosea Howe was the central figure of the performance, but the other members of the cast were not without opportunities for clever work. Hosea Howe in Mr. Russell's hands was a strikingly natural representation of a green country youth whose ill-fitting jacket covered all the elements of a gentle-man. He furnishes an abundant fund of humor and in the search for his erring sister and his devotion to his widowed mother displays a nomely pathos that is always popular with the American audience. The other male members of the cast were not especially prominent. Miss Minnie Radcliffe as Virgie Rand has the leading female role and acquitted herself very creditably. The work of Miss Belle Lynn as Niobe Parquhar and Miss Marion Abbott as Martha Howe, the wayward sister, were especially pleasing.

Consul Smith Reported the Pestilence Breeding Condition of the Little City on the St. Lawrence and Jean Baptiste Got Very Mad.

MONTREAL, P. Q., Oct. 11 .- In his report on the sanitary condition of Three Rivers, which appears in the abstract of "Sanitary Reports," the official organ of the United States marine hospital service, Consul Smith says that the town is badly located, has few sewers, no gutters and no paved streets; that the people live in filth, and that that busy scavenger, the horsefly, is the only thing that prevents eternal pestilence. Nothing is being done to guard against cholera except to tear up the streets which had been receiving the slops of the city for 200 years, so that if the city escapes cholera in October the people will die of diphtheria in Novem-

The Board of Health on receiving the report at once took action and passed a series of resolutions denying the charges and protesting against its insulting statements Copies of these resolutions were sent to the United States consul general at Montreat and to the Dominson secretary of state. The city council met Saturday and passed simular resolutions.

The citizens are incensed. Last Friday night and early Saturday morning a number of stones were thrown at the consulate, breaking the windows. The peace officers were summoned and further violence was averted. It is feared, however, that the wiath of the inhabitants may carry away some overgoalous persons and that some-thing serious may occur. The city authoriat the consulate day and hight and serious trouble is feared.

The row broke out last Saturday night while the consul was in bed. The mob numbered 200. As soon as the first attack was made Celonel Smith strongly barricaded every entrance and succeeded in keeping the med out, but a shower of stones smashed every window in his residence. The entire police force was sent to the rescue and dispersed the mob, which gathered and os-persed the mob, which gathered again on the public square and burned Colonel Smith in efficy. In the early morning an attack was again made, but the police surrounded the house and protected it. The provincial authorities have taken the matter up and Consul Smith's recall is peremptorily demanded. Consul Smith is married to a daughter of the 1ste Horace Greeley. He was appointed to the consulateat Three Rivers in 1889.
