Chairman Caldwell's Ruling in the Matter Sustained by the Chicago Railroad Association - Annual Meeting of the Pullman Palace Car Company.

Cincago, Ill., Oct. 13.-An important victory has been won by the Union Pacific over its competitor, the Northern Pacific. At a special meeting of the Chicago Railroad association today the action of October 8, binminating from the Chicago rate sheet the Union Pacific's route to Paget Sound points, was reconsidered. The consequence is that there will be no change in the present routing of passenger business to Paget Sound points, as it stands in the Chicago rate This action was taken in deference to Chairman Caldwell's ruling, who held that no such change could be made without unanimous consent, according to the requirements of the Western Passenger association agreement. Eastern associations have been awaiting the action of the Chicago roads in this matter, and, as a result of today's proceedings, all the eastern and southern roads will continue to sell through tickets to the hispated territory via the Union Pacific. The most that the Northern Pacific can do

Is to refuse to honor the Union Pacific tick ets over its lines from Portland to Paget Sound points. The latter company, through its agent at Portland, will continue its pres-ent practice of purchasing Northern Pacific local tickets for distribution to through pas sengers at that point.

Annual Meeting of the Pullman Company At the annual meeting of the Pullman Palace car company there were $22,500,000 of the capital stock represented. The directors were re-elected, as follows: George M. Pullman, Marshal Field, J. W. Doane, Norman Williams and O. S. Sprague of Chicago; Henry Shulbert of New York and Henry R. Reed of Boston.

The usual quarterly dividend of $2 per share from net earnings was declared paya-ble November 15 to stockholders of record at the close of business November 1. financial statement for the fiscal year ending July 31 shows that the total revenue of the company during that period was $10, 002,356. Of this amount $5,061,081 was from earnings of cars, and the rest from patents. manufacturing, rentals, dividends, interest, etc. The dispursements amounted to $6,751, 967, leaving a surplus for the year of $3,250 889. The total assets are $53,345,059 and the total liabilities $31,261,370. The number of cars owned or controlled by the company is

In a supplementary report, President Pullman imparted the information that during the fiscal year contracts and been made with the following rational companies: Little Rock & Memphis, for a period of twenty-five years; Western New York & Pennsylvania, for a period of twenty-five years; Chesapeake & Ohio, extending of contract for a period of fitteen years.

There have been built during the year sighty sleeping and uning cars, costing $1,332,956, or an average of $15.551 per car.

Work is now progressing rapidly on 415 additional sleeping, dining and parlor cars to supply the anticipated extraordinary demands of travel in 1893. These cars are estimated to cost about $5,500,000. The number of passengers carried during the year was 5,279,020, and the number of miles run was 191,255,656. The total number of perthe employ of the company in its manufacturing and operating departments is 12,809, and wages paid during the year $6,619,156. Coal Rates Advanced.

At a meeting of the traffic officials of the Chicago-St. Paul roads today, it was agreed to advance the rates on soft coul to the basis of $2 per ton from Chicago to St. Paul and The present basis is $1.75 per ton. The advance will go into effect as soon as the work of checking the rates through out the affected territory can be completed and the tariffs published.

TROUBLE OVER CUT RATES.

Charges Made Against the Eikhorn for Breaking Association Rules. General J. R. Buchanan, general passenger agent of the Fremont, Etaborn & Missouri Valley railroad, has been consoring himself since Monday that no member of the Transmissouri Passenger association would lile a complaint against his road for securing the transportation of troops from Fort Robinson at the rate of $21.36 for the round trip, on the ground that it was a cut rate. But in this seeming security Mr. Buchanan has reck-oned without his host for the Burlington will file within the necessary time a complaint with Secretary McFadden charging the Eighorn with securing business below tariff

Section A of article vi-violations-provides that all complaints of violation must be filed with the chairman within fifteen days after the date of the alleged violation, together with all evidence bearing upon the same. Section C of the same article provides: "Any line party to this agreement that may be convicted of selling tickets or carrying pas sengers at rates or upon conditions that are in violation of any provision of this agreeor rules adopted thereunto pay over to the associa-for each offense the amount, at full tariff rates, that should have been charged therefor by and over such association line, and if of a foreign issue full proportions less agreed commissions, which should have accrued to the offending line, according to the established division of agreed tariff rates."

Mr. Francis of the Burlington system, in speaking about the matter, said.

"The conservative Elkhorn has cut the rate agreed upon by the Transmissouri association and having done so through its general passenger agent must necessarily expect to stand the consequences. The rate from Crawford to Omaha is in the neighborhood of $12.50, which would make the round trip $25. Applying this to the 1-cent a mile rate cast of the river, made for militia companies in uniform, would give a round trip rate of $35, instead of $21.36, the rate at which the business was secured. The Elkhorn people are kicking themselves that they put in so low a bid, for it transpires that all the roads bidding were basing their bids on regular tariffs and the Eikhorn would have secured the business if they had bid $11.36 instead of $10 under that figure, which of course is a loss on the 150 men from Crawford of $1.500. This, coupled to the same rate on ten cars of horses and freight, will make the Eikhorn's loss in the neighborhood of $2,000.

"Now the Burlington, in order to maintain the rules of the association, means to push the matter, and, if a conviction is secured, the Eikhorn will have hauled the troops for nothing and will have to pay into the treasury of the associa-tion the difference between the cuts and the tariff rate, in this case something like $1,500. The fundamental principle governing the formation of the Transmissours among the members and that reasonable rates of charge for their respective services might be jointly made and maintained."

The board of directors passed a resolution directing the payment of interest at the rate of 210 per cent on the first preferred income mortgage bonds of the company, payable on November 10 at the Farmers Loan & Trust company, this city, and at the office of Brown, Shipley & Co., London.

English Stockholders Win. Cincinstati, O., Oct. 13.—The meeting of the Onio & Mississippi stockholders was held today. The result was an overwhelming victory for the English shareholders. Their candidates were F. W. Tracy of Springfield, Ill.; William S. Bull and Edgar T. Wells of New York. The vote cast for them was: Stock, 216,366; bonds, 12,13d. The opposition voted for William Whiteright, Malcolm Campbell and Charles R.

At the directors' meeting Messrs. McKim and Fahenstock resigned and General James H. Wilson of Wilmington, Del., and Edward R. Bellony were chosen in their places. The board elected Mr. F. W. Tracy president, board elected Mr. F. W. Tracy president, but made no other changes. The report of the president was referred back to the board of directors for investiga-tion. This report showed: Gross earnings for the year, $4,228,403; operating expenses, $3,398,674; net earnings, $1,019,739. Interest on funded debt, sundry interest and ex-change, $1,090,350; deficit, $40,021.

Talking Up a Vinduct. Mayor A. H. Weir of Lincoln, together with Councilman George K. Brown and a citizens' committee, consisting of L. L. Imhoff and John L. Doty, came up yesternay for a conference with the Union Pacific officials regarding the proposed O street viaduet in the capital city. The fact that the Rock Island has just been allowed to put in a grade crossing at the east end of O street seems to but injured the chances of scenting the building of a viaduet over the tracks at the west end, as the claim is made that to attempt to enforce the erection of it under these circumstances would be making fish of one road and fowl of another. The commutee hoped to get a favorable expression of some kind from the railroad officials.

Opening the Cut Off. The Missouri Pacific cut off by way of Plattsmouth will be traveled over next Sunday for the first time. Omaha will benefit by it as much as Nebraska City and the other towns which now have seen the much-wished-for consummated. Beginning on Sunday the Omaha, Kansas City & St. Louis express, which now leaves this city at 10:30 a.m., will not pull out till 1:10 in the afteron, and the 9:30 p. m. train will bakept till 10 o'clock. The St. Louis express will here after arrive at 6:45 a. m. and 4:55 p. m. The local train will arrive in Omana at 8:50 a. m. and won't leave again till 4:30 p. m.

Heretofore it has been customary for them to have a day or two each year in which to visit other schools and they have visited among themselves, but this year it was suggested that something new would be of much more benefit, and the Omaha trip was planned. The visitors were disposed of as follows. directed to their own grades: First and sec-oud grades, Long school; third grade, Keliom school; fourth and fifth grades, Farnam chool; sixth, seventh and eighth grades,

Troubles of a Nebraskan Who Took an Insane Man to Vermont and Got Out Just Ahead of the Officials-Where He "Is At,"

One of Douglas county's best known citizens is sojourning in Canada and his most intimate acquaintances will not venture an opinion as to when he will return, though they will go so far as to state that perhaps it may be soon, or perhaps it may be never.

This man who is tabooed as an outcast from home and native land is Homer Whitney, a prosperous farmer living a few miles from the city. He is not in Canada because he has robbed a bank, nor because he is a fugitive from justice. He would come nome in a minute to he could, but he can't, and there's the rub.

Some weeks ago Sylvester Underwood reached Omaha direct from Brattleboro, Vt. A few days after his arrival and before he had acquired a residence in this county he became as crazy as a March hare. He was a young man and the county commissioners did not think it wise that he should be a Douglas county charge during his natural life. The insanity board sat upon Sylvester's case and found that it was one demanding immediate atten-tion and so informed the county commis sioners. Those gentlemen turned the ques-tion over in their minds and decided to send the poor fellow back to his people. The next thing to do was to find a man who would take Underwood to his old home.

In his early boyhood Whitney had resided under the shadows of the Green mountains, and he conceived the idea that it would be a most opportune time to pay a visit to the old red school house and the brooks from which ne h d spared trout when he was a bare noted kid. The commissioners were willing that he should go and furnished him with his crazy charge, transportation both ways and $3) for spending money. Mr. Whitney turned his face toward the cast. He reached Brattleboro in due time and at once presented Underwood to the selectmen of the town. Those selectmen did not meet Messrs. Whitney and Underwood with a brass band and banquet them at the princioat hotel of the municipality, but instead hey met Whitney with a warrant of arrost, n which it was charged that he was violating the laws by oringing a pauper into the state. He was taken before the town justice, where he was convicted. Sentence was suspended providing he would at once jump the town hey l'ut in a Day Visiting the Schools of and take his crazy man along. This Whitney agreed to do and the next train bore him With three exceptions, Fremont's entire el-1 to Montreal, where he is at this time. Yesterday morning Whitney telegraphed to the commissioners these words: "Stranded and got a crazy man on my bands. Wire instructions quick, ere we perish."

Mr. Van Camp was the only commissioner about the court house, and to him the mes-sage was delivered. He immediately sent back this cheering reply: "Get him off your hands."
To the police of Montreal Mr. Van Camp sent this telegram: "Arrest two men and hold them. One is a fool and the other is crazy. At this time it has not been decided whether Whitney will be left in Canada or whether he will be assisted to return.

Captain E. J. Davis-This has been a hard year for Omaha people who have expected to get a show in the election of officers in the great organizations of the country. Omaha got nothing in the Grand Army of the Republic annual election, nothing in the Regular Army and Navy union, nothing in the Royal Arch Masons meeting, nothing in the Shriners meeting, to speak of, and now we will see what will be the result of the Knights of Pythias meeting in session this

Judge Berka-There is only one power which enforces laws in this country and that power is public opinion. Crimes may be committed with impunity if the public sympathize with the criminal. We have had several instances of that in Omana. The Biechler trial for instance. There was a plain case of murder and the law provides a plain penalty. But public opinion said "no" and that settled it. There is another class of offenders hard to punish, gamplers and saloonkeepers for instance. No one has been directly injured and juries cannot be found who are very anxious to convict the offenders. The law with all its machinery is perfectly powerless, although perfectly right and just, unless the public back it up. Prosecutor Cochrane-It seems to me that the big livery firms ought to be satisfied with monopolizing the greater part of the hack business of the town under the city's very liberal ordinance without overcharging. Of course, this is an old story, but it is one which people should hear occasionally. We have a back ordinance holding charges gown to a reasonable figure and the police judge will see that any violation is strictly punished. It is only one man in a hundred who takes advantage of the protection af-forded him. Hacks are not a very expensive luxury, but most people think they

E. O. Mayfield—I recall a very interesting session of the city council in the earlier days of South Omaha. Patrick Rowley was the statesman who looked after the First ward constituency and John N. Burke saw to it that the Third ward was not forgotten when that the Third ward was not forgotten when the plums were being passed around. At this particular session the Q street viaduct question was under discussion and Burke had just finished one of those interesting speeches for which he was famous. Rowley arose, with all the dignity of a South Omaha statesman, and said: "Mister Mayor, Mis-ter Burke has been a member of this council two years and he can't say 'wyaduck' yot." two years and he can't say 'wyaduck' yet. The house was convulsed with laughter and I have often wondered if either of those statesmen has learned to pronounce the word "viaduct." W. B. Berry-The South Omaha realty W. B. Berry—The South Omaha realty market is very lively these days. The aemand for property is good and values on the increase. The property is passing from the hands of the speculators into those of the bome builders. The workingmen are the real estate dealer's best patrons at the present time. They realize the folly of paying rents when a home c.n. be secured on the most reasonable terms. Inquiries come to us a most reasonable terms. Inquiries come to us aimost every day from all parts of the country regarding inside property, and outsiders are watching closely the opportunity for investment. South Omaha is all right and the owners of property will realize handsomely.

Books That Have Been Worn Out By Omaha School Children. There is a wagon load of old books and papers in one corner of the Board of Education rooms that could tell some very inter

Here is a book all "dog-cared" and dirty that was doubtless used by some John or Tom or Charite who didn't care a ran whether school kept or not, in fact he would rather it hadn't. By the side of this much abused book there is one that has evidently been handled with care, but long service has eventually worn it through in the middle of the bottom where delicate little thumbs have pressed it open while caper eyes have scanned its pages. Therein the top line is a difficult word underscored and here between the leaves are some resobads that the owner lucked from over the fence one morning or the way to school. What tales those old books could tell if they could speak! But they can't, and they will be sold to the ray man and the school children will have now ones in their stead.
