DESERTED BY HER HUSBAND.

Mrs. Jennie Nelson of Cheyenne Left Penniless Among Strangers. Mrs. Jennie Nelson of Cheyenne had a story of woe to tell to the waiting passengers and railroad officials at the union depot yesterday morning. She figured as a deceived and deserted wife, and she made out her leige lord, Henry, to be a mountain of perfidy. She said that she married him seven months ago, and was not long in finding out that he was a deserter from the regular army. He used her fairly well, however, until a short time ago, when he began to systematically abuse her, and repeatedly told her that he proposed to get rid of her at the first opportunity. A week or two ago his treatment of her improved, and she began to hope that all would yet be well between them. Nelson finally wanted to come to Omaha to obtain work, and she packed her clothing and last Wednesday they came to this city. They staved at the Thirteenth street hotel for two days, and then he suggested that they go over into lowa to visit her relatives. They started this morning, but parted com-pany at the depot. Nelson bought the tickets, and saw to it that his wife was ticketed back to Cheyenne, while his transportation card read to Atlanta, Ga. He put her aboard her train and saw her baggage safely on board, and then left the car, saying he would be back in a minute. The depot clock has since ticked off many a sixty seconds, but the dissatisfied husband has not put in an appearance. Nor will he, for he noarded the eastbound Burlington and was whirling rapidly toward Chicago before the deserted wife took it into her head to get out to see what had become of him. Mrs. Nelson did not go on to Cheyenne, but had ber trunks tumbled out of the bag-gage car and will remain here a few days waiting to see if the police cannot find some trace of the fugitive. She is now auxious for the federal authorities to take some steps to apprehend him as a deserter and wants to see him punished to the fullest extent that his conduct merits.

TEXICAN COFFEE.

It Is Becoming One of the Great Industries of That Country.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—The Bureau of American Republics is informed that the production of coffee in Mexico last year exceeded 43,750,000 pounds, a figure which it is thought will soon be tripled, owing to the introduction of improved machinery and to the increase in the number of coffee planta-

The bureau is informed that there is an enterprise on foot in Gu temala to construct an interoccanic railroad to connect l'uerro Barrios on the Atlantic with the port of San Jose de Guatemala on the Pacific coast. It is also informed that the sisal industry in Turks and Cachos islands is growing rapdly, increasing in importance. The report of work done on the various plantations dur-ing the year 1801 is generally very satisfactory, and a quantity of fibre shipped to New York realized a price equal to that com-manded by the best class of fiber from Yucatan.

General Merritt Reports. Washington, D. C., Oct. 15.-General Merritt, commanding the Department of the Dakota, in his annual report to the War department, states that the troops in the department are in an excellent state of discipline and well instructed. There is much complaint, however, among line officers, because of a lack of good material for noncommissioned officers. Many of the best men leave the army, the report supp, after short service under recent regulations. General Merritt renews his recommendation of last year that the pay of these men should be increased, as a matter of justice for the work required, and it now looks as though it were even more necessary, the general continues, in order to keep up the one of the army.

Retains His Consulship. Washington, D. C., Oct. 15 -Secretary of State Foster has declined to receive the resignation of Consul Johnson, located at Hamburg. The resignation was brought about by reports printed abroad that he had fled from Hamburg for fear of the cholera, while the fact was that his departure was on account of an injury received in an accident, from which he suffered greatly, together with an attack of dysentery, and he was ordered by his physician to leave Hamburg. This explanation was made to the department by friends, hence the action taken.

Will Return to Washington.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 15.-Ex-Secretary Blaine is expected to return to his house in this city next week. He will be accompanied by his family and will take up a permanent abode for the winter. The Biaine residence or Lafavette square is being prepared for the arrival of its occupants. Mr. Blaine has communicated through Secretary J. W. Foster to the president an expression of his deep sympathy with him on account of Mrs. Harrison's daugerous illness.

Will Have a Lower Rating. Washington, D. C., Oct. 15.-The Treas ury department has directed that hereafter hemstitched cotton handkerchiefs be classified as unenumerated manufactures of cotton, dutiable at the rate of 35 per cent ad valorem, instead of as "hemmed handker-chiefs," dutiable at the rate of 45 per cent ad valerem. This action is in accordance with a decision by the United States circuit court of appeals for the Second district of

New York. Exonerated the Postmaster. Washington, D. C., Oct. 15.-Postmaster General Wanamaker has received from President Lyman of the civil service commission a response to his letter of inquiry of October 12. The commission says in reply that it has no evidence that the postmaster at Withey has violated the order of the Postoffice department. The presence at this office of the "blank book" rather indicates, we think, the innocence of the Withey post-

RIFLEMEN FROM THE ALPS

Swiss Sharpshooters Will Hold Their Next

LOCAL MARKSMEN TAKING AN INTEREST

The name of Switzerland is suggestive to most people of the picturesquely dressed mountaineer and his rifle, and it is not surprising that in whatever part of the world is found a child of the Aips he has his rifle with him. The finest rifle clubs in the country are composed of Swiss riflemen, and the nucleus of the present Northwestern schuetzenbund was the Highland, Iti., Helvetia sharpshooters, which is composed altogether of natives of Switzerland.

Next year the schuetzenbund will hold its grand national tournament in Omaha, and the people of the city will have the privilege of entertaining as genial and entertainable a class of men as ever visited the Nebraska metropolis. The tournaments are a biennial occurrence, and the visitors come propared to enjoy every minute of their stay and with peckets full of money to pay for it. The seventh national tournament was held in St. Louis in 1891, at which the following clubs were represented: Cincinnati Rillo club, Joliet schuetzenverein, Miiwaukee schuetzenverein, South St. Louis schuetzen-verein, St. Louis Pistol club, Davenport Rifle club, Indianapolis Target club, Greenville Off-Hand Rifle club, St. Greenville Off-Hand Rifle club, St. Louis sharpshooters. Peru, Ind., Rifle club. Coming from All Over the Country. Since that time the association has been growing and many more clubs will be repre sented at the Omaha tournament summer. There are teams in K City, St. Joseph and other western cities, to say nothing of the big club in San Francisco, which has a targer membership than any other club in the country, which is also ex-pected to come in with a competing team. Assurances have been received from all of the teams in attendance two years ago that they will be on hand.

A move was made some time ago to have the A move was made some time ago to have the shoot take place in Chicago during the World's fair in conjunction with the great international shoot, which will take place there at that time, but the Omaha team, with a keen recollection of the hard light they had made to secure the tournament in the first place, put on their fighting clothes and the scheme was defeated. Representatives from the Milwaukee and St. Louis vereins were in Omaha at the time, and assured the Omaha management that they would stand by Omaha. Subsequently del gates from Chicago came out and explained that they had no desire to burt Omaha, and that they would send a good strong team to the shoot next summer.

It is not known yet where the range will be located, and it is not the casiest thing in the world to find a suitable place. Ruser's park has its advocates and there is some talk of making an effort to secure from the government the use of the Bellevue range. Thirty-six targets were used at St. Louis and at least forty will be required in Omaha. The local club will select from its own membership the officers for the national association for the ensuing meeting, and at St. Louis the following were elected for the St. Louis the following were elected for the Omaha tournament: F. L. Blumer, president: Gustave Benecke, vice president; Louis Heimred, secretary: W. F. Stoecker, corresponding secretary: William Krug, treasurer; William Mack, first shooting master, and Hans Petersen, second shooting

He thinks that when the Americans take it up it will get a hold on the national affections which will never be loosened. The benefits of such a training are obvious. It cultivates steady nerves and keen eyes and prepares its dev otees for the service of their country, should they ever be needed. Mr. Biamer attributes the success of the German army in a great measure to the training of her young men in their rifle clubs.

COLUMBUS CELEBRATIONS. Why the Public Schools Will Not March or

Friday. A great deal of inquiry has been heard during the past few days as to the reason for holding the Columbus Day exercises, in which the children of the public schools will participate, on October 20 instead of the 21st, as the latter is the anniversary of the discovery of this continent, and is the day thatewill be observed as such by the public school children in all the other cities and towns of the country for their anniversary

Street rumor has had it for several days

that the change was due to the visit of a committee of the American Protective assiciation to the superintendent of publi schools, to protest against having the exer-cises on the 21st, as on that day the children of the parochial schools of the city would indulie in a public demonstration in hono of the memorable event, and the members o this association were opposed to allowing the public school children to unite with those of the Catholic schools in the parade on that occasion. Inquiry reveals the fact that a week ago yesterday a committee, consisting of Messrs. McLeod and J. B. Piper, did wait on Superintendent Flizpatrick of the public schools of the city and after staining schools of the city, and after stating that a report was current, and very generally credited, to the effect that the children had been ordered to take part in the parade on the fist and would march through the principal streets in company with the children of the parochial schools, demanded to know if it was true, saying that if it was they were there to protest against it. They were in-formed that it was not intended to have the public school children parade at all, and that their uneasiness was groundless. Whether this committee waited on the superintendent as representatives of the American Protective association or as individuals is not stated, but report has it again that a meeting of that organization was held the preceding evening and that these two were appointed a committee for the purpose

At a meeting held last Monuay it was fe-cided to have the exercises take place next Phursday, the 20th inst. In reply to an inquiry yesterday afternoons to the reason for the change, Superintendent Fitzpatrick stated that it is the com-mon custom for the schools to celebrate holi-days on the day preceding, as there would oth-

This was the only reason given for the change in the day for holding the exercises, but several changes were also announced that will make the observance of the day here quite different from what it will be in other cities. In the first place, there will be no street parade, as it is held that it is unwise to allow the smaller children to take part in such a demonstration and at the same time it is difficult to tell just where to draw the lise between those who may parade and those who may not; and that such a parade is hard to form in a city that covers as much ground as does Omaha and must necessarily erwise be but a small per cent of the children in attendance, and that Columbus day would be much in the nature of a holiday this year.

ause a great deal of dissatisfaction cause a great deal of dissatisfaction.

In the second place, the children will not be assembled in one boats in a hall, as advised in the program formulated and sent out by Francis Hellamy, the originator of the idea of such a general demonstration. It is held that this is also impracticable, as there is no hall in the city that would seat 10,000 school children, to say nothing of the thousands of others who would want to witness the exercises, and further than this it ess the exercises, and further than this it s stated that it would be a very dangerous indertaking to mass that number of chil-iren in a building, even if one was obtainable, because of their preneness to panic and Appropriate exercises will be held in each Appropriate exercises will be held in each school room, and instead of singing "America" at 11 o'clock next Friday morning, as will be done by all the other schools in the country, the national hymn will be sung by all the public schools of this city at 3 o'clock

all the public schools of this city at 3 o'clock on Thursday afternoon.

Arrangements have been made to have the Grand Army of the Republic assist in the celebration, and that organization will furnish speakers to deliver lifteen-minute addresses in each of the schools, and the part of the program furnished by the children will tend to make the occasion of a patriotic and historical nature that will lastingly impress itself on the minds of the ingly impress itself on the minds of the

to Guatemala Planters. San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 15,-The Examiner this morning prints a long account of the cruise of the steamer Montsecrat, which arrived from Guatemala Thursday after having landed there nearly 406 natives from the Gilbert islands to work allegedly under contract for five years to wealthy planters. The account was written by an Exammer reporter who shipped on the Montserrat hast April as a sailor. The account declares that the Montserrat was a slave ship; than the natives were sold in Guatemala for $100 each, the amount being taken in the guise of passage money. The account shows that the islanders were gotten on board by ques-tionable methods, amounting in some cases acticulty to kid The commander of the vessel, W. H. Ferguson, was con-nected with the other alleged stave ship, the Tahiti, which foundered with 400 natives on board. The account adds that of 400 natives taken to Guatemala two years ago only 180
