The First Christian church ladies serve meals in the Eiseman building today.

The Episcopal ladies gathered socially at the home of Mrs. Mevers yesterday afternoon.

The stockholders of the Union Depot company will meet this evening at the city building.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Wade will occur today at the residence of L. S. Axtell, in Boomer township. She will be buried at the Grange cemetery.

The Ladies' Aid society of St. John's English Lutheran church meets tomorrow at 2 p. m. at the residence of Mrs. R. L. Williams, 836 High School avenue.

The funeral services of Hubbard Corlies will occur this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the residence, 239 Benton street. The body will be sent to Detroit for interment.

The Home of the Friendless is still struggling with deficiencies, one fund being $334 behind, another $1,082, and another $300, while the improvement fund needs $9,889.

The ladies of the Congregational church will serve meals and lunches on Wednesday in the store room lately occupied by Mr. Fields on Broadway, next to the Council Bluffs Carpet company.

An alarm of fire was turned in last evening at 11 o'clock from the Ogden Iron works. The fire department responded, and the blaze was extinguished after considerable damage had been done. The origin of the fire could not be learned last night.

The democrats are planning on their big rally Thursday. Ex-Governor Crittenden of Missouri is to be the chief speaker and the opera house has been secured for the evening. It is possible that Governor Boles and other shining lights may be secured to add brilliancy to the gathering.

An information was filed in Justice Hammer's court yesterday by a Mrs. Mitchell, charging her neighbor, Mrs. Charles Denny, with assault and battery. The trouble grew out of a mutual misunderstanding concerning the management of their numerous children that surround their homes near the transfer. The case will be heard this afternoon.

Every incoming eastern train, and some of those that reach the city by the south and north, continue to be filled with the crowds of people that were attracted to the dedication of the World's fair. The Rock Island limited yesterday noon arrived over two hours late. It comprised nine coaches and the delay was simply caused by the overloading of the coaches.

The majority of the Council Bluffs World's fair fanatics have returned and about all the remainder will be in today. Alderman and Mrs. Pace will be about the last to get away and expect to get out of town today. The last seen of them Monday was in one of the big dry goods houses, where they had found temporary shelter from the rain and the crush of the streets.

Hubbard Corlies died Monday night at the family residence, 239 Benton street. He was 53 years of age, and had been sick for three years past. Mr. Corlies came to this city with his family in 1884 from Detroit, to which city his body will be taken for interment. There will be funeral services at the house at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and the remains taken from there to the train.

Captain John Bates, who met with such a serious accident at the Main street hose house, was yesterday removed to the Woman's Christian Association hospital, where he lies in a critical condition. He was able to talk a little yesterday, but could give no information as to how he happened to fall down the man hole. He thinks that his injuries resulted from being thrown from a buggy.

The fair given by the ladies of St. Peter's Catholic church opened very favorably in the Masonic temple last evening. The booths were well filled with useful and ornamental articles and were well patronized by the audience. An interesting program of songs and recitations was presented by the children. The fair will continue tonight, when an entertainment will be given by the Inisfoil club.

The Veteran Tippecanoe Republican club held a meeting last evening at the republican headquarters and decided to meet at the same place this evening at 6:30 o'clock to join in the republican procession. Carriages will be on hand to convey the members so that none will be required to walk. All are invited to be on hand. Resolutions of sympathy and condolence with President Harrison in the death of his wife were adopted.

Minnie Dixon, the woman who is known to the local public by half a dozen other aliases, and who figured in a cutting case on the row a short time ago, was discharged by Justice Cones yesterday in the latest case that has given her trouble. This was the case in which William Butts, an Omaha man, procured her arrest upon a charge of disposing of mortgaged property. Butts signally failed to prove his charge and retired from the court room with the best grace possible after having the costs taxed up to him.

In the district court the case of Dr. Hood against the Chicago & Northwestern railway company is still dragging along. To a casual dropper-in it would seem that it is the doctor who is on trial. The railway company is asked to pay $40,000 for injuries received by the doctor in a wreck at Elmhurst, Ill. The company evidently thinks the price rather heavy, and is apparently trying to show that the doctor wasn't in it, and if he was that he wasn't hurt, and if he was hurt that he wasn't hurt much, and if he was hurt much he wasn't damaged much, because he wasn't much of a doctor anyway, and that his reputation in other respects was not quite equal to Cæsar's wife.

The Broadway Methodist ladies will hold a sale of house plants on Thursday, October 27, in the vacant room next to Crockwell's book store. All those furnishing plants are requested to send them to the place of sale early Thursday morning. Supper at supper time for 25 cents.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Republicans of the Ninth District Will Throng the City Today.

PREPARATIONS TO RECEIVE THE VISITORS

It Will Be the Most Enthusiastic and Well Attended Rally of the Campaign in This Locality—List of the Speakers.

The preparations made for a big republican rally will culminate today in a great outpouring of enthusiasm. The speakers who are to address the people are men of national reputation, Senator Allison, Hon. Benjamin Butterworth and Hon. Rudolph Blankenburg, and others. J. J. Brown's building, opposite Bayliss park, and facing on both Main and Pearl streets, has been secured for the speaking, with a seating capacity larger than any hall in the city.

Invitations have been sent to all the republican clubs in this congressional district as well as to others in various parts of the state and in eastern Nebraska. Reduced railway rates have been secured and special trains provided.

The Red Lantern brigade from Missouri Valley, the Ladies' Marching club of Woodbine and other novel organizations have promised to attend. Omaha will be strongly represented and the Harrison Advance club of colored men will participate. The torchlight parade will be the feature of the political season. With all the attractions offered Council Bluffs expects to welcome thousands of visitors, while her own citizens will be out in full numbers, business being practically suspended, while all unite in striving to show how well Council Bluffs can appear on dress parade and how happily she can entertain her guests.

A Sure Fit.

Thursday, October 27, the agent of one of the largest eastern manufacturers will be at the Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Ia., with a line of over 500 samples, consisting of all the newest and nobbiest styles of fall and winter coats, everything that can be thought of in the coat and cape line.

Thursday we expect to make a gala day in our coat department. In addition we show over 1,500 garments in our own stock. Every one that has visited our cloak department this season has complimented us very highly, claiming that we show the best line outside of Chicago.

Another great feature in our favor is our usual low prices. Anyone wishing a perfect garment, a perfect fit and at the lowest cash price will be studying their own interests to visit the Boston Store. Among some of the most popular garments are the Russian peasant coats, Franklin back top coats, reefers plain and fur trimmed, reefers with watteau plaits, ulsters with capes and hoods, a large line of ladies' capes in every style and color. Ladies' Russian suits all grades.

Plush sacques, 40 inches long, guaranteed Sir Titus Salt and Walker plushes, all beautifully lined, from $16.75 to $32.00.

Ladies' reefers, good grades, $3.75 and $5.00, in tans, greys and blacks. In camel's hair and cheviots, $7.50 and $9.00.

For a $10.00 garment we show an endless variety. Special attention is called to our six different weaves of black and fancy cloths, cut in fifteen different styles to suit the most difficult tastes.

Our better grade goods running from $12.00 to $25.00 are well worth an inspection whether you intend to purchase or not, although for nothing but to see the many styles and handsome garments.

Objects to Paying Rent.

Because Colonel F. C. Reed insisted upon an undesirable tenant paying his rent he is enjoying the novel experience of a prosecution for grand larceny. The colonel is mayor of Manawa and chief owner of the big interests there. In connection with the Manawa Motor company he owns a large tract of land south of the lake. Because this land is not improved the impression seems to prevail among a number of squatters down there that it is still government land, subject to homestead and pre-emption. A number of people have acted upon this presumption and have squatted upon the lands, raising grain and trying to raise the wind by disposing of their "claims." Among the number was John Hegwood, who put his mark to the information charging the Manawa mayor with larceny. Hegwood had raised a crop of corn upon the eighty acre tract upon which he had squatted, and refused to pay rent. Yesterday morning about daylight Colonel Reed sent men and teams into the field and gathered some eighty odd bushels of corn and hauled it away to balance the defaulted rent. The warrant was issued from Justice Cone's court. Colonel Reed appeared and was permitted to go away upon his own recognizance to appear on Friday at 2 o'clock p. m. The value of the corn is fixed at $25.50, just enough to make it grand larceny, and Colonel Reed's friends are guying him most unmercifully upon the prospect of spending a term in his own jail at Manawa.

Fire Broadway and Corner of Benton Street.

Our late loss by fire was covered by two policies, both in the COUNCIL BLUFFS INSURANCE COMPANY.

By 7 o'clock the next morning after the fire the secretary was on the ash heap, pencil in hand, ready to figure the loss down to bedrock, which he did, too, saying that it was his duty and no small part of his business." So long as he did not go below bedrock we had no reason to complain, consequently the settlement was not only prompt, but in every way satisfactory, so much so that in addition to $9,200.00 (seven policies) carried by this company before the fire we now add to it $16,000.00.

Being intimately acquainted with the secretary and directors we cannot be persuaded that better indemnity can be obtained than that offered by our home company, besides we believe in patronizing worthy home enterprises, everything being equal, and unless we do we shall continue to be dependent on foreign capital and corporations.

Still in the Market.

Lafayette addition is still in the market, and there are plenty of men who appear to be anxious to speculate in its elusive realty. Generally it has been suckers from abroad who have fallen ready victims to Mr. Jerome's big real estate scheme, but the last two were as near home as Pacific Junction. A business man of that place came up with a deed to one of the worthless lots a few days ago, and incidentally explained how he got it. He loaned $80 on the lot to one of the addition hustlers some time ago, and when the time for squaring accounts came around the fellow was not ready to liquidate, but offered to compromise and give a warranty deed for $25 more. The offer was accepted and the the Junction man came up and took a boat to hunt for his property. He found it covered with a strong current of "city water" twenty feet deep and not quite in the middle of the river. He did not become enthusiastically in love with his purchase until he returned to his home in the Junction, and then his enthusiasm infected another man so strongly that he readily took the property off his hands. The second purchaser was down there yesterday listening to the rush of the mighty Missouri.

The Radiant novelty base burners are the best heaters in the city. See them at Swaine's.

The genuine Burr Oak stoves are sold only by Chas. Swaine, 737 Broadway. Call and see them.

The Green Residence Burned.

About 5 o'clock yesterday morning fire destroyed the large brick house owned by Mrs. Thomas Green and occupied by A. H. Emarine and family, located on East Franklin avenue. The family rose at an early hour, and one of the lamps in use on the second floor exploded, speedily causing the rear portion of the house to be in such hot flames that little could be done to stay them. A telephone alarm was sent in, but there being no water supply within reaching distance for the hose carts they were not sent out. The fire being well under way, and a large one, the chemical engine was deemed useless to cope with it, so the flames had about their own way. A portion of the furniture was removed, but the larger part was wholly destroyed. The loss on the house will amount to about $6,000, which is only partially covered with insurance. Mr. Emarine will lose several hundred dollars on his furniture above his insurance.

Mischievous Shooters.

A youthful vendor of newspapers caused havoc at the Sipp block before breakfast yesterday morning. The little fellow suspended business long enough to try his "snigger shooter," and his aim was so deadly that two large windows in the third story crashed. The little fellow then, frightened at the mischief done, sprinted down the street, and tried to elude the awakened policeman by running through a saloon, then through an alley and into another saloon, where he took refuge in the basement. Officer Kemp dragged him out and booked him for malicious mischief. The boys of late have been causing much trouble with their shooters, and now that one has been caught he will probably be made such an example of that imitators will practice with more caution.

Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hutchinson celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their marriage at their residence, 550 Franklin avenue, last evening. A handsome china service was presented besides many pieces of china bric-a-brac and silverware. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Van De Bogart, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Baudy, Mr. and Mrs. F. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Greenshields, Mr. and Mrs. Lundeen, Mr. and Mrs. Ainsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Short, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander.

Call on Messrs. Day & Hess and ask to be shown the Klein tract of 400 acres now on sale in five and ten acre tracts. They will show it free to all.

Gold and Silver Failure.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Burhorn's jewelry establishment was opened as usual. By noon it was suddenly closed and the windows curtained. By afternoon the front was decorated by signs announcing an immediate sale by auction. These rapid changes prove to have been the result of a chattel mortgage given Mr. John Linder and placed on record yesterday. It was under this mortgage that the stock was thus seized and the sale announced. The mortgage is to secure three notes, amounting in all to about $2,000. It is expected that other claims will now rush in. A small one from Illinois reached here within a half hour after the store was closed and more are expected.

Work on the Bottoms.

There are rapid changes being made in the vicinity of the proposed new bridge. The promise is made that the Paul railway will in a short time be laid nearly to the bridge site and perhaps clear to it. Grading is in progress for the crossing at Broadway and Eighteenth street, and from Avenue A north to Avenue L the ground is ready for the ties. From Avenue L a curve to the levy is made and the embankment is being rapidly constructed. On the Iowa side, at the bridge site, there is a large amount of material ready for use, while on the Cut-Off side there appears to be continued activity.

Dividing the Estate.

William Garner left an estate which amounts to about $100,000, a third of which is in cash. Mrs. Garner preferring to have her share meted out in accordance with the statutes, instead of by the provisions of the will, has had her request granted by the court, and C. W. Wyman, J. P. Hess and H. Omer have been appointed to admeasure her dower.

MANY OF THE NONUNION MEN ASSAULTED

Events that Show How Uneasy Affairs Are Around the Great Carnegie Steel Works—Extra Guards Put on Duty at the Mills.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Oct. 25.—Within the past few days several nonunion men have been assaulted by strikers and severely injured. Last night Charles Mitchell, a workman, in passing along Eighth avenue on his way to work, was set upon by a party of men, at present unknown, and probably fatally injured.

A man named John Gilder, who was with Mitchell at the time, was also severely beaten, but escaped with less dangerous injuries. Another man, whose name could not be learned, was also assaulted.

Later a piece of brick was thrown through the window of Deputy Sheriff Young's room on Third avenue, where he was lodging, but fortunately missed the intended victim. A boarding house at the corner of Fourth avenue and McClure street, where the colored nonunionists lodge, was also attacked, and every window in the front of the house broken.

Allen Snyder, while on his way to the mill along the Pittsburg, McKeesport & Youghiogheny tracks, was followed by a crowd of Homesteaders and badly beaten.

A stranger from Braddock was set upon tonight at the corner of Fourth and McClure streets and severely beaten. The crowd thought he was a workman from the mill, but he was not.

There were two movings of nonunion men into houses in the boroughs and in both cases there was some disorder. Several parties forced their way into the houses, cut up some clothing and smashed several trunks.

It is so apparent that there is a growing feeling of unrest that tonight the force of deputy sheriffs was changed as regards hours for duty. Instead of having twenty-five on in the day time and six at night twenty will patrol the town after 6 p. m. A member of the advisory board stated tonight that the disorderly element was made up of less than a dozen men and the members of the board would assist the officers of the law in bringing those wrongdoers to justice.

Enjoined a Boycott.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 25.—J. H. Havlin, theatrical manager, and the Walnut Street Theater company today filed two suits, each for $50,000 damages, and injunction against the labor organizations and officers. The suits are based on the recent strike of the State Employes union, and the plaintiffs allege that the labor organizations have interfered with the business of the theaters by threatening boycotts and otherwise. Judge Buttolph issued a temporary injunction and stated that summary punishment would follow any violation of the injunction.

Rumors of Peace at Homestead.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Oct. 25.—President Weyhe and President-elect Garland of the Amalgamated association held a secret consultation here yesterday with the advisory board officials, and rumors are being circulated that the strike may be declared off.

Iron Factors Indicted.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 25.—Cornegie & Co. and twenty-three other iron manufacturers have been indicted by the federal grand jury for obstructing navigation by dumping into the rivers here.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For the sources of the plot of "As You Like It," which will be played at Boyd's new theater by Julia Marlowe and her company on Monday night and Wednesday afternoon, Shakespeare was chiefly indebted to a novel by Thomas Lodge, published in 1590, under the title of "Rosalynde, Euphues Golden Legacie, found after his death in his cell at Silexedra, bequeathed to Philautus' sonnes noursed up with their father in England. Fecht from the Canaries by T. L., gent. Imprinted by T. Orwin for T. C. and John Busbie, 1590." This book was reprinted in 1592, and eight editions are known to have appeared before 1643. Lodge took some of the main incidents of his novel from "The Cokes Tale of Gamelyn," which is found in a few of the late manuscripts of the "Canterbury Tales of Chaucer," but which the best editors of that poet believe to be the production of another writer.

The coming of Patti Rosa to the Boyd theater next Friday, Saturday and Sunday gives promise of most enjoyable entertainments. This bright little actress is at the very top notch in her line of work and is the accepted favorite of a great majority of theater goers throughout the country. She will be seen in her merry comedies "Dolly Varden" and "Miss Dixie" and if you care to drive dull care away for an evening you can not do it in any more effective way than by placing yourself under the spell of Patti Rosa's presence.

At the Farnam Street theater three nights commencing Thursday, October 27, "The Operator." It is a strong play of the modern spectacular school. The plot hinges on the remarkable resemblance of two men, which parts were played by the Newell twins, Willard and William, who are exactly alike in every respect; their most intimate friends often taking one for the other, which naturally causes, at times, the most humorous complications. Effects of "the most original and startling description" are used in the play. Among these a full-rigged steamship wrecked in a storm in mid-ocean; a tropical island scene on one of the South Sea islands; a railroad depot; telegraph office with the familiar click of the instruments; the operation of a block signal and switch-lights; the passing of a fast express, followed by the wrecking of a special locomotive through the trestle, and explosion of the boiler; and ends with a bare-back ride on a horse against time. Matinee Saturday.

Elected a New Board.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 25.—At the annual meeting of the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad, now a portion of the great Atchison system, the following board of directors, being the "Atchison slate," so-called, was elected: John T. Davis, Aivah Mansur and E. C. Simmons of St. Louis and Thomas Baring, John J. McCook, George J. Gould, Alden Speare, George C. Magoun, Cecil Baring, William Libbey, Russell Sage, J. W. Reinhart of New York and Boston and Allen Manvel of Chicago.

Election of officers was deferred. No annual report was issued, that road now being a part of the Atchison's annual statement.
