ONLY SEVEN WERE SAVED

Further Particulars of the Loss of the British Steamer Roumania.

PASSED FROM SLUMBER TO DEATH

Passengers on the Ill-Fated Steamer Had no Chance for Their Lives—Weeks and Casualties in the Perse Gates That Have Prevalled.

LISBON, Oct. 29.—The place where the Anchor line steamer Roumania was wrecked is a little to the northeast of Cape Carvoeiro.

It is supposed that on account of the severe westerly gales the steamer made more leeway than the captain counted on, bringing the vessel nearer to the shore than was supposed.

Of 122 souls on board, passengers and crew, only seven were saved. There are no life saving appliances in the neighborhood of the wreck.

The steamer is breaking up and the cargo is coming ashore all along the coast. A heavy fog prevailed when the vessel struck.

Seven nearly nude bodies have been washed ashore indicating that the people on board were in their berths when the steamer came ashore.

Cavalry is patrolling the shore to prevent a wholesale robbery of the bodies and cargo.

Lieutenant Hook and a Lieutenat arrived at Peniche this afternoon and were at once taken to the hospital, where every attention was given to them.

Captain Hamilton and the other survivor are also at the hospital. Though they are regaining strength they are all in a serious condition.

Among the Roumania's passengers were Captain J. E. Barrick, Captain B. H. Randolph and Captain George Hamilton and wife, Lieutenant B. B. Cook and Lieutenant C. D. Stanford and wife, Lady Johnson and child, Rev. J. N. Meekin, Mrs. Burnside, daughter of Canon Burbridge of Liverpool, and several English ladies who were returning to India with their children and nurses.

Almost all the officers of the ship were Scotch. Sixteen of the crew were Lisboans. A special to the Times from Lisbon says that many bodies from the Roumania have come ashore.

Most of them were attired in night clothing, while others were naked. Troops have been sent to guard the coast and check the robbery of bodies and cargo by the people who have flocked to the scene of the disaster.

Disasters on the Lake. PORT HURON, Mich., Oct. 29.—It is reported that the barges in tow of the steamer George Kier are aground in the St. Clair river.

The steamer G. W. Morley lost her consort ten miles north of here and she is drifting down, apparently unmanageable.

Storm on the Lake. SAND BEACH, Mich., Oct. 29.—The biggest storm in the past four years is raging here today. The waves are coming over the top of the breakwater to the height of thirty feet.

An unknown sailor was washed off the main pier this morning and drowned. The steamer G. W. Morley lost her consort ten miles north of here and she is drifting down, apparently unmanageable.

Had a Stormy Passage. NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The Cunard steamer Umbria had a very rough voyage from Liverpool, and 622 passengers were glad when they got ashore this evening.

Last Sunday and Wednesday the weather was unusually stormy. A strong northwest wind whistled across the steamer and big seas came tumbling against her sides.

New York before the election. The president it is said, knows nothing of the meeting.

SANTA FE TELEGRAPHERS. No Final Settlement of Their Dispute with the Company Yet Reached.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 29.—The strike of the telegraphers on the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railroad, which the public have supposed had been peacefully terminated, may possibly be renewed in a day or two.

No final settlement of the dispute which led to the strike has been reached, a hitch having occurred in the negotiations between the management and a committee of operators, who came here from Texas to confer with Vice-President Robinson.

Whether or not the difficulties will be removed, tomorrow will tell, for a final conference is to take place at 10 o'clock.

The matter in dispute between the operators and the company is really small, the sum of only $7,000 a year being involved.

The difficulty has arisen over the total amount by which the pay of the company is to be increased, the telegraphers asked for a total increase of $31,000, but finally brought it down to $18,000, so as to effect a speedy settlement.

This was to be exclusive of any amount for overtime. They company says they cannot allow their increase to go beyond $18,000, and out of this $18,000 $4,000 is to be taken for contemplated overtime.

The proposition, which is practically reducing the claim of $18,000 to $11,000, the committee has absolutely refused to agree to. All the other points of difference were agreed to. Should a strike take place on the Santa Fe no less than 1,700 men will be affected, for in addition to those on the Santa Fe proper, the operators on the Southern California, Atlantic & Pacific will also turn out, thus operation on a vast line of railroad will be brought to a standstill.

RENOUVED DIVISION. Resolutions Adopted by the American Humane Society on the Subject.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 29.—At the meeting of the American Humane society the question of vivisection was discussed in a lively manner. Dr. Ludwig von Rochester offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

The American Humane association respectfully urges upon the legislature of every state in the union the enactment of laws which shall prohibit, under severe penalties, the practice of vivisection upon animals for the purpose of teaching or demonstrating well known and accepted facts.

The committee on resolutions reported and the convention adopted a number of resolutions, including the following: Condemning child insurance; declaring that the exposure and starvation of thousands of cattle on the plains during the winter is a disgrace to American civilization; condemning the barbarity and extreme cruelty practiced by the German and Austrian cavalry officers in their recent long distance race.

Chicago was chosen as the place for the next meeting in 1901. These officers were elected: President, John G. Shortall, Chicago; treasurer, C. D. Ritchie, Philadelphia; secretary, M. V. Daniels, Philadelphia, and a long list of vice presidents from all parts of the country.

JUDGE BERKA'S CATCH. He Had a Fishing Experience That He Will Long Remember.

Judge Berka flatters himself that he excels in two things. One is "putting it onto" wifebeaters and the other is catching fish.

The other day he and Colonel Bob Gilder went out for the latter purpose. They did not do it, though they fished for long, weary hours, so they set their traps in the reservoir and came home to wait for the fish to make up their minds to bite.

Last night they went out to land the catch, promising all the boys a share. Gilder pulled first and the judge stood ready with a club to kill the sharks and eels which they were confident had attached themselves to the hooks. He got a line of Bologna sausage and a ham bone. The judge had an odd pair of shoes and a kettle to cook them in on his hook. Some of the practical jokers of the police court had been there before them.

KEARNEY'S REPUBLICAN DAY

Thousands of Buffalo County Citizens Participate in the Grand Rally.

SENATOR PADDOCK'S VIEW OF THE ISSUES

Some of the Beneficial Legislation of the Republican Party—Best Sugar Industry Favored—Splendid Future of the Country.

KEARNEY, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—This has been another republican day for Kearney. Senator A. S. Paddock gave a short, practical talk on republicanism this afternoon to a large audience.

The speaker said that he had recently come from his work at Washington and was now doing what he could to conserve the interests of the republican party, which he had helped to organize. He declared that he had been standing up for Nebraska since it was organized and was pained to hear some of his fellow citizens speak disparagingly of the state.

"At such times," said he, "it always falls my voice against the insult. It is because such men as Van Wyck go around declaring that the state is bankrupt that the republicans come into existence."

He thought reciprocity the connecting link that will unite all the countries on this continent. He predicted that he would live to see a railroad built into South America, and that our commercial interests become superior to that of any nation.

The most important bill came in for its share of praise by showing that the American has now finds a liberal market with all nations, another act of reciprocity. The introduction of corn as food in Germany was mentioned as a great strike for western farmers, who were enjoined by the speaker to hold out their corn land.

Success of the Industry Assured. The beet sugar industry was mentioned as a promising industry for the west, which had been made possible by the republican administration.

He predicted 100 factories for Nebraska in his life time. The senator declared that democracy would wipe out pensions, because the system was obnoxious to the party of the solid south.

Referring to Kern's record, he said that he would not have mentioned him only that of late he had taken his name in vain regarding a bill to open the military reservations in Nebraska for settlement.

The bill had passed the senate, but Kern never found it out, for the reason that he did not read the Congressional Record.

Kern gives as an excuse in his speeches that Paddock did not advise him of its passage. The senator declares that he sent his clerk to wait in person twice to see Kern about bringing up the bill in the lower house, but he could not be found.

He was busy preparing a committee speech to be read at the coming election. The speaker closed by paying a tribute to the entire state ticket.

The evening a grand street parade took place and republican enthusiasm ran high. The Kearney opera house was packed to hear Charles H. Greene and Will Gurley of Omaha. Gurley gave a plain exposition of the tariff.

Seward County Enthusiasm. SEWARD, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The republican of Seward county are wide awake and making a vigorous campaign. Every man is falling into line for the 5th of November.

Many who have been voting independent tickets are being pulled into line again. Large and enthusiastic meetings have been held at Beaver Crossing, Goehner, Beasau German town this week, and last night a rousing meeting was held at Staplehurst. Fully one thousand people were present. Hon. E. J. Hainer, the republican speaker and made a splendid speech. George W. Nowley, republican candidate for state senator, and Hon. K. P. Anderson, republican candidate for county attorney, also spoke. Only about a third of those present were able to get into the hall. The people of Staplehurst entertained the large crowds in royal style.

Hon. E. J. Hainer is making a tour wherever he goes. He has made several speeches in this county and has aroused much enthusiasm among voters.

WHEN BRYAN WAS A PROHIB. His Speech Delivered in Illinois Years Ago on the Subject Prohibited.

PALLS CITY, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Hon. Allen W. Field has held large and enthusiastic meetings in Speiser, Dawson, Salem, Verdon, Stella, Shubert, Barada, Arago and Preston this week. Hon. Jacob Haeck, a German who, until within the past two years has addressed German audiences in the interest of the democratic party, accompanied Mr. Field and made many votes for the republican ticket.

He produced the speech of William J. Bryan, delivered in Illinois before his "import" into Nebraska, in which he declared for prohibition.

Hon. J. Sterling Morton spoke here last night to a crowd composed of about 35 per cent of republicans, the balance democrats and "napsalins." He threw the free-trade democrats into spasms by his denunciation of free-trade coinage, and he made the independents look like the failures of their theories.

Dodge County Political Notes. FREMONT, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The total registration of voters thus far in this county has been 910. There are two other days remaining for registering, which, it is thought, will make the total vote 1,100.

Mr. Holland, president of the State Republican league of Nebraska, delivered an address this evening in the Normal college chapel to the students and others present, who demonstrated their enthusiasm by frequent and hearty applause.

A special coach was attached to the regular passenger train that left this city over the Elkhorn road this evening, which contained the Fremont Elkhorn club with torches, the Fremont Silver Cornet band and citizens filled with enthusiasm, who took part in the great, grand and glorious republican rally which was held in Hooper this evening. The speakers were: Hon. J. E. Erick of this city, Hon. Frank W. Colburn of Lincoln and General Dennis of Omaha.

Cheered the Republican Ticket. WAYNE, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special to THE BEE.]—One of the most enthusiastic republican meetings that has taken place in Wayne county occurred at Carroll last night at 8 o'clock. Quite a torchlight procession took place, headed by a martial band from Wayne, and a display of fireworks lent an impetus to the enthusiasm. A large audience assembled at the hall to listen to able discussions by Messrs. Whitzer and Frank Falter. At the close of the meeting the republicans present were requested to rise and out of an audience of about 150 fully three-fourths stood up, and three rousing cheers were given for the entire republican ticket.

In the Third District. WAUSA, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The republicans held a big rally here last evening. George D. Melkiojn, candidate for congress in the Third District, spoke to a very large gathering in the hall. Much enthusiasm was shown throughout. He made some winning hits and many friends. Captain Hays of Norfolk also made an eloquent address during the evening. W. H. Needham of Bloomfield introduced the speakers. Members of the Republican club, headed by the Bloomfield Cornet band, paraded the town and escorted Melkiojn from the train to the hall. Knox county will show up a big majority for the republicans at the coming election.

Democratic Meet at Oakland. OAKLAND, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The democrats of Oakland had their first rally last night and it was a total failure as far as enthusiasm was concerned. At 7:30 the Oakland band and a few of the prominent democrats went to the depot to meet the speakers of the evening, Messrs.

G. F. Keiper, democratic candidate for congress in this district, and W. H. Mungler. About 100 people congregated in the hall, two-thirds of them being republicans. The line of argument was only on the tariff question, which was discussed.

ENTHUSIASM AT HOOPER. Dodge County Republicans Turn Out to Great Party Speakers.

HOOPER, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—One of the biggest and most enthusiastic rallies ever held in Hooper took place here this evening. The business houses and residences were in gala dress for the occasion. The people came in from the country early in the day and every train brought in many who came either to participate or to look on.

The band and flambeau club of Fremont, accompanied by many citizens, came in on the evening train and were met by a large delegation. The torchlight procession consisting of many bands and clubs formed on Main street and marched to the opera house which was very appropriately decorated. Such a crowd assembled that many had to go away, not being able to get in.

This town has been considered one of the strongest in the country for the democratic party, but the great demonstrations witnessed here tonight show that republicans are on the increase.

Hon. L. Johnson of Omaha, the first speaker introduced, spoke particularly on the silver question. Hon. Howard Baldwin of Omaha, spoke for a short time on some of the leading issues of the day. The applause given his views showed the appreciation of him. Mr. Erick of Fremont gave some splendid arguments for a protective tariff.

Judge Norris and Melkiojn will speak here next Tuesday evening.

Tate at Davenport. DUNFRIES, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The greatest political event of the campaign occurred here this evening. Hon. J. G. Tate, who had been advertised to address the republicans of this vicinity, came in on the evening train from Hastings, together with the Hastings Republican Flambeau club and the Hansen Military band. Early in the afternoon people began arriving by team from all parts of the county and surrounding towns. Wood River, Grand Island, Truman, Bromfield and Hansen being well represented. Only those who went to the hall early were fortunate enough to secure even standing room. The first speaker introduced was W. P. McCrory of Hastings. The democratic scheme of withdrawing their electors in the west for the purpose of throwing the election in the house was shown up in a way that carried conviction to every voter.

Hon. J. G. Tate was introduced amid great cheering. The speaker held the audience for one hour and a half.

Mr. Tate having lived in free trade England and worked with his father in the factories, he was able to make a great impression upon his hearers by comparing the wages of England with those of this country.

Prohibitionists at Davis City. DAVIS CITY, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special to THE BEE.]—C. E. Bentley, prohibition candidate for Governor, spoke here last evening to a small audience. Not more than forty men, women and children were present.

CEDAR COUNTY'S TRIBUTE

Hartington Crowded with Citizens to Groe Judge Crouse.

SURGING MASS OF HAPPY PEOPLE One of the Greatest Republican Rallies at the Campaign—Many Independents Express Confidence in the Speaker—Other Political News.

HARTINGTON, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The streets of Hartington were filled with a surging mass of happy people tonight all anxious to hear the speech of Hon. Lorenzo Crouse. The Harrison club of this city came out fifty strong in bright uniforms and assisted by the Metropolitan band marched through the streets. A large number of independents who had been here to hear Poynter and Devine this afternoon remained to listen to the judge and plant themselves upon the solid rock of republicanism.

The meeting was held at the Young Men's club room, and all that could gain admission were crowded in, while scores on the outside clamored for admission. Music in the hall was furnished by the band and the male quartette.

When Judge Crouse was introduced to the audience the stamping and cheering fairly shook the walls of the building. For over an hour the speaker poured a steady stream of invincible logic into the audience, dwelling on the issues of the campaign in a masterly manner and undoubtedly made the tariff question clear to every non-weard him. The meeting was one of the most enthusiastic held here during the campaign. Crouse will be remembered by Cedar county on the 5th of November.

WILL STAND UP FOR NEBRASKA. Kearney County Citizens Entertained With Some Sound Reasoning.

MINNESOTA, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Senator Manderson tonight addressed an audience of fully 700 persons in this city. The senator in his opening statement of the political situation in this state, showing that the independent party is really not national in character, but confined to the transmissour country, and that a vote for Weaver and Flinn was a vote for Cleveland and Stevenson. Mr. Manderson then took up the independent national platform, and clause by clause showed its absurd nature.

The tariff was next taken up, the speaker conclusively proving its constitutionality and direct benefits to the whole people of the United States, as well as the prairie Nebraska as in the workshop in the east. Free silver received attention, the speaker showing that the entire silver supply was used under present coinage laws and the dollar given the people as good as any dollar on earth, without giving mine owners 25 cents for 80 cents of silver. Mr. Manderson, in showing the prosperity of the country and untruth of statements of calamity speakers, took up the condition of Kearney county which he showed to be in a state of ruin, with property and but $700,000 indebtedness. Kearney county will show by its vote on November 3rd that its people stand up for Nebraska, the republican party and prosperity.

Blue Springs' First Rally. BLUE SPRINGS, Neb., Oct. 29.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The first republican rally of the campaign at this place came off two hours and was a grand success. For two hours the city was resplendent in colored lights, bunting and other decorations which filled every large window in town. A procession carrying 500 torches marched through the streets. Several corps of zealously dressed ladies were in the line. Republican clubs from Beatrice, Liberty, Oel and Barnston participated. I. W. Lansing was the speaker.

Piles of people have piled up, but DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve will cure them.
