

THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS

Except in Corn Dealers Yesterday Were Practically Featureless. DECEMBER WAS RELATIVELY FIRM

With the October Rice Deal Eliminated and the Provision Market Was Once More Apparently Under the Control of the Packers.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 1.—Except for some talk of a squeeze in the markets today were featureless. Wheat opened quiet and closed weak at the decline since yesterday. December was relatively firm. Paridade was reported to be covering a considerable short lot in that month.

Corn opened unchanged. There were rumors of a contended squeeze in November corn, but in view of the fact that there is nearly 6,000,000 bushels of contract corn here now and steadily increasing, the possibility of such a squeeze is very remote. The market closed weak at 30 1/2.
