

HANGING IN DOUBT

CLEVELAND 97,844; HARRISON, 72,190. This gives Cleveland a lead of 25,654 thus far in Cook county, as Harrison's plurality in the state outside of Cook county in 1888 was but 21,000, and the county returns thus far show a falling off of 1,525 in 230 precincts, it would seem that the result must be very close, probably not over 5,000 for Cleveland. The democrats have probably elected both congressmen-at-large and have carried not less than ten of the twenty congressional districts in the state.

Chairman Ben T. Cable, of the western branch of the democratic national campaign committee is receiving the congratulations of the democrats of the whole country this morning over the work of his committee in Illinois and the northwest. To the Associated Press this morning Chairman Cable said: "We have carried Illinois for Cleveland by at least 10,000 plurality and elected the entire democratic state ticket, the two congressmen-at-large and are successful in at least twelve of the twenty-two congressional districts of the state. Our returns, which are very full and from all sections, show this. We have captured both branches of the Illinois legislature and will do the re-districting of the state next winter. We have carried Wisconsin, but the vote will be close. South Dakota will give her electoral vote to Weaver, which is a democratic victory, as the Weaver electors were supported by the democrats. We are prepared to make no statement as to North Dakota, as we have practically no returns from that state. The chief satisfaction which we derive from this victory is that it puts Illinois in the democratic column for all time to come.

In 615 precincts in the city Harrison receives 31,338, Cleveland 101,265. Three hundred and eighty-five townships in Illinois, outside of Cook county, give Harrison 81,980, Cleveland 72,877, a Cleveland gain of 8,099. Four hundred and ninety-six precincts in Chicago give Pifer 68,425, Altgeld 90,998.

IOWA PILING THEM UP.

Australian Votes Being Put in Rapidly in the Hawkeye State. DAVENPORT, Ia., Nov. 8.—The day is perfect and a large vote is being cast, heavier up to noon than in any former year. There is no delay on account of the Australian system of voting, used here for the first time. The polls will remain open till 8 p. m. in city wards and the result will not be known until late.

MANHATTAN, Ia., Nov. 8.—The weather is beautiful and a large vote is being cast. Dubuque, Ia., Nov. 8.—It is clear and cool and the election is progressing slowly under the Australian system. It is probable a full vote will be cast, at least 40 per cent above that of the last presidential election. The heavy vote in this city will be valuable to the democratic congressional ticket.

CELANO RAPIDS, Ia., Nov. 8.—It is clear and a heavy vote is being cast. Ottumwa, Ia., Nov. 8.—The weather is perfect and the vote heavy. It is believed the democratic majority will be reduced.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Nov. 8.—The weather is fine and the vote heavy. The Australian ballot is satisfactory. Half of the registered vote was cast by 11 o'clock. Late last night the fusion ticket was struck by the democrats combining the names of Perkins, republican, for congress, and Wingland, democrat, for recorder, with the intent of handicapping Perkins with his party.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 8.—The weather is perfect and the vote large with indications that it will be the largest in the history of the city. Notices from different parts of the state indicate the same condition generally. The Australian ballot is proving a stumbling block to many.

Dubuque, Ia., Nov. 8.—All the factories closed this afternoon. At 2 p. m. 60 per cent of the registered vote was cast. A full vote will probably be polled.

Berlington, Ia., Nov. 8.—Over half of the vote of this city was polled at noon. The Australian system worked smoothly.

Indications are that the Eleventh district has given Harrison a majority and that Congressman Perkins has been re-elected by the republicans.

Four Demos. Ia., Nov. 8.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—From the meager returns received from fourteen counties of the Tenth district, the republican national and congressional tickets will have nearly 2,000 plurality in Webster county. The democrats probably elected Perkins, republican, and recorder by varying pluralities, while the republicans elect Kenyon county attorney and Clinton county clerk.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Nov. 9.—The count proceeds slowly. The indications are that the city goes republican on the national ticket, but the republican ticket will carry the ward by 300, a gain of 150. Perkins is probably elected to congress in this district over Campbell, fusionist.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 8.—The State Register claims Harrison will have a plurality of 15,000 in Iowa and the republicans also of eleven congressmen and the entire state ticket.

RESULTS IN COLORADO.

Latest Election Returns from the Centennial State. DENVER, Colo., Nov. 8.—The clear, cold weather has brought out an unusually heavy vote in the residence portions of the city, while the vote in the business sections is correspondingly light. Indications are that the republicans will have a small plurality of electors, while the state and county and legislative tickets will have from 3,000 to 5,000 plurality. The strong fight on Coe which was begun in the nominating convention is being carried into the polls, and the indications are that Peace, democrat and fusion candidate for congress, will carry Arapahoe county by a small majority, and that he will secure the seat in the legislature by republicans that Coe must have 3,000 majority in this county to be victorious.

The largest number of names literally registered there were a few who failed to vote, and these were promptly arrested by the deputy United States marshal.

Colonel W. H. Eady, chief of the republican state committee, claims Arapahoe county, with the exception of Coe for congress, by 5,000 majority. He thinks this will affect the people's party pluralities in other counties.

H. H. Eady, republican candidate for congress in the second district, claims he is elected by 3,000 to 4,000 plurality.

Chairman Arbuckle of the people's party democratic committee says Lake county returns 8,500 plurality for the fusion ticket, Crispie Creek, the new mining camp, estimates the populists' plurality at 1,200. Reports from ten other mining camps estimate populists' majorities at 1,000.

Chairman McKinley of the democratic state committee claims Maupin, democrat, for governor and the entire state ticket, has carried Las Animas county by 1,600, and gives the state to the people's party electors by 4,000 plurality and says there is a strong probability that the populists have elected both congressmen and have gained control of the state legislature.

An estimate of the precincts in Denver casting 844 votes show a plurality for Harrison of 47. In 1891 these same precincts gave Root, (republican), for governor 954. Highlands, a republican suburb of Denver, gives Harrison 85 plurality.

A telegram from Pueblo to Weaver headquarters says that that city gives the populists a plurality of 1,200. The Bell for congress, who will have 1,250 plurality, the entire county of Pueblo is also claimed for Weaver.

At 11 o'clock, with the exception of four precincts, no official returns have been received. In these, Harrison has shown a loss of 100 votes, while the state returns are equally slow in coming in, but the indications are that almost the entire Weaver ticket has been elected. No returns can be given tonight. The vote in the county on the Weaver ticket is White for governor, who appears to have run behind his ticket. The vote in the city is largely for the people's ticket throughout.

Thirteen out of 137 precincts in the city give Harrison 784, Weaver 1,000.

Hon. Thomas M. Patterson, editor of the Rocky Mountain News, and the leader of the people's party in Colorado, upon the request of the Associated Press, gave the following opinion on the results of the election in Colorado:

The indications are that Weaver has carried Colorado by not less than 8,000. Also that both fusion candidates for congress have been elected. I believe the entire fusion state ticket is successful. T. M. PATTERSON.

INDICATIONS IN INDIANA.

Slow Progress Being Made in Counting the Vote. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.—At the election held in Indiana today the four parties had electoral and state tickets in the field. The two minor parties also had candidates for congress in each district and a county ticket in nearly every county in the state. The state alternates periodically between the democrats and republicans, and is always doubtful. At present the presence of new and practically unmeasured quantities made the outcome the more perplexing and doubt the result. The republican ticket is very long and the work will be slow. It will probably be late, therefore, before there is anything tangible upon which to base an estimate. Should the result in the state be very close, as now seems probable, the result may not be known until tomorrow.

One precinct in Henry county gives Cleveland a gain of 10; one precinct in Benton county shows a democratic gain of 8. Five of 190 precincts in Indianapolis show a net republican gain of 186. Sixteen precincts give Harrison 1,571; Cleveland 1,304. Same precincts in 1890 gave Harrison 1,327; Matthews 1,345. Republican gain, 244; democratic gain, 52.

Thirty-five precincts in the city give Cleveland 3,762; Harrison 2,802.

At midnight the returns from Indiana were so few and scattering as to give almost no basis for calculation as to results. At midnight Chairman Dargatz of the democratic committee said: "I am satisfied that Indiana will be for Cleveland by 10,000. I have not changed my former opinion."

Republican Chairman Goddy was also seen by an Associated Press representative at midnight and said: "The returns are very meagre, but those received bear out the claim I made that Indiana will elect the republican electors and entire state ticket."

One hundred and twenty precincts in Indiana give Harrison 12,295; Cleveland, 11,343; net republican gain, 1,135.

Woman's Big Vote.

ELWOOD, Ind., Nov. 8.—The latest vote reported in this city was cast today. The day has been clear and cool. There has been no disturbance.

CLAIMING KANSAS.

Republicans and Populists Both Sanguine of Success. TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 8.—Partial returns from the Seventh congressional district, now represented by Jerry Simpson, indicate that he has been defeated for re-election. The city of Wichita, Newton, Wellington and Nickerson have given majorities for Long (republican).

Chairman Simpson of the republican state central committee at midnight claimed everything for the republicans. The Harrison electors, he said, would have at least 10,000 majority and the state ticket 30,000 majority. He claims also the election of a full republican congressional delegation.

Chairman Breidenbach of the people's party committee claimed the election of the Weaver ticket by 10,000 majority, but admitted defeat to the state ticket. He claims five out of eight congressmen.

Weaver returns from various counties indicate that the Weaver fusion ticket has been elected by a small majority, but that the fusion state ticket is defeated. The poll was very heavy, but not so large as was expected, many democrats refraining from voting. Those who did go to the polls generally voted the Weaver electoral ticket.

The indications as received here at 10 o'clock are that Jerry Simpson has been defeated for re-election to congress in the Seventh district by Long (republican). Returns from other congressional districts are too meager even for an estimate.

The republicans at the central committee's headquarters claim that the legislative ticket is in doubt, but admit that with the people's party and over the people's party will probably have a majority on joint ballot.

The indications at midnight still point to the election of the Weaver fusion electoral ticket and the defeat of the fusion state ticket. A dispatch from Wichita says that the returns from Sedwick county are still incomplete, but that the Weaver electors have a good majority. Lowell, the fusion candidate for governor, is running ahead of his ticket there, while Simpson is running behind it.

At this hour (2 p. m.) the republican state central committee makes the following estimate: That the republican national ticket will have 12,000 majority; the state ticket 10,000; that they have elected seven out of eight congressmen, the Sixth district being in doubt, and that they will have 27 out of 40 senators, and 55 out of 125 representatives in the state legislature. Curtis, republican, is elected to congress from his (the Fourth) district by about 3,000 majority. Simpson, in the Seventh, is doubtless defeated, the committee claiming the election of Long by a good majority.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 8.—Emporia gives Harrison 1,350 votes; Weaver, 700; Curtis, republican, for congress, 1,300; Wharton, fusionist, 700.

A dispatch from Independence, Kan., to the Capital states that Humphrey, republican, for congress, is elected by 500 majority. Hutchinson, Kan., Nov. 8.—Long, republican, for congress, has carried Reno county by a majority of 700 over Simpson.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 8.—Shawnee county gives the straight republican ticket a majority of about 2,000.

Chairman Breidenbach of the democratic state committee says that electors will have a majority in the state of 22,000; that Lowell, for governor, will have 17,000 majority, and that the democrats and populists will get seven congressmen.

AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

How President Harrison Received News of the Election. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8.—At this city, the official home of the president, the usual amount of interest was displayed in the result of the election. Large crowds congregated on Pennsylvania avenue to read the returns, where they were publicly displayed.

President Harrison received the returns at the white house. He remained in the circular library, surrounded by the members of his household now in the city, and by several members of the cabinet. These latter included Secretary J. W. Foster, Attorney General Miller and Secretary Tracy. The president and those with him were furnished with the press dispatches and the public telegraph companies. These were the only dispatches received.

After remaining with the president several hours, Secretary Foster and Attorney General Miller departed for their homes, leaving Secretary Tracy the only member of the cabinet with him. The president continued to receive the returns until after midnight.

HOW KENTUCKY WENT.

Democrats Claim the State by an Increased Majority. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—The democratic victory in Kentucky today was a most sweeping one. The weather was crisp and a heavy vote was polled. It is estimated that Cleveland will have 35,000 majority. In this, the Fifth district, Caruth, democrat, was re-elected to congress by 5,000 majority over Wilson, republican. In the second district, Ellis, democrat, was re-elected over Patten, populist, by about 2,000 majority. In the Eleventh district, Sims Adams, republican, defeated J. R. Fitzsiman, democrat, by about 3,000 a democratic gain of about 1,500. The successful candidates, all democrats, are

First district, Stone (re-elected); Third district, Goodnight (re-elected); Fourth district, Montgomery (re-elected); Sixth district, A. S. Berry, successor to Dickerson; Seventh district, Breckinridge (re-elected); Eighth district, William C. Creary (re-elected); Ninth district, Payner (re-elected); Tenth, M. B. Lisle, successor to Kendall.

From meager returns so far received Cleveland will have 65,000 plurality. The vote for Weaver is very light, almost insignificant in many counties.

DEMOCRATIC GEORGIA.

Even Tom Watson Gets a Bad Beating—Other Returns. AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 8.—Richmond county will give Black, democrat, nearly 9,000 majority over Tom Watson, of "Where-am-I-at" celebrity. Returns from other districts indicate the democrats will carry every district and that Georgia will send a solid democratic delegation to the next congress.

Third party candidates were run in every district. Speaker Crisp is re-elected by an increased majority. His delegation will stand: First district, Rufus E. Lester, (re-elected); Second, Benjamin E. Russell; Third, Charles F. Cross, (re-elected); Fourth, Charles L. Moses, (re-elected); Fifth, M. B. Livingston; Sixth, Thomas E. Cabiness; Seventh, W. Maddox; Eighth, Thomas G. Lawson; Ninth, Parson Carter; Tenth, J. C. Black; Eleventh, H. G. Turner.

Both members of the present congress from other districts now represent the Sevens and Eleventh. The present delegation stands nine democrats and Mr. Watson, who was elected as a democrat, but went over to the third party.

Cleveland carried the state by 50,000 majority. Solid democratic delegation to congress elected.

MIXED IN TEXAS.

Democrats Badly Divided in the State—A View of the Situation. AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 8.—The Lone Star state today voted for a governor and a full list of state officers, fifteen presidential electors, thirteen congressmen, and a legislature which will choose a United States senator to succeed Senator Mills. The democrats were badly divided. Governor James S. Hogg being the nominee of the so-called regular democracy and George Clark being the nominee of the independent, or bolting ticket. The independent democrats also had a ticket in the field. This ticket was endorsed by a portion of the republicans, though the republican party was not united.

The vote will probably not exceed that of 1888, when Cleveland's plurality was 182,000.

IN MASSACHUSETTS.

Large Registrations and a Heavy Vote throughout the State. BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 8.—A more glorious day for an election throughout New England, so far as atmospheric conditions are considered, could not have been desired. The effect of perfect weather and the soft, warm air of the Indian summer made itself manifest at the close of the day in the enormous vote polled up Massachusetts, it is safe to say, will poll the largest vote ever cast. Reports from New Hampshire and Connecticut also indicate a large vote, the result will be slow reported. In this city, though the polls opened at 6 a. m. and closed at 4 p. m., and though the tedious double count required last year was removed by the general court last winter, the reports at the city hall were slow in coming in, and much more tardy than last year, when the first precinct reported within twenty minutes after the polls had closed. The same slowness is characteristic of the whole state. The first twenty-two precincts of Boston show a net gain for Halle, republican, for governor, over Allen, republican, last year of 606. Russell's net gain over his own vote last year in the same precincts is 632. This shows a net republican gain of 24.

Thirty towns in Massachusetts give Cleveland, 5,987; Harrison, 7,633; Halle, 9,983; Russell, 6,249. Compared with 1888 this is a net democratic gain of 636, with 1891, a net republican gain of 122.

Ninety-two precincts in Boston give Russell a plurality of 6,018. Russell appears to be running ahead of Cleveland and Halle behind Harrison. Returns from the Tenth congressional district indicate the election of Russell independent democrat. The democrats claim Boston by a plurality of over 14,000 in the city as against 13,650 last year.

Ninety towns give Cleveland 10,006; Halle, 11,846. Compared with 1888 this is a net democratic gain of 771; with 1891, a net republican gain of 793.

WEST VIRGINIA'S RETURNS.

Great Republican Gains Made in Many Districts—Claims of the Democrats. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 8.—The election in this city and county today passed off very quietly with a full vote at every precinct. There was a great deal of scratching and it is doubtful at this hour if any returns will be brought in before 1 or 2 o'clock in the morning.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 8.—At midnight very little more is known about the election in West Virginia than when the polls closed. Not a single precinct has been heard from in Wheeling. Every county from which elector returns have been received since midnight show republican gains except in Kanawha, where there will be a loss of over 600. Chairman Daws of the republican state committee claims the election of the republican national and congressional tickets.

The democrats are confident they have elected their ticket, while the republicans are just as confident. The election in this state passed off quietly today. Weather clear and cold. A large vote has been polled and the indications are that the democrats have made large gains throughout the state, and it is safely democratic.

How They Voted in New Hampshire. CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 8.—Returns from ten towns and wards in New Hampshire give Harrison 1,437; Cleveland, 1,918; Higginson, 1,437; scattering, 12. Same towns in 1888 gave Harrison 1,400; Cleveland, 1,344; Fiske and scattering, 40. Republican net gain, 50. Governor returns from seven towns give Smith, republican, 648; McKinney, democrat, 647; Carr, prohibition, 20; scattering, 5. The same towns in 1891 gave Tuttle, republican, 636; Amodeo, democrat, 690; Carr, prohibition, and scattering, 31. Republican net gain, 68.

Indications at midnight are that the state is carried by Harrison by about 2,000, that there is no choice for governor by the people; that Stone and Parker, democrats, are elected to congress; that the legislature is republican in both branches.

POLICY OF PRICE.

The enormous quantity of goods sold by us during the past two months, has convinced us of the "wonderful power of price."

We have therefore decided to sell all our goods hereafter at one half our former margins, expecting the increase in sales will more than offset the decrease in profits.

We are daily receiving a complete new stock and all new goods placed on our floors will be marked at the lowest possible percentage of profits.

This policy of selling everything at a small profit with price as the leading feature, and maintaining a good quality of goods, will make our store more than ever before the most profitable place to buy furniture.

All goods marked in plain figures.
