12 PEARL STREET, COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA
Telephone No. 12
Night Office, No. 22

MINOR MENTION
N. Y. Plumbing Co.
Council Bluffs Lumber Co.

The democracy of Council Bluffs will join that of Omaha in a joint celebration tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pothart will celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of their marriage tomorrow at the school for the deaf.

On the 18-month old son of Mrs. Wilford 2127 avenue D died at 6 o'clock yesterday morning of spinal trouble, after an illness of two weeks.

Two new class B engines have been bought for the street cars by the Burlington road between Council Bluffs and Oreston. They were built at the Rogers Locomotive works.

Four car loads of candy made by Council Bluffs firms were shipped away in one day this week. About thirty tons are now employed regularly in this industry, besides a number of "specials."

Regular convocation of Star chapter No. 47, Royal Arcanum, this evening for work in the M. E. M. degree. All Royal Arcanum Masons in good standing are cordially invited.

Francis, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Morrow of Omaha, died at 10:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon very suddenly.

Jacob Gardner, who was arrested in Omaha several days ago, was tried before Justice Swearingen yesterday for stealing a lot of carpeting from the home of a club house. He pleaded guilty and was sent to the county jail for twenty days.

Paul Hirsch, who lives on upper Broadway, is confined to his home by a severe fracture of the ankle. In passing along the street he ran over a pile of earth which had been left by some grader without any light to warn passers-by, and was hurled out of his wagon, resulting in an injury which will keep him at home for several weeks.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to the following parties: Harry E. Brooks and Anna Lomis of Council Bluffs; Gerald J. Gerdes of Toledo, O., and Marie Kumberger of Omaha; Edward J. Blackman and Maggie Hayes of Omaha. The two last named couples were married by Justice Hammer.

S. McMullen, an old citizen of Pottawattamie county, was thrown from his wagon when driving near the corner of Broadway and Sixteenth street, and was badly injured. He was taken to the residence of his son-in-law, Albert Hirsch, 823 Avenue H, where it was found that one of his ribs was broken and he was suffering from a number of bruises about the face and head that were more or less serious.

A short session of the district court was held yesterday afternoon and the case of Alexander F. Hirsch, George H. Meschendorf was heard by Judge Smith. Hirsch asked for a divorce on the ground that his husband had been guilty of cruelty toward her, on occasion neglecting her, a chair and otherwise mistreating her. The defendant made no appearance, and a decree was granted her on default.

James Farley, who keeps a saloon on Main street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, has the distinction of being the only saloonkeeper in Council Bluffs who tried to keep his place open on election day. Or, at least, he was the only one that was caught. He was brought before Justice Swearingen yesterday for a trial found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs, or else spend five days in the county jail. He spent some time running up the city trying to floundersome into the hands of the sheriff, but to no avail, and along toward evening gave it up as a bad job and went to jail.

George W. Hewitt has gone to Franklin Grove, Ill., in response to a telegram announcing the death of a relative.

James H. Barnett, secretary and manager of Bloomgren Bros. & Co., of Chicago, was in the city yesterday on his way to the Pacific coast.

J. M. Marey of Kansas, who has lately invested in Council Bluffs property, has removed to this city, where his father, Mr. T. M. Marey, has long resided. Mr. Marey recently purchased what is known as the Rink property, corner of Fifth avenue and First street.

Captain and Mrs. D. B. Clark went to Harlan county last week to attend the funeral of Jacob T. Stern, an old settler, who died on Tuesday, aged 78 years. Mr. Stern came to Harlan county long before the railroad and has resided there ever since. He was a quaker and a most estimable citizen.

Fire Broadway and Corner of Benton Street. Our late loss by fire was covered by two policies, both in the COUNCIL BLUFFS INSURANCE COMPANY.

By 7 o'clock the next morning after the fire the secretary was on the ash heap, none in hand, ready to figure the loss down to bedrock, which he did, too, saying that it was his duty and not a small part of his business. So long as he did not go below bedrock we had no reason to complain, consequently the settlement was not only prompt, but in every way satisfactory, so much so that in addition to $9,200.00 (seven policies) carried by this company before the fire we now add to it $16,000.00.

Being intimately acquainted with the secretary and directors we cannot be persuaded that better indemnity can be obtained than that offered by our home company, besides we believe in patronizing worthy home enterprises, everything being equal, and unless we do we shall continue to be dependent on foreign capital and corporations.

G. R. WHEELER, JAS. A. HEROLD.

Instead of betting a hat on election wagers one of those handsome big-priced wine or brandy sets at Lund Bros.

Killed by a Horse. John Rankin, a well known farmer living in Grove township, was the victim of a fatal accident a few days ago.

Ten shares capital stock Citizens State bank for sale. E. H. Sheafe.

S. B. Powell, watchmaker, 740 1/2 way.

Don't forget that Swaine sells the Elmhurst stoves.

100 people in this city use gas stoves. The Gas Co. puts 'em in at once.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

How the Returns from Pottawattamie County Figure Up.

LIST OF THE FORTUNATE CANDIDATES

Close Vote for Nearly All the Leading Candidates—Democrats Charge One Another with Trading—Scratched Tickets Cast for Minor Officers.

The election returns are at last in from all of the precincts of Pottawattamie county, but the result as announced in yesterday's Bee is not materially changed. The late returns only go to emphasize the fact that it was a very close election, and to give the happy candidates a lesson in the art of hanging on to their positions. The following is the total number of votes received by each candidate, according to the figures on file in the office of County Attorney Headquarters:

Table listing candidates for President, Congressmen, Secretary of State, Attorney General, Judge of the District Court, County Auditor, County Supervisors, and Clerk of the District Court, with their respective vote counts.

Considerable heart feeling toward Marsh, democratic candidate for auditor, has resulted among the democrats from an investigation of the returns. It is the opinion of the friends of Marsh that he has a great many in the city, that his defeat was the result of his being traded off for Shepard, in the hope that Marsh might be elected in this manner.

Whether Marsh himself had any knowledge of this course they do not know, but they claim that appearances are somewhat deceptive. The fact that in this township, where Marsh lives, he ran thirty ahead of his ticket, while Rorer ran behind the same number, is pointed to by Rorer's friends as an indication that the trading took place.

A meeting of the county supervisors will be held next Monday, when the returns will be canvassed and the official tally made. At the same time the Board of Township Trustees will meet and canvass the returns from the township election.

Until the official count is made it will be impossible to ascertain who has been elected on the township ticket, from the fact that a great deal of scratching was done. Many of the tickets that were straight republican on all national, congressional, judicial and county votes were changed to democratic.
