William and the King of Saxony Quarrel About Him—Warned Against Eating Raw American Pork—Notes from the Fatherland.

[Copyrighted 1892 by New York Associated Press.] BERLIN, Nov. 19.—The Reichstag will open on Tuesday with the party groups in such a state of variance that it would be futile to attempt to predict how they will subsequently arrange themselves.

Whatever adverse criticism the army project may receive in the Reichstag, German bankers and members of the house are said to be fully covered by the bill.

Quarrel between monarch and emperor has been caused by the abrupt departure of the king of Saxony from Potsdam.

CAPRIVI IS ON TOP.

Bismarck's Successor Still Smart Enough to Hold His Position.

MELTZER HAS LEFT BERLIN FOR A TIME.

Not Exactly Expelled, But to Escape Unpleasant Personal Experiences.

LOCAL PAPERS DIFFER VERY BROADLY.

Some Sustain the Chancellor, While Others Criticize Him Severely.

PREPARING A PECULIAR SCRAP BOOK.

How Caprivi Manages to Keep Bismarck from Being Recalled—Some Clonks Still Hover Over the Army Bill—The Situation.

[Copyrighted 1892 by James Gordon Bennett.] BERLIN, Nov. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special Telegram to THE BEE.] It is bright, fine and cold, with light frosts.

What the Papers Are Printing.

The Boersen Courier is a notable example.

The Volks Zeitung slashes the government right and left, and after giving an impartial statement of Mr. Moltzer's case, concludes by remarking in reference to the offensive observations made by Herr von Kiderlenwacker about Prince Bismarck.

London Financial Review.

Business on the Stock Exchange Was Rather Quiet Yesterday.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to THE BEE.]—As usual on Saturday when many leading operators are absent, general business has been quiet on the Stock exchange.

CONSECRATED THEIR TEMPLE.

Moscow Jews Perform a Religious Ceremony Under Difficulties.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Moscow correspondent of the Daily News states that the Jews, after having obtained formal permission to erect a synagogue in that city, have found upon going to the place for the purpose of carrying out the ceremony the door sealed upon the door and sentries guarding the place.

RUSSIA'S BLACK OUTLOOK.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 19.—Count Tolstoy, in the Russian Gazette, has called attention to the continued miserable condition of the peasantry of Russia.

Chances for a Compromise.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—There is now a better prospect for the settlement of the cotton strike, owing to the discovery that the operatives are willing to consider the proposal for a temporary reduction of wages, concurrent with the closing of mills on short time.

Rejected the Amendment.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Times' Brussels correspondent states that the Belgium chamber has rejected by a vote of 89 to 81 M. Janssen's motion to insert in the 31st article of the royal decree a declaration favoring universal suffrage.

Colts' Sugar Crop.

HAVANA, Nov. 19.—According to Hulse & Co's statement the Cuban sugar crop will yield 974,736 tons.

GOOD NAMES GOING.

Fair French Reputations Blasted by the Great Panama Canal Scandals.

GREATEST MEN OF FRANCE ATTACKED.

No Place Too High to Escape Resmiring by the Accusers.

POLITICS AT THE BOTTOM OF ALL.

Probable Candidates for the Presidency Assailed by Others Who Aspire.

M. CONSTANS TAKING HIS VENGEANCE.

Deposed Minister of the Interior Getting Even with the Men Who Turned Him Out—Deplorable Juggling with the People's Fame.

[Copyrighted 1892 by James Gordon Bennett.] PARIS, Nov. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to THE BEE.]—With profound sorrow every Frenchman has noticed the turn affairs have taken in the Panama scandal.

DEFECTS IN THE MANTONMAH'S MACHINERY.

New York, Nov. 19.—A recent investigation of the machinery of the United States ship Mantonmah developed the fact that there is much faulty material in the heavier parts and that the engines are likely to collapse any day.

SAFELY IN PORT.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 19.—The steel steamer Pontiac and the schooner Glensia, which were feared to be lost on Lake Superior during the recent heavy storm, arrived safely.

RECOVERING FROM THEIR INJURIES.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 19.—The passengers who were injured by the South Park train being blown off the track yesterday, including about sixty miles from here, are all doing well. No one was fatally injured, but the following received severe bruises and con-
