All the Churches Join in Installing the New Baptist Minister,

INTERESTING EXERCISES CARRIED OUT Appropriate Program for the Occasion

Listened to by a Large Congregation- Rev. D. Hellings Delivers a Pointed Sermon.

The formal installation of Roy, J. H. Davis, the new pistor of the First Baptist church of Council Bluffs, took place yesterday afternoon. A special service was held at the caucch in the afternoon, which was attended by a large audience composed of members of nearly overy church organization in the city. After the usual opening exercises, which consisted of masic, invocation by Ray, W. C. Lavisk of the Bathany Baptist church, rotating of scriptures by Rev. H. H. Barton of the Trinity Methodist, prayer by Dr. Stephen Puelos of the First Presbyterian and an anthem by the choir, Hoy, W. P. Heilings, pastor of the First Explisi church of Olnaha, was introduced as the preacher of the installation sermon. It was Dr. Heilings' first apprarates before a Council Bluff's audience and he created a very favorable impression and his sermon received the closest attention from his audience. Ilis text was taken from Matthew xvi, 15: "fis saith unto them, whom say ye that I am?' He referred to the division of opinion among the people of the world as to who He was, and to the interest that had always been felt by Christ in finding out what people thought of Him and adapting Himself to their varying bellefs. In this ques-tion Christ was seaking not for an opicion, out for a conviction. Between these two things there is a creat dif-ference; opinion is a swallow that sams the surface of the lake, while conviction is a plummet that sinks to the bottom and rests on something. It was which that Christ was not so anxious about what the world, as what his followers thought of him. He could see faith and bathought of min. The conducted faith and os-lies resing from the eyes and heart of Poter as he replied to the question, "Thou art Christ, the son of the living God." Christ could then say, 'Upon this rock will build uy church." for he saw that he was enthraned in the hearts of his follower: Ho did not promise merely that the church should be able to hold its own against all opposition. but that the gates of hell should not be able to withstand the advances of the azzressive church which was built upon such a founda-

The intent of such a conviction as he found in his disciples was that they must have something besides speculative knowledge. Josus sought a knowledge upon which he could rely. His discules were a set of illit-erate men; the whole world must be con-quered; it seemed almost folly to say to such a band. "Go, preach my gospel to every creature," but they went out, secure on the promises he had made, and were triumphant everywhere, because they dld not rely upon human, but upon divine alliances.

Christ said he would give them the keys to the kingdom of heaven, but Christians to-day are in the hapit of thinking that that promise belongs to the Catholic church alone. The promise was not made to Peter alone, but to the church; and not to the church alone, but to all these who go out with the conviction that Christia the son of the living Gol.

At the close of the sermon Rev. T. F. Thickston made the installation prayer, Joseph Wells welcomed the new paster in the name of the church, and Rev. Stephen Phelps on behalf of the churches of the city. After a response by Rev. Mr. Davis the meeting adjourned. The exercises throughout were very interesting. Indications are that this church has entered upon a period of great prosperity. Mr. Davis brings to his work considerable experience and great ability, and the members of the church are united. The building has just come from the hands of the workmen, who have painted, papered and carpeted it and put in new windows, until it would hardly be recog-

His Dying Vagary. William Hunt died yesterday morning at 7:3J o'clock, aged 67 years, at his home, 709 Broadway. Some of the usighbors told some stories connected with the death that gave it a very sensational look, and the stories were at first believed by the memoers of the old man's family. Just before his death Mr. Hunt said that a man came into his room and gave him two powders out of blue pa-pers. Soon after he breathed his last, and the members of the formation of the start of the second the members of the family at once corcluded that the contents of the papers were poison, that had been administered with murderous intent by some unknown person. The coro-ner was notified and an investigation was make, when it was discovered that the dead man had been out of his head a great deal of the time of late and that he had continually been harcassed by the fear that some un known enemy was going to kill him. Its claimed that a man he had known years ago had disappeared after making some terrible had disappeared after making some terride threats against his life, and in his last sick-ness the idea that his enemy was about to return for the purpose of putting his threat into execution seemed to haunt him. The sensational features of the case were decided by those who investigated to have originated in the old man's imagination, and his death to have resulted from dropsy of the heart.

The deceased was a member of the Masonic frateralty. He leaves a wife and four childron. The fuseral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for chil-

A FICKLE WOMAN.

Au Iowa Romance With Little Real Merit. One of those interesting and peculiar ittle romances in real life has just come to light, says the Des Moines Register. It involves a Des Moines woman whose name was formerly Kittie Balliet, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Balliet, live at 718 Mul-berry street. Kittie was formerly a student of the Capital City Commercial college and was quite a belle in her set. All last summer she was courted by two lovers-Joe Wallace, a railroad man, and Waldo Jones, a messenger for the Adams Express company. It was nip and tuck between the two for some time, but the railroad man seemed to win the girl's mother's favor, and it looked rather squally for the express messenger. The railroader proposed and was accepted and lavished presents upon his lady love. They set their wedding day for the first day m October. A week before the event was to come off Jones calle 1 upon Miss Balliet and induced her to take a walk. They did so, and during the walk Jones induced her to marry him. He got a license from the county clerk, and they were married late at night by some minister in North Des Moines. Then she went home and told her folks and there was grief and lots of it. The girl said she was hypneozi td or something and did not want to marry

Jones, but still she went with him the next day to Linden. This was October While there she wrote to her mother saying that she did not love Jones, but that Wallace was the man of her choice.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA Tonight's Council Meeting Likely to Bo an Interesting Le sion. WILL DECIDE AN IMPORTANT OUESTION

Mayor Watters Not Inclined to See Things Run Without His Advice-Some of the Things to Be Considered.

There is every indication that tonight's council meeting will by a stormy one, and front seats will be taken early. There is a difference existing between Mayor Walters and a majority of the members of the council, which will crop out tonight, and an effort will be made to deter.nine which side bas the power to carry its point. The difference grows out of Mayor Wal-ter's determination to dispense with the services of the street commissioner during the winter mostus and the equally deter-mined opposition of some of the councilmen to such a move. The mayor's plan of re-tronchment did not end with dispensing with Mr. loblas, but extended so as to take in two or three other salaried officials, who are deputies in the city offices. The council-men are opposed to such a move, and claim that the services of these people cannot be dispensed with at the present time. But the mayor says they can, and there is the difference, which must be settled one way or another. Anotherpretty fight which is brewing is the election of a successor in the council from the Fourth ward to Mayor Wai ers. The mayor had a name to suggest to he council last Monday evening, but changed his mind when his other propositions did not

Walters has in his keeping is a secret, and will be presented to hight. The councilmen have been informed of whom the party is and the mayor was given a tip that the members of the council would copose the selection. The councilmen have no one in view to fill the mayor's unexpired term in the council, and there does not seem to be a very great rush for the place among the Fourth ward denizens. Mayor Walters will present his candidate and leave his fate to the councilmen, who say they have deter-mined to shelve the ambitions of the Fourth warder and elect some other person. Councilman Wood will be there with an abundance of figures, which he will present administration is an expensive one, wasting the city's money in a useless manner. Mr. Wood has taken from the records figures showing the expense of each department in the city for six months during the admin-istration of Mayor Sloane and six months of the present administration. There is fun ahead, and when the oppos-ing factions clash there will be a show of strength interesting to witness.

Died While Taking the "Cure."

Cornelius O'Leary died at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at a tocal gold cure institute. O'Leary was a continued morphine fiend and has been for years. 'He is about 50 years old and resides at Plattsmouth and is a watchman employed by the Burlington at the bridge crossing the Missouri river. He came to South Omaha upon the advice of a prominent physi-cian at Plattsmouth to take treat-ment for the morphine habit. He was a complete wreck from the use of morphine and the Plattsmouth doctor informed him that unless he was cured of the habit he would survive but a short time. He arrived here one week ago and placed himself under the care of a physician. The doctor had not commenced the treatment for the morphine habit, and was endeavoring to build up his patient to stand the treatment death came. A consultation was held Saturday and the conclusion was reached that Mr. O'Leary was suffering from a rupture in the stemach and that he could not live. Saturday Mr. O'Leary made a statument completely removing any blame from the institute in case of his death. He save that death was staring him in the face and he resolved to try and rid himself of the mor-phine nabit and thereby prolong life.

Industrial Thanksgiving.

Rev. Henry Delong has been doing a great work in this city during the past year for the girls and also for numbers of the adult péople. The Industrial School for Girls has been running successfully since the begin-ning of February. The average attendance has been about sixty. The mission has been running successfally every night during the cear without omission, with good results. Fifty-three people have been converted, clothing furnished to 418 poor persons. Re-ceived in cash $115.15 above necessary exenses. Subscriptions collected, $153.10. No outstanding debts. This has been a work of love with Mr. and Mrs. Delong, and to say they enjoy it does not express the pleasure they get out of it, and they hope to do better during the year they have now entered upor. Mr. Delong has for some time been planning to enlarge his sphere of usefulness, and to this end has arranged to give a gracd Thanksgiving dinner to those who otherwise would not get one. But he is very anxious to reach out after the boys of the city, and to make a beginning and to interest them, he intends inviting these street arabs to come and get a Thanksgiving feast at his mission room, "35 Broadway, in connection with the gtrls of his industrial school.
