SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE FOR 1893

IN making the customary preliminary announcements of the leading features for 1893, the publishers call attention to the number and character of the contributions which ensure above all the ENTERTAINING quality of its pages;

FRANCES HODGSON BURNETT will contribute the first serial to appear in a magazine in many years, entitled THE ONE I KNEW THE BEST OF ALL.

JERSEY STREET AND JERSEY LANE: URBAN AND SKETCHES. By H. C. BURNER. A series of six sketches of town and country life, in the most charming vein that is known to readers of his other works.

SEQUEL TO "THE REFLECTIONS OF A MARRIED MAN." BY ROBERT GRANT. The author relates the further adventures of the now well-known pair of married lovers, Fred and Josephine. Illustrated.

THE CUPPERHEAD. By HAROLD FREDERIC. A political novel of great power, which will run through at least five numbers.

THE DURKET SPERRET. By MISS S. B. ELLIOTT. A realistic story of life among the Tennessee mountaineers, shown in curious and striking contrast with the scholarly life of the little university at Sorocco—a juxtaposition which gives the key to the motive and plot.

PERSONAL REMINISCENCES. SOME UNPUBLISHED LETTERS OF CARLYLE TO EDWARD IRVING and others, dealing with a part of Carlyle's life far different from that brought out in the recent History of Carlyle Reminiscences, RECOLLECTIONS OF LINCOLN AND SUMNER, BY THE LATE MARQUIS DE CHAMBRUN. Both articles are full of new matter.

MEN'S OCCUPATIONS. A series of articles on the life work of men in various callings—the chief ways (exclusive of typical life of a machinist or worker in iron on its largest scale in great mills like those at Homestead; another the miner's everyday life, another the lumberman's, another the typical life of a merchant seaman, etc.)

THE WORLD'S FAIR IN CHICAGO. A series will be published later in the year giving the impressions made by the exhibition upon different observers of note, both American and foreign; and among these observers will be also artists who will illustrate their own articles.

AMONG MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES. To appear at the opening of the year may be mentioned the further contributions to the "Poor in Great Cities," Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett's illustrated paper on Home Aid to Invalid Children, etc.

THE ILLUSTRATIONS. A fac-simile of a water-color drawing by the French artist, Marchetti, which will appear in the Christmas number, marks an important departure from the usual methods of reproduction in magazine illustration.

TERMS: $3.00 a Year; 25c a Number. SPECIAL OFFER: 75c for a year and a subscription for 1893, for $1.50. The number, with back numbers bound in cloth, $1.00.
