MINOR MENTION.

K. Y. Fanning Co., Council Bluffs Lumber Co., Coal.

The Daughters of Veterans had a pleasant dancing party last evening.

Permit to wed was given yesterday to John W. Trend and Estelle E. Kough, both of Omaha.

The Union Pacific has commenced using the gas manufactured at the newly erected gas plant in this city.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Merrill will be held at 2 o'clock this morning from the First Baptist church.

Thomas Snipe and Dora Johnson, a colored couple from Omaha, were married by Justice Hammer yesterday.

Unty Grand Ball meet at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lewis, 1100 Grand Street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, instead of Friday.

The annual meeting of the St. Andrew society was held last evening at Knights of Pythias hall.

After 11 o'clock dancing was the order.

Mrs. Mary J. Cole returned yesterday from Spokane Falls, Wash., where she has been visiting her son. She will return home immediately with her sons at 611 Blue street.

Harry Delong, who was seriously injured some weeks ago on an Omaha motor, is recovering slowly, and is to be removed from the hospital in Omaha to his home in this city.

In the district court yesterday the case of Spomer against the city was still on trial. In this case the plaintiff seeks to get damages to property, corner of Seventh Avenue and Seventh street, caused by charge of grade.

The corner stone of the Grace Episcopal church was laid yesterday in an informal manner.

A copy of the "History of the members and of the church history, names of officers, etc., was deposited in the stone, but no extended ceremonies were indulged in.

The county auditor is to superintend the drawing of lots to determine as to the disposition of the old debts among the new assessors. Before this, however, it has always been arranged by a mutual agreement between the outgoing and incoming justices.

A meeting was held last evening in the Young Men's Christian Association room for the purpose of organizing a choral union, under the leadership of Prof. Torrens. But little time was given to the meeting, an organization and the meeting was adjourned until next Wednesday evening.

There was horrid war at the Kiel house yesterday. The waiters and cooks became involved in an all-around scrap which had its origin in the overwhelming desire on the part of the waiters to boss things. One of the waiters thought he was a right to boss as his fellow, and he ran across a glance. The other employee took sides, but the leader of the insurgents was immediately quelled by having one of his eyes blacked. The trial of the scoundrel was an affair of the man with the freedom of discharge.

Judge McIvee has discharged the young men, Nichols and Maxfield, who were charged with larceny. The questions involved were close, but the judge thought a little tempering of mercy would not be amiss. The trial was adjourned at 12 o'clock, to gather more of the facts in which the young men were interested as partners, and which had been attached to satisfy a personal debt of one of them. The other thought he could gather his half and let the other half stand, and hired his partner to help him. While thus engaged their arrest was made for larceny.

IN OTHER TIMES.

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

NEAT, SOFT, BUILDINGS.

Such is the unanimous verdict of all who have examined the numerous buildings of the well known architects, J. C. and W. Woodward. The buildings bear inspection and close investigation.

They are constructed by solid foundations, economical in price, attractive to external appearance, compact and convenient internal arrangements.

In fact, they stand the test externally, internally and eternally. Another point in which these architects are making for themselves a most excellent reputation is the reliability of their estimates.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Fate of an Idaho Man Who Met a Gentleman with Whiskers.

HE LOANED HIS MONEY TO A STRANGER

ANOTHER Verification of the Confidence Man's Adage—Mr. Butler's Condition.

Nature and His Peccary Laundry—How He Was Taken In.

George Butler, an Idaho Pass, Idaho, gentleman about 65 years of age, was on his way home from Wisconsin, where he had been visiting his son, and yesterday stopped off for a little while to look around Council Bluffs. On his rounds he came across a man with whiskers, who claimed to be from Idaho and craved the pleasure of traveling back home with Mr. Butler. The latter was glad to have company for the rest of the journey, and he agreed with the greatest of pleasure. They roamed around the city for awhile together, when the man with the whiskers said he intended to buy some whiskers to take home to the children. It was a way he had, and the children would be terribly disappointed if he didn't do it, but he hadn't a cent of money. Would Mr. Butler loan him some money and give a bill to go to Sergeant's, the old Phillips shoe store. NO FAKE OR FAIRCHILD CLOTHING SALES, but slightly first-class goods at lower prices than any shoe house in the city. Remember, Sergeant will not be undersold, 43 Broad Street.

CLEAN SHOES.

WHAT Sergeant Says.

I want to say to the people of Council Bluffs that when merchants have to resort to huckster sales and advertise to sell goods at loss than cost because they cannot compete with legitimate business, that I am strictly in it. We ought to make a profit, but if we cannot, I will retail good solid boots and shoes, the best makes, at less price than some dealers will charge. If you want something go to Sergeant's, the old Phillips shoe store.

A Golden Wedding.

A pleasant event took place last evening that was made the occasion of many hearty congratulations to one of the most estimable persons citizens and his wife. It was the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith and their pleasant home at 721 First Avenue was crowded with friends and relatives to assist them in celebrating the golden wedding. About fifty guests were present, all the children and many grandchildren. They were married in Ottumwa, Ia., and for more than thirty years they have been residents of Council Bluffs.

Many handsome presents were made, among other things $30 in gold coin. Both of the old people are half and hearty and give abundant promise of the enjoyment of many more years of peaceful and happy life.

A Sure Cure for Croup.

Farmers come fifteen miles to my store to get Chamberlain's cough remedy. Many of them, like myself, are never without it in their homes. It cured my boy of a severe attack of croup, and I have never since taken it.

D. T. Dalton, Larway, Russell County, Kansas.

This remedy is a certain cure for croup and, if used as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. For sale by druggists.

FUNERAL OF W. L. BIGGS.

The funeral of the late W. L. Biggs took place yesterday afternoon, services being conducted at the residence, corner of Seventh street and Savoyette avenue, by Rev. S. Alexander of the Second Presbyterian church. After the services at the house the remains were taken in charge of the members of the Council Bluffs Lodge No. 49, Knights of Pythias, and carried to the hall of the Knights of Pythias, where the funeral service was performed by the lodge. A large number of friends of the deceased were present.

IT IS THE BEST.

THAT IS WHY I RECOMMEND IT.

Chamberlain's cough remedy gives the best satisfaction of any cough medicine I have ever taken. It is the best medicine I have ever taken in this market. I recommend it because it is the next medicine I ever handled for coughs, colds and croup. A. W. Baldwin, Millerville, Ill.

SPECIAL MILITARY SAT.

For this week Miss Engels will have a sale of trimmed hats at $2 and $5. Now is the time to get a bargain.

Enterprise Place.

Being frequently urged to sell small portions of my farm, I have at last decided to plat 200 acres of Enterprise Place, familiarly known as the Scott farm, and to begin the sale at once in five and ten acre lots. I have placed the same in the hands of Greenshields, Nicholson &amp; Co., who will act in the interests of the exclusive agents, fruit growers, gardeners and those who want the conveniences of a city combined with all the advantages of the richest farming land are now given a rare opportunity to do so. M. Toff.

Their Regular Occupation.

Appearances indicate that a considerable proportion of the residents of the southern part of the city near the railway tracks eat on precarious livelihood by deviating from the railroads or the streets, or on the standing crops left in the cornfields.

A case is now pending before Judge Hammer in which the defendants are charged with the murder of corn field James Paxton.

A large lot of grain was found lying on the ground near the Waukon River about a day ago, it having been dropped there by the thieves who were frightened away by the police, who threatened to arrest them unless they would return the grain, the patrol wagon, Captain W. H. Jackson, who lives near the tracks, was arrested on the charge of larceny, a number of sacks of grain being found hidden in his house.
