ENVELOPED IN DEEP GLOOM. Salt Shipments Over the Missouri Pacific About Which Nothing is Known.

ANOTHER INTERSTATE CASE FAILS. Witnesses Battle the Grand Jury in Its Search for Information Concerning Some Shady Deals—Agent Kretschmer is Not Discouraged.

All day long yesterday the members of the federal grand jury were busy at finding out how much interested railroad men did know in a given space of time concerning transactions over the line on which they are employed.

The trouble was all about certain shipments of salt from the mines at Hutchinson, Kan., to the packers at South Omaha, aggrieved salt dealers setting up that the favored ones had succeeded in choking off competition completely.

Margaret Mather will open her season of three nights and a matinee at Boyd's new theater tonight. Outside the interest that always attaches itself to the coming of Miss Mather, or a star of her known ability, there is a flood of interest in this visit, as it marks her farewell to the Omaha local stage.

A favorite attraction in Omaha comes to Boyd's new theater next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights—Joseph Arthur's comedy drama, "The Still Alarm." The play is well known here and has always attracted favorable attention.

One of the clever shows of last season was the "Two Old Cronies," presented by the Anderson comedians. These artists will pay their annual visit, appearing at the Forum Street theater Sunday, December 4, giving a matinee and evening performance on that day, and remaining December 5, 6 and 7, with the usual matinee on Wednesday.

Not from a financial standpoint. "I do not recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy from a financial standpoint for we have others in stock on which we make a larger profit," says Al Maglin, a prominent druggist of Bradock, Pa.

Lumber dealers now set up that the Elkhorn, disorganizing the rights of Omaha in the matter, is discriminating in favor of St. Paul. The trouble is the result of the rate sheet issued on September 27, 1892, on which the rate from Chicago, the basing point to points in Nebraska east of Long Pine shows a differential of 4 cents.

WHEN YOU Can walk into a clothing store in broad day light—or in the evening if you prefer to—and plank down three common—every day—hard to get and easy to spend—American dollars with an eagle on one side and the "Lodoss of Giberty" on the other—and walk out—with a brand new overcoat on your back that belongs to you—fits you—looks well on you and feels "bully" on a cold day, is it any wonder that that clothing store can hardly handle the crowds as fast as they come? Say is it? It's a fact that you CAN GET a substantial heavy chinchilla overcoat of us today for three dollars; you can have it either single or double breasted—with velvet collar—sateen sleeve linings—heavy twilled lining and Canton flannel pockets; and—you'll be two dollars richer than if you bought it somewhere else. For a five dollar bill we offer you today

AN OVERCOAT that you never saw equalled for less than eight dollars in all your life. This coat is made of solid heavy chinchilla—cut extra long—lined with double-weight serge—sateen sleeve linings—velvet collar and double-stitched seams. If you'd rather buy an ulster than an overcoat,

FOR NOTHING is quite so comfortable on a cold day—we will sell you a great heavy chinchilla ulster—double breasted—cut good and long—lined with heavy plaid cassimere—for five dollars and seventy-five cents—or—we will sell you a grand frieze (not freeze) ulster—double-breasted—lined with heavy plaid flannel—for eight fifty—that's worth an even dozen dollars. If you want to buy one of those elegant overcoats that we're selling for nine dollars.

GET IT o day—they're going fast. They're in Kerseys—Chinchillas—Cassimeres—blacks—blues—browns—smokes—modes—tans—double-breasted—single-breasted—plain linings—plaid linings—flannel linings—cassimere linings—velvet collars—self collars—full satin sleeve linings—fourteen-dollar garments at a nine-dollar price.
