NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Parson Carter Thinks He Might Have Bluffed the District Court.

HE CHANGED HIS MIND JUST IN TIME

Slight Flavor of Sensation Added to the Meschendorf Trial Now in Progress Before Judge Smith—Evidence Introduced Yesterday.

Dr. A. H. Carter, pastor of the Christian church of this city, had a little brush with Judge Smith of the district court yesterday afternoon...

The Meschendorf meat case was on trial in the testimony of F. M. Scanlan, one of the defendants. He was kept on the stand the greater part of the day...

Some interesting things were brought out in the testimony of F. M. Scanlan, one of the defendants. He was kept on the stand the greater part of the day...

His testimony was that he bought some meat at Meschendorf's one time, and was unable to carry it home on account of the smell. He carried it a little way, ran across a strange dog that he thought looked as though it wanted the meat worse than he did, and gave it to him.

THE RELIGIOUS WAR.

OMAHA, Dec. 5.—To the Editor of THE BEE: Under the above heading in your issue of yesterday's date appears a letter from Mr. R. W. Blackburn...

As in several instances the statements made by him are erroneous and entirely without foundation, I for one, cannot allow his letter to go unanswered.

In the first place, I beg to differ with him as to there being any unreasonable warfare or unwarranted persecution waged against Roman Catholic citizens as individuals.

Bonner's New Sulky. Mr. Robert Bonner, owner of Maud S, had delivered at his farm in Tarrytown a pneumatic sulky which the inventor claims is about two seconds faster than any other sulky ever built.

The sulky weighs just forty-six pounds. The most noticeable peculiarity about it is the pointed shaft, which does away with what is professionally known as "horse motion."
