

TWO SUNDAYS THIS WEEK

Mills Meeting Managers Arranging for an Extra Session on Wednesday.

MANY BUSINESS HOUSES TO BE CLOSED

Merchants Agree to Give Their Employees a Special Opportunity to Hear the Evangelist—His Sermon to Men and His Talk to Boys.

More than 1,000 men listened to Evangelist Mills yesterday morning at Exposition hall. The service was intended exclusively for men, not because Mr. Mills wanted to say anything that could not be properly said in the presence of boys or women, but because he wanted to preach a sermon that could be applied directly to the lives of grown men.

Mr. Mills had had not met an audience that made him feel more glad than this of late. He said he had two things he wanted the boys to understand at the outset. One was that all the boys must stay until the meeting was over. He said that they must not talk during the sermon, if any of the boys wanted to sleep during the sermon they could do so, but they must not try to go out or talk until he gave them permission.

Mr. Mills took occasion to speak of the Wednesday meeting and the proposed closing of places of business. He said he wanted to congratulate the people of Omaha upon the hearty response to the request to close.

There are scores and scores who will gladly sign if I believe as soon as they have a chance. The idea is to have the business houses closed for a few hours on Wednesday, to give the employees and their families a chance to spend a short time in a religious service, free from the thought that they are taking the time of their employers.

Mr. Hillis sang, "Why do You Wait a Convenient Day?" and Mr. Mills began his sermon to men. His text was Deuteronomy xxx, 19: "Call heaven and earth to record this day against you that I have chosen you; and that you should know that I have chosen you; therefore choose life that both thou and thy seed may live."

This was one of the closing addresses of Moses to the people of Israel. He had been a great statesman, a philosopher and a poet, one of the greatest leaders of men the world ever saw. He was about to die, and he therefore chose life that both thou and thy seed may live.

Mr. Hillis sang, "Have Courage My Boy to Stay," and then he turned to the boys. He said that he had two things he wanted the boys to understand at the outset. One was that all the boys must stay until the meeting was over.

KING MACK WILL STAY HERE

He Succeeds in Getting a Vote to Continue His Revival Services.

SOME DISSENSION IN HIS CONGREGATION

Three Attempts at a Vote Finally Lands a Majority—The Preacher Defends His Course and His Personal Record.

Probably 150 people were at Zion Baptist church, Twenty-third and Grant streets, last evening to attend Evangelist King Mack's revival. The interest in the colored evangelist could have wished for.

August Benson Buried. The remains of the late August Benson were laid to rest yesterday afternoon in Forest Lawn cemetery. The funeral services were conducted at 1:30 o'clock at the residence of the deceased's sister, Miss Anna Benson, 1313 North Seventeenth street.

Pears' Soap

People have no idea how crude and cruel soap can be. It takes off dirt. So far, so good; but what else does it do?

It cuts the skin and frets the under-skin; makes redness and roughness and leads to worse. Not soap, but the alkali in it. Pears' Soap has no free alkali in it. It neither reddens nor roughens the skin.

All sorts of stores sell it, especially druggists; all sorts of people use it. Cleanliness is next to Godliness.

How to Cure Freckles IN 3 DAYS. MME. M. YALE'S LA FRECKLA WILL DO IT.

Since the beginning of the world, pretty faces have been spoiled with freckles and the most beautiful complexion hidden up by these unsightly blemishes.

Accident on the motor lines at Sixteenth and Webster streets yesterday afternoon broke the platforms of two cars but did not do any other damage beyond shaking up the passengers on the two trains.

Mr. Mack then delivered his sermon, which was quite lengthy. His sermons are not written, and he took occasion to suggest that manuscripts in the pulpit are a curse and that he would like to see the pulpit emptied of them.

who are good dressers—who appreciate really fine clothing—who enjoy wearing garments that fit and hang on a man as if they belong to him—are invited to step into "The Nebraskas" suit department today and inspect the elegant new Line of fine suits designed especially for the holiday trade.

Here are the ever popular sack—the dressy cutaway—the single-breasted square cut—the stately Prince Albert—double-breasted square cuts, did you ask? Well, we smile. We are showing a line of these fashionable suits in chevots—bedford cords—cassimeres and homespuns—in foreign and domestic weaves—that for style—tone—and variety of patterns would be hard to match at any exclusive merchant tailoring establishment.

We show them in blacks—blues—browns—grays—tobacco—slate—fancy mixtures; in large and small plaids—checks—cords—stripes—plain colors; with binding and without. Thirteen fifty for an elegant bedford cord chevot is a fair sample price. If you want a suit to DRESS UP in—here's the always correct cutaway in worsted, in clay and corkscrew—cheviots, plain and fancy—cassimeres, all wool and silk and wool; cutaways in black and dark rich colors; in stripes—plaids—checks—mixtures; a line of goods designed by some of the most noted makers of fine clothing—at such prices as fourteen fifty for a genuine clay worsted—fourteen, seventy-five for an imported chevot, and so on. If you want to buy a handsome suit for father—for husband—for one of the boys now's the time to buy it—while there's lots to pick from—plenty of suits—plenty of sizes. Our line of sack suits in fine goods was never in better condition to select from. All the popular fabrics—made up with some little extra attention as regards linings and workmanship—with prices from four to six dollars less than you'd expect them to be for such suits.
