

FORGED HIS FATHER'S NAME

C. J. Carleton of Oakland Arrested on a Serious Charge.

CAPTURED WHILE LEAVING THE COUNTRY

Several Hundred Dollars Seized on Worthless Notes - Patrons of Husbandry in Session at Kearney - Other News.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—About 4 p. m. C. J. Carleton, son of A. Carleton, a farmer living near Oakland, entered the First National bank here and asked the cashier, C. K. Cull, if he could get a loan, stating that he would give a lot of good notes for collateral.

Mr. Cull looking over the notes noticed that they were negotiable notes amounting to a little over $2,500 and were signed by A. Carleton, his father. The cashier knowing that the young man had always been straightforward and honest advised him to take the money. Shortly after he had left the bank the cashier again examined the notes and having A. Carleton's signature, compared the signature on the notes with the original and discovered at once that the whole lot was forged. To make certain he sent a messenger to Carleton, who returned stating that the father did not sign the notes, and that he was issued at once and the forger was arrested at Craig, Neb., where he intended to take the train. The prisoner was taken to Tekamah.

Mr. Carleton came to Omaha and was arrested by Officer Harvey and taken to the city jail. When searched $200 was found on his person. Sergeant Gray, assistant city engineer, and looking for more money, but nothing was found. Carleton told the police that his father had given him the money to sell and the notes were issued at once and the forger was arrested at Craig, Neb., where he intended to take the train. The prisoner was taken to Tekamah.

Patrons of Husbandry. KEARNEY, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—The Patrons of Husbandry of Nebraska, in session here, did no business of any consequence today.

Creased by Adversity. INDIANOLA, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special to THE BEE.)—This morning about daylight John Fisher, living seven miles southeast of Indianola, hanged himself in his granary. He had eaten his breakfast and his wife asked him if he was going to town. He replied, "Yes, as soon as I have fed the colts." He was looking for a handkerchief at the time and as soon as he got it, started for the granary, as his wife supposed to get the colts for the colts. He did not return in an hour and his wife started to the stables to find him. On opening the granary door she found him hanging within, with the handkerchief around his neck and a small rope fastened to it. His little boy, about 12 years old, got a knife and cut him down. He was dead, having apparently slowly strangled to death. He was somewhat in debt and his crops not being large he was afraid that his property would be sold.

Injured by Exploding Gas. DONIPH, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—Harry Wilson, who was to have given a stereopticon entertainment here this evening for the benefit of the Congregational church, met with a very peculiar but distressing accident this afternoon. While at home generating gas for the occasion, the machine exploded with fearful results. Mr. Wilson may live, though horribly mangled. One hand is almost cut off and his face was badly torn during the month of his injury. The upper teeth knocked out. The whole interior of the building was blown out by the explosion, the report of which was heard all over town.

Sutton Grand Army Officers. SUTTON, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special to THE BEE.)—The Grand Army of the Republic post of Sutton selected the following officers last evening: Philip Schwab, post grand commander; M. Tassinier, senior vice commander; G. R. Davy, junior vice commander; Dr. Clark, surgeon; J. M. Clark, quartermaster; C. Newton, chaplain; W. H. Smith, officer of the day; George Reitzel, officer of the guard; Marcus Wellenburg, W. M. Smith, delegates to department encampment.

Heatrice Bonds Sold. BEATRICE, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—The city council today sold the $8,073 paving and curbing bonds for district No. 11 to Spitzer & Co. of Toledo, O., at par. The council also passed an ordinance calling for a special election for January 24, 1915, to vote on the proposition to issue $20,000 interest-bearing bonds for new paving districts.

Working Among Railroad Men. NORFOLK, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—A series of meetings in the interest of railway men was begun here tonight in the railway employes hall, conducted by Mrs. Woodward of Seward, international superintendent of work among railway men for the Western Christian Temperance union. A good audience was present.

Interested in Garnishee Cases. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—George F. Cain of Council Bluffs was arrested here this afternoon on the charge of aiding and abetting in recent garnishee cases. He was taken down from Council Bluffs as a special officer to serve some papers here. Cain gave bonds to appear here next Monday.

Manufacturing Nebraska Twine. FREMONT, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special to THE BEE.)—The Nebraska Twine company will commence to manufacture twine next Monday and will manufacture about 4,000 pounds a day from that time until next fall. The crop raised this year is larger and of a better quality than those of previous years.

Adams County Old Settlers. JUNIATA, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special to THE BEE.)—Quite a large number of old settlers and their families were present at the meeting held here yesterday. The interesting program prepared was well carried out, especially that part of it that related to dinner. Many interesting reminiscences of early times were related.

Nebraska's Death Roll. CAMBRIDGE, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—Mrs. Bartlett, wife of W. H. Bartlett, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants bank, died at her home in this city this morning.

BEGINS TODAY. Taking of Testimony in the Contest Over the Douglas County Election. This morning the contest of the Douglas county legislative election will commence in earnest. Testimony will be taken on the third floor of the Ware block at Fifteenth and Farnam. The contestants will be Messrs. T. J. Mahoney, C. J. Smyth, J. B. Sheehan and S. H. Rush, while their notary will be W. F. Wappich, and their stenographer L. L. Babb. The attorney for the contestants will be Messrs. J. H. Blair, J. H. Van Dusen, E. M. Bartlett and J. W. Carr. H. L. Day will act as their notary, and H. M. Waring will take a stenographic report of the testimony.

In speaking of the case Judge Blair, who was one of the attorneys in the Boyd-Thayer case, said there was a hole in the notice of contest through which a record of the entire vote of the Tenth representative district might creep into the proceedings. This hole would be in the notice of contest, as it would bring about an examination of results in the democratic stronghold of which no mention had been made in the notice of contest.

Mr. Smyth said there was no desire on the part of the contestants to make a showing they could not go before a jury on and win. He believed that it was necessary, and says that gigantic frauds will be shown.

It is reported that one of the contestants was approached and told that if he would vote as a democrat for the senate the contest against him would be dropped. The offer was not accepted.

OMAHA'S OYSTER MARKET.

Inside Facts Explaining the Reason for the Prevailing Low Prices.

Omaha has distanced all other western cities as an oyster market, not only because of its location as a distributing point, but principally because of the fact that oysters are sold 7 to 10c per can cheaper here than in other cities. It has been stated by the oyster men that the reason for this is a war among the wholesale oyster houses, but the causes leading up to this war and the real facts have not been made public before and may be of interest to the trade.

It seems that the oyster business has become a great monopoly and is controlled by two or three large Baltimore houses that combine and control the entire oyster distributing points in the United States. The smaller houses are forced to join the combine or retire from business.

At the commencement of the present season the combine issued its manifesto in Omaha, stating that must or must not be done. There was one oyster house in Omaha that of Branch & Co. that refused to join the combine. This house announced that it did not believe in cutting prices, but that it wished to sell at liberty to sell at such prices as it considered would yield a fair profit. Such independence of action was not to be tolerated and the combine cut prices below cost, besides using the cheapest and poorest stock, and carried on the bitterest kind of a war. Branch & Co., however, proved too strong to be downed by the combine, and still has its own independent business. Present prices on oysters, though so much lower here than at other markets, appear to be satisfactory to Branch & Co., as they have announced that they do not now advance them, although prices at Baltimore go up 10c per gallon today.

As a result of the low prices the consumption of oysters has been enormously increased in all the territory tributary to this city. Shipments are made from here to Chicago, St. Louis, St. Paul, and other western points as well as to Nebraska points. Trade has even been diverted from Chicago, Iowa buying largely of Omaha.

The oyster men here have formed to fight the strongest kind of a combine, they did not resort to the use of inferior stock, but kept up the quality of their oysters to the usual high standard. As a result, the firm has really been a benefit to this firm, as it has made them many new friends and customers. While the price of oysters was brought on the combine, the price of the season, a good many retail dealers appear to have only recently learned of the cut, and a good many are still carrying on the idea that the war is not a short-lived affair.

Everybody eats oysters. Dealers can buy N. Y. Counts per can, 55c. Extra Selects per can, 25c. Favorites per can, 13c. Also bulk Standards, solid meats, if wanted, and celery from 25c to 45c per bunch. Send your Christmas orders at once to David Cole & Co., "The Anti-Monopoly Oyster House." Goods the very best. FATHER AGAINST SON.

Two Members of the Patrick Family Who Wanted the Dundee Motor.

Yesterday Deputy Sheriff Lewis stood at the east door of the court house and sold at public auction a street railroad that has been the subject of a good deal of literary effort, legal and otherwise. It was the line in Dundee Place, which has been followed by a fate of the most interesting sort since its inception. Right at the start was a dispute with the constructing engineer, which is now pending in some form in the courts, involving a claim to several thousand dollars, the awarding of the contract to the lucky bidder sent to Germany for his material wherewith to construct the track, and the first shipment of it to his father. By the terms of the contract the contractor had to be paid for some $80,000, leaving the line uncompleted. The owners of Dundee Place, Kansas City and New York capitalists, went ahead and finished the line so that it could be used for horse cars, and subsequently converted it into an electric line. But the drain of maintaining the line—the passengers being carried free of charge—proved too much, and the sale came off as advertised by the sheriff.

R. W. Patrick started the bidding with an offer of $10,000, which sum was doubled by his father. By the time the sale was over and bid $25,000 and this was raised by the father to $30,000. For a moment the son hesitated, and then he ended the game and took the road on an offer of $40,000.

Not from a Financial Standpoint. "I do not recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy from a financial standpoint, for we have others in stock on which we make a larger profit," says Al Maggini, a prominent druggist of Brookside, Pa., "but because many of our customers have spoken of it in the highest praise. We sell more of it than any similar preparation we have in the store." For sale by druggists.

WILLIAM ROSE RELEASED

He Was Not Guilty of Robbing the Emerald Postoffice.

EASILY ESTABLISHED AN ALIBI

Friends of the Accused Located Him Eight Miles from the Scene of the Crime at the Time It Was Perpetrated.

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special of THE BEE.)—William Rose, one of the men charged with the robbery of the Emerald postoffice one week ago last Saturday night, was released on bail by United States Commissioner Billingsley this forenoon. The case against him and his associate, Wesley Johns, came up again before Commissioner Billingsley this forenoon, but the further examination of witnesses was not pursued on account of the absence of Assistant United States Attorney Baldrige. J. D. Philpott who appeared for Rose, asked for the release of his client on the grounds that no evidence had been adduced to show that he was in any way connected with the robbery. Judge Carr of Benkleman, who also appeared for Rose, argued in favor of the release of his client, stating that the defense had shown by one of the government's own witnesses that on the night of the robbery Rose had been seen at a friend's residence eight miles away from the scene of the crime was committed. Commissioner Billingsley then discharged Rose from custody, so far as the accusation of being implicated in the robbery was concerned, but held him as a witness and compelled him to furnish bail for his appearance when required, in the sum of $200. The case against Rose, who was telegraphed to arrest the man. This was done yesterday afternoon. Sheriff Boyd of Topeka arrived in the city after the arrest was made and took Cope back to the scene of his offense on the 9 o'clock train.

Major Weir Intervenes. The fact that Mayor Weir has vetoed the contract let by the Board of Public Works to F. C. Sholes for the erection of the new standpipes will not prevent the construction of the city's water works system. Mayor Weir has his veto upon the grounds that the contract was improperly let and that several responsible parties were not enabled to bid on the work. He believes from $1,000 to $2,000 can be saved by a reawarding of the contract.

Inasmuch as the condition of the weather is likely to prevent work in the proposed improvement for some time, it is believed that there is no particular hurry about the matter. In the meantime, another important question has arisen, and that is, will not the city be liable for a contract made after the Board of Public Works has accepted a bid and the papers properly drawn up and signed? The whole matter has been referred to the city attorney.

Heard in Lincoln Court Rooms. In the case of Hale against the Union Pacific Railway company, the plaintiff was today awarded judgment for $3,500. The defendant company neglected to comply with the order relating to returning wheels at crossings. The law imposes a penalty of $50 for each time the wheels failed to sound. Hale proved to the satisfaction of the court that the railroad company neglected to comply with the law seventy-six times.

Samuel Henry commences suit against the city of Lincoln for $1,000. The suit is for an open ditch at Sixth and F streets and claims that he was injured to that extent.

The forenoon in Judge Tuttle's court was taken up with the arguments in the Dole-Stratton breach of promise case. Assistant secretary of the United States treasury suggested that the contract be awarded during the greater part of the forenoon session.

Frank Cope Willing to Face His Topeka Forgery Victims.

Frank Cope, a young man who is urgently wanted in Topeka, Kan., for having indiscreetly and rather promiscuously signed other people's names for checks, met Sheriff Boyd of that place in Omaha yesterday afternoon, and after a brief conversation decided to return to the Kansas capital without resistance. Cope, while in Topeka, raised something like $50 on fraudulent checks, it was reported, and then fled. A warrant was sworn out against him charging him with forgery and obtaining money under false pretenses. His victims, however, did not press where to look for him. Cope came to this city and got a job in a commission house on Tenth street, between Farnam and Harney. This was finally discovered and Sheriff Bennett was telegraphed to arrest the man. This was done yesterday afternoon. Sheriff Boyd of Topeka arrived in the city after the arrest was made and took Cope back to the scene of his offense on the 9 o'clock train.

The officers of the World's Fair estimate that the daily admissions to the Fair will rise above 200,000 people. Our capacity for carrying passengers in our Electric Cars in making excursions and descents of the TOWER is 12,000 people per hour, and we confidently count on 10,000 per hour. This will be found a moderate estimate when due regard is had to the attractiveness of the TOWER and the RARE experience afforded by a trip to the top.

The TOWER is located opposite the WOMAN'S BUILDING, at the Eastern Entrance of the MIDWAY PLAISANCE in the WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS. Each person, in making the ascent and descent of the TOWER, gains a view of the entire EXPOSITION BUILDINGS.

The TOWER is over 563 feet high and 210 feet in diameter. It requires nine complete turns to reach the top, the grade being eight per cent, a ride of two miles in making the ascent and descent; consequently, nine different pictures are observed of the WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS as the ascent is made. A view from the OBSERVATORY FLOOR, not only gives the vast panorama at your feet, but also gives the geographical position of the WORLD'S FAIR BUILDINGS, so that after making the ascent of the TOWER any person can go unguided from building to building.

It is the intention to have two FULL BANDS on the OBSERVATORY FLOOR—a BRASS BAND and a COMPLETE STRING ORCHESTRA—which will play alternately from the opening of the FAIR in the morning until
