MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing Co. Council Bluffs Lumber Co. Coed.

The school board will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening.

Miss Grace Denning entertained a party of her friends at a "crazy walk" last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stewart have issued invitations for a dancing party on Friday evening, December 20, at the Grand hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Thornton have issued invitations for a reception next Thursday at their home, 1234 North 24th street.

James L. Paxton has received the appointment of assistant general manager of the Council Bluffs branch of the National Bank of Omaha.

May Chafford, from Omaha, filed an application in the county court for a writ of habeas corpus.

A number of young people enjoyed a holiday party last Thursday evening.

Special arrangements were made by the management of the Grand hotel for the entertainment of their guests last evening.

The dinner which was given at the Grand hotel last evening was a success.

There is a good prospect that the criminal case against J. P. Kimball and George H. Champ will be decided in the near future.

As already stated, a motion picture will be shown in the district court by the county attorney.

The investment company, which had been incorporated to come to Council Bluffs to present the case for the defense, has filed a petition with the court to dissolve the company.

As delicious as Cudahy's "Box Brand" is a by-word among ladies in buying beef steaks. Ask your grocer for "Box."

No doubt the most complete stock of fine holiday novelties is at Davis', the leading druggist and perfumery.

See our line of ladies' all silk handkerchiefs, handsomely silk embroidered, at 12c each. Boston store.

Come and see our cheap holiday goods at Mrs. Pfeiffer's lower store, No. 341 Broadway.

A fine line of holiday goods, juvenile books, choice perfumery and fancy articles of all kinds at Dell G. Morgan & Co.'s drug store, 712 Lower Broadway.

Four Books, Etc. Our second issue, a perfect paradise for everything that can be thought of in the toy, book and fancy goods line.

A visit will prove to you that the Boston Store is the place to buy your Christmas presents, where a dollar will go one-half further than anywhere else.

That is the most of us are looking for at this critical moment. We all want to get the most and best for the money possible. The Boston Store is the place, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Paul Schneider, the druggist, has the newest novelties in celluloid and aluminum goods for the holidays.

No one carries the lines, and they are the handsomest things you ever saw.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPH. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Squires are in Chicago.

Mrs. J. W. Chapman is visiting relatives at Plattsmouth, Neb.

Mrs. Everett returned Saturday from an extended European trip.

J. L. Peyton left last evening for Missouri, where he will visit his former home.

C. E. Parsons has gone to New York to spend the holidays visiting his brother, I. P. Parsons.

Charles D. Parnell, traveling salesman for M. E. Smith & Co. of Omaha, is lying at his home, 911 Second avenue, very ill.

He was attacked with pneumonia last week while at Fremont and had to be brought back to his home. What the outcome will be cannot be told now, but his condition is considered.

From Newberg. C. E. Moore & Co., prominent druggists of Newberg, Ore., say: "Since our customers have become acquainted with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, we sell but little of any other kind. Chamberlain's medicines all give good satisfaction." For sale by druggists.

L. P. Judson, civil engineer, 28 B way. Special Christmas cutlery sale on Cole's clean clipper pocket knives, razors and shears. Cole's, 41 Main street.

Brighter than gas, cheaper than electricity and as beautiful as a dream—those new art lamps at Lund Bros.

Coal and wood, best and cheapest Missouri hard wood in the city, prompt delivery. H. A. Cox, No. 4 Main.

Evans' Shoe Sale. It is still raining, and will continue until the removal of the new building after January 1. Nothing has been said in the papers about it for the past few days, just simply for the reason that everybody connected with the store has been too busy selling goods to write advertisements. During this week, however, facilities for handling the crowds, more promptness in filling mail orders, and better opportunities will be given all around for getting the better bargains that will make the week one to be remembered.

It is getting mighty close to Christmas and one of the special features of the week will be the slaughter of slippers and holiday footwear. This is an immense new line, and we will put it forward for a winner this week. The lady that cannot find a pair of slippers to suit her fancy and her husband's needs will be impossible to please, and the price—well, that will be the chief cause of surprise.

Gentlemen, the finest line of fall goods in the city, just received. Better, the tailor, 310 Broadway.

Given away with $2.00 purchase—a nice Christmas present. J. J. Maurath & Co., boots and shoes, 533 Broadway.

See those oil heaters at Swaine's, 737 Broadway.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

EVANGELICAL WORK OF THE CITY MISSION

Daily Meetings Held for the Last Year and More than a Hundred Straying Souls Brought to the Light and Light Again.

The announcement made in THE BEE that Santa Claus had traded his team of reindeer for a span of Shetland ponies and would be at the Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Friday evening, ready to meet his friends and deliver Christmas packages, drew an immense concourse.

The assemblage of people, old and young, gathered to greet him and see what kind of a trade he made filled the street, as is usual when any extraordinary event transpires there. He arrived at the store early in the evening and entered by one of the rear doors. He made good his announcement that he would make his headquarters at the Boston Store, and audaciously drove his team right down one of the main aisles. It was a beautiful team, and the old man was delighted with his trade. His good humor was infectious, and the crowds that filled the store and the street yelled with delight. He held his levee until nearly 10 o'clock, and made the acquaintance of thousands of people, showed them his goods, and assured them that he would make the Boston store this year the greatest place in the country.

Every imaginable kind of fur to be had at the Boston store. Furs flying thick and fast last week.

This week we intend to keep them flying. See our prices:

Hair muffs, 35c, 50c and 75c. Blackoney, $1.00 to $2.00. French seal, $1.75 to $3.00. Astrachan muffs, $1.00 to $6.00. Opasman muffs, $1.75. Seal muffs, $2.75 to $10.00. Beaver, from $7.25 to $12.00. Real seal, $1.75 to $2.00. Children's sets, Chinese fox, $1.50; tiger sets, $1.75; chinchilla sets, $1.75; Thibet sets, $2.75; angora sets, white and colored, $2.75 to $5.00. All kinds of furs in capes, hoods, collars and trimmings at our low prices. BOSTON STORE, Council Bluffs.

Handkerchiefs. We were always headquarters for handkerchiefs, but this year more than ever, having received up to the present time 4,500 dozen handkerchiefs, including our two large importations of drawers from St. Paul and Lewing, Ireland. Silk handkerchiefs, embroidered silk in cream and tints, special at 12c.

Special 200 dozen embroidered silk handkerchiefs, no two dozen alike, ranging in an endless assortment of patterns with chintz embroidery, drawn work and beautiful, delicate tints at 25c each. Values in the above line worth as high as $1.00 each. BOSTON STORE, 410 Broadway, Whiteaway & Co., Council Bluffs, Ia.

Enterprise Place. Being frequently urged to sell small portions of my farm, I have at last decided to plant 200 acres of Enterprise Place, familiarly known as the Scott farm, and to begin the sale at once in five and ten acre lots. I have placed the same in the hands of Greenshields, Robinson & Co., who will act in the matter as my exclusive agents. Fruit growers, gardeners and those who want the conveniences of a city combined with all the advantages of the richest farming land are now given a rare opportunity to do so. M. TOFT.

Do you smoke? Have you tried T. D. King & Co.'s Partagas? It's a charmer. Just light one.

The genuine Round Oak stoves, also fine line of oil heaters. Cole's, 41 Main street.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. This evening Mr. Stuart Robson and his excellent company of players open a three night engagement at Boyd's theater. The occasion will be doubly interesting for the reason that the opening play is one in which Robson and Crane made one of their earliest successes—"The Bachelors." The play was written specially for the comedians by Joseph Bradford, a Boston journalist, and this is the first season it has been played in this town. The following is the cast of "The Bachelors":

John Bangle, Mr. Robson; Mr. Woodard, Mr. Elwood; Mr. Woodson, Mr. Woodson; Mr. L. J. Stutz, Mr. Stutz; Mr. Bell, Mr. Bell; Mr. Moulton, Mr. Moulton; Mr. Kelly, Mr. Kelly; Miss Hayek, Miss Hayek.

On tomorrow evening, and at the Wednesday matinee, the grand Irish comedy "She Stoops to Conquer" will be the bill, a special production being made of it. The engagement closes Wednesday evening with Deussen Howard's American comedy, "The Henrietta."

"Cora Marlowe," a beautiful ten-act Irish comedy drama by Charles T. Vincent, comes to the Grand on Wednesday evening, the first of the three last days of the present week.

A remarkably good performance of the remarkably good play is promised at the presentation of the "New Monte Cristo" at the Park Street theater for three nights, commencing Thursday evening, December 22, with the usual Saturday matinee. The dramatic arrangement of this wonderful work of fiction is very superior, and the scenic and mechanical effects are marvels of stage illusion, and are of a very elaborate nature. The play is a very real and effective, including a deluge of water and flashes of seeming real lightning.

R. A. AND N. U. Officers of General Brooke Garrison Chapter. At the regular meeting of the General John R. Brooke Garrison of the Regular Army and Navy Union, held at their hall on Fifteenth street last Saturday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: John D. Howe, commander; Frank P. Thornton, vice commander; William S. Kelly, deputy commander; E. Shuck, adjutant; James H. Johnson, paymaster; John L. Ehlman, quartermaster; D. D. Williams, chaplain; Henry Falvey, officer of the day; Michael Kerwan, officer of the guard; John Burie, officer of the watch; W. H. Sheep and Henry Bolinger, ensigns.

The January 2 of the newly elected officers will take place on January 7, at which time it is quite likely the national vice commander, of Leavenworth, Kan., will be present, and take part in the exercises. Two new members were "mustered in" and applications are coming in rapidly.

This garrison will give its first annual ball on January 2 at Goodrich hall on Twenty-fourth street, which promises to be a fine affair. The proceeds of this entertainment will be for the benefit of the poor.

Foundmaster's Notice. Impounded the 13th of December, one baby cow, about 3 years old, branded. If not redeemed said cow will be sold at public auction December 23, at 10 o'clock a. m., at 21st and Leavenworth streets, in the alley.

JOHN SPOERL, Foundmaster, 410-411 Broadway.

Foundmaster's Notice. Impounded the 13th of December, one black pony, about 15 years old. If not redeemed said pony will be sold at public auction December 23, at 10 o'clock a. m., at 21st and Leavenworth streets, in the alley.

JOHN SPOERL, Foundmaster, 410-411 Broadway.

W. H. Ware, in which a serious charge is made against M. I. Sears.

The petition stating that Sears was appointed General Manager for the company last April, and that he gave a bond for $500 for the faithful performance of his duty, the bond being signed by the other defendants as sureties. An affidavit made on December 2 was furnished two months later. Sears carried on the business until July when it was alleged he ceased to act as agent and a shortage of $184 in his accounts was discovered. The plaintiff now seeks to have the defendants compelled to make good the deficit.

The earth moves. Evidence, you can buy a first class lot, Salvation Oil, for 35c.

Santa Claus is Here. The announcement made in THE BEE that Santa Claus had traded his team of reindeer for a span of Shetland ponies and would be at the Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Friday evening, ready to meet his friends and deliver Christmas packages, drew an immense concourse.
