Blew Out the Gas.

Four railroad laborers, Lou Miller, John, Joe and Stephen Schmidt, recently arrived in the city from Spring Creek, N. D., registered at the European hotel at Tenth and Howard streets Sunday night and were assigned to a room.

When the quartet retired one of their number blew out the gas. The men inhaled the gas for nearly twelve hours before being discovered. Had it not been that an unusual quantity of fresh air found its way into the room through the windows, they would undoubtedly have been asphyxiated. Three of them completely recovered within an hour, and the fourth, Joe Schmidt, is out of danger's harm.

NOTED TEMPERANCE LEADER.

The Forcible and Brilliant David Frost.

He Speaks of an Insidious Foe of Temperance and says it Demands Law—Commends in Earnest Language the Many Virtues of Kickapoo Indian Sagwa and Gives His Reasons.

The portrait of David Frost, the noted temperance lecturer, will be recognized far and wide. The noble work of this distinguished advocate of temperance has given him a reputation second only to that of the late John B. Gough's.
