

that the secret service fund was entirely inadequate for the defense of the republic. As in order to govern well, he and his colleagues must have money, which the secret service lacked, he had recourse to his friends for sufficient money to take over the present difficulty.

The confusion grew steadily in the Chamber until the deputies became convinced that M. Rouvier was evading the issue. Loud murmurs of protest greeted his first statement as to the secret service fund, and when he suggested that the suspicious checks were contributions of his personal friends to the support of the government, there was an outbreak of howls and derisive laughter. Raising his voice so as to be heard above the uproar, M. Rouvier shouted: "Had I not adopted that course, the men now interrupting me would not be seated on these benches."

Bedlam broke loose a moment later, and words were uttered. The deputies rose and shouted back to the speaker, and others shouted for the names of their friends.

M. Rouvier made three attempts to be heard, but his voice was inaudible. After the demonstration had spent itself he continued: "I am perfectly ready to go before any tribunal, have money, which the secret service never derived the slightest benefit from the Panama Canal company. I never defended its interests. I challenge revivification."

Another attempt provoked another hostile demonstration. When order had been restored, the report of the special committee in favor of the prosecution, was adopted.

M. Paul de Cassagnac, who had taken the disciplinary council of the Legion of Honor had decided to take against Dr. Corneliou Herz.

"This man," M. de Roulede said, "is not to be left with the insignia of the legion in his possession, although I grant he is a most important man to the government, for he truly holds the reins of government."

M. de Roulede paused for several moments, while the right cheered and the left tried to drown the cheers with a general tumult. Then he proceeded, with perfect coolness, to make a most virulent personal attack upon M. Clemenceau, whose relations to M. Herz, he said, are well known to need detailed description.

Amid renewed cheers from the right and jeers from the left, he declared that he would try to buy the Boulanger with Panama Canal money, but he refused to touch it.

Despite M. Floquet's repeated protests, cries of "disobedience" and general tumult, which extended to the topmost gallery, M. de Roulede again addressed himself to M. Clemenceau.

"Why did this Herz give 25,000 francs to La Justice?" he shouted.

indictment except the tribunal of honor appointed by themselves, the decisions of which are irrevocable. Every anarchist is obliged to defend his companions at the peril of his life.

The social revolution is to be considered as the first of duties and of obligations. Every anarchist must revivify all revolutionary movements which have not for direct object the destruction of capital. No anarchist can refuse to carry out any mission entrusted to him, except in the case of physical impossibility. No anarchist can exercise a public function without the authority of the assembly, neither can he take part in any manifestation foreign to the cause. No anarchist can belong to another group unless with the object of discovering secrets in the interest of anarchism or unmasking the maneuvers of a false companion—an accomplice of the bourgeoisie.

Bedlam broke loose a moment later, and words were uttered. The deputies rose and shouted back to the speaker, and others shouted for the names of their friends.

M. Rouvier made three attempts to be heard, but his voice was inaudible. After the demonstration had spent itself he continued: "I am perfectly ready to go before any tribunal, have money, which the secret service never derived the slightest benefit from the Panama Canal company. I never defended its interests. I challenge revivification."

Another attempt provoked another hostile demonstration. When order had been restored, the report of the special committee in favor of the prosecution, was adopted.

M. Paul de Cassagnac, who had taken the disciplinary council of the Legion of Honor had decided to take against Dr. Corneliou Herz.

"This man," M. de Roulede said, "is not to be left with the insignia of the legion in his possession, although I grant he is a most important man to the government, for he truly holds the reins of government."

M. de Roulede paused for several moments, while the right cheered and the left tried to drown the cheers with a general tumult. Then he proceeded, with perfect coolness, to make a most virulent personal attack upon M. Clemenceau, whose relations to M. Herz, he said, are well known to need detailed description.

Amid renewed cheers from the right and jeers from the left, he declared that he would try to buy the Boulanger with Panama Canal money, but he refused to touch it.

Despite M. Floquet's repeated protests, cries of "disobedience" and general tumult, which extended to the topmost gallery, M. de Roulede again addressed himself to M. Clemenceau.

"Why did this Herz give 25,000 francs to La Justice?" he shouted.

WHERE FAULT REALLY LIES

Report of the City Hall Investigating Committee to the Council.

DEFECTS IN THE BUILDING GONE OVER

It Finds that the Architect Has Done His Duty—Another of the Mayor's Vetoes Overridden—Proceedings of the Meeting.

The city hall investigating committee submitted its report at the meeting of the council last evening, but said not a word of the charges of whitewash, though what it did not say on that point fills all the space between the lines.

The report was submitted, together with a bundle of typewritten manuscript, the evidence elicited at the investigation, and a pile of affidavits that made the sergeant-at-arms puff as he labored under the load which he was called upon to carry up to the desk of the reading clerk.

Every member listened attentively to the reading, and Mr. Lowry watched Mr. Specht curiously out of the corner of his eye when the reference was made to the height of the tower, but not to the fact that the architect had given in this state. There were 150 officers, their families and friends present.

The main dining room was used for the banquet, and, like the hall leading to it, was tastefully decorated with national flags. The guests assembled in the hotel kitchen, which were appropriately draped with the colors. Tropical plants were placed in the hallways, parlors and dining room.

The hour preceding the march into the banquet room was very pleasantly passed. The arriving members and guests were received by Mesdames Brooks, Laddington, Hildreth and Palmer, who were assisted by the Sutorious Mandolin duo added greatly to the evening's entertainment.

The toilets of the ladies were very beautiful and the full dress attire of the gentlemen was rendered brilliant by the decorations of the order.

The hour preceding the march into the banquet room was very pleasantly passed. The arriving members and guests were received by Mesdames Brooks, Laddington, Hildreth and Palmer, who were assisted by the Sutorious Mandolin duo added greatly to the evening's entertainment.

NEWS OF YESTERDAY

It is said that the prince of Wales will visit Chicago during the winter.

The city hall investigating committee submitted its report at the meeting of the council last evening, but said not a word of the charges of whitewash, though what it did not say on that point fills all the space between the lines.

The report was submitted, together with a bundle of typewritten manuscript, the evidence elicited at the investigation, and a pile of affidavits that made the sergeant-at-arms puff as he labored under the load which he was called upon to carry up to the desk of the reading clerk.

Every member listened attentively to the reading, and Mr. Lowry watched Mr. Specht curiously out of the corner of his eye when the reference was made to the height of the tower, but not to the fact that the architect had given in this state. There were 150 officers, their families and friends present.

The main dining room was used for the banquet, and, like the hall leading to it, was tastefully decorated with national flags. The guests assembled in the hotel kitchen, which were appropriately draped with the colors. Tropical plants were placed in the hallways, parlors and dining room.

The hour preceding the march into the banquet room was very pleasantly passed. The arriving members and guests were received by Mesdames Brooks, Laddington, Hildreth and Palmer, who were assisted by the Sutorious Mandolin duo added greatly to the evening's entertainment.

The toilets of the ladies were very beautiful and the full dress attire of the gentlemen was rendered brilliant by the decorations of the order.

The hour preceding the march into the banquet room was very pleasantly passed. The arriving members and guests were received by Mesdames Brooks, Laddington, Hildreth and Palmer, who were assisted by the Sutorious Mandolin duo added greatly to the evening's entertainment.

The toilets of the ladies were very beautiful and the full dress attire of the gentlemen was rendered brilliant by the decorations of the order.

The hour preceding the march into the banquet room was very pleasantly passed. The arriving members and guests were received by Mesdames Brooks, Laddington, Hildreth and Palmer, who were assisted by the Sutorious Mandolin duo added greatly to the evening's entertainment.

Mr. A. D. Leonard, of Utes, N. Y., suffered severely from Liver and Kidney troubles, causing great pain and That Tired Feeling failed to do him any good, but so successful and satisfactory was Hood's Sarsaparilla that he has taken no other medicine and is now well.

ALL BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES, ORGANIC WEAKNESS AND DISEASES OF NO MATTER HOW LONG STANDING OR HOW OFTEN PRONOUNCED INCURABLE.

ALL BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES, ORGANIC WEAKNESS AND DISEASES OF NO MATTER HOW LONG STANDING OR HOW OFTEN PRONOUNCED INCURABLE.

ALL BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES, ORGANIC WEAKNESS AND DISEASES OF NO MATTER HOW LONG STANDING OR HOW OFTEN PRONOUNCED INCURABLE.

ALL BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES, ORGANIC WEAKNESS AND DISEASES OF NO MATTER HOW LONG STANDING OR HOW OFTEN PRONOUNCED INCURABLE.

ALL BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES, ORGANIC WEAKNESS AND DISEASES OF NO MATTER HOW LONG STANDING OR HOW OFTEN PRONOUNCED INCURABLE.

ALL BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES, ORGANIC WEAKNESS AND DISEASES OF NO MATTER HOW LONG STANDING OR HOW OFTEN PRONOUNCED INCURABLE.

ALL BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES, ORGANIC WEAKNESS AND DISEASES OF NO MATTER HOW LONG STANDING OR HOW OFTEN PRONOUNCED INCURABLE.

ALL BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES, ORGANIC WEAKNESS AND DISEASES OF NO MATTER HOW LONG STANDING OR HOW OFTEN PRONOUNCED INCURABLE.

CHAMBERLIN, In which to secure the Great Bargains now being offered by Hood's Sarsaparilla

AT SHERWOOD'S OLD STAND IN NEW YORK LIFE BUILDING. ALL stock remaining unsold January 1st, 1893, will positively be shipped from the city.

FOR $30.00 We will sell you an Opera Wrap worth $65 in any city in the United States.

FOR $15.00 We will sell you a handsome and better dress pattern than you can buy elsewhere in Omaha for $25.

REMOVAL SALE. VAN COTT JEWELRY COMPANY, For Thirty Days only we will offer our entire stock of Diamonds and Christmas Jewelry and Silverware at less than manufacturer's cost.

NEBRASKA National Bank, U. S. DEPOSITORY, OMAHA, NEB. Capital $100,000 Surplus $65,000

THE MERCER, Omaha's Newest Hotel, 109, 12TH AND HOWARD STS. 50 Rooms at $2.50 per day.

DR. McCREW THE SPECIALIST, In unassisted relief of all PRIVATE DISEASES and all Diseases and Disorders of MEN

Active Anarchists, Reds in Spain becoming ferociously Per-

Madrid, Dec. 20.—The anarchists appear to be resuming their activity in Spain. Three persons were exploded on Sunday last with disastrous results to the mansion of a merchant named Pons, and to that of Marquis Villapenas, two of the most prominent residents of Seville. The residence of the marquis was considerably damaged, but not destroyed. The anarchists have found a code of anarchist law prevailing as follows:

Constipation cured by DeWitt's Early Risers

Price of La Freckla, $1.00 PER BOTTLE.

Notice, Impounded on the 17th of December, one roadster, about two years old, at public auction December 27, at 10 o'clock a. m., at 21st and Leavenworth streets, in the alley between

Notice, Impounded on the 17th of December, one roadster, about two years old, at public auction December 27, at 10 o'clock a. m., at 21st and Leavenworth streets, in the alley between