LINCOLN. Nob., Dec. 28. - [Special to THE BEE.]-The arrest of Gorham F. Betts under an indictment returned by the grand jury, which completed its investigations last Saturday forenoon, brings the total number of varties arrested up to five. It is certain that at least two more warrants are out, but It is rumared that they will not be served for some time for the reason that the men implicated have gone to the Dominion north of the United States on a pleasure trip that is

A prominent attorney who is entitled to credence tells how the coal contracts were handled in order that the state could be made to pay for coal that was never de-"The scheme was a very simple livered. one," said the attorney, "but one hard to detect. The dealer would send a number of cars of coal out to the asylum. "We will say that the cars would be numbered 444, 555 and 666. Numbers 444 and 666 would be unloaded at the asylum switch, but number 555 would be hauled back to the dealer's yards and sold to city consumers. In this way the same car of coal would be sold to the state and also to private parties. That was one of the methods said to have originated in the mind of Mr. Betts, who was one of the most successful dealers in the city at the time he held the state contracts."

What They Are Charged With.

W. H. Dorgan is charged with embezzle-ment as ballee of $6,684. On another account he is charged with simple embezzlement of John T. Dorgan is charged with having
