MUSICAL

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 29 .- [Special to THE BRE.]-The closing day of the Neoraska State Teachers association has been the most interesting of the three. The attendance today reached over 600 in spite of the fact that quite a number left for home on the mid-day trains. This morning's session partook of the nature of a literary and musical treat. Clemens Movins of the Nebraska Conservatory of Music opened the program with a well rendered violin solo. Rev. C. B. Newman invoked the divine blessing upon the deliberations of the association, and then Prof. Caldwell of the Nebraska State university read a paper on "American Prof. Caldwell's ripe hisknowledge enabled him to discuss his topic with more than usual skill, and his paper was one of the best that has been read during the session. The joint discussion between Editor G. M. Hitchcock of Omaha and Congressman Bryan on the one side and Hon. J. G. Tate of Grand Island and Fred Staff of Lincoln on the other attracted close attention by reason but of the prominence of the gentlemen but of the popular interest in the two great historical characters they championed. Messrs, Hitchcock and Bryan discussed the statesmanship of Jefferson, while Messrs. Tate and Staff enlogized the statecraft of Hamilton. The discussion was highly en-joyed and attracted an audience outside of the members of the association.

After the opening exercises this afternoon Prof. Carl Betts of Kansas City delivered an ddress on "Physical Training" and urged address on "Physical Training and trigger its importance as a part of educational work along the modern progressive lines. The "Purposes and Scope of the Columbian Edu-cational Exhibit" were discussed by F. A. Barton, superintendent of the Nebraska educational exhibit, and Prof. Fitzpatrick of the Omana public schools.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President, C. C. Perse of Beatrice; secretary, Miss E. O. Clark of Fremont; treasurer, W. H. Skinner of Crete. Treasurer Skinner's report was as follows: Balance on hand December 29, 1891, $452 34: fees received at twenty sixth annual meeting $773.00; interest received $39.82; total receipts $1265.16; expenditures $502.92. Grasping at Another Straw. The gentlemen of this city who have been honored with an indictment by the grand jury for their alleged complicity with the asylum and penitentiary fruuds claim to have discovered another legal technicality that will render their indictments invalid. It rests upon the provision of the statutes which says that a copy of the indictment must be served upon the party indicted within twenty-four hours of the time it is reported by the grand jury. It is asserted that with the exception of two indictments served upon J. D. Lauer, copies have not yet been served upon the parties arrested. County Attorney Snell says that the point is not an important one, as the service of a copy of the indictment was practically waived when the defendants were bound over.

Amasa Hall in Jail.

Amasa Hall, one of the men charged with Amasa Hall, one of the men charged with robbing the postoffice at Emerald, in this county, several weeks ago, was brought back to Lincoln at about midnight last night and safely lodged in jail. Hall gave the officers a long chase and was finally captured at Sacramento, Cal., by Deputy United States Marshal Sam Melick. Hall was traced to the little town of Washington, across the river from Sacramento, and from there to the larger city. He was placed under arrest by a constable, but succeeded in making his escape. but succeeded in making his escape.

After running a few blocks he was again captured. He drew an ugly looking gun and would undoubtedly have undertaken to murder his captors had not one of them anticipated the act and knocked him senseless with the butt end of a large revolver. Hall has a black record as a general all-round crook and jail-bird, and the officers feel consident that he is the right man.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Burton Stanley Comedy company is making a big hit in "Razzle Dazzle," which is a very funny farce comedy, every performer being more or less of a comedian, which naturally causes continuous funny situations and exciting climaxes. The specialty program also is a great pleaser, especially Le Petit Freddie, the phenomenal and versatile child artist. For finish, style and elegance he is peerless, and his specialties are all masterpieces of acting, singing and acting. Master Freddie has a profes-sional future before him that makes him the sional future before him that makes him the envy of many an old performer. The other specialties are clever, especially Batchellor's Canine Hippodrome, a schoel of the finest educated dogs on earth. Today every lady visitor will receive a handsome art souvenir calendar for the year 1893, which will be highly appreciated.

At the Farnam Street theater one week, commencing with New Year's matinee (Sunday, January 1.) with Monday, Wednesday and Saturday matinees, the famous melodrama "Master and Man" by Messers, Simms and Pettit, will be presented. It has made a tremendous hit everywhere it has been seen this season.

To Preserve

The richness, color, and beauty of the hair, the greatest care is necessary, much harm being done by the use of worthless dressings. To be sure of having a first-class article, ask your druggist or perfumer for Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is absolutely superior to any other preparation of the kind. It restores the original color and fullness to hair which has become thin, faded, or gray. It keeps the scalp cool, moist, and free from dandruff. It heals itching humors, prevents baldness, and imparts to
