EWING'S DAUGHTERS IN IT

Joe Williams' Accomplices in His Awful Crime Were His Victim's Children.

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE POISON CASE

Williams and the Two Girls Had Arranged to Go to California After the Old Folks Were Out of the Way -He is a Bad Egg.

It now transpires that Joe Williams was not alone in his plan to poison the Ewing family. He had accomplices, and the police have devloped the fact that these were the unnatural daughters of the intended victim. Ewing. Williams, in addition to being a generally bad and worthless man, was something of a masher in his way, and succeeded in nesnaring the affect tions of the two girls who headed the flock of Ewing children. They sustained improper relations with Williams, and each seemed satisfied to share his affections with the other. A number of facts have been developed that indicate that at least one of the girls was to a greater or less extent implicated in the crime. They admit that Williams had repeatedly told them that he was going to poison the family and on the morning in question neither of them drank any of the coffee that contained the poison.

One of the girls was brought to the police station yesterday morning and was closely questioned. She admitted that Williams had been unduly intimate with her older sister, Addie, but denied that he had sustained similar relations with her. She said that they had planned for some time that Wil-Hams was to marry one of them and take them both with him to California. The police believe she is not telling all she knows and she may be held to await further developments. The funeral of Albert Ewing, the 13-year-old boy who died from the effects of the poison, was held yesterday afternoon and the remains interred in Forest Lawn cemetery. Mrs. Ewing is much worse. and it is not thought that she will survive. The effect of the poison has been rendered more deadly by the shock resulting from the death of ner boy, and her death may occur at any moment.

No trace has been obtained of the whereabouts of the supposed murderer. It was reported that he was seen on the streets last night, but no credence is attached to the statement. The police have hunted over the entire city and officers in citizens clothes have watched every place where he would be likely to turn up. It is considered a certainty that he has got out of town, and descriptions of him have been sent to the authorities of the principal cities of Nebraska

BLACK HILLS TIN.

It Will Soon Be Placed Upon the Markets of RAPID CITY, S. D., Dec. 30.-After years spent in the development of mines in the amey Peak tin district there is now every probability that American tin will be placed upon the markets of the world within the next sixty days. The Harney Peak Tin company yesterday began operations with its second battery of concentrators, and all resecond battery of concentrators, and all re-ports agree that the process, until now ex-perimental, saves a very large per cent of the tin crystals in the ore crushed. The mill will soon be in full operation and the shipping of casiterite regularly to the castern smelters begun.

Irrigation in Wyoming. Mr. George A. Crofutt of Wyoming, general field director of the Green River Basin and Canal company, and Prof. L. S. Cornell, secretary of the same company, are in the city stopping at the Mercer. "We are going to have the biggest ditch in America," said Mr. Crofutt yesterday morn-"Our large ditch will be ninety-seven miles long with 200 miles of laterals. The main ditch will be fifty-two feet wide and twelve feet deep. It will furnish 2,500 cubic feet of water per second, or about one-fifth of all the water per second, or about one-fitten of all the water running in the river where we will tap it. Our smaller ditch will be about thirty miles in length. That ditch will probably be completed by the last of June. We shall be able to reclaim about 500,000 acres of land by the use of water from these two ditches, and half of it is government land. This will be a bonanza for the homesceker. Most of this land is in the Rock Springs belt and is excellent land." Speaking of the Platte river canal scheme or Omaha, Mr. Crofutt said "I should think that it would be more practicable to tap the Missouri river than the Platte. I have seen the Platte river as dry as a powder horn. Why not go up the Missouri river ten or fifteen miles and tap it with a ten foot conduit reaching down to the city! You would have all the fell you would need and would be the reaching down to the city! have all the fall you would need and would always have plenty of water. It seems to me that this would be a much more reliable practical scheme than the Platte river Prof Cornell is also deeply interested in the great Wyoming irrigation company, and had something to say concerning the enter-prise. "We judge arid land by the quality of sage brush it produces. Just as farmers in Illinois used to know the land which pro-In Illinois used to know the land which produced rosin weeds and blue stem would raise good eorn, so we know that arid land upon which good, healthy sage brush grows will make valuable farming land when it is properly watered. Our ditches will tap the Green river and what is known as Black's fork. The land reclaimed will be in the vicinity of Granger, and I predict that in a few years there will be a wonderful transformation over that region.

Mr. D. C. Adams of Salt Lake City is at the Millard. "The silver interests of Utah are very quiet just now," said Mr. Adams yesterday. "The mine owners are waiting anxiously to see what action congress is going to take with regard to silver. I think that it is no exaggeration to say that half of the silver mines of Utah are lying idle right new. With silver getting the worst of it all the time as a medium of exchange there nothing to encourage the miners to work their property. In fact, it don't pay to work a silver mine now unless it is a particularly for passage and sleeping car tickets at

The stagnation in the silver business has a depressing effect upon other lines as well. I am engaged in the manufacture of salt, for instance. Now the silver mines of Utah consum about 50,000 tons of salt per annum in what is known as the chlorinating process. That, you see, makes a pretty strong local demand for salt, but with half of the silver mines shut down our business must neces-sarily feel the effects of the stagnation, and all those depending on our business must suf-fer with the silver industry,"

CLARA ALLEN MUST ANSWER

Held to the District Court and Sent to Jail in Default.

EVIDENCE AT THE PRELIMINARY TRIAL

Stories Well Known Related Again by the Hays - Berlin Witnesses - Prosecutor Mahoney's Arraignment of the Accused-No Defense Offered.

Yesterday afternoon in police court the trial of Clara Allen for perjury in the Mayor Miller case was taken up and concluded. E. O. Mayfield was called first and testified as to the statements the Allen woman made the night the body was found. In conversing with witness the defendant had merely told of the visit of three men to the resort about noon on October 4.

Then the county attorney offered in evidence the slip of paper found in Miller's pocket reading, 'To whom it may concern:

—I have trouble in my head and cannot stand it much longer." The writing on this paper was identified by T. K. Sudborough as that of the late mayor of South Omaha.

Several reporters then told about their work on the case and of having talks with the Allen woman. In all these talks, as the testimony showed, Miss Allen had never mentioned a word about the crime except to speak of Miller and two companions visiting the place where she lived, about noon on the day of the tragedy. At this time she did not even tell the officers and police reporters that she had heard a shot fired in that locality during the day.

Officer Dohahue told about finding the body of Miller in the weeds and described at length the lay of the land and the height of the weeds. The next witness was H. L. Garlick, engineer at the Decring Implement works located just east of the place where Miller was found. Garlick said that he visted the place the next day after the weeds had been broken down and he could just see the cornice on the roof of Lou Scott's house above the weeds which still remained standing. He also heard a shot fired down in that vicinity bout 11 o'clock.

Henry Strader a shipping clerk employed by the Deering company said that he heard a shot fired about 11 o'clock. a snot fired about 11 o clock.

Col. Savage of South Omaha identified the writing on the slip as that of C. P. Miller. He also said that for five or six weeks previous to October 4, Miller had been drinking hard, averaging from fifteen to twenty drinks a day.

The pawnbroker who reuted the revolver was called again and told substantially the same things as he had testified to during the Berlin-Hays trial. Then the state rested, and as the defense had no testimony to introduce Mr. Mahoney made a few remarks. He said that the testimony of the defendant during the trial of Berlin and Hays was absolutely untrue, as he firmly believed the witnesses in the case on trial had proven beyond a doubt. Continu-ing the county attorney said that the tes-timony had shown that it was a case of sui-cide and not mmder, and that Berlin and Hays were not there at the time claimed by Clara Alien. Clara Allen.

"The only possible excuse," said Mr. Mahoney, "is that the woman might have been mistaken in the identity of the men she claimed to have seen, but if this was so why did she tell so many different stories to reporters and the officers sent out to investigate the ease? Her motive in keeping silent could not have been to shield Berlin and Hays because she claimed she didn't know them. Again, testimony has been introduced show-Again, testimony has been introduced show ng that her motive in coming into court a month or so afterwards and swearing as she did was money. The Davis woman's testi-mony showed that. All I can say is that it is a case of deliberate and wilful perjury."

The attorney for the defense went over his side of the story, and Mahoney closed the case in a few words, mentioning the fact that the doctors had said the pistol had been held very close to the head and not fifty feet away, as defendant claimed. Judge Berka summed up the evidence in a few words and then held the prisoner to the district court for further hearing. Her bail vas fixed at $900. The judge inquired if there was any possibility of the defendant furnishing the re-quired amount, and the woman's attorney replied that he thought it very doubtful.

Sheriff Bennett then took charge of the prisoner.
All of the witnesses will be required to furnish a $200 bond for their appearance at the next term of the district court.

In a business of such magnitude as ours, some odds and ends will accumulate in spite of closest care. This is our week to dispose of them. Whenever, in this general overturning of stocks a broken line of any sort or kind of goods is found-be it overcoats-suits-hals-shoes or little fixin's-it's marked down at once without regard to what it's cost to us-to such a figure, as to amply repay you the discomfort of the muss wa're into buy it at "inventory prices."

Out-of-town friends-we beg your indulgence for the delay in filling some of your orders in the past few days-they came so fast 'twas not possible to fill them with our usual promptness.
