Engage in Riots.

SEVERAL KILLED AND MANY WOUNDED

Numerous Bloody and Exciting Encounters -The Forces of the Authorities Put to Route and Roughly Handled-Residences of the Rich Stoned.

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 2 .- The unemployed of Sewartsluis, on the Overyssel, held an outdoor meeting today, and, after listening to neveral anarchistic speeches, began vioting in the streets. They visited all the finest houses, smashing windows, and stoned several conspicuous residents of the town. When the police appeared, the rioters attacked them with sticks and atomes. A rioter was shot dead by a policeman at whom he was aiming a carbine. Two policemen were beaten into unconsciousness and many rioters were wounded. About thirty rioters were arrested.

Similar riots took place in Pekela and Sappermeere. The police were put to flight by the mob in Sappermeere after six police men had been wounded. The military been called out and charged mob. They were repulsed, lea the leaving behind a soldier who was almost beaten to death. They then opened fire. Two rioters death. killed. Five others were seriously ed and many were slightly wounded. were killed. Twenty men were arrested.

M. LOUBET INTERVIEWED.

He Talks of the Panama Canal Scandal-

Dangers to the Republic. MARSENLES, Jan. 2.—The Petit Marseilles publishes an interview with M. Loubet as to the attitude of the Chamber toward the Panama canal scandal. M. Loubet says that the Chamber rushed headlong, without consideration or preparation, into the Panama in quiry. The deputies seemed suddenly to have lost their senses and they outbid each other in over-seniousness and reckless ac-cusation. Doubless the scandal was bad enough, but the bad judgment of the Chamber had fostered erroneous conceptions among the people of its magui-tude. Such an excessive outburst of per-version must have its reaction and thus defeat any of its own ends. The most extrava-gant hopes had been raised among the dis Toyal parties by the recklessness shown in the Chamber, and the whole fabric of the republican institutions in France had been endangered. Unless great care and tact were exercised constantly in the next few weeks, the men who had behaved so fanatic ally might have startling proofs of the errors into which they had fallen and caused others to fall. Every effort must be made to wind up the whole Panama affair before next March in order that engagements in with the state department might be strictly fulfilled.

CARNOT'S OFFICIAL FAMILY.

Rumors of Serious Dissentions in the French Cabinet.

LOLDON, Jan. 2 .- The Paris correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says: There are ru mors of cabinet dissentions due to the dietatorial attitude of M. Bourgeois, who is bent upon continuing M. Ricards' policy in the Panama canal, regardless of results.

M. de Freycinet and M. Bourdeaux isolate themseives from the rest of the cabinet. These quarrels are indications that Presi-dent Carnot will be compelled to proceed to a dissolution

It is stated that Ferdinand de Lesseps, missing his son at the New Year's gathering of the family, insisted upon knowing the truth. When he learned it he was overcome with emotion and relapsed into silence, after remarking that the enterprise was runned by the rapacity of republican politicians.

The Paris correspondent of the Daily News telegraphs that Charles de Lesseps, M. Fona-tine and M. Sans le Roy, who were confined in the Mazza prison, have been transferred to the warmer cells on the fifth floor. They may not receive visitors and, although rela-went into caucus at 8:40 o'clock and agreed upon Charles B. Houston of Sussex county for speaker of the senate and J. H. Whitan of Newcastle county for speaker of the house. Oakley, Jensen and Keckley have been the trio representing the repub-lican candidates for the place, but John C. It was re-ported for a while that the republicans had acreed upon him, but it was ouckly denied. B. vote agreed upon him, but it was quickly denied, although not until the rumor had excited considerable unfavorable comment.

Eric Johnson of Adams, Carpenter of Red Willow, Edmiston who was Congressman Kem's right hand man, and Gunnet, who Kern's right hand man, and Guinet, who wanted to be commissioner of public lands and buildings, are all aspiring to the chief clerkship of the house at the hands of the independents, while J. F. Seedika is making and buildings assumbles basis a pull for it on a republican basis.

Beltzer and Dungens are trying to get away with each other for the position of sergeant-at-arms, with the assistance general populist approval and James Allen of Omaha feels reasonably sure of the place in case the republicans organize the house.

· Pleasant Prospect for Sellers.

The fear that some of their members are going to sell out continues to animate the populist breast, and particular pains is taken to impress on the suspects that it will not be nealthy for them to yield to temptations laid in their paths by the boodle dispensers. One of the independents, who is regarded as being predisposed to moral weakness, was approached in the Lindell rotunda this afternoon by one of the stalwarts of his party, who carefully broached the subject of political dishonesty the subject of political dishonesty on the part of any of the populist members, and after letting his auditor know what he meant, remarked ominously "if any of our fellows are going to sell out, they want to get an awful high figure-something that will keep them for a long while, and get out mighty sudden and never stop going, 'canse there are some counties in this state where the sheriff ain't always able to prevent peo ple from taking the law into their own hands."

Railroad Cappers on Deck.

The Union Pacific delegation came oday-and it is not a small one. Leavitt, Canada et al are here, and have already gone to work. The corporations are more numer-ously represented by fait than are the peo-ple. The plan that they have a lopted is to put every republican member in charge of one of their men, and in some cases two or three men are assigned to the task of looking after one individual.

John A. McShane is here, ostensibly for the purpose of looking after stock yards in-terests, but in reality his early appearance is to assist in bringing about the demo-inde-pendent combine.

Senator North profess's on '1 ? outside to be opposed to fusion, but in the secret coun-cils is one of the most defermined advocates of it. His candidacy for the internal collect-orship would preclude the possibility of his assuming any other position, as it is the plan mapped out by the steering committee, and the senator is not in a position at this time to move adversely to its wishes. Senator Paddock is desirous of rushing things, believing that his chances would thereby be improved, but the rushing idea has not taken a very strong hold of the majority of the republican members. Sheriff Costello of Grand Island is here they were opposed to the proposed plan of fusion with the democrats. The first hour was spent in joint cancus with members of both houses present, but they subse-quently divided, and the two caucuses were in full blast for several hours. They both adjourned without arriving at a definite conclusion. The trouble with the proposed combine is that nearly every member has a combine is that nearly every member has a personal matter that he insists on having satisfactorily disposed of before he will consent to anything being done. There is a horde of aspirants for appoint-ive positions, and some of the counties have furnished as n any as a dozen of these nungry individuals, who are trusting to the influ to help them out and attain for them the object of their hopes. These are the fellows who are howing loudest for a fusion with who are howing foundest for a fusion with the democrats, or with anything or anybody that promises to help them get their little job. Some of the independent members as-sert that they will not stand by the action of the caucus unless their favorites are pro-vided for in the deal, and on every side are seen evidences that the biggest office-grabbing game is in progress that was ever seen the state.

T? * independent caucus which has been sion all this evening did not adjourn twenty minutes of 12 o'clock tonight, and then a recess was taken until 10 o'clock tomorrow. No definite understanding was reached as to the caucus nominees for the principle offices in the two houses

Have a Great Scheme.

The consideration of mere candidates was lest sight of in the contemplation of a pro-ject as sensational and unexpected in its features as it is revolutionary in its tendencies. The leaders imagine that they have found a provision in they have found a provision in the constitution which will enable them to organize the house of representatives with-out the assistance of the secretary of state. The project is to form a temporary organization with temout officers. porary Then the . temporary porary oncers. Then the temporary speaker will direct the temporary cierk of the house to call the roll of members from a list already prepared. This list, it is need-less to say, will contain the name of James G. Kruse

The scheme is an attractive one to the eaders, but it is evident that they don't feel entirely certain of success from the fact that they will take the advice of prominent law-yers before coming to definite conclusion to happen nowadays. A man walked into our store one day last week, tried on a suit of clothes and immediately had a fit, and the oddest thing about it was that he seemed pleased about it. The year we've just begun is an odd one in many respects. While it came on time to the second, it came on the first. It's an odd number (1893.) Add its four figures together and it's odd again (21.) Spell it out -eighteen ninety three-and it takes an odd number of letters to spell it (19.) There's an odd number of days in it (365), and an odd number of Sundays (53). The moon gets full the first time this year on the second, gets rid of his last quarter before the month is half gone and gets full on the last day of the month again. While the year itself is so odd, we've got done the stocktaking, balance up the books, and begun the new year even. At the same time we have some odd things left We've a few odd overcoats; that is odd lots, not odd patters or odd styles. Some odd sizes or odd lots in suits in both the men's and boys' departments. We've some odd hats, not odd styles, buton lya few of a kind. The shoe man has a few odd shoes (not exactly odd shoes, but odd pairs of shoes) There are a few little lots of shirts-of underwear

In the general shuffle of the candidates for the various offices at the disposal of the house and senate the name of J. H. Gaffin comes most frequently to the surface as the most likely candidate for speaker. The elerkship of the house evidently lies between Eric Johnson and J. H Edminston, with the chances largely in favor of the lat-ter. The contest for the secretaryship of the senate has narrowed down to Pirtle and Edwards, and a Philadelphia prophet could discern no perceptible difficulty in their chances.

-of mufflers-of neckwear and so on. Among the odd things-should your choice be found-a large saving will be yours in the marked down prices. Getting ready to mail our new catalogue. Want one?

New Year's reception in the history of the BISHOP AND MRS. NEWMAN AT HOME.

Interesting New Year's Reception in His

Parlors at the Millard. At the New Year's reception given by Bishop and Mrs. Newman last evening in the parlors of the Millard, many representative members of Omaha society were present. All evening there was a steady stream of callers. The guests were charmingly entertained by the bishop and Mrs. New TILLA DI Bishop Newman gave his annual dinner to the Methodist ministers of Omaha, South Omaha, Council Bluffs and vicinity at the hotel yesterday afternoon. About seventy guests were present. During the dinner there was a great deal of sparkling small talk and at the close there were several entertaining responses to impromptu toasts. In his own encouraging and enthusing manner, Bishop Newman brought out all that was brightest and wittlest in his guests. Dr. Roe spoke of the "Resident Bishop and His Wife," to which the bishop, "Resident n person, made prompt reply. Dr. Crane', talk was on "Methodism in Omaha," and Dr. Shank made a few talk and few and Dr. Shank made a few remarks on the "Religious Press." Dr. Foote dwelt amusingly on the "Minister and His Stomach," and Dr. Anglin gave some valu-able hints for public speakers in speaking of the "Minister and His Throat." Other enertaining remarks were made by Drs. Clen-enning, Beans and Tinden. The dinner ended with pleasant conversation. Among those present were Dr. J. B. Maxield and wife, Rev. W. K. Beans and wife, Elder T. C. Clendenning and wife, Elder T. C. Clendenning and wife, Rev. Frank Crane and wife, Rev. C. A. Dawson and wife, Rev. J. Q. A. Fleharty and wife, Rev. A. Hodgetts and wife, Rev. J. P. Murray and wife, Rev. J. P. Roe and wife, Rev. J. W. Shank and wife, Rev. D. Cook maintains that he is still a candidate for the place, but when an offer was made him to go and tell certain senators who had been informed that he was no longer a candidate, that he was still de strous of their support, he replied that it was not necessary. Certain it is that he is no longer making the hustle for votes that he was making up to this noon, although are several senatorial arrivals. What the corporation intention is in this particular has not yet developed.

Governor Crounse Arrives.

Governor-elect Crounse arrived this morn ag, with Senators Clark and Babcock and Representatives Goss and Sutton of the Douglas county delegation. Inasmuch as the governor-elect is soon to occupy the quarters of Governor Boyd at the capital, he concluded that he might as well make a clean sweep, and to that end has taken the suite of rooms at the Lincoln that were assigned Governor Boyd prior to his inauguration two years ago. The other members of the dele ration arrived this evening.

United States Marshal Slaughter came in this morning and will stay until after the organization, no matter how long it takes Colonel E. D. Webster of Stratton has also put in an appearance, and seems to have a ission to perform. Harry O'Neill of Broken Bow, one of th nembers of the democratic steering commit tee, haunts the Lindell and is, apparently, trying to earn his money. Speaking about money brings to mind the fact that there are more than a score of the old railroad bodyguard here on the ground, and it may not be uninteresting to the people of the state to know how these political vul-tures stand the expense of life at the state capital during the session of the legislature, when everything is at its highest, for they are never absent on these occasions, bloon ing blenuially as though properly part and parcel of the legislative plant.

Bragging on Their Boodle.

And right here it may be said that never before have the corporation cappers con-ducted themselves with so much audacity as characterizes them at this time. They openly boast of the unusually large amount of money that is at hand for the purpose of corrupting the legislature, and do not hesitate to say that it is their intention to buy the necessary number of votes to carry their point. They are all on the pay roll of the corpora-tion combine at $50 a week, regardless of the tion combine at 500 a week, regardless of the work that they may perform, and if at any time they are able to furnish information of an important nature of the state of a critical time, they receive additional com-pensation, according to the value of that particular service. "This explains their readiness to sacrifice their time and services in assisting in shaping legislation. Independents Caucus.

The independents met in formal caucus at the Lindell at 10 o'clock this morning, but γ teral of their members refused to go in, as Rev. T. C. Webster and wife, Rev. F. T. Fongl

"I cannot forbear to express my joy at the relief I have obtained from the use of AYER'S Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with kidney troubles for about six months, suffering greatly with pains in the small of my back. In addition to this, my body was covered with pimply eruptions. The remedies prescribed failed to help me. I then began to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla, and, in a short time, the pains ccased and the pimples disappeared. I advise every young man or woman, in case of sickness resulting from impure blood, no matter how long standing the case may be, to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla."-H. L.
