The Grand Army of the Republic gave an mertainment last evening at their hall on Pearl street. It was a camp-fire, and was Penel street attended by the members of the various mil itary organizations of the city, including the Woman's Relief corps and the Sons and Daughters of Veterans. A supper was served, after which speeches were made by a number of the old soldiers of this city and Omaha.

The managers of the Hickory ball, which is to be given next Monday evening, have 4 full-fiedged kick on their hands. A bane from an outside town was engaged by then to furnish the music for the entertainment without giving the musicians of Counci Bluffs even a chance to bid for the work. The Bluffs men claim that they are able to furnish just as good music as any of their rivals and think they should have had the first chance.

A concert will be given at the Presby terian church on the evening of January 23 in the interest of the Young Men's Christian association. A number of the pupils of the Omaha school of music will take part and whole will be under the direction Prof. L. A. Torrens. Among those who will participate are the Reinicke ladies' quar-tette, L. B. Copeland and Burt Butler of Omaha, and I. M. Trenor and J. H. Simms of Council Bluffs.

Justices Fox and Vien have had a wager pending for several days, as to which of them would have the first marriage ceremony to perform in their respective terms of office, Yesterday fate smiled on Fox three times, and just that many times did he score one over his opponent, who is now languish-ing in sack cloth and ashes. The following are the names of the parties whose weddings he officially blessed: Charles Crow of Omaha and Lotta Rowley of Cambridge, III.; Peter Thompson and Florence Hall of Omaha; L. S. Fong of Sioux City and Cecil S. Starbuck of Des Moines. The last named groom was an almond-eyed Chinaman, while his bride was a white woman. In questioning the bride about the case it developed that had been working for herself ever since she was 12 years of age, and now sought refuge from a life of labor in the affections of Mr. Fong who, as she naively said, "tells me he is making $10 a day."

City Attorney Hazelton Will Push the Case Against the Motor Company.

FURTHER DELAY WILL NOT BE TOLERATED

It Has Been Hanging Fire for a Long Time. and the Amount Involved is More Than the City Can Afford to Lose.

The indications now are that the proceed ings commenced by the city against the motor company to recover $5,000 for the payment of the paying at the intersections of the streets will be pushed to completion in the near future. The case was commenced as long ago as December 29, 1890, and ever since that time has been dragging along, some pretext or other always being urged whenever any ques tions were asked as to the reason for the delay. Mayor Macrae lays the blame on Judge McGee, and claims that the case would have been tried long ago had it not been that the judge was too busy with Chautauqua work aud his congressional campaign to give the case a hearing. Now, however, the 16th of this month is the date set for the trial, and City Attorney Hazelton says that so far as

be no further delay. The city is not in any condition to throw away or give away that $5,000, and the hope is expressed that no further opportunity be given the motor company to postpone the trial.

Real Estate Market Opens. It is evident that there are some who have confidence in the increasing value of Council Bluffs realty as profitable investments, as indicated by the fact that one firm alone, that of Greenshields, Nicholson & Co., during the past week have sold one residence in Wilson ter race, the Ratliff residence on Seventh street, a residence on Third street and Fifteenth avenue, 31 acres of vineyard on Elliott street, two lots in Pierce's addition; also an $8,000 residence in Kountz Place. Pneumonia.

At no time in the history of the country has pneumonia been so prevalent as during the winter months of the last two years. In times past a common cold was not considcred at all serious, but of late years the great tendency of colds to result in pneumo-nia has made people apprehensive. The trouble is that colds are not always properly treated. No preparation containing opium, wild cherry or chloroform should be used, as they have a tendency to dry up a cold, where-as it should be loosened and the lungs relieved. It has been observed that when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used the cold never results in pneumonia. The reason is that this remody stimulates the mucous membrane which lines the throat and lungs to a healthy action, causes a free expectora-tion, throwing off the poisonous matter, and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by druggists.

A dreaded form of catarrh is seen in cases when the ears discharge pus and the hearing is impaired. Such cases are impossible of cure, as usually treated. It requires faulties methods and exceeding care to heal the ulcers, check the flow of matter and restore the hear-ing. This notable and happy result was at-tained, however, in the case of Mr. Earl Co-burn, with Ackerman Bros. & Heintz, and liv-miz at 20% Bristol street, with his father, J. W. Will Build a Depot.

The officials of the Burlington road have decided to erect a depot in the spring to take the place of the miserable shed that has done duty for so many years in the capacity of a depot. The plans have been drawn and submitted to the state railway commissioners for approval, the officials pro ferring to do so rather than to have any complications arise in the future. Accord ing to the plans it will be built of brick and stone and will be 100x30 feet in size.

Carl Burhorn, successor to E. Burhorn, has the only new jewelry stock in city. Many holiday novelties.

Health Record.

The report of City Physician Jennings for the month of December shows the total number of deaths to have been only sixteen. Of this number four were under 1 year of age, and seven over 60. There were no deaths of persons between the ages of 1 and There were seven cases of con-iseases reported. The record is 30 years. tagious diseases reported. The record is considered an exceptionally good one, even for Council Bluffs.

"How do you know it was brandy?" asked Mr. Hall, who had been knocked completely off his feet by the damaging testimony the witness. "I asked for brandy," said the witness "and got just what I asked for, because I know brandy when I taste it." "Now," said the World-Herald lawyer, are you sure it wasn't whitethorn? "Not much," replied the witness, "it was brandy and good brandy, too." Everybody laughed at Mr. Hall's attempt to crawl out of the trap by calling brandy whitethorm' Then the witness was asked if he had not gone into the drug store and claimed to be sick and made a plea for a drink for the stomach's sake. He denied making any such statements and further stated that no questions were asked. When the price was produced the drink was handed out.

Acted Like a Bartender. Another witness followed and swore that he had seen liquor sold by the drink at Stuht's on Sunday, Dec 18, 1892. "Is the clerk in charge a registered phar-macist?" asked Mr. Hall.

"I don't-known." replied the witness, "he reted more like a bartender." P. R. Sullivan was sworn and testified that he had known Stuht for some time. On December 23 he purchased from the clerk a drink of whiskey and drank it on the prem ises. He did not claim to be either cold o sick and his name was not taken.

The prosecution then rested and Mr. Stuht was placed on the stand. In reply to questions he stated that he had advertised in the World-Herald because he believed it to be the paper having the largest circula-tion. He admitted that he had not inquired into the matter at all and had not ascer-tained which paper had the largest circulation. He also said he had not paid any at-tention to the controversy between the two newspapers. The witness then told about about purchasing the drug store and claimed that his clerk had full charge of the place. He denied that liquor had been sold and declared that the tom and jerry was plain, innocent beef tea. This didn't go with Mr. Simeral, especially in face of the evidence introduced, and Mr. Stuht admitted under pressure that there "was a mixture of eggs and sugar there." Then Mr. Stuht got wound up and talked. The more he talked the more he put his foot in it.

"And sometimes, you know," said the wit-ness, "people come up from the depot and are cold or sick, and if they ask for a drink f liquor we give it to them. We do take their names.". He admitted that he had been notified that his application was to be protested on the grounds that it it was illegal. Then he related what he claimed was a conversation between himself and Clerk Brownlee and the board. Mr. Stuht said that he had asked the clerk what paper to place his advertise ment in and he had been informed that h Made must use his own judgment. Mr. Brownlee was called and asked if Mr. Stuht had in-Tablets. quired what paper he was to advertise in. "I don't remember any such conversation,"

"Didn't you state to him that he must use his own judgment?" asked Mr. Hall of the was the answer. witness

"I think not. I had no conversation with Stuht at all, and when he was up here to get his application blanks he said nothing about advertising at all. When asked 1 always tell the applicants the decision of the board in the case regarding the two papers, and that is as far as I go." This concluded the afternoon session.

Sold Drinks Frequently.

In the evening the case was taken up again and Mr. Bell, the clerk at Mr. Stuht's store testified first that he was a licensed druggist and had full charge of the store. He had known Sullivan for about fifteen years and the day he bought whiskey the witness said he supposed Sullivan was sick or cold and needed a stimulant. The witness was and needed a stimulant. The witness was then asked if he had a druggist's permit for the store during 1893 and said that he had no license last year, but admitted selling liquor without that necessary document. At this juncture a witness was called who testified that on December 94 he saw two or threa men dechy. December 24 he saw two or three men drink-ing tom and jerry in Stuht's place. One of the men remarked that the tom and jerry was the best in town and so witness took a
